READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:
Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.
If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

PROCUREMENT POLICY BOARD RULES

The Rules may also be accessed on the City Website, http://NYC.GOV.Selltonyc

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

Honorable Members of the City Planning Commission Ladies and Gentlemen:

This certificate amends my previous certificate submitted to you, dated May 4, 2006. I hereby certify that, as of this date, in my opinion, the City of New York (the "City") and the New York City Municipal Water Finance Authority may soundly issue debt and expend reserves to finance total capital expenditures of the City for fiscal year 2007 and the ensuing three fiscal years, in maximum annual amounts as set forth below:

2007	$5,561 Million
2008	7,020 Million
2009	7,470 Million
2010	7,140 Million

Certain water and sewer capital expenditures are herein assumed to be financed from the proceeds of the sale of bonds by the New York City Municipal Water Finance Authority. Amounts of expenditures to be so financed have been included in the total amounts listed above and are estimated to be as follows in fiscal years 2007 - 2010:

2007	$1,685 Million
2008	1,636 Million
2009	1,718 Million
2010	1,511 Million

I further certify that, as of this date, in my opinion, the City may newly appropriate in the Capital Budget for fiscal year 2007, and may include in the capital program for the ensuing three fiscal years, amounts to be funded by City debt or, with respect to water and sewer projects, debt of the New York City Municipal Water Finance Authority, not to exceed the following in fiscal years 2007 - 2010:

2007	$9,667 Million
2008	6,433 Million
2009	5,515 Million
2010	3,741 Million

Sincerely,

Michael R. Bloomberg
Mayor

Communication from the Office of Management & Budget – Pursuant to Section 107(b) of the New York City Charter, transfer City funds between various agencies in Fiscal Year 2006 to implement changes to the City's expense budget. (MN - 7)

June 29, 2006

TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Dear Council Members:

In accordance with Section 107(b) of the New York City Charter, I request your approval to transfer City funds between various agencies in fiscal year 2006 to implement changes to the City's expense budget.

This modification - MN 7 - will implement expense budget changes, which were reflected in the City's Executive Financial Plan modification, as well as changes recognized as part of the FY 2007 Adoption process.

This modification reduces the General Reserve in the Miscellaneous Budget by $60.0 million and provides for an increase of $417.7 million to the Budget Stabilization Account in the City's Debt Service budget.

Appendix A details the State, Federal and other funds impacted by these changes.

Your approval of modification - MN 7 - is respectfully requested.

Yours truly,

Mark Page

Communication from the Office of Management & Budget – Pursuant to Section 107(e) of the New York City Charter, appropriate new revenues of $657.6 million in Fiscal Year 2006. (MN - 8)

June 29, 2006

TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Dear Council Members:

In accordance with Section 107(e) of the New York City Charter, I seek your approval to appropriate new revenues of $657.6 million in fiscal year 2006.

The $657.6 million of new revenues results from forecasted increases in tax revenues of $703.2 million and miscellaneous revenues of $189.4 million offset by a reduction of $235.0 million resulting from an increase in the Reserve for Disallowances.

This modification - MN 8 - provides for prepayments of $546.5 million, ($224.8 million to the City's Library Systems, $247.8 million to the Transit Authority and MTA, and $73.9 million of Lease Purchase Debt Service) and provides for an increase to the Budget Stabilization Account in the City's Debt Service budget of $111.1 million.

Your approval of modification MN - 8 is respectfully requested.

Yours truly,

Mark Page

Reports of the Committee on Civil Service and Labor

Report for Int. No. 350-A

Report of the Committee on Civil Service and Labor in favor of approving and adopting, as amended, a Local Law to amend the New York city charter, the administrative code of the city of New York and local law number 58 for the year 1996, relating to performance by the police department of certain functions previously performed by the department of transportation, in relation to authorizing employees of the police department to perform parking enforcement functions.

The Committee on Civil Service and Labor to which was referred on May 24, 2006 (Minutes, page 2244) the annexed amended proposed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

On June 22, 2006, the Committee on Civil Service and Labor, chaired by Council Member Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr., will hold a hearing to consider Proposed Int. No. 350-A. A previous hearing was held for this Proposed Int. on June 22, 2006.

BACKGROUND

Currently, New York City Traffic Rules and Regulations and the New York State Vehicle and Traffic Law are enforced primarily through the New York City Police Department's (NYPD) Parking Enforcement District and the Department of Transportation's (DOT) Parking Control Unit (PCU), which enforces on-street violations and off-street violations found in municipal parking facilities. Previously, Local Law No 58 for the year 1996 transferred employees who performed traffic enforcement functions from the PCU to the NYPD. This legislation would transfer the remaining DOT PCU personnel to the NYPD, thereby creating one enforcement entity for such functions. According to the Sponsor's Memorandum in Support (MIS), this centralization will result in more effective and efficient enforcement of parking laws and would be a critical element in the effort to increase traffic flow and reduce congestion throughout the City. The centralization would also permit the NYPD to enhance the training, coordination and deployment of summons enforcement personnel.

PROPOSED INT. NO. 350-A

Section 1 of Proposed Int. No. 350-A would amend subdivision b of section 435 of the New York City Charter, as added by local law number 58 of 1996, by deleting references to specific classified civil service titles. According to the MIS, this reference is no longer necessary, since the transfer authorized by Local Law No. 58 is complete and NYPD employees perform both traffic enforcement and parking functions.

Section 2 of Proposed Int. No. 350-A would amend Administrative Code Section 14-118.2 to authorize NYPD civilian employees to perform parking enforcement duties.

Section 3 of the bill would amend section 3 of local law No. 58 for the year 1996 in order to conform it to the amendments made by Proposed Int. No. 350-A. Such section would authorize the transfer of DOT Parking Control Specialists and Associate Parking Control Specialists to the NYPD.

Section 4 of Proposed Int. No. 350-A would conform to the amendments made by the proposed legislation. Such legislation would provide that transferred employees to the NYPD would not need to take civil service examinations to continue performing their functions, and that employees having disciplinary charges pending at the time of transfer would not be transferred to the NYPD until such charges are resolved.

Section 5 of Proposed Int. No. 350-A would provide that transferred employees would not lose existing rights and remedies due to the enactment of the proposed legislation.

Section 6 of Proposed Int. No. 350-A would provide that no court or administrative proceedings pending at the time of the enactment of this legislation would be affected by its enactment and that such proceedings may be assigned to the NYPD.

Finally, Section 7 of Proposed Int. No. 350-A would provide that this local law shall take effect on July 2, 2006 or as soon as practicable.

§3. Section 3 of local law number 58 for the year 1996 is amended to read as follows:

§3. [(b) Notwithstanding subdivision a of this section, officers and employees of the department of transportation classified in the parking control specialist series shall not be transferred pursuant to this local law.]

§4. In order to effectuate the provisions of subdivision a of section 14-118.2 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by section 2 of this local law, officers and employees in the classified city civil service who are engaged in the performance of the functions, powers or duties described in such section shall be transferred to the police department without further examination or qualification, and shall retain their respective civil service classifications and civil service status; provided, however, that employees who are subject to pending disciplinary charges on the date of the functional transfer, or against whom a disciplinary penalty has been assessed but not yet served or paid on or prior to such date, may be retained in the employment of the department of transportation until the resolution of the adjudicative or administrative proceedings and until any outstanding disciplinary penalty has been served or paid.

§5. No existing right or remedy of any character to the city shall be lost or impaired or affected by reason of the enactment of this local law.

§7. This local law shall take effect July 2, 2006, or as soon as practicable thereafter as a transfer of functions may be effectuated pursuant to this local law and subdivision 2 of section 70 of the civil service law; provided, however, that any or all actions necessary to effectuate such transfer may be taken prior to such effective date.

At this point, the Speaker (Council Member Quinn) announced that the following items have been preconsidered by the Committee on Civil Service and Labor and have been favorably reported for adoption.

Report for Int. No. 385

Report of the Committee on Civil Service and Labor in favor of approving and adopting, a Local Law to amend the New York City charter and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to titles and procedures of the office of chief medical examiner.

The Committee on Civil Service and Labor to which was referred on June 29, 2006 the annexed proposed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

On June 29, 2006, the Committee on Civil Service and Labor, chaired by Council Member Joseph P. Addabbo, Jr., will hold a hearing to consider a Preconsidered Int. No., which would amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to titles and procedures of the Office of Chief Medical Examiner.

BACKGROUND

According to the Sponsor's Memorandum in Support (MIS), this Preconsidered Int. No. would amend sections of the New York City Charter and the Administrative Code to eliminate obsolete employment titles such as "associate medical examiner," "assistant medical examiners," and "junior medical examiner." The MIS states that the administrative code and the Charter should reflect the current titles to the extent practicable.

The Preconsidered Int. No. would also add lay medical investigators to the list of people authorized to take charge of a dead body and investigate the essential facts of a death. Lay medical investigators are either physician assistants or nurse practitioners duly licensed to practice in New York State. According to the MIS, the use of lay medical investigators in addition to medical examiners and medical investigators, assures timely and complete investigations into the cause of a death.

Preconsidered Int. No. would amend the Administrative Code to clarify that the person investigating the circumstances surrounding a death need not "reduce" the facts to writing during his or her investigation. The MIS states that facts relating to an investigation may be recorded and not written, since an investigation may involve photographs, and some facts may develop after a body has been removed to the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner.

The MIS also notes that the Preconsidered Int. No. would clarify that while a lay medical investigator may take charge of a dead body and perform an investigation, it will be either the chief medical examiner, deputy chief medical examiner, medical examiner or medical investigator who will certify the cause of death. Furthermore, the Preconsidered legislation would provide that only the chief medical examiner, deputy chief medical examiner or medical examiner will decide whether or not an autopsy needs to be performed.

In 1997, section 17-203 of the Administrative Code was amended to eliminate the requirement, applicable in circumstances other than cremation, that two medical examiners be present during an autopsy where there is reason to suspect a homicide. According to the Sponsor's MIS, due to modern technology, the presence of two medical examiners is not necessary to conduct an autopsy where there is reason to suspect a homicide.

PRECONSIDERED INT. NO. 385

Section 1 of Preconsidered Int. No. 385 would amend subdivision c of section 557 of the New York City Charter, as amended by local law number 59 of 1996, by deleting references to the employment titles of assistant medical examiners, junior medical examiners and associate medical examiners.

Section 2 of Preconsidered Int. No. 385 would amend subdivision f of section 557 of the New York City Charter, as amended by a vote of the electors at a general election held on November 7, 1989, by changing the term "casualty" to "accident."

Section 3 of Preconsidered Int. No. 385 would amend subdivision a of section 17-202 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York to permit a lay medical investigator to take charge of a dead body and investigate the essential facts concerning the circumstances of a death. The Preconsidered legislation would also clarify that investigation reports need not be completed at the premises where the death occurred and facts surrounding the circumstances of a death need not be in writing. This section would also eliminate the reference to certain employment titles, consistent with section 1 of this legislation.

Section 4 of Preconsidered Int. No. 385 would amend Administrative Code Section 17-203, as amended by local law 95 for the year 1997, to provide that while a lay medical investigator may take charge of the dead body and perform an investigation, it would be the chief medical examiner, deputy chief medical examiner, medical examiner or medical investigator who will certify the cause of a death and only the chief medical examiner, deputy chief medical examiner or medical examiner would decide whether or not an autopsy needs to be performed. This section would also provide that a medical examiner performing an autopsy need not write or dictate all findings at the time of the autopsy.

Section 5 of Preconsidered Int. No. 385 would amend Administrative Code Section 17-204 to provide that a medical examiner performing an autopsy need not write or dictate all findings at the time of the autopsy and eliminates the requirement that two medical examiners must be present during an autopsy where there is reason to suspect a homicide. This section would also eliminate certain employment titles to comport with other sections of this legislation.

Section 6 of Preconsidered Int. No. 385 would provide that this local law shall take effect immediately.

Reports of the Committee on Finance

At this point, the Speaker (Council Member Quinn) announced that the following items have been preconsidered by the Committee on Finance and have been favorably reported for adoption.

Report for Int. No. 384

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving and adopting, a Local Law to amend local law number 2 for the year 2005, in relation to film production tax credits.

The Committee on Finance to which was referred on June 29, 2006 the annexed proposed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

Today, the Finance Committee, chaired by Council Member David Weprin, will hold a hearing on Preconsidered Int. No. 384, a proposed local law that would increase the aggregate amount of allowable New York City Film Production Tax credits that can be claimed during the calendar year from $12.5 to $30 million in calendar years 2006 through 2011. This proposed local law would also extend the New York City Film Production Credit beyond its current sunset on August 20, 2008, until December 31, 2011.

The proposed local law would take effect immediately and would sunset on January 1, 2012.

BACKGROUND

On August 20, 2004, New York State enacted a law providing a State "Empire State Film Production Credit," and authorizing the City to provide a film production credit as well (the "State Law").[1] Generally speaking, the State credit is a refundable credit equal to 10% of the below-the-line costs incurred in the production of a film or television show available to production companies and partners and applied against State Corporation Tax and Personal Income Tax. To qualify, at least 75% of the production's studio expenses (excluding post production costs) must occur at "qualified production facilities" within New York State.[2]

The State credits are only allowed for the taxable year in which production is completed and the aggregate amount of the State credits for each tax year (under both the State Corporation Tax and the Personal Income Tax) is capped at $25 million. If applications are received for any tax year in excess of that amount, the excess will be treated as having been applied for on the first day of the next tax year. Pursuant to the State Law, the State credit would sunset on August 20, 2008.

AUTHORIZATION FOR THE CITY FILM PRODUCTION TAX CREDIT

The State Law, as originally enacted, also authorized New York City to adopt and amend local laws providing a "substantially identical" credit against its General Corporation Tax (GCT) and City Personal Income Tax (City PIT). In order to apply to the City's Unincorporated Business Tax (City UBT), the State Legislature adopted a subsequent amendment to extend the City Film Production Tax Credit to unincorporated businesses.[3] The City credit is equal to 5% of the "qualified production costs" and the aggregate amount of City credits cannot exceed $12.5 million in any calendar year. Identical to the State credit, if applications are received for any tax year in excess of that amount, the excess will be treated as having been applied for on the first day of the next tax year.

LOCAL LAW 2 OF 2005

Local law 2 of 2005 amended Sections 11-503 and 11-604 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York to provide a City Film Production Tax Credit against the GCT and the City UBT. Pursuant to Local Law 2 of 2005, the City tax credit is a refundable credit equal to 5% of "qualified production costs" incurred in the production of a "qualified film" (defined as a film or television show with the same exceptions contained in the definition for purposes of the State credit) as long as at least 75% of the production's studio expenses (excluding post production costs) occur at "qualified production facilities" within the City.

In accordance with the part of the State Law authorizing the City credit, the aggregate amount of City credits cannot exceed $12.5 million in any calendar year, and if applications are received for any tax year in excess of that amount, the excess will be treated as having been applied for on the first day of the next tax year.

The local law applied to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005 and would sunset on August 20, 2008 with the sunset of the State Law authorizing the City credit.

SENATE 6460C AND ASSEMBLY BILL 9560B ("FY07 Executive Budget Bill")

On April 26, 2006, the State Legislature in its 2007 Executive Budget Bill increased the aggregate amount of allowable City and State film tax credits and extended the credit to January 1, 2012. Specifically, Part Y of the 2007 Executive Budget Bill increased the aggregate amount of allowable Empire State Film Tax credits from $25 million to $60 million for calendar years 2006 through 2011 and authorized the City to increase the aggregate amounts of allowable Film Production Tax Credits from $12.5 million to $30 million for calendar years 2006 through 2011.

PRECONSIDERED INT. NO. 384

This Preconsidered Int. No. would amend Local Law 2 of 2005 to increase the aggregate amount of allowable City Film Production Tax Credits in accordance with Part Y of the 2007 Executive Budget Bill. For calendar years 2006 through 2011, the aggregate amount of tax credits allowed pursuant to subdivision (m) of section 11-503 of the administrative code of the city of New York and subdivision twenty of section 11-604 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York shall be $30 million.

The proposed local law would take effect immediately and would sunset on January 1, 2012 with the sunset of the State Law increasing the City credit.

Expenditures (-)	$0	$0	$0
Net	($17,500,000)	($17,500,000)	($30,000,000)

IMPACT ON REVENUES: The total amount of City credits (under the GCT and UBT) cannot exceed $30 million in any calendar year. If applications are received for any tax year in excess of that amount, the excess will be treated as having been applied for on the first day of the next tax year. As of April 2006 all credits allowable under current law were committed through the law's sunset on August 20, 2008. This legislation would make an additional $17.5 million available in credits during calendar years, 2006, through 2008, and an additional $30 million available in calendar years 2009 to 2011. There is considerable time between application for the credit, the completion of the film, the issuance of the credit and use of the credit to offset tax liabilities. So credits committed in 2007 may not actually be used by the taxpayer till 2008 or 2009. Given these lags, the Fiscal 2007 and Fiscal 2008 estimates represent the upper limits of revenue reductions from the credit in those years. Actual reductions are likely to be significantly lower.

IMPACT ON EXPENDITURES: There would be no impact on expenditures resulting from the enactment of this legislation.

NEW YORK, N.Y. 10007

Pursuant to authority vested in me by section twenty of the Municipal Home Rule and by section thirty-six of the New York City Charter, I hereby certify to the necessity for the immediate passage of a local law, entitled:

A LOCAL LAW

To amend local law number 2 for the year 2005, in relation to film production tax credits.

Given under my hand and seal this 28th day of June, 2006 at City Hall in the City of New York

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

On motion of the Speaker (Council Member Quinn) the foregoing matter was coupled as a General Order for the day (see ROLL CALL ON GENERAL ORDERS FOR THE DAY).

At this point, the Speaker (Council Member Quinn) announced that the following items have been preconsidered by the Committee on Finance and have been favorably reported for adoption.

Report for Int. No. 391

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving and adopting, a Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to a real property tax surcharge on certain class one properties.

The Committee on Finance to which was referred on June 29, 2006 the annexed proposed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

Today, the Finance Committee, chaired by Council Member David Weprin, will hold a hearing on Preconsidered Int. No. 391, a proposed local law that would decrease the real property tax surcharge on class one properties that provide rental income and are not the primary residence of the owner or parent or child of the owner from 25 percent to 0 percent.

BACKGROUND

Chapter 63 of the Laws of 2003, §1(G) authorizes the City to enact, by local law, an "absentee landlord surcharge" on the real property tax. This surcharge applies to class one properties (excluding vacant land) that provide rental income for an owner or owners but are not the primary residences of the owner(s), their parent(s), or their children. The legislation authorizes a surcharge on the real property taxes of such properties of up to 25 percent of the net real property taxes assessed on the properties (after any deduction for exemptions or abatements) for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2003, and up to 50 percent in fiscal years thereafter. The authorizing legislation provides that the property is deemed to be the owner's primary residence if such property would be eligible to receive School Tax Relief exemption (STAR), whether or not the owner has actually applied for, or is receiving, the STAR exemption. The State authorizing legislation also provides that proof of primary residence, the resident's relationship to the owner and the absence of rental income "shall be in the form of a certification as required by local law or the rules of the commissioner."

LOCAL LAW 47 OF YEAR 2003

On June 27, 2003, the Council adopted Int. No. 474, which became local law 47 for the year 2003, enacting the "absentee landlord surcharge" – as authorized by the State Legislation – on the real property tax. As originally passed, the legislation authorized a surcharge on the real property taxes of class one properties equal to 25 percent of the net real property taxes assessed on the properties (after any deduction for exemptions or abatements) beginning with the current fiscal year.

LOCAL LAW 6 OF 2004

On April 15, 2004, the Council adopted Int. No. 303, which became Local Law 6 for the year 2004. This local law postponed the enactment of the real property tax surcharge by amending the effective date of July 1, 2003 and making it effective July 1, 2006.

PRECONSIDERED INT. NO. 391

The proposed local law would decrease the absentee landlord surcharge from 25 percent to 0 percent of the net real property taxes assessed on the properties for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 2006.

The proposed local law would take effect immediately, except that if it shall have become law after July 1, 2006, it shall be retroactive and deemed to have been in full force and effect on July 1, 2006.

(For text of the bill, please see the Introduction and Readingo f Bills section printed in these Minutes.)

	Effective FY 07	FY Succeeding Effective FY 08	Full Fiscal Impact FY 07

IMPACT ON REVENUES: If the 25 percent surcharge were to go into effect in Fiscal 2007, the City would realize revenue ranging from $56 to $75 million. The estimates of class one absentee landlords range from 75,000 to more than 100,000. The Mayor's Fiscal 2007 Executive Budget did not include revenue from the surcharge in its estimates for Fiscal 2007, nor in the financial plan for Fiscal 2008 through 2010.

IMPACT ON EXPENDITURES: There would be no impact on expenditures resulting from the enactment of this legislation.

Report for M-203

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving a Communication from the Chancellor - Submitting Proposed 2006 Amendment to the 2005-2009 Five-Year Capital Plan.

The Committee on Finance to which was referred on June 13, 2006 (Minutes, page 2349) the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

Introduction. On June 13, 2006, The Council of the City of New York (the "Council") received an amendment to the Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 20052009 (the "Plan") submitted by the Chancellor of the New York City Public Schools (the "Chancellor"). In a communication to the Council, dated June 28, 2006, the Department of Education requested that the Council adopt the amendment to the Plan.

Section 2590-p of the State Education Law provides for the submission by the Chancellor to the Council of amendments to a Five Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan. In addition, a memorandum of understanding entered into at the time of the adoption of the Plan (the "MOU") provides, inter alia, for the submission of an annual amendment to the Council for approval. This resolution constitutes the Council's approval of the amendment to the Plan pursuant to both State Education Law and the provisions of the MOU relating to annual amendments.

Analysis. The State Education Law sets forth a planning process for repair, maintenance and construction work in the City's public school facilities. Section 2590-p of the Education Law requires the Chancellor to prepare five-year educational facilities capital plans ("five-year plans"). These five-year plans are required to break down the work proposed to be performed on the school facilities into categories called program elements and to provide cost estimates and start and completion dates for design and construction of projects.

Since the 2002 State School Governance Legislation brought the City School System under increased local control, section 2590-p requires the Council and the Mayor to approve the five-year plans. In addition, Section 2590-p provides for Council approval of amendments to the Plan.

On June 24, 2004, after extensive discussions and negotiations with the Department of Education, the Council approved the Plan. As a condition to Council approval of the Plan, the Council, the Chancellor and the Mayor also entered into a Memorandum of Understanding, effective June 24, 2004, which memorializes, inter alia the parties' intent to balance the need for specificity with regard to the projects to be undertaken in the Plan's out-years with the need for flexibility in the planning process. The MOU accomplishes this by providing for an annual amendment process as well as an amendment if there is a shortfall in State funding relied upon to finance the Plan.

Paragraph 1(a) of the MOU sets forth the requirement for the annual amendment to be submitted to the Council no later than March first of each year, which shall include for the ensuing fiscal year of the Plan, "each project, including but not limited to each project to be funded through each School Improvement and Restructuring Allocation, to be undertaken in such year, including siting and/or location of each project (by building, region or school district, as appropriate), cost estimates, start dates and completion dates, and any other information required by §2590-p for each project."

The Plan of $13.1 billion for FY2005-2009 was approved by the Council in June 2004 and became effective for Fiscal Year 2005. In addition to City funding, the Plan relied on a State contribution of $6.5 billion. In December 2005, the Department of Education released a 2006 Draft Amendment to the Plan, based on $13.1 billion in City and State funds. In order to reflect that the State had not yet provided its share of the $6.5 billion, the 2006 Draft Amendment was subsequently revised in February (the "February Amendment").

In April 2006, the State enacted legislation to provide the full $6.5 billion and the February Amendment was redrafted to reflect a fully-funded Plan (the " Amendment"). On May 25, 2006, the Chancellor delivered the Amendment to Council Finance. The Amendment was submitted by the Chancellor and received by the Council on June 13, 2006. In a communication to the Council, dated June 28, 2006, the Department of Education requested that the Council adopt the Amendment.

Description of Above-captioned Resolution. In the above-captioned resolution, the Council would approve the 2006 annual amendment to the Plan pursuant to §2590-p of the State Education Law, and Paragraph (1)(a) of the MOU providing for annual amendments.

In connection herewith, Council Member Weprin offered the following resolution:

Res. No. 408

Resolution approving, pursuant to Section 2590-P of the State Education Law and Paragraph(1)(a) of the Memorandum Of Understanding dated June 24, 2004 between the Mayor, the Speaker and the Chancellor, the Amendment to the Five Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 2005 – 2009 submitted by the Chancellor and received by the Council on June 13, 2006.

By Council Member Weprin

Whereas, State Education Law Section 2590-p provides for the development and approval, every five years, of a five-year educational facilities capital plan and amendments thereto; and

Whereas, On June 24, 2004, after extensive discussions and negotiations with the Department of Education over the content and specifics of the proposed and final proposed Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan, the Council approved the current Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for the period July 1, 2004 until June 31, 2009 pursuant to Section 2590-p of the Education Law (the five-year educational facilities capital plan approved by the Council on June 24, 2004 shall be hereinafter referred to as the "Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 2005-2009"); and

Whereas, As a condition to Council approval of such Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 2005-2009, the Council, the Chancellor and the Mayor also entered into a Memorandum of Understanding, effective June 24, 2004, which memorializes, inter alia the parties' intent to balance the need for specificity with regard to the projects to be undertaken in the Plan's out-years with the need for flexibility in the planning process required by changing circumstances by providing for amendments to the Five Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan (hereinafter "Memorandum of Understanding") and

Whereas, Paragraph 1(a) of such Memorandum of Understanding requires an annual amendment to be submitted to the Council no later than March first of each year, which shall include for the ensuing fiscal year of the Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 2005-2009, "each project, including but not limited to each project to be funded through each School Improvement and Restructuring Allocation, to be undertaken in such year, including siting and/or location of each project (by building, region or school district, as appropriate), cost estimates, start dates and completion dates, and any other information required by §2590-p for each project"; and

Whereas, In December 2005, the Department of Education released a 2006 Draft Amendment which was based on the $13.1 billion funding level (relying on $6.5 billion in State funds) set forth in the Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 2005-2009; and

Whereas, The 2006 Draft Amendment was subsequently revised in February to reflect that the State had not yet provided any funds for Fiscal Year 2006 (the "February Amendment"); and

Whereas, In April 2006, the State, however, enacted legislation to provide the full $6.5 billion in State funding that the Department of Education's Five-Year Capital Plan for 2005-2009 requires; and

Whereas, In May 2006, the February Amendment was redrafted to reflect a fully-funded Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 2005-2009 (the "Amendment to the Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 2005-2009") and delivered to Council Finance; and

Whereas, The Amendment to the Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 2005-2009 was submitted by the Chancellor and received by the Council on June 13, 2006; and

Whereas, In a communication to the Council, dated June 28, 2006, the Department of Education requested that the Council adopt the Amendment to the Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 2005-2009; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of The City of New York hereby approves, pursuant to section 2590-p of the State Education Law and paragraph (1)(a) of the Memorandum of Understanding dated June 24, 2004 between the Mayor, the Speaker and the Chancellor, the Amendment to the Five-Year Educational Facilities Capital Plan for 2005-2009 submitted by the Chancellor and received by the Council on June 13, 2006.

At this point, the Speaker (Council Member Quinn) announced that the following items have been preconsidered by the Committee on Finance and have been favorably reported for adoption.

Report for M-208

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving a Communication from the Office of Management & Budget – Pursuant to Section 107(b) of the New York City Charter, transferring City funds between various agencies in Fiscal Year 2006 to implement changes to the City's expense budget. (MN - 7)

The Committee on Finance to which was referred on June 29, 2006 the annexed resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

Introduction. At a meeting of the Committee on Finance of the City Council of the City of New York on June 29, 2006, the Committee on Finance received a communication, dated June 29, 2006 from the Office of Management and Budget of the Mayor of The City of New York, of a proposed request, (the "Modification"), to modify units of appropriation and transfer City funds between units of appropriation in the Fiscal 2006 Expense Budget (as defined below) pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter of the City of New York (the "Charter").

Analysis. The Council annually adopts the City's budget covering expenditures other than for capital projects (the "expense budget") pursuant to Section 254 of the Charter. On June 30, 2005, the Council adopted the expense budget for fiscal year 2006 (the "Fiscal 2006 Expense Budget"). This modification (MN-7) represents the transfer of funds within and between various agencies that will implement expense budget changes, which were reflected in the City's Executive Financial Plan modification in the amount of $833,521,245. This modification reduces the General Reserve in the Miscellaneous Budget by $60 million and provides for an increase of $417.7 million to the Budget Stabilization Account in the City's Debt Service budget. These funds are used to support some of the needs identified in the Executive Financial Plan and needs arising since then.

If the Mayor wishes to transfer part or all of any unit of appropriation to another unit of appropriation from one agency to another or such that the transfer results in any unit of appropriation being increased or decreased by the greater of five percent or $50,000, Section 107(b) of the Charter requires that the Mayor must first notify the Council of the proposed action. Within 30 days after the first stated meeting of the Council following receipt of such notice, the Council may disapprove such proposed action. If the Council fails to approve or disapprove such proposed action within such 30-day period, the proposed action becomes effective and the Mayor has the authority to make such transfer.

Description of Above-captioned Resolution. In the above-captioned resolution, the Council would approve the Modification pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter. Such resolution would take effect as of the date of adoption.

(The following is the Fiscal Impact Memo for M-208 & Res. No. 409:)

TO: Honorable Christine Quinn
Speaker

Honorable David I. Weprin
Chairman, Finance Committee

FROM: Staci Emanuel, Deputy Director-Expense
Finance Division

DATE: June 29, 2006

SUBJECT: A budget modification (MN-7) for Fiscal Year 2006 to transfer funds between various agencies.

INITIATION: By letter dated June 29, 2006, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget submitted to the Council pursuant to section 107(b) of the New York City Charter a request for approval to transfer funds totaling $833,521,245 within and between various City agencies.

BACKGROUND: This modification (MN-7) implements expense budget appropriations that were reflected in the City's Executive Financial Plan and reflects changes requested by the City Council.

FISCAL IMPACT: This modification represents the transfer of funds within and between agencies, reduces the General Reserve in the Miscellaneous Budget by $60 million and increases the Budget Stabilization Account in the City's Debt Service budget by $417.7 million. The net effect of this modification is zero.

(For related text of MN-7's Appendix A, please see Appendix A attachment to M-208 which is printed in the Communication from City, County & Borough Offices section of these Minutes; for the main MN-7 numbers themselves, please see Exhibit A to coupled Resolution No. 409 below.)

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

In connection herewith, Council Member Weprin offered the following resolution:

Res. No. 409

Resolution approving the Modification (MN-7) of Units of Appropriation and the Transfer of City Funds between agencies proposed by the Mayor pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter of the City of New York.

By Council Member Weprin.

Whereas, at a meeting of the Committee on Finance of the City Council of the City of New York (the "City Council") on June 29, 2006 the Committee on Finance received a communication, dated June 29, 2006, from the Office of Management and Budget of the Mayor of The City of New York (the "Mayor"), of a proposed request, attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Modification"), to modify units of appropriation and transfer City funds in the amount of $833,521,245 between various agencies in the Fiscal Year 2006 expense budget, as adopted by the Council on June 30, 2005, pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter of the City of New York (the "Charter"); and

Whereas, pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter, the City Council has thirty (30) days after the first stated meeting of the City Council following such receipt within which to act upon the Modification;

NOW, THEREFORE, The Council of The City of New York hereby resolves as follows

1. Approval of Modification. The City Council hereby approves, pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter, the actions proposed by the Mayor as set forth in the Modification,

2. Effective Date. This resolution shall take effect as of the date hereof.

ATTACHMENT: Exhibit A

June 29, 2006

TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Dear Council Members:

In accordance with Section 107(b) of the New York City Charter, I request your approval to transfer City funds between various agencies in fiscal year 2006 to implement changes to the City's expense budget.

This modification - MN 7 - will implement expense budget changes, which were reflected in the City's Executive Financial Plan modification, as well as changes recognized as part of the FY 2007 Adoption process.

This modification reduces the General Reserve in the Miscellaneous Budget by $60.0 million and provides for an increase of $417.7 million to the Budget Stabilization Account in the City's Debt Service budget.

Appendix A details the State, Federal and other funds impacted by these changes.

Your approval of modification - MN 7 - is respectfully requested.

Yours truly,

Mark Page

ODDO, Committee on Land Use, June 29, 2006.

On motion of the Speaker (Council Member Quinn) the foregoing matter was coupled as a General Order for the day (see ROLL CALL ON GENERAL ORDERS FOR THE DAY).

At this point, the Speaker (Council Member Quinn) announced that the following items have been preconsidered by the Committee on Finance and have been favorably reported for adoption.

Report for M-209

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving a Communication from the Office of Management & Budget submitted pursuant to Section 107(e) of the New York City Charter, appropriating new revenues of $657.6 million in Fiscal Year 2006. (MN - 8)

The Committee on Finance to which was referred on June 29, 2006 the annexed resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

Introduction. At the meeting of the Committee on Finance of the City Council on June 29th, 2006, the Council received a communication, from the Office of Management and Budget of the Mayor, dated June 29th, 2006, of a proposed request to modify, pursuant to Section 107(e) of the Charter of the City of New York, the Fiscal 2006 Expense Budget, and the revenue estimate related thereto prepared by the Mayor as of June 30, 2005 and modified on December 19th 2005 and April 5th 2006.

Analysis. The Council annually adopts the City's budget covering expenditures pursuant to Section 254 of the Charter. On June 30, 2005, the Council adopted the expense budget for fiscal year 2006 (the "Fiscal 2006 Expense Budget"). On June 30, 2005, the Mayor submitted to the Council a revenue estimate related to the Fiscal 2006 Expense Budget. Circumstances have changed since the Council adopted the Fiscal 2006 Expense Budget.

Section 107(e) provides one mechanism for the Mayor and the Council to amend the expense budget and related revenue estimate to reflect changes in circumstances that occur after adoption of a budget. Section 107(e) permits the modification of the budget in order to create new units of appropriation, to appropriate new revenues from any source other than categorical federal, state and private funding or to use previously unappropriated funds received from any source.

Discussion of Above-captioned Resolution. The above-captioned resolution would authorize the modifications to the Fiscal 2006 Expense Budget and related revenue estimate requested in the Communication.

This modification (MN-8) seeks to increase revenues in the net amount of $657,664,257 for Fiscal 2006. This amount includes an additional $703.2 million in tax revenues, offset by a net decrease in non-tax revenues of $45.6 million.

The increase in tax revenue is a result of the combination of strong collections of real estate related tax revenue sources, as well as personal income tax and business tax collections exceeding expectations. Non-tax revenue changes include increases in interest income, increases in rental income and increases in ECB fine revenue. Increases in miscellaneous revenue sources of $189 million are offset by an increase in the reserve for grant disallowances of $235 million.

This revenue modification appropriates $111.1 million to the Budget Stabilization Account in the Debt Service Budget for the purposes of prepaying general obligation debt service, prepays $73.9 million in lease purchase debt service, prepays $224.8 million to the City's Library Systems and prepays $247 million in transit Authority and MTA Fiscal 2007 expenses.

The resolution would also direct the City Clerk to forward a certified copy thereof to the Mayor and the Comptroller so that Mayor, the Comptroller and the City Clerk may certify the Fiscal 2006 Expense Budget as amended thereby as the budget for the remainder of the fiscal year. The above-captioned resolution would take effect as of the date adopted.

(The following is the Fiscal Impact Memo for M-209 & Res. No. 410:)

TO: Honorable Christine Quinn
Speaker

Honorable David Weprin
Chairman, Finance Committee

FROM: Pablo Zangerle
Deputy Director, Finance Division

DATE: June 29, 2006

SUBJECT: A Preconsidered Budget Modification (MN-8) for Fiscal 2006 that will recognize a net increase in revenues of $657,664,257

INITIATION: By letter dated June 29, 2006, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget submitted to the Council pursuant to section 107(e) of the New York City Charter a request to increase revenues by $657,664,257.

BACKGROUND: This modification (MN-8) seeks to increase revenues in the net amount of $657,664,257 for Fiscal 2006. This amount includes an additional $703.2 million in tax revenues and an increase of $189.4 million in miscellaneous revenue sources. These increases are offset by an increase in the Fiscal 2006 allocation to the reserve for grant disallowances of $235 million.

This revenue modification appropriates $111.1 billion to the Budget Stabilization Account in the Debt Service Budget for the purposes of prepaying general obligation debt service, prepays $73.9 million in lease purchase debt service, prepays $224.8 million to the City's Library Systems and prepays $247.8 million in transit Authority and MTA Fiscal 2007 expenses.

FISCAL IMPACT: This modification represents a net increase in the Fiscal 2006 budget of $657,664,257.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

In connection herewith, Council Member Weprin offered the following resolution:

Res. No. 410

Resolution approving a modification pursuant to Section 107(e) of the Charter of the City of New York

By Council Member Weprin

Whereas, on June 29th, 2006, the Committee on Finance of the City Council received a communication, dated June 29th, 2006, from the Mayor's Office of Management and Budget, of a proposed request to recognize a net increase in revenue pursuant to Section 107(e) of the Charter of the City of New York, attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Request to Appropriate"); and

Whereas, Section 107(e) of the Charter requires the City Council and the Mayor to follow the procedures and required approvals pursuant to Sections 254, 255 and 256 of the Charter, without regard to the dates specified therein, in the case of the proposed appropriation of any new revenues and the creation of new units of appropriation; and

Whereas, Section 107(e) of the Charter requires that any request by the Mayor respecting an amendment of the budget that involves a increase in the budget shall be accompanied by a statement of the source of current revenues or other identifiable and currently available funds required for the payment of such additional amounts, attached hereto as Exhibit B (together with the Request to Appropriate, the "Revenue Modification");

NOW, THEREFORE, the Council of the City of New York hereby resolves as follows:

1. Approval of Modification. The City Council hereby approves the Revenue Modification pursuant to Section 107(e) of the Charter.

2. Further Actions. The City Council directs the City Clerk to forward a certified copy of this resolution to the Mayor and the Comptroller as soon as practicable so that the Mayor, the Comptroller and the City Clerk may certify the Fiscal 2006 Expense Budget as amended by this resolution as the budget for the remainder of the fiscal year.

3. Effective Date. This resolution shall take effect as of the date hereof.

TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Dear Council Members:

In accordance with Section 107(e) of the New York City Charter, I seek your approval to appropriate new revenues of $657.6 million in fiscal year 2006.

The $657.6 million of new revenues results from forecasted increases in tax revenues of $703.2 million and miscellaneous revenues of $189.4 million offset by a reduction of $235.0 million resulting from an increase in the Reserve for Disallowances.

This modification - MN 8 - provides for prepayments of $546.5 million, ($224.8 million to the City's Library Systems, $247.8 million to the Transit Authority and MTA, and $73.9 million of Lease Purchase Debt Service) and provides for an increase to the Budget Stabilization Account in the City's Debt Service budget of $111.1 million.

Your approval of modification MN - 8 is respectfully requested.

Yours truly,

Mark Page

Report for M-270

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving a resolution of the Council of the City of New York fixing the tax rate for the Fiscal Year 2007, adopted June 29, 2006 upon the recommendation of the Committee on Finance of the Council.

The Committee on Finance to which was referred on June 29, 2006 the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

Introduction. On May 4, 2006, the Mayor submitted the executive budget for Fiscal 2007 to the Council pursuant to Section 249 of the Charter. On the date hereof, the Council adopted the budget for Fiscal 2007 pursuant to Section 254 of the Charter (the "Fiscal 2007 Budget"). Pursuant to Section 1516 of the Charter, the Council must fix the annual real property tax rates immediately upon such approval of the Fiscal 2007 Budget. In the resolution, captioned above, fixing the real property tax rates for Fiscal 2007 (the "Tax Fixing Resolution"), the Council fixes the annual real property tax rates, as described in greater detail below, and authorizes the levy of real property taxes for Fiscal 2007.

Determining the Amount of the Real Property Tax Levy. In the Tax Fixing Resolution, the Council determines the amount of the real property tax levy for Fiscal 2007, pursuant to the provisions of Section 1516 of the Charter, in the following manner. (1) First, the Council acknowledges the amount of the Fiscal 2007 Budget to be $52,940,235,260, as set forth in the communication from the Mayor pursuant to Section 1515(a) of the Charter (the "Fiscal 2007 Budget Amount"). (2) The Council then acknowledges the estimate of the probable amount of all non-property tax revenues to be $39,968,031,260, as set forth in the communication from the Mayor pursuant to Section 1515(a) of the Charter (the "Fiscal 2007 Revenue Estimate"). (Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a description of the Fiscal 2007 Revenue Estimate, detailing all sources of revenues exclusive of real property taxes.) (3) Pursuant to Section 1516 of the Charter, the Council finally determines the net amount required to be raised by tax on real property to be $12,972,204,000, by subtracting the amount of the Fiscal 2007 Revenue Estimate from the Fiscal 2007 Budget Amount.

In order to achieve a real property tax yield of $12,972,204,000, however, due to provision for uncollectible taxes and refunds and collection of levies from prior years equal in the aggregate to $1,319,008,164, the Council determines that a real property tax levy of $14,291,212,164 is required. Such amount, levied at rates on the classes of real property as further described below will produce a balanced budget within generally accepted accounting principles for municipalities.

The Council also provides for the application of the real property tax levy (net of provision for uncollectible taxes and refunds and collection of levies from prior years) to (1) debt service not subject to the constitutional operating limit, (2) debt service subject to the constitutional operating limit and (3) the Fiscal 2007 Budget in excess of the amount of the Fiscal 2007 Revenue Estimate.

Authorizing and Fixing the Real Property Tax Rates. After having determined the amount of the real property tax levy, the Council authorizes and fixes the real property tax rates. On May 25, 2006, the Commissioner of the Department of Finance (the "Commissioner") delivered the certified assessment rolls for all real property assessable for taxation in the City in each borough thereof for Fiscal 2007 to the Council, pursuant to Section 1514 of the Charter (the "Fiscal 2007 Assessment Rolls"). On June 29, 2006, the Council adopted a resolution in which the Council computed and certified the current base proportion, the current percentage and the base percentage of each class of real property in the City for Fiscal 2007 pursuant to Section 1803-a (1), Real Property Tax Law (the "Current Base Proportion Resolution"). On June 29, 2006, pursuant to Section 1803-a, Real Property Tax Law, the Council adopted a resolution in which the Council adjusted the current base proportions of each class of real property in the City for Fiscal 2007, to reflect the additions to, and full or partial removal from, the Fiscal 2007 Assessment Rolls (the "Adjusted Base Proportion Resolution").

The following sections describe the determinations the Council must make before it fixes the real property tax rates and the process by which the Council fixes the real property tax rates.

Assessed Valuation Calculations. In the Tax Fixing Resolution, the Council sets out the assessed valuation calculations of taxable real property in the City by class within each borough of the City. Next, the Council sets out the assessed valuation (1) by class of real property for the purpose of taxation (exclusive of the assessed valuation of veterans' real property exempt under state law from tax for general purposes but subject to tax for school purposes) in each borough of the City and (2) by class of veterans' real property subject to tax for school purposes in each borough of the City.

Compliance with Constitutional Operating Limit Provisions. In the Tax Fixing Resolution, the Council also provides evidence of compliance with constitutional operating limit provisions. The Council determines that the amount to be levied by tax on real property for the Fiscal 2007 Budget does not exceed the limit imposed by Section 10, Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of New York, as amended, and Article 12-A, Real Property Tax Law (the "Operating Limit Provisions"). The Operating Limit Provisions require that the City not levy taxes on real property in any fiscal year in excess of an amount equal to a combined total of two and one-half percent (2 $^1/_2$ %) of the average full valuation of taxable real property, determined by taking the assessed valuations of taxable real property on the last completed assessment roll and the four (4) preceding assessment rolls of the City and applying thereto the special equalization ratio which such assessed valuations of each such roll bear to the full valuations as fixed and determined by the State Office of Real Property Services ("ORPS"), minus (i) the amount to be raised by tax on real property in such year for the payment of the interest on and the redemption of certificates of other evidence of indebtedness described in the Constitution and (ii) the aggregate amount of business improvement district charges exclusive of debt service.

Adjusted Base Proportions. The Tax Fixing Resolution sets forth the adjusted base proportions for Fiscal 2007, pursuant to the Adjusted Base Proportion Resolution, to be used in determining the Fiscal 2007 tax rates for the four classes of properties.

Tax Rates on Adjusted Base Proportions. Finally, in the Tax Fixing Resolution, the Council authorizes and fixes, pursuant to Section 1516 of the Charter, the rates of tax for Fiscal 2007 by class (1) upon each dollar of assessed valuation of real property subject to taxation for all purposes of, and within, the City, as fixed in cents and thousandths of a cent per dollar of assessed valuation, as follows:

All One-, Two- and Three-Family Residential Real Property	0.16590
All Other Residential Real Property	0.12891
Utility Real Property	0.11808
All Other Real Property	0.10792

and (2) upon each dollar of assessed valuation of veterans' real property exempt under state law from tax for general purposes but subject to tax for school purposes of, and within, the City, as fixed in cents and thousandths of a cent per dollar of assessed valuation, as follows:

All One-, Two- and Three-Family Residential Real Property	0.09451
All Other Residential Real Property	0.07376
Utility Real Property	0.00000
All Other Real Property	0.06183

Authorization of the Levy of Property Taxes for Fiscal Year 2007. The Council authorizes and directs the Commissioner, pursuant to Section 1517 of the Charter, to set down in the Fiscal 2007 Assessment Rolls, opposite to the several sums set down as the valuation of real property, the respective sums to be paid as a tax thereon and add and set down the aggregate valuations of real property in the boroughs of the City and send a certificate of such aggregate valuation in each such borough to the State Comptroller. The Tax Fixing Resolution then requires the City Clerk to procure the proper warrants, in the form attached thereto, such warrants to be signed by the Public Advocate and counter-signed by the City Clerk.

The Tax Fixing Resolution would take effect as of the date of adoption.

Accordingly, the Committee on Finance recommends adoption of the Tax Fixing Resolution.

FOOTNOTES

(1) In accordance with Accounting Systems Directive No. 7 of the State Comptroller, Fiscal 2007 expenditures of the Municipal Assistance Corporation of The City of New York (MAC) have been treated only for accounting purposes of the City as if they were City expenditures. Consequently, these estimates of General Fund receipts for Fiscal 2007 do not reflect anticipated reductions in amounts to be received by the City from the four percent sales tax levied in the City by the State, from the stock transfer tax and from per capita State aid. In fact, the expenditures of MAC are to be appropriated by the State from the sales tax levied in the City by the State, from the stock transfer tax and from per capita State aid otherwise payable to the City; any remaining funds from these sources are to be appropriated by the State to the City. Thus, the expenditures of MAC reduce the funds which may be appropriated and paid to the City from these sources. The presentation of MAC expenditures, instead of showing MAC expenditures as reductions in anticipated City revenues, is made solely to comply with Accounting Systems Directive No. 7 and has no bearing on the statutory relationship between the City and MAC; see Section 3016 of the Public Authorities Law.

In connection herewith, Council Member Weprin offered the following resolution:

Res. No. 411

Resolution to provide the amounts necessary for the support of the government of the City of New York and the counties therein and for the payment of indebtedness thereof, for the Fiscal Year beginning on July 1, 2006 and ending on June 30, 2007, by the levy of taxes on the Real Property in the City of New York, in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution of the State of New York, the Real Property Tax Law and the Charter of the City of New York.

Whereas, on May 4, 2006, pursuant to the Section 249 of the Charter of the City of New York ("the Charter"), the Mayor of the City of New York (the "Mayor") submitted to the Council of the City of New York (the "Council"), the executive budget for the support of the government of the City of New York and the counties therein (collectively, the "City") for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, 2006 and ending on June 30, 2007 ("Fiscal 2007"); and

Whereas, on May 25, 2006, pursuant to Section 1514 of the Charter, the Commissioner of the Department of Finance (the "Commissioner") delivered to the Council, the certified assessment rolls for all real property assessable for taxation in the City in each borough thereof for Fiscal 2007, a certified copy of which is in the Office of the Clerk of the City pursuant to Section 516, Real Property Tax Law (the "Fiscal 2007 Assessment Rolls"); and

Whereas, on June 29, 2006, the Council adopted a resolution in which the Council computed and certified the current base proportion, the current percentage and the base percentage of each class of real property in the City for Fiscal 2007 pursuant to Section 1803-a(1), Real Property Tax Law (the "Current Base Proportion Resolution"); and

Whereas, on June 29, 2006, pursuant to Section 1803-a, Real Property Tax Law, the Council adopted a resolution in which the Council adjusted the current base proportion of each class of real property in the City for Fiscal 2007, to reflect the additions to, and full or partial removal from, the Fiscal 2007 Assessment Rolls (the "Adjusted Base Proportion Resolution"); and

Whereas, on June 29, 2006, pursuant to Section 254 of the Charter, the Council adopted the budget for the support of the government of the City and for the payment of indebtedness thereof for Fiscal 2007 (the "Fiscal 2007 Budget"); and

Whereas, on June 29, 2006, pursuant to Section 1515(a) of the Charter, the Mayor prepared and submitted to the Council, a statement setting forth the amount of the Fiscal 2007 Budget as approved by the Council (the "Fiscal 2007 Budget Statement") and an estimate of the probable amount of receipts into the City treasury during Fiscal 2007 from all the sources of revenue of the general fund and all receipts other than those of the general fund and taxes on real property, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Fiscal 2007 Revenue Estimate");

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved by The Council of The City of New York as follows:

Section 1. Fixing of Real Property Tax Rates for Fiscal 2007.

a. Determining the Amount of the Real Property Tax Levy.

(i) The total amount of the Fiscal 2007 Budget as set forth in the Fiscal 2007 Budget Statement is $52,940,235,260.

(ii) The estimate of the probable amount of receipts into the City treasury during Fiscal 2007 from all the sources of revenue of the general fund and all receipts other than those of the general fund and taxes on real property as set forth in the Fiscal 2007 Revenue Estimate is $39,968,031,260.

(iii) Pursuant to Section 1516 of the Charter, the Council hereby determines that the amount required to be raised by tax on real property shall be $12,972,204,000, which is derived from deducting the amount set forth in the Fiscal 2007 Revenue Estimate from the amount of the Fiscal 2007 Budget.

(iv) In order to achieve a real property tax yield of $12,972,204,000 due to provision for uncollectible taxes and refunds and collection of levies from prior years, the Council hereby determines that a real property tax levy of $14,291,212,164 will be required, calculated as follows:

Not Subject to the 2 1/2 Percent Tax Limitation:
For Debt Service:
Funded Debt	$200,584,766
Amount Required for Debt Service and Financing as:
Provision for Uncollectible Taxes	$20,183,226
Provision for Refunds	$3,324,472
Collection of Prior Years' Levies	($3,112,324)	$220,980,140
Subject to the 2 1/2 Percent Tax Limitation:
For Debt Service:
Temporary Debt
Interest on Temporary Debt	$36,685,235
For General Operating Expenses:
Funds Required	$12,734,933,999
Amount Required for Debt Service and Operating Expenses as:
Provision for Uncollectible Taxes	$1,285,104,938
Provision for Refunds	$211,675,528
Collection of Prior Years' Levies	($198,167,676)	14,070,232,024
TOTAL REAL PROPERTY TAX LEVY		$14,291,212,164

The Council hereby determines that such amount, levied at such rates on the classes of real property pursuant to paragraph (iv) of subsection b below will produce a balanced budget within generally accepted accounting principles for municipalities.*

(v) The real property tax levy, net of provision for uncollectible taxes and refunds and the collection of levies from prior years, determined pursuant to clause (iv) above shall be applied as follows:

(A) For payment of debt service not subject to the 2 1/2 percent tax limitation:	$200,584,766
(B) For debt service on short-term debt subject to the 2 1/2 percent tax limitation:	$36,685,235
(C) To provide for conducting the public business of the City and to pay the appropriated expenditures for the counties therein as set forth in the Fiscal 2007 Budget in excess of the amount of revenues estimated in the Fiscal 2007 Revenue Estimate:	$12,734,933,999

* On June 29, 2006, the City Council passed a local law setting the surcharge on levied real property taxes, as reduced by reductions authorized by New York State law, to zero percent effective July 1, 2006. The Mayor has requested the introduction and passage of the bill and provided a message of necessity so that the legislation could be adopted together with the Fiscal 2007 budget and this resolution.

(iii) Operating Limit Provisions. (A) The Operating Limit Provisions require that the City not raise an amount by tax on real property in any fiscal year in excess of an amount equal to a combined total of two and one-half percent (2 1/2 %) of the average full valuation of taxable real property, less (i) the amount to be raised by tax on real property in such year for the payment of the interest on and the redemption of certificates or other evidence of indebtedness described therein and (ii) the aggregate amount of district charges, exclusive of debt service, imposed in such year by business improvement districts pursuant to Article 19-A, General Municipal Law.

(B) The Operating Limit Provisions require that average full valuations of taxable real property be determined by taking the assessed valuations of taxable real property on the last completed assessment roll and the four (4) preceding assessment rolls of the City and applying thereto the special equalization ratios which such assessed valuations of each such roll bear to the full valuations as fixed and determined by the State Office of Real Property Services ("ORPS") pursuant to Section 1251, Real Property Tax Law, as shown below:

The cases that NDS handles are often accepted through referrals or specific requests by clients.

The appropriation of $2.25 million will enable OAD to remain operational in Fiscal 2007. In existence for more than 15 years, OAD handles indigent defense cases at the appellate level that Legal Aid and other providers cannot handle due to conflicts of interest and high case volume.

Alternative-to-Incarceration Programs $6,294,800
Alternative-to-Incarceration Programs (ATIs) permit New York judges to sanction defendants through means other than jail or prison. The use of intermediate sanctions, such as community service and substance abuse counseling, saves the City the cost of maintaining jail beds for those who otherwise would be incarcerated. In addition, ATIs provide a range of rehabilitative services for defendants and allow jail beds to be made available for more violent offenders who pose a threat to the community. As part of a comprehensive ATI initiative, the Council will provide funding to the following programs:

The Center for Alternative Sentencing Employment Services (CASES) will receive $1.34 million to operate four programs. The Court Employment Project Program (CEP) serves felony non-detainees and offers defendants a wide range of services including counseling, health and drug education, employment training and vocational services. The Treatment Readiness Program (TRP) provides two-day workshops to offenders with substance abuse problems. TRP provides Criminal Court judges with a sentencing option for first and second time offenders. It gives offenders essential information about drugs, substance abuse, and HIV/AIDS. It also provides outreach and referral services as well as access to needed drug and alcohol treatment. The Nathaniel Project is a program designated for seriously mentally ill felony offenders. Lastly, CASES will receive new funding to create a girls-only alternative sentencing program for juvenile offenders.

The Center for Community Alternatives' Crossroads Program will receive $640,000 in funding. This funding will allow Crossroads to serve female felony offenders with substance abuse problems and will replace expired State funding for the continuation of a Client Specific Planning Program in the Family Court.

Osborne Association will receive $800,000 to support three programs. Its defender-based advocacy program, Assigned Counsel Services, assists defense attorneys by developing individualized plans for defendants, including vocational education and drug treatment. The Osborne Association's La Fuente Treatment Intervention Program (TIP) is a walk-in drug treatment and recovery readiness program located in the Bronx. Funding will also support TIP at the Manhattan Misdemeanor Treatment Court.

Educational Assistance Corporation (EAC) will receive $82,400 for the Stoplift Program, an alternative sentencing program for first-time shoplifters, and the Anger Management Program, a program for individuals with minimal or no prior criminal record charged with conflict related offenses.

Treatment Alternatives to Street Crime (TASC) will receive $1.898 million in funding. TASC diverts defendants from jail to treatment programs. The Brooklyn Bridge TASC project and the TASC programs in Queens and Bronx place non-violent offenders into drug treatment programs and monitor their status for 12 months. TASC provides services to pre-trial defendants at Rikers Island with the dual diagnosis of mental illness and chemical abuse (MICA). This funding will also allow TASC to provide services at the Queens Drug Treatment Court.

The Women's Prison Association's Hopper Home will receive $894,400. This funding will allow Hopper Home to provide residential ATI services to women and to offer program activities to those who are involved in ATI programs but who require additional supervision on evenings and weekends. In addition, this funding will support the Community Linkage Unit which provides a central point of contact between WPA and the community.

The Centers also provide short-term counseling, information and referrals for children and families not involved in current investigations."

Reports of the Committee on Land Use

At this point, the Speaker (Council Member Quinn) announced that the following items have been preconsidered by the Committee on Land Use and have been favorably reported for adoption.

Report for Int. No. 387

Report of the Committee on Land Use in favor of approving and adopting, a Local Law to amend the New York city charter, in relation to the public notice and hearing requirements of the franchise and concession review committee.

The Committee on Land Use to which was referred on June 29, 2006 the annexed proposed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

SUBJECT

A local law to amend the New York city charter, in relation to the public notice and hearing requirements of the franchise and concession review committee.

INTENT

To amend subdivision b of section 378 of the New York City Charter to allow for an abbreviated public notice period for the Franchise and Concession Review Committee hearing.

The operating authority of two private bus companies that do not receive a subsidy from the City are set to expire on June 30th of this year: Private One of New York, LLC, d.b.a., New York Airport Service (NYAS) and Private Transportation Corp. NYAS transports passengers between Manhattan and LaGuardia and Kennedy Airports and between the two airports. Private Transportation Corp. (Bus Route B-110) transports passengers between Williamsburg and Borough Park in Brooklyn.

The Department of Transportation, with the approval of the Franchise and Concession Review Committee, is authorized to extend the operating authority of these non-subsidized, private bus companies until June 30, 2007, pursuant to Local Law 28 of 2004. However, before the Franchise and Concession Review Committee can give its approval to extend the operating authority, it must hold a hearing. This local law would simply allow for an abbreviated public notice period so that the hearing could be held before the operating authority expires.

Report Summary:

Res. No. 415

Resolution approving an Urban Development Action Area Project located at 531-33 West 156th Street (Block 2115/Lot 51), Manhattan, and waiving the urban development action area designation requirement and the Uniform Land Use Review Procedure, pursuant to Sections 693 and 694 of the General Municipal Law (L.U. No. 131; 20065402 HAM).

By Council Members Katz and Garodnick

Whereas, the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD") submitted to the Council on March 12, 2006 its request dated February 20, 2006 that the Council take the following actions regarding an Urban Development Action Area Project (the "Project") located at 531-33 West 156th Street (Block 2115/Lot 51), Community District 12, Borough of Manhattan (the "Disposition Area"):

1. Find that the present status of the Disposition Area tends to impair or arrest the sound growth and development of the municipality and that the proposed Urban Development Action Area Project is consistent with the policy and purposes of Section 691 of the General Municipal Law;

2. Waive the area designation requirement of Section 693 of the General Municipal Law pursuant to said Section;

3. Waive the requirements of Sections 197-c and 197-d of the New York City Charter pursuant to Section 694 of the General Municipal Law; and

4. Approve the Project as an Urban Development Action Area Project pursuant to Section 694 of the General Municipal Law.

Whereas, the Project is to be developed on land that is now an eligible area as defined in Section 692 of the General Municipal Law, consists solely of the rehabilitation or conservation of existing private or multiple dwellings or the construction of one to four unit dwellings, and does not require any change in land use permitted under the New York City Zoning Resolution;

Whereas, upon due notice, the Council held a public hearing on the Project on June 20, 2006;

Whereas, the Council has considered the land use implications and other policy issues relating to the Project;

Resolved:

The Council finds that the present status of the Disposition Area tends to impair or arrest the sound growth and development of the City of New York and that a designation of the Project as an urban development action area project is consistent with the policy and purposes stated in Section 691 of the General Municipal Law.

The Council waives the area designation requirement of the Disposition Area as an urban development action area under Section 693 of the General Municipal Law pursuant to said Section.

The Council waives the requirements of Sections 197-c and 197-d of the New York City Charter pursuant to Section 694 of the General Municipal Law.

The Council approves the Project as an urban development action area project pursuant to Section 694 of the General Municipal Law.

The Project shall be disposed of and developed upon the terms and conditions in the Project Summary that HPD has submitted to the Council, a copy of which is attached hereto.

COMMITTEE ACTION

DATE: June 21, 2006

The Committee recommends that the Council approve the attached resolution and thereby approve the decision of the City Planning Commission.

In connection herewith, Council Members Katz and Avella offered the following resolution:

Res. No. 416

Resolution approving the decision of the City Planning Commission on Application No. N 060338 (A) ZRY, an amendment to the text of the Zoning Resolution of the City of New York relating to various sections concerning the creation of an R5D Zoning District (L.U. No. 165).

By Council Members Katz and Avella

Whereas, the City Planning Commission filed with the Council on June 9, 2006 its decision dated June 7, 2006 (the "Decision"), on the application submitted by the Department of City Planning, pursuant to Section 201 of the New York City Charter, for an amendment to the text of the Zoning Resolution (Application No. N 060338 (A) ZRY) (the "Application");

Whereas, the Application is related to ULURP Application Number C 060337 ZMQ (L.U. No. 106), an amendment of the Zoning Map to address issues of out-of-character residential development in the Jamaica Hill and Hillcrest areas of Queens Community District 8.

Whereas, the Decision is subject to review and action by the Council pursuant to Section 197-d(b)(1) of the City Charter;

However, on a #corner lot#, if one #front yard# has a depth of at least 18 feet, the other #front yard# shall have a depth of at least 10 feet.

Furthermore, if an opening to an #accessory# off-street parking space is located within the #street wall# of a #residential building#, there shall be an open area between the opening and the #street line# which is at least 8 and 1/2 feet in width by 18 feet in depth, except this provision shall not apply in R5D Districts.

A Local Law to amend local law number 2 for the year 2005, in relation to film production tax credits.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Sections 4, 5 and 6 of local law 2 of 2005 are hereby amended to read as follows:

§4. Maximum amount of credits. (a) The aggregate amount of tax credits allowed pursuant to [sections one and two of this legislation] subdivision (m) of section 11-503 of the administrative code of the city of New York and subdivision twenty of section 11-604 of the administrative code of the city of New York in any calendar year shall be $12.5 million in 2004 and 2005 and $30 million in 2006 through 2011. Such aggregate amount of credits shall be allocated by the mayor's office of film, [theater] theatre and broadcasting among taxpayers in order of priority based upon the date of filing an application for allocation of film production credit with such office. If the total amount of allocated credits applied for in any particular year exceeds the aggregate amount of tax credits allowed for such year under this section, such excess shall be treated as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent year.

§5. The [Mayor's Office of Film, Theater, and Broadcast] mayor's office of film, theatre and broadcasting shall, in accordance with [§7 of Part P of Chapter 60 of the Laws of 2004] sections two and three of part Y of a chapter of the laws of 2006, as set forth in legislative bill number S.6460-C, which was delivered to the secretary of state on April 28, 2006, [promulgate] amend, as soon as practicable, rules to establish procedures for the allocation of tax credits as required by section [4] four of this local law. Such rules shall include provisions describing the application process, the due dates for such applications, the standards which shall be used to evaluate the applications, the documentation that will be provided [to] by taxpayers to substantiate the amount of tax credits allocated to such taxpayers, and such other provisions as deemed necessary and appropriate.

§6. This local law shall take effect immediately, except that sections two and three of this local law shall take effect as of the effective date of a chapter of the laws of New York that authorizes the enactment of an empire state film production credit against the unincorporated business income tax of the city of New York. This local law shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005 with respect to "qualified production costs" paid or incurred on or after August 20, 2004, in connection with qualified films completed on or after January 1, 2005 regardless of whether the [production of the] initial application relating to such qualified film [commenced] was first submitted before August 20, 2004; provided, however, that this local law shall expire and shall be deemed to have no force and effect as of [August 20, 2008] December 31, 2011, and provided further, that the expiration of this local law shall not affect the carry over of any credit allowed pursuant to this local law and, subsequent to the expiration of this local law, such carry over credits shall be allowed as provided by and pursuant to the provisions of this local law.

In the event that the chief medical examiner, or a deputy chief medical examiner, or [an associate or an assistant or] a [junior] medical examiner [or a medical investigator] shall, in the course of such investigation, determine that reasonable grounds exist therefor, an autopsy shall be performed upon such body by a medical examiner. Resolution calling upon the federal government to ensure that all veterans whose identifying information was stolen from the Department of Veterans Affairs receive free quarterly credit reports.

By Council Members Baez, Comrie, Gonzalez, Jackson, James, Mealy, Weprin, White and Lanza.

Whereas, The Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) announced that sensitive personal data for over 26.5 million veterans was stolen from a VA analyst's computer on May 3, 2006; and

Whereas, According to a May 27, 2006 article in the Washington Post, senior officials at the VA knew that the information had been stolen within hours of the crime, but did not tell VA Secretary Jim Nicholson until 13 days later; and

Whereas, It is believed that the information contained in this data included names, social security numbers, phone numbers and addresses of veterans; and

Whereas, According CNN.com, the data also included more than 6,700 records pertaining to "mustard gas veterans", or those who participated in chemical testing programs during World War II; and

Whereas, According to a June 1, 2006 Washington Post article, it has been reported that a "short file" with as many as 10 diagnostic codes indicating a veteran's disability was also stolen; and

Whereas, Although the VA reports that the stolen information would be difficult to retrieve due to the format used to store the data, this highly sensitive information could be used to commit various crimes, including identity theft; and

Whereas, The federal government is urging veterans to vigilantly monitor their financial statements and credit reports; and

Whereas, The Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) requires that each of the nationwide reporting companies provide a free copy of a credit report to all consumers every 12 months; and

Whereas, More frequent receipt of credit reports would better assist veterans in monitoring any suspicious financial activities that may result from the theft of their identifying information, but would currently cost veterans requesting such information additional money; and

Whereas, The federal government should assist those veterans whose personal information was stolen from the VA to monitor their credit reports more frequently than once a year; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the federal government to ensure that all veterans whose identifying information was stolen from the Department of Veterans Affairs receive free quarterly credit reports.

Res. No. 396

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to adopt legislation improving the ability of individuals who participated in September 11th rescue, recovery and cleanup efforts to collect workers' compensation benefits.

By Council Members Dickens, Gerson, Avella, Brewer, Comrie, Fidler, Gonzalez, Jackson, James, Mealy, Weprin and White.

Whereas, In the days, weeks and months following the September 11, 2001, terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center, thousands of individuals worked tirelessly at the site, assisting in rescue, recovery and cleanup efforts; and

Whereas, Over time, many of these workers developed symptoms and diseases related to their work at Ground Zero; and

Whereas, According to a New York Times article appearing on May 22, 2006, approximately 1,400 employees of the City of New York and the Metropolitan Transportation Authority have filed September 11th related claims with the New York State Workers' Compensation Board; and

Whereas, Currently, the New York State Workers' Compensation Law provides that with respect to certain occupational diseases, workers' compensation claims must be filed within two years after becoming disabled or after a claimant knew or should have known that such disease was a result of employment; and

Whereas, Certain September 11th work-related aliments have not or will not become apparent until years after the rescue, recovery and cleanup operations at the site ceased; and

Whereas, The ability of a worker to prove his or her workers' compensation case weakens as time passes, as witnesses, documents and other evidence become more difficult to locate; and

Whereas, The New York State Legislature currently has before it a bill that would greatly improve the ability of individuals who participated in September 11th rescue, recovery and cleanup operations to collect workers' compensation benefits for disabilities arising as a result of such work, and would effectively remove the current statute of limitations for many workers' compensation claims relating to September 11th that have already been decided and denied; and

Whereas, The Presumptive Eligibility bill, A.9114 and S.7874, would provide that any injury or illness, including future complications directly related to work, including work performed by volunteers, at Ground Zero, would be presumptively eligible for compensation under the New York State Workers' Compensation Law, providing that such individuals file a written sworn statement within six months of the legislation's effective date or within six months of receiving medical knowledge of a qualifying condition; and

Whereas, Such legislation would reduce challenges to workers' compensation claims made by September 11th workers and volunteers; and

Whereas, In addition to establishing such presumptive eligibility, such legislation would also allow many workers' compensation claims relating to September 11th that have already been denied to become active again and eligible for reconsideration; and

Whereas, The Presumptive Eligibility bill would help ensure that September 11th workers and volunteers who become ill as a result of their efforts at Ground Zero are justly compensated; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to adopt legislation improving the ability of individuals who participated in September 11th rescue, recovery and cleanup efforts to collect workers' compensation benefits.

The test shall be conducted at the owner's risk, by his or her representative and before a representative of the fire department.

2. In buildings and spaces classified in occupancy group J-2 [with four or more dwelling units] and in every converted dwelling, or every tenement used, in whole or in part, for single room occupancy, regardless of occupancy classification, in which a sprinkler system has been installed pursuant to the requirements of the multiple dwelling law:

Such inspection shall include a check of the valve on the main supply to the system making certain the valve is fully open and sealed in such open position, a check to insure that all sprinkler heads are in place and such other requirements as the commissioner may prescribe. A detailed record of each inspection shall be kept for examination by a representative of the fire department. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in any building or space classified in occupancy group J-2 with less than four dwelling units, such inspection may be conducted by the owner or the owner's representative.

(b) There shall be kept available at all times in the premises a supply of at least six extra sprinkler heads, to replace promptly any fused or damaged sprinklers, except that a supply of at least three extra sprinkler heads shall be kept available for any sprinkler system installed in accordance with reference standard RS 17-2A. There shall be one or more employees instructed in the location and status of the sprinkler system control valves.

(c) [A] Upon order of the fire commissioner, but at least once every year, a flow test shall be conducted of a sprinkler system [at least once every thirty months]. Such test shall be conducted at the owner's risk by his or her representative, who shall be a licensed master plumber or licensed master fire suppression contractor. A report of such test, on a form prepared by the fire department, shall be certified by such licensed master plumber or licensed master fire suppression contractor and shall be kept for not less than five years for examination by a representative of the fire department.

(d) Upon order of the fire commissioner, but at least once every five years, a hydrostatic pressure test shall be conducted of any fire department connection or connections for the sprinkler and/or standpipe system, a flow and pressure test shall be conducted of the standpipe system to demonstrate its suitability for fire department use, and, as required by [paragraph] subparagraph c of this [subdivision] paragraph, a flow test shall be conducted of the sprinkler system. The tests shall be conducted at the owner's risk, by his or her representative and before a representative of the fire department. A report of such test, on a form prepared by the fire department, shall be kept for not less than five years for examination by a representative of the fire department.

(e) The owner or managing agent of any building subject to the requirements of this section shall maintain a record of each inspection and test and a listing of all outstanding violations issued pursuant to this section. Such records and listing shall be made available for inspection by occupants of such residential building or space during normal business hours.

Res. No. 397

Resolution denouncing the National Association of Teachers in Further and Higher Education's boycott of Israeli academics who do not distance themselves from "Israeli apartheid policies" as a misguided attempt at influencing Middle Eastern politics.

By Council Members Gerson, Brewer, Nelson, Weprin and White.

Whereas, On May 29, 2006, the National Association of Teachers in Further and Higher Education (NATFHE), Great Britain's largest lecturer's union, narrowly approved a resolution to boycott Israeli academics who do not openly distance themselves from "Israeli apartheid policies;" and

Whereas, This policy amounts to a policing of political thought among academics and creates a penalty for expressing alternative viewpoints; and

Whereas, The NATFHE has made no such requirements of academics from any other nation and has attempted to single out Israeli academics for rebuke; and

Whereas, The NATFHE action does little to advance the cause of peace between Israelis and Palestinians by unfairly targeting and isolating one side in the conflict, and indeed appears to be incongruous with NATFHE's own stated intention of promoting dialogue and debate with respect to what they describe as "Israel's apartheid policies;" and

Whereas, A similar attempt to boycott Israeli academics by the Association of University Teachers in 2005 ended after an international backlash against the proposal; and

Whereas, The International Advisory Board for Academic Freedom, a network of 500 academics from throughout Europe, has collected more than 4,700 signatures on a petition calling for the withdrawal of the NATFHE resolution; and

Whereas, A requirement that academics support a particular political opinion is contrary to academic freedom, penalizes free thought and stifles legitimate debate; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York condemns the National Association of Teachers in Further and Higher Education's boycott of Israeli academics who do not distance themselves from "Israeli apartheid policies," as a misguided attempt at influencing Middle Eastern politics.

§2. This local law shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after June 28, 2006.

Res. No. 398

Resolution strongly condemning the actions of the government of the Sudan in connection with the atrocities committed by the Janjaweed militias in the western region of Darfur as well as the militias' recent incursion into Chad and urging the government of the United States to provide additional funding to hasten the deployment of United Nations peacekeeping troops to this troubled region.

By Council Members Koppell, Brewer, Fidler, Jackson, James, Nelson, Weprin and White.

Whereas, According to the American Jewish World Service (AJWS), since February 2003, a government-backed militia known as Janjaweed has been engaging in a systematic program of expulsion, rape and murderous violence in the Darfur region of Sudan; and

Whereas, The United Nations has estimated that more than 400,000 deaths of men, women and children have occurred, which are directly related to the violence in the Darfur region; and

Whereas, The Intermediate Technology Development Group of Sudan has projected that more than 300 villages have been burned and looted of livestock, food stock and household assets, leading to 290,000 individuals being displaced; and

Whereas, In violation of numerous United Nations resolutions and ceasefire agreements, the attacks on civilians continue and the violence has spilled into neighboring Chad, leading to the displacement of thousands of Chadian civilians; and

Whereas, According to the AJWS, refugee camps in both Sudan and Chad have been attacked, and refugees have been forcibly recruited by rebel groups; and

Whereas, African Union troops in Darfur are charged with monitoring ceasefire agreements and escorting aid convoys, but have no mandate to protect civilians; and

Whereas, The 7,000 troops currently on the ground are inadequate for providing protection for an area the size of Texas and have become targets for attack by both rebels and Janjaweed militia forces; and

Whereas, Despite a recently signed peace accord in which the Sudanese government has pledged to disarm the Janjaweed, violence in the region continues and the hundreds of thousands of displaced people have yet to return to their ravaged homes; now, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York strongly condemns the actions of the government of the Sudan in connection with the atrocities committed by the Janjaweed militias in the western region of Darfur as well as the militias' recent incursion into Chad and urges the government of the United States to provide additional funding to hasten the deployment of United Nations peacekeeping troops to this troubled region.

Section 19-307. Naming of ferries. The council shall by resolution name any ferry operated by the city of New York and put into service on or after January 1, 2007. Res. No. 399

Resolution calling upon the Mayor of the City of New York to exclude the value of housing and food when calculating military pay pursuant to the Operation Enduring Freedom Extended Benefits Package.

By Council Members McMahon, Avella, Fidler, Jackson, James, Mealy, Nelson, Recchia, White, Lanza and Oddo.

Whereas, The United States is currently engaged in a large-scale military operation in Iraq and Afghanistan called Operation Enduring Freedom; and

Whereas, Many of the brave Americans serving in Operation Enduring Freedom are not full-time military personnel, but rather members of the organized militia, reserve forces or reserve components of the armed forces of the United States who have other civilian jobs; and

Whereas, Pursuant to the New York City Extended Benefits Package, more formally called the Military Pay Reimbursement Agreement For Ordered Military Duty In Operation Enduring Freedom Or Other Ordered Military Duty in Connection With The Events Of September 11, 2002, the City of New York continues to pay the salaries and benefits to those officers who temporarily must leave their City assignments to serve our nation in Operation Enduring Freedom; and

Whereas, Because these New York City Employees also receive a military salary, they are required pursuant to the Extended Benefits Package to return to the City of New York the lesser of their City salary or the compensation they receive from the military while on active duty; and

Whereas, The Department of Citywide Administrative Services relies upon the method the military employs to calculate the pay package, which includes the value of housing and food, as determined by the military; and

Whereas, The inclusion of such value in the military pay calculation increases the amount that must be reimbursed to the City by these employees; and

Whereas, A fairer and more equitable calculation would be to determine military pay on the basis of salary only; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the Mayor of the City of New York to exclude the value of housing and food when calculating military pay pursuant to the Extended Benefits Package.

Res. No. 400

Resolution affirming the New York City Council's support for the members of Local 100 of the Transport Workers Union in their struggle to ensure fair negotiations leading to a quality contract and urging the Metropolitan Transportation Authority to accept the contract terms agreed upon in December 2005.

By Council Members Monserrate, Dilan, Gerson, James, Jackson, Brewer, Comrie, Dickens, Fidler, Gonzalez, Mealy and Stewart.

Whereas, The labor movement in America has come under increasing attack by policymakers in state and national capitals; and

Whereas, An example of this is the approach taken by the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) in the way in which it negotiated, or avoided fruitful negotiations, with Local 100 of the Transport Workers Union as the union contract approached its expiration in December 2005; and

Whereas, The State of New York, working through the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA), attempted to undermine fair negotiations with the Transport Workers Union Local 100 by insisting on, among other concessions, draconian pension contributions by the union workers; and

Whereas, Such bargaining tactics by the MTA gave the union little choice but go on a brief strike last December; and

Whereas, As a result of that strike, a state court imposed severe fines on the union pursuant to the Taylor Law that threaten its financial solvency and the future well-being of all the workers it represents; and

Whereas, After the TWU members returned to work, negotiations continued and a proposed settlement was reached that was fair to the workers and fair to the MTA; and

Whereas, The terms of that proposed settlement were attacked by Governor Pataki as excessively generous to the transit workers but the Governor himself had declined to voluntarily participate in those negotiations and rejected every entreaty by others to actively participate; and

Whereas, The proposed accord was unfortunately rejected by the TWU membership by a mere seven votes of the more than 22,000 votes cast; and

Whereas, A consequence of that extraordinarily narrow rejection was a decision by the MTA board, led by its president, Peter Kalikow, to withdraw from further consideration the terms of that settlement; and

Whereas, Very little substantive progress has been made toward a final settlement and the MTA has insisted that the outstanding issues be resolved only through binding arbitration, a position which Local 100 has repeatedly said is unacceptable because it strips them of the opportunity to actively determine their own future; and

Whereas, The current attitude of the MTA toward further negotiations highlights a major failing of the Taylor Law – that workers are stripped of their greatest asset in negotiations, the opportunity to withhold their labor, yet the governmental employer is under no obligation to negotiate in good faith; and

Whereas, In April 2006, the members of TWU Local 100 voted again on the contract terms initially agreed upon with the MTA and accepted those terms by an almost 3-1 margin; and

Whereas, The terms of the agreement between the TWU and the MTA were fair when agreed upon in December 2005 and remain fair to both sides; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York hereby affirms its support for the members of Local 100 of the Transport Workers Union in their struggle to ensure fair negotiations leading to a quality contract and urges the Metropolitan Transportation Authority to accept the contract terms agreed upon in December 2005.

Res. No. 401

Resolution calling upon the New York State Senate to introduce and pass a companion bill for Assembly Bill 10504, which would require the placement of nebulizers in schools throughout New York State.

By Council Members Palma, Gerson, Avella, James, Comrie, Gonzalez, Jackson, Mealy, Nelson, Vacca, Koppell, Gerson and Lanza.

Whereas, According to the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases (NIAID), a component of the National Institutes of Health, asthma affects nearly 17 million Americans, with children accounting for approximately 4.8 million of the nation's asthma sufferers; and

Whereas, The overwhelming burden of this disease is being felt predominantly by poor and minority communities across the nation; and

Whereas, According to the Centers for Disease Control, there are over 1.1 million New Yorkers suffering from asthma, a rate higher than those of states like California, Florida and Texas, which have larger populations; and

Whereas, According to the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (DOHMH), asthma is the most common cause of hospitalization for children 14 years of age and younger; and

Whereas,, DOHMH also reports that the Bronx has the highest childhood asthma hospitalization rate in New York City at 9.3 per 1,000 children, followed by Brooklyn with 5.5 cases of hospitalization related to asthma for every 1,000 children; and

Whereas, Further, in Spring 2003, a study by the Harlem Hospital Center found that Harlem has one of the highest recorded rates of asthma in the United States, with one of every four children in Harlem having asthma; and

Whereas, The scope of the health care problem caused by asthma lies not only in the large number of Americans with the disease, but also in the limitations that asthma can impose on daily lives of children and their families; and

Whereas, According to NIAID, asthma causes more than 18 million days of restricted activity, as well as millions of visits to doctor's offices and emergency rooms; and

Whereas, In addition, asthma is the leading cause of school absenteeism, with a study cited by NIAID reporting that children with asthma lose an extra 10 million school days each year; and

Whereas, Many doctors and medical organizations agree that asthma can be managed effectively with proper medical care and treatment; and

Whereas, Asthma can be treated with the use of a nebulizer, which changes asthma medication from a liquid to a mist so that it can be more easily inhaled into the lungs; and

Whereas, Nebulizers are particularly effective in delivering asthma medications to small children; and

Whereas, Delays in receiving treatment for asthma, such as waiting to go to an emergency room or waiting to go home for a nebulizer treatment, can have detrimental effects on the health of a child with chronic asthma; and

Whereas, The availability of nebulizers in schools can provide immediate treatment and relief for children with chronic asthma; and

Whereas, On June 22, 2006, the New York State Assembly passed A. 10504, which would require the placement and maintenance of nebulizers in schools upon request of parents with children who have been prescribed medication to be used with a nebulizer; and

Whereas, It is a practical and common sense solution to place these inexpensive nebulizers in all school buildings to help children suffering from asthma throughout New York City and New York State; and

Whereas, The asthma epidemic facing our communities is a health care issue that can no longer be ignored, especially with its disproportionate impact on children, the poor and minorities; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Senate to introduce and pass a companion bill for Assembly Bill 10504, which would require the placement of nebulizers in schools throughout New York State.

A Local Law in relation to the creation of a temporary health literacy task force to examine the current status of health literacy in the city of New York and develop recommendations on how to improve the public's level of health literacy.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. a. Definitions: For the purposes of this local law, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

1. "Health care provider" shall mean any physician or other health care professional licensed to practice in New York state, including, but not limited to, dentists, nurses, x-ray technicians, physical or occupational therapists, massage therapists, acupuncturists, chiropractors and mental health service professionals.

2. "Health care setting" shall mean any place where health care is provided, including, but not limited to, hospitals, clinics, health care provider offices, nursing homes and other residential health care facilities.

3. "Health literacy" shall mean the degree to which an individual has the capacity to obtain, understand and evaluate health information and services needed to improve or maintain health and make health care decisions.

4. "Health materials" shall mean any document used in relation to the provision of health care, including, but not limited to, consent forms, health insurance forms and applications, appointment slips, hospital discharge papers and prescription instructions.

b. In the department, there shall be a health literacy task force, which shall examine the current status of health literacy in all health care settings in the city of New York, including, but not limited to, the ability of individuals to read, complete and comprehend health materials, communicate effectively with health care providers and understand verbal instructions related to health care. Such task force shall also develop recommendations on how to improve the public's level of health literacy in all health care settings, particularly with respect to those individuals who are cultural or linguistic minorities, elderly or who have limited education or financial resources.

c. The health literacy task force shall be comprised of seven members, three of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of the city council and four of whom shall be appointed by the mayor; provided, that one of the appointments by the mayor shall be the commissioner of the department of health and mental hygiene, or his or her designee, who shall serve in an ex-officio capacity and shall serve as the chairperson of such task force; and further provided, that the speaker of the city council and the mayor shall each appoint at least one person who advocates on health literacy issues.

d. Each member of the health literacy task force shall serve at the pleasure of the appointing authority without compensation, except that each member shall be allowed actual and necessary expenses to be audited in the same manner as other city charges. Any member may be removed at any time by the appointing authority and any vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment; provided, however, that the commissioner of the department of health and mental hygiene, or his or her designee, shall serve as a member and as chairperson of such task force as long as such commissioner serves as commissioner of the department.

e. No person shall be ineligible for membership on the health literacy task force because such person holds any other public office, employment or trust, nor shall any person be made ineligible to or forfeit such person's right to any public office, employment or trust by reason of such appointment.

f. The health literacy task force shall be appointed and meet within ninety days following the effective date of this local law. The health literacy task force shall serve for a period of two years, to commence on the day that its first meeting is held, and shall meet at least four times annually.

g. The health literacy task force shall issue a report to the mayor and city council no later than the last day before the expiration of such task force, which shall summarize the findings of such task force and include recommendations on how to improve the public's level of health literacy in all health care settings, particularly with respect to those individuals who are cultural or linguistic minorities, elderly or who have limited education or financial resources.

§2. If any subsection, sentence, clause, phrase, or other portion of this local law is, for any reason, declared unconstitutional or invalid, in whole or in part, by any court of competent jurisdiction, such portion shall be deemed severable and such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the local law, which remaining portions shall remain in full force and effect.

§3. This local law shall take effect immediately.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision a of section 11-238 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by local law number 6 for the year 2004, is amended to read as follows:

a. Imposition of surcharge. A real property tax surcharge is hereby imposed on class one property, as defined in section eighteen hundred two of the real property tax law, excluding vacant land, that provides rental income and is not the primary residence of the owner or owners of such class one property, or the primary residence of the parent or child of such owner or owners, in an amount equal to [twenty-five] zero percent of the net real property taxes for fiscal years beginning on or after July first, two thousand six. Res. No. 402

Resolution calling on the Department of Cultural Affairs to create a process for cultural organizations to join the Cultural Institutions Group (CIG).

By Council Members Weprin, Recchia, Dickens, Brewer, Comrie, Fidler, Gonzalez, Jackson, Mealy, McMahon and White.

Whereas, New York City is home to an extraordinary array of cultural organizations representing enormous talent and creative energy; and

Whereas, The City has a long history of generously supporting the myriad cultural organizations that call New York home; and

Whereas, In 1877, a landmark agreement was reached between the American Museum of Natural History and the City of New York, whereby the City agreed to assume certain financial responsibilities for the Museum's physical plant and grounds, while the actual management of the Museum would remain in the hands of a private, not-for-profit board of directors; and

Whereas, This agreement marked the beginning of a unique relationship between the City of New York and a select number of cultural organizations that would in time become known as the "Cultural Institutions Group" (CIG); and

Whereas, The CIG now numbers thirty-four organizations, including such world renowned institutions as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and Lincoln Center, as well as smaller groups throughout the City, including Flushing Town Hall in Queens, Snug Harbor in Staten Island and Wave Hill in the Bronx; and

Whereas, Members of the CIG benefit from steady financial support from the City, including full payment for heat, light and power expenses, as well as a certain amount of prestige that comes from membership in the CIG; and

Whereas, In 1976, the City created the Department of Cultural Affairs in order to plan and coordinate cultural activities in the City, and in so doing removed the CIGs from the jurisdiction of the Parks Department; and

Whereas, In the thirty years of its existence, the Department of Cultural Affairs has never developed a clear policy illuminating the process by which an organization may become a CIG, despite a number of organizations joining the CIG during that time; and

Whereas, Many cultural organizations throughout the City have repeatedly expressed strong interest in joining the CIG; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls on the Department of Cultural Affairs to create a process for cultural organizations to join the Cultural Institutions Group (CIG).

■ NOTICE

ONE POLICE PLAZA SECURITY PLAN DRAFT ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT

The New York City Police Department (NYPD) will hold the second of two public hearings on the Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS). The public hearing will be held from 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. on October 4, 2006, in the 2nd floor auditorium at 125 Worth Street, New York, NY. Members of the public will need photo identification to gain entrance to the building. Oral and written comments will be accepted at the public hearing. In addition, written comments on the DEIS are requested and should be sent to Inspector Anthony Tria, NYPD Capital Construction, 620 Circle Drive, Fort Totten, NY 11359 Phone: (718) 281-1254, Fax: (718) 281-1593 through the 20th calendar day (October 24, 2006) following the close of the public hearing.

The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has prepared a Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) for the security plan established following the events of September 11, 2001 in order to protect City, State, and Federal facilities in the "civic center" portion of lower Manhattan which were, and continue to be, considered potential targets. These security measures included the installation of attended security checkpoint booths, planters, bollards and hydraulically-operated delta barriers to restrict the access of unauthorized vehicles from the roadways situated adjacent to the civic facilities located near NYPD headquarters at One Police Plaza.

The DEIS contains a description and analysis of the action and its environmental setting; the environmental impacts of the action, including its short and long term effects, and typical associated environmental effects; identification of any significant adverse environmental effects; a discussion of alternatives to the action; the identification of any irreversible and irretrievable commitments of resources that would be involved in the action; and a description of any necessary mitigation measures proposed to minimize significant adverse environmental impacts.

The action results in no significant adverse impacts to land use, zoning, public policy, community facilities and services, socioeconomic conditions, visual resources and parking. The DEIS discloses that the action, however, does result in significant adverse impacts to urban design, neighborhood character, traffic, transit and pedestrian conditions, and air quality and noise related to traffic diversions.

The DEIS describes mitigation measures including installation of a landscaped esplanade along Park Row, the reconfiguration of Chatham Square, and the restoration of bus service along Park Row. Four alternatives to the action are examined, but found not to satisfy the goals and objectives of the action, which are to secure police headquarters and the "civic center" area of lower Manhattan. Traffic impacts at Robert F. Wagner, Sr. Place and Pearl Street, and traffic-related noise impacts to residential buildings and Columbus Park on Worth Street at intersections of Worth and Baxter Streets and Worth and Mulberry Streets cannot be fully mitigated.

This public hearing is being held in conformance with Article 8 of the Environmental Conservation Law, the State Environmental Quality Review Act, City Environmental Quality Review procedures, and Local Law No. 24 of 2005.

Copies of the DEIS may be reviewed at the New York City Office of Environmental Coordination, 100 Gold Street, 2nd Floor, New York, NY 10038, Robert Kulikowski, Director, (212) 788-9956. The DEIS is also available online through a link from the homepage of the New York City Police Department at http://www.nyc.gov/html/nypd under the "Recent Press Releases/News" section of the website.

AGENCY RULES

LOFT BOARD

■ NOTICE

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF FINAL RULE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN THE NEW YORK CITY LOFT BOARD by Article 7-C of the Multiple Dwelling Law and Mayor's Executive Order No. 66, dated September 30, 1982, and pursuant to and in accordance with the requirements of Section 1043 of the New York City Charter, that the New York City Loft Board has amended §2-01(b) Title 29 of the Rules of the City of New York, relating to extensions of time to comply with the code compliance legalization deadlines. The text added to the rules is underlined, and deleted text is bracketed.

The proposed rule was published in the City Record on September 15, 2005. Thereafter a public hearing was held on October 20, 2005, affording the public opportunity to comment on the proposed amendments, as required by section 1043 of the New York City Charter. Written comments were accepted until October 31, 2005.

These rules were not published in the regulatory agenda because they were not anticipated.

Section 2-01(b) is amended as follows:

(b) Extensions of time to comply with the amended code compliance timetable.

(1) Extensions of current deadlines. Pursuant to M.D.L. §284(1)(vi), an owner of an IMD may apply to the Loft Board for an extension of time to comply with the code compliance deadlines set forth in section 284 of the Multiple Dwelling Law, as in effect on the date of the filing of the extension application. An application for an extension shall not be filed after the deadline for which an extension is sought has passed, except that where title to the IMD was conveyed to a new owner, within 90 days after acquisition of title, such new owner may file an application for an extension of time of up to one (1) year to comply with the most recently passed deadline. "New Owner" shall be defined as an unrelated entity or unrelated natural person(s) to whom ownership interest is conveyed for a bona fide business purpose and not for the purpose of evading code compliance deadlines of the Multiple Dwelling Law. The Executive Director shall make a determination of whether an applicant qualifies as a "new owner." The Executive Director may request documentation or other appropriate information to substantiate that an applicant is a "new owner."

(2) Statutory standard. The Loft Board will grant an extension pursuant to this subdivision only where an owner has demonstrated that it has met the statutory standards for such an extension, namely, that the necessity for the extension arises from conditions or circumstances beyond the owner's control, and that the owner has made good faith efforts to meet the code compliance timetable requirements. Examples of such conditions or circumstances include, but are not limited to, a requirement for a certificate of appropriateness for modification of a landmarked building, a need to obtain a variance from the Board of Standards and Appeals or the denial of reasonable access to an IMD unit. The existence of conditions or circumstances beyond the owner's control must be demonstrated in the application by the submission of corroborating evidence, for example, copies of documents from the Landmarks Commission or the Board of Standards and Appeals, or an architect's statement. Failure to include such corroborating evidence in the application shall be grounds for denial of the application without further consideration. [The owner of an IMD may seek an extension of time pursuant to this subdivision in any of the following ways, but only one at a time:]

(3) [(i)] The owner of an IMD may apply to the Loft Board's Executive Director for an extension [of up to 90 days from the date the owner was required] to comply with the amended code compliance timetable. The Loft Board's Executive Director will promptly decide each application for an extension. Where the Loft Board's Executive Director determines that the owner has met the statutory standards for an extension, the Executive Director shall grant the minimum extension required by the IMD owner [not to exceed 90 days]. The Executive Director's determination shall be mailed to the owner and to the affected parties identified in the application submitted pursuant to paragraph [(3)] (4) of this subdivision, and shall be subject to review by the Loft Board upon application by such owner or affected party. An application for review of such determination shall be timely if filed within 20 days after the date of mailing. Applications for extensions pursuant to this subparagraph shall be limited to one per deadline in the amended code compliance timetable.

[(ii) The owner of an IMD may apply to the Loft Board's Director for an extension of 91 days up to one year from the date the owner was required to comply with the amended code compliance timetable. The Loft Board's Director will promptly decide each application for an extension. Where the Director determines that the owner has met the statutory standards for an extension, the Director shall grant the minimum extension required by the IMD owner, not to exceed one year. The Director's determination shall be mailed to the owner and to the affected parties identified in the application and shall be subject to review by the Loft Board upon application by such owner or affected party. An application for review of such determination shall be timely if filed within 20 days after the date of mailing.]

[(iii) The owner of an IMD may apply to the Loft Board for an extension of more than one year. The Director of the Loft Board shall, upon consideration of the statutory standards for granting an extension, make a recommendation to the Board and the Board shall make a final determination regarding each application. Where the Board determines that the owner has met the statutory standards, the Loft Board shall grant the minimum extension required by the IMD owner. An owner or affected party aggrieved by such determination may file a reconsideration application pursuant to §1-07 or pursue such other remedies as may be available under law.]

[(3)] (4) Form of application and tenant responses. An extension application filed pursuant to this subdivision (b) of §2-01 shall be [submitted] filed on a form prescribed by the Loft Board and shall meet the requirements of this subdivision and §§1-06 and 2-11 of these rules. [, except that for] An application for an extension must specify a date to which the applicant seeks to have the deadline extended. Failure to so specify in the application shall be grounds for dismissal of the application. Applications must include a list of all residential IMD units in the building. A[a]pplications [seeking an extension of less than one year] filed pursuant to [subparagraph (i) or (ii) of this paragraph, only] paragraph (3) of this subdivision [two copies] must be filed with the Loft Board along with two copies. Prior to filing an extension application pursuant to [subparagraph (ii) or (iii) of this paragraph] paragraph (3), an owner shall serve a copy of such application upon each [residential] occupant of an IMD unit in the building. Any [A residential] occupant of an IMD unit in the building may file an answer to such application with the Loft Board within 20 days from completion of service by owner. The [residential] occupant(s) of an IMD unit shall serve a copy of such answer upon the owner prior to filing the answer with the Loft Board. Service pursuant to this subdivision may be by first class mail, or by any method permitted by Article 3 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. Each application and answer filed with the Loft Board shall include proof of such service. Service by mail shall be deemed completed five days following mailing [by the owner]. If service of the application is performed in any manner other than mailing, service shall be deemed completed on the date the application is served. While an application filed under this subdivision is pending, an owner may amend such application one time to request a longer extension period than was originally sought in the application.

Statement of Basis and Purpose

The extension provisions set forth in section 2-01(b) are being amended to eliminate most retroactive extensions of missed code compliance deadlines and to simplify the application process for obtaining an extension.

This proposed rule would prohibit most owners from seeking retroactive extensions of missed code compliance deadlines. Extensions should be granted only to diligent owners who are in the process of complying with the Loft Law but are unable to meet the next deadline due to a condition or circumstance beyond their control. There is no acceptable reason an owner could not bring such circumstances to the Loft Board's attention and seek appropriate relief before the expiration of the deadline. The only exception provided is for owners who recently bought their IMD buildings. Such owners would be given 90 days after taking title to seek an extension of a missed code compliance deadline, provided they can meet the statutory standards and other requirements set forth in section 2-01(b)(2) of the Rules.

The proposed rule also would simplify the extension rule by eliminating the three types of extension applications (extensions of 90 days or less, 91 days to one year and more than one year) and their attendant special procedures. Currently, the three time periods alter the service requirements. Additionally, the short extension rule codified in subdivision (b) of section 2-01 of the Board's rules provides that owners may obtain an extension of 90 days or less on an ex parte basis.

In contrast, under the new rule there would no longer be three different types of extension applications, but only one. The same standards for granting an application would apply to extensions of any length. The Executive Director would decide all extension applications. By eliminating separate procedures for different length extensions and the ability of owners to apply for short extensions on an ex parte basis, these amendments will provide occupants of IMD units with notice of every owner's request for an extension and an opportunity to be heard on the merits of every extension application.

In addition, the rule would provide that for all applications, regardless of length of extension sought, the owner-applicant rather than the Loft Board would be responsible for mailing the application to the affected tenants and providing the Loft Board with proof of service upon the tenants.

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:
Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.
If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

ONE POLICE PLAZA SECURITY PLAN DRAFT ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT STATEMENT

The New York City Police Department (NYPD) will hold the second of two public hearings on the Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS). The public hearing will be held from 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M. on October 4, 2006, in the 2nd floor auditorium at 125 Worth Street, New York, NY. Members of the public will need photo identification to gain entrance to the building. Oral and written comments will be accepted at the public hearing. In addition, written comments on the DEIS are requested and should be sent to Inspector Anthony Tria, NYPD Capital Construction, 620 Circle Drive, Fort Totten, NY 11359 Phone: (718) 281-1254, Fax: (718) 281-1593 through the 20th calendar day (October 24, 2006) following the close of the public hearing.

The New York City Police Department (NYPD) has prepared a Draft Environmental Impact Statement (DEIS) for the security plan established following the events of September 11, 2001 in order to protect City, State, and Federal facilities in the "civic center" portion of lower Manhattan which were, and continue to be, considered potential targets. These security measures included the installation of attended security checkpoint booths, planters, bollards and hydraulically-operated delta barriers to restrict the access of unauthorized vehicles from the roadways situated adjacent to the civic facilities located near NYPD headquarters at One Police Plaza.

The DEIS contains a description and analysis of the action and its environmental setting; the environmental impacts of the action, including its short and long term effects, and typical associated environmental effects; identification of any significant adverse environmental effects; a discussion of alternatives to the action; the identification of any irreversible and irretrievable commitments of resources that would be involved in the action; and a description of any necessary mitigation measures proposed to minimize significant adverse environmental impacts.

The action results in no significant adverse impacts to land use, zoning, public policy, community facilities and services, socioeconomic conditions, visual resources and parking. The DEIS discloses that the action, however, does result in significant adverse impacts to urban design, neighborhood character, traffic, transit and pedestrian conditions, and air quality and noise related to traffic diversions.

The DEIS describes mitigation measures including installation of a landscaped esplanade along Park Row, the reconfiguration of Chatham Square, and the restoration of bus service along Park Row. Four alternatives to the action are examined, but found not to satisfy the goals and objectives of the action, which are to secure police headquarters and the "civic center" area of lower Manhattan. Traffic impacts at Robert F. Wagner, Sr. Place and Pearl Street, and traffic-related noise impacts to residential buildings and Columbus Park on Worth Street at intersections of Worth and Baxter Streets and Worth and Mulberry Streets cannot be fully mitigated.

This public hearing is being held in conformance with Article 8 of the Environmental Conservation Law, the State Environmental Quality Review Act, City Environmental Quality Review procedures, and Local Law No. 24 of 2005.

Copies of the DEIS may be reviewed at the New York City Office of Environmental Coordination, 100 Gold Street, 2nd Floor, New York, NY 10038, Robert Kulikowski, Director, (212) 788-9956. The DEIS is also available online through a link from the homepage of the New York City Police Department at http://www.nyc.gov/html/nypd under the "Recent Press Releases/News" section of the website.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY

This amendment to the Health Code is promulgated pursuant to §§558 and 1043 of the Charter. Sections 558(b) and (c) of the Charter empower the Board of Health to amend the Health Code and to include in the Health Code all matters to which the Department's authority extends. Section 1043 grants the Department rule-making authority.

STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PURPOSE

The Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (the "Department") enforces provisions of the New York City Health Code ("Health Code") and other applicable law intended to protect the wholesomeness of food served directly to the consumer throughout the City, including food that is commercially prepared, and sold or distributed for free, by food service establishments, a broad category which includes restaurants, caterers and mobile food vending units. The Department also regulates non-retail food processing establishments, such as mobile food vending commissaries, as defined in Health Code §89.01, which supply food for mobile vending units.

Background

Restaurants (the term is being used interchangeably with "food service establishments" or "FSEs") are an important source of daily food intake for New York City residents: an estimated one third of daily caloric intake comes from foods purchased in restaurants.[1] Assuring safe and healthy dining options is a public health priority. The Department issues permits and inspects all New York City FSEs and non-retail food processing establishments, as defined in §81.03(j) and (p) of the Health Code. The public health concern addressed by this proposed amendment is the presence of trans fat in foods served in restaurants, which represents a dangerous and entirely preventable health risk to restaurant goers. Yet New York City restaurant patrons currently have no practical way to avoid this harmful substance.

Accordingly, we propose that the Board of Health amend Article 81 of the New York City Health Code to restrict the service of products containing artificial trans fats at all FSEs.

The Department is charged with preventing and controlling diseases, including chronic disease, through approaches that may address individual behavior or the community environment. By restricting FSEs from serving food that contains artificial trans fat, except for food served in the manufacturer's original sealed package, we can reduce New Yorkers' exposure to an avoidable hazard in the food environment that is associated with increased heart disease risk.

Basis for restricting service of products containing artificial trans fat.

Heart disease is New York City's leading cause of death. In 2004, 23,000 New York City residents died from heart disease and nearly one-third of these individuals died before the age of 75.[2] Scientific evidence demonstrates a clear association between increased trans fat intake and the risk of coronary heart disease. Most dietary trans fat is found in partially hydrogenated vegetable oil ("PHVO") - oil that has been chemically modified. Scientific studies which examine the change in cholesterol levels when trans fat is replaced with currently available heart healthy alternatives conservatively estimate a reduction of 6% in coronary heart disease events such as heart attacks.[3] Even in the most conservative estimates, based on replacing trans fat primarily by saturated fat - an unlikely outcome given the widespread trend to healthier fats by food producers - a significant, but more modest reduction in coronary heart disease events is still expected. Other scientific studies, based upon observing large groups of people over time estimate that up to 23% of coronary heart disease events could be avoided by replacing trans fat with healthy alternatives. Because an estimated one third of dietary trans fat comes from foods purchased in restaurants, the continued presence of PHVO in restaurant foods represents an important contribution to cardiovascular risk for New York City diners.[4]

Dietary trans fat increases the risk of heart disease by elevating LDL ("bad") cholesterol, and lowering HDL ("good") cholesterol.[5] Because of its negative effect on "good cholesterol", trans fat appears to be even worse than saturated fat. The Institute of Medicine ("IOM") reviewed the scientific evidence and concluded that there is "a positive linear trend between trans fatty acid intake and total and LDL concentration, and therefore increased risk of coronary heart disease"[6]. The 2005 Dietary Guidelines for Americans, issued by the United States Department of Agriculture ("USDA"), recommends that dietary intake of trans fat be "as low as possible"[7] and the American Heart Association guidelines issued in June 2006 recommend that trans fat intake be kept below 1% of total energy intake.[8] In January of 2006, the FDA's mandatory listing of trans fat content on the nutrition facts labels of packaged foods came into effect.[9]

Eighty percent of dietary trans fat is found in industrially-produced PHVO, which is used for frying and baking and is present in many processed foods.[10] The remaining 20% is naturally occurring and is found in small amounts in dairy and meat products from ruminant animals.

The artificial trans fat found in PHVO is produced when hydrogen is added to vegetable oil in a process called hydrogenation. Common FSE sources of artificial trans fat include: foods fried in partially hydrogenated vegetable oils; margarine and vegetable shortening; prepared foods such as pre-fried French fries, fried chicken, taco shells and donuts; baked goods such as hamburger buns, pizza dough, crackers, cookies, and pies; and pre-mixed ingredients such as pancake and hot chocolate mix.

The major source of dietary trans fat, found in PHVO, can be replaced with currently available heart healthy alternatives. Denmark has recently successfully removed artificial trans fat by limiting industrially produced trans fat content in food to 2% of total calories from fat. In addition, in June 2006 the Canadian Trans Fat Task Force issued a report recommending that Canada limit trans fat in food service establishments to 2% of total fat content in margarines and vegetable oils and 5% of total fat content in all other food ingredients.[12] "Zero grams" trans fat packaged foods in the US, both new products and those already in production, have been extensively marketed since the labeling requirement for packaged foods became effective. Many manufacturers have reformulated a number of their existing products that are now widely available as "zero grams" trans fat (defined by the FDA as <0.5 grams per serving) on supermarket shelves. A recent New England Journal of Medicine article reports that industry and government representatives agreed that the restriction of trans fat in Denmark "did not appreciably affect the quality, cost or availability of food.[13] This experience demonstrates that artificial trans fat can be replaced without consumers noticing an effect.[14] Acceptable healthier alternatives to PHVOs include traditional mono and poly unsaturated vegetable oils (e.g., canola, corn, olive, etc.) that have not been hydrogenated, as well as newly developed oils such as those made from specially cultivated varieties of soybeans, safflowers, and sunflowers. Further, many of the newer trans fat-free oils have long 'fry lives' and other favored characteristics of PHVOs. Educational and enforcement efforts will seek to promote a shift to healthier fats. In response to increased demand, US companies are expanding production of products that will increase the market supply of alternatives to hydrogenated oils.[15,16]

Consumer trans fat consumption and the contribution of FSEs

National surveys show that Americans spend almost half (47%) of their food dollars eating out.[17] One third of daily caloric intake comes from foods purchased in restaurants.[18] The continued presence of artificial trans fat in restaurant foods needlessly increases the risk for heart disease for all of our city's residents.

Consumer concern about trans fat in food is evidenced by the increase in national sales of products labeled "no trans fat" by 12% to $6.4 billion for the 52 weeks ended October 2, 2004, compared with the previous 52-week period.[19] Nutrition ranks second after taste as the factor most frequently influencing food purchases.[20] Moreover, artificial trans fat can be replaced with heart-healthier oils and fats, without changing the taste of foods.

Prevalence of use of partially hydrogenated vegetable oil in NYC FSEs

In June 2005, the Department launched the Trans Fat Education Campaign. The campaign called on all NYC FSEs to voluntarily remove PHVO from the foods they were serving. This was supported by extensive educational outreach to food suppliers, consumers and to every licensed restaurant in New York City.

To assess use of PHVO-containing products by FSEs, the Department conducted two surveys: one prior to the campaign (May 9 through June 10, 2005) and another nine months after the campaign (April 3 through May 5, 2006).

In both the 2005 and 2006 survey findings, the prevalence of PHVO-containing oils used for frying, baking or spreads was approximately 50% at FSEs where product content could be determined. While a lack of labeling or product identification of some products precludes a precise estimate of the prevalence of use, the data show that PHVO use remained common and has not declined substantially despite the Trans Fat Education Campaign.

Proposed amendments to the Health Code related to partially hydrogenated vegetable oils

The Department proposes that the Board of Health amend Article 81 of the Health Code to restrict NYC FSEs from using artificial trans fat containing products, except for foods served in the manufacturers' original sealed packaging. The new provision would become effective six (6) months after adoption with respect to use of cooking oils, shortening, and margarine – the easiest for FSEs to implement, and 18 months after adoption for all other products, such as pancake mixes and chicken nuggets, some of which may be partially prepared off site.

Why focus on trans fat over other fats?

The IOM conclusion that there is no safe level of artificial trans fat consumption[21] is in contrast to other dietary fats which, when consumed in moderation, are a natural part of a healthy diet. Artificially produced trans fat is relatively new to our food supply and confers no known health benefit. Because healthy, inexpensive alternatives exist for the most common source of trans fat, PHVO, their continued use by FSEs poses an unnecessary public health threat.

Why use 0.5 grams per serving of trans fat as a threshold?

Current FDA labeling regulations allow manufacturers of foods packaged for direct sale to consumers in retail markets to list trans fat content as "0 grams" if the product contains less than 0.5 grams per serving.[22] This allows for the presence of naturally occurring trans fat in meat and dairy foods as well as newer "low trans fat" foods, which may have PHVO listed as an ingredient. The proposed provision intentionally allows for products that have less than 0.5 grams per serving (evidenced either on a Nutrition Facts label or in information provided by the manufacturer) in order to accommodate most of the newly formulated low trans fat margarines on the market, and allows for substitute spreads.

STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 1042 – REGULATORY AGENDA

The proposed amendment was not included in the Department's Regulatory Agenda because it resulted from a recent analysis by the Department.

The proposal is as follows:

Note-matter in brackets [ ] to be deleted
Matter underlined is new

RESOLVED, that Article 81 of the New York City Health Code, set forth in title 24 of the Rules of the City of New York, as amended by resolution adopted on the seventh of June, two thousand five, be and the same hereby is further amended by adding a new §81.08, to be printed together with explanatory notes, as follows:

§81.08 Foods containing artificial trans fat.

(a) Artificial trans fat restricted. No foods containing artificial trans fat, as defined in this section, shall be stored, distributed, held for service, used in preparation of any menu item or served in any food service establishment or by any mobile food unit commissary, as defined in §89.01 of this Code or successor provision, except food that is being served directly to patrons in a manufacturer's original sealed package.

(b) Definition. For the purposes of this section, a food shall be deemed to contain artificial trans fat if the food is labeled as, lists as an ingredient, or has vegetable shortening or any kind of partially hydrogenated vegetable oil. However, a food whose nutrition facts label or other documentation from the manufacturer lists the trans fat content of the food as less than 0.5 grams per serving, shall not be deemed to contain artificial trans fat.

(c) Labels required.

(1) Original labels. Food service establishments and mobile food unit commissaries shall maintain on site the original labels for all food products:

(i) that are, or that contain, fats, oils or shortenings, and

(ii) that are, when purchased by such food service establishments or mobile food unit commissaries, required by applicable federal and state law to have labels, and

(iii) that are currently being stored, distributed, held for service, used in preparation of any menu items, or served by the food service establishment, or by the mobile food unit commissary.

(2) Documentation instead of labels. Documentation acceptable to the Department, from the manufacturers of such food products, indicating whether the food products contain vegetable shortening or any kind of partially hydrogenated vegetable oil, or indicating trans fat content, may be maintained instead of original labels.

(3) Documentation required when food products are not labeled. If baked goods, or other food products restricted pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section, that are or that contain fats, oils or shortenings, are not required to be labeled when purchased, food service establishments and mobile food commissaries shall obtain and maintain documentation acceptable to the Department, from the manufacturers of the food products, indicating whether the food products contain vegetable shortening or any kind of partially hydrogenated vegetable oil, or indicating trans fat content.

(d) Effective date. This section shall take effect on July 1, 2007 with respect to cooking oils, shortening, and margarines containing artificial trans fat, and on July 1, 2008 with respect to all other foods containing artificial trans fat.

Notes: Section 81.08 was added by resolution adopted on xxx to restrict use of artificial trans fat in food service establishments in New York City in an effort to decrease the well-documented risk of ischemic heart and other disease conditions associated with consumption of such products.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY

This amendment to the Health Code is promulgated pursuant to §§558 and 1043 of the Charter. Sections 558(b) and (c) of the Charter empower the Board of Health to amend the Health Code and to include in the Health Code all matters to which the Department's authority extends. Section 1043 grants the Department rule-making authority.

STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PURPOSE

The Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (the "Department") enforces provisions of the New York City Health Code ("Health Code") and other applicable law intended to protect the wholesomeness of food served directly to the consumer throughout the City, including food that is commercially prepared, and sold or distributed for free, by food service establishments, a broad category which includes restaurants, caterers and mobile food vending units. The Department also regulates non-retail food processing establishments, such as mobile food vending commissaries, as defined in Health Code §89.01, which supply food for mobile vending units.

Background

Restaurants (the term is being used interchangeably with "food service establishments" or "FSEs") are an important source of daily food intake for New York City residents: an estimated one third of daily caloric intake comes from foods purchased in restaurants.[1] Assuring safe and healthy dining options is a public health priority. The Department issues permits and inspects all New York City FSEs and non-retail food processing establishments, as defined in §81.03(j) and (p) of the Health Code. Although federally mandated nutrition labeling on food products for sale in supermarkets facilitates informed choice, consumers lack such essential information to make healthy choices when eating in restaurants. Calorie information, if provided at the time of food selection, would allow New Yorkers to make more informed choices.

Accordingly, we propose that the Board of Health amendArticle 81 of the New York City Health Code to make information on calorie content of menu items clear to consumers at the time of ordering at FSEs where such information is publicly available.

The Department is charged with preventing and controlling diseases, including chronic disease, through approaches that may address individual behavior or the community environment. By requiring posting of available information concerning restaurant menu item calorie content, so that such information is accessible at the time of ordering, this Health Code amendment will allow individuals to make more informed choices that can decrease their risk for the negative health effects of overweight and obesity associated with excessive calorie intake.

Basis for requiring calorie labeling in FSEs that make nutrition information publicly available.

Obesity is epidemic

According to measured height and weight data from the National Health and Nutrition Examination Survey (NHANES), the obesity rate among U.S. adults more than doubled over the past three decades from 14.5% in 1971-1974 to 32.2% in 2003-2004.[2,3] In New York City, more than half of adults are overweight and one in six is obese.[4] Obesity begins early – 21% of New York City kindergarten children are obese.[5] People who are overweight are at increased risk for diabetes, heart disease, stroke, high blood pressure, arthritis, and cancer. Diabetes more than doubled over the last decade and now affects three quarters of a million New Yorkers.[6]

If rates of obesity continue to rise unabated, it is estimated that one in three children (and half of Hispanic children) born in 2000 will develop diabetes in his or her lifetime.[7]

'Away from Home' food consumption increasingly fuels obesity and chronic illness

As rates of obesity continue to rise, Americans are increasingly eating meals away from home. In 1970, Americans spent 26% of their food dollars on foods prepared outside their homes while by 2006 they spent almost half (48%) of their food dollars eating out.[8] As previously noted, the average American consumes about one third of calories from foods from restaurants.[9] Children eat almost twice as many calories when they eat out than when they eat at home.[10]

Nutrition labeling works and is supported by consumers and leading experts

Since 1994, the federal Nutrition Labeling and Education Act (NLEA) has made nutrition information available to consumers on packaged foods purchased in retail stores. This information is widely used. Three-quarters of American adults report using food labels,[11] and about half (48%) report that nutrition information on food labels has caused them to change their food purchasing habits.[12] However, NLEA explicitly exempts restaurants from nutrition labeling requirements, and at most restaurants, people can only guess the nutrient content of foods at the point of purchase. Current voluntary attempts by some food service establishments to make available nutrition information are inadequate particularly because the information is usually not displayed when consumers are making their choices and purchases. When FSEs' nutrition information is available on the internet, patrons need to have access to off-site websites. Such information may also be available in brochures, on placemats covered with food items, or on food wrappers, where the information is hard to find or difficult to read and only accessible after the purchase is made. Thus the information provided has little impact on choice.[13]

Without calorie information, it is difficult for consumers to compare options and make informed decisions. People do not accurately guess the calorie content of foods and beverages, and calorie information will help guide food choices. Recent studies found that 9 out of 10 people underestimated the calorie content of less-healthy items by an average of more than 600 calories (almost 50% less than the actual calorie content).[14] When calorie information was provided on food items, consumers chose high-calorie items 24% to 37% less often.

Additional marketing research has shown that providing nutrition information affects consumer attitudes and purchasing intentions. Consumers consistently underestimate the nutrient levels in food items and overestimate the healthfulness of restaurant items.[15] When consumers are made aware of nutrition information at the point of purchase, disease risk perceptions increase, attitudes toward the product change, and purchasing intentions for unhealthy products decrease.[16,17] Presenting nutrition information on restaurant menus empowers consumers and influences food choices.[18]

Consumers want this information. Six nationally representative polls have found that between 62% to 87% of Americans support requiring restaurants to list nutrition information.[19,20]

A key recommendation of a recent Food and Drug Administration-sponsored expert group report on obesity and eating away from the home was that "Away-from-home food establishments should provide consumers with calorie information in a standard format that is easily accessible and easy to use. Participants believe that information should be provided in a manner that is easy for consumers to see and use as part of their purchasing and eating decisions. Information should be provided for any standard menu item offered on a regular and ongoing basis that is prepared from a standardized recipe, whether the item is an entire meal or a meal component. Non-standard items, including daily specials and experimental items, may be exempted. Information should be provided for the standard menu item as usually offered for sale (i.e., the base product, in the portion size as offered for sale), since most means of providing information cannot easily account for changes due to customization and special orders."[21]

Proposed changes to Health Code to require calorie labeling

New York City needs to address the rapidly growing twin epidemics of obesity and diabetes. Calorie labeling is a public heath intervention to address these problems. Providing simple, point-of-purchase calorie information would allow consumers to make more informed food choices in restaurants just as they currently can in supermarkets.

Accordingly the Department proposes that the Board amend Article 81 of the Health Code to require FSEs that make calorie information for standardized menu items publicly available (published by or on behalf of the FSE) on or after March 1, 2007, to post such calorie (kcal) information on menu boards and menus, next to each menu item (Figure 2). Of course, in order for the calorie information to be accurate, such a requirement can only be implemented for food items that are standardized with regard to portion size, formulation, and ingredients. Therefore, it is expected that the proposal would apply only to the approximately 10% of New York City food service establishments that serve food menu items in portions that are standardized for size and content. Posting of calorie content information will be required for daily or other special menu items for which calorie content has been made publicly available. Calorie amounts shall be posted in a size and typeface at least as large as the price or name of the menu item. This provision does not require any FSE to engage in analysis of the nutrition content of its menu items, but does require restaurants that make such information available to their customers to post it in plain sight, so it is available at the time of ordering. By doing so, these FSEs will enable New Yorkers to have the information they need to make more informed choices.

Example of Menu Board with Calorie Labeling[22]

Only FSEs that make nutritional information publicly available on or after March 1, 2007, such as in brochures, signage, websites, or by other means, will be required to post calorie information. Posted calorie content information will be calculated in accordance with 21 CFR section 101.9(c)(1)(i) or its successor regulation. FSEs would not be precluded from providing additional nutrition information voluntarily.

The Department's restaurant inspectors would be responsible for enforcing the requirement that nutrition information is provided on menu boards and menus.

STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 1042 – REGULATORY AGENDA

The proposed amendment was not included in the Department's Regulatory Agenda because it resulted from a recent analysis by the Department.

The proposal is as follows:

Note-matter in brackets [ ] to be deleted

RESOLVED, that Article 81 of the New York City Health Code, set forth in title 24 of the Rules of the City of New York, as last amended by resolution adopted on the seventh of June, two thousand five, be, and the same hereby is further amended, to add a new section 81.50, to be printed with explanatory notes, as follows:

§81.50 Calorie labeling.
(a) Scope and applicability. This section shall apply to menu items that are served in portions the size and content of which are standardized and for which calorie content information is publicly available on or after March 1, 2007, by or on behalf of the food service establishment serving the items.

(b) Calorie information for menu items. Food service establishments shall post on menu boards and menus the calorie content (in kcal) next to the listing of each menu item.

(i) On menu boards, calorie values shall be posted in a size and typeface at least as large as the name of the menu item or price, whichever is larger. On menus, calorie values shall be legible and at least as large as the name or price of the menu item.
(ii) Posted calorie content shall be calculated in accordance with 21 CFR section 101.9(c)(1)(i) or its successor regulation.
(iii) For menu items that come in different flavors and varieties but that are listed as a single menu item (such as beverages, ice cream, pizza or doughnuts), the median calorie content for all flavors or varieties of that item shall be listed on menu boards for each size offered for sale. The median calorie content for all flavors or varieties of that item shall be listed on menus. Calculations of median calorie content for beverages shall exclude flavors or varieties that contain less than 15 kcals per 8 ounce serving.

(c) Effective date. This section shall take effect on July 1, 2007.

Notes: Section 81.50 was added by resolution adopted on xxx to require that food service establishments in New York City that sell standardized food items prominently post publicly available information about the calorie content of such items on menu boards and other displays in an effort to facilitate patrons' nutritional choices.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY

These amendments to the New York City Health Code (the "Health Code") are made pursuant to §§556, 558 and 1043 of the New York City Charter (the "Charter"). Section 556 of the Charter grants the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (the "Department") jurisdiction to supervise and control the registration of births. Section 558 (b), (c) and (g) of the Charter empowers the Board of Health to amend the Health Code and to include in the Health Code all matters to which the Department's authority extends. Section 1043(a) of the Charter grants rule-making powers to the Department.

STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PURPOSE

The Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (the "Department") is responsible for supervising and controlling the registration of births in New York City.

Since 1971, New York City Health Code section 207.05(a)(5) has authorized the issuance of a new birth certificate for a transgender individual. Currently, the Health Code requires proof that the applicant has undergone "convertive" surgery, which has generally but not exclusively been interpreted by the Department to mean genital surgery. The proof required by the Department from the applicant is a detailed surgical operative record including the date of the operation; a post-operative examination signed by a physician and attesting to the fact that a surgical change of sex has taken place; and a post-operative psychiatric evaluation signed by a psychiatrist or clinical psychologist. In addition, the name of the applicant must also have been changed pursuant to court order. At present, upon approval of the application, the new birth certificate reflects the court-ordered name change and omits a gender designation. The certificate itself is not marked "amended," and the original birth record is placed under seal.

New York City had been a leader in the early 1970s in this area, but it has not amended this section of the Health Code since enactment and therefore, it continues to require proof the applicant has undergone convertive surgery and issues new birth certificates omitting gender. Although, other jurisdictions that amend a birth certificate to reflect a person's gender indicate the acquired gender on the certificate, New York City does not.

Over the past several years, advocates for transgender individuals have expressed concern that the current rules are outdated and do not reflect the individualized modes of transgender healthcare that may or may not include genital surgery. To address these concerns the Department convened an external committee of transgender health experts to provide advice and recommendations on updating policies and procedures. The group was comprised of eight members representing transgender expertise in medical, surgical, mental health, legal and academic fields. Each representative had extensive experience in transgender health care, practice or policy. Department staff from the Bureau of Vital Statistics and the General Counsel's office also participated.

The major concerns raised by advocates and transgender health experts concerning current New York City practice in providing a new birth certificate were:

- It excludes transgender persons who have undergone procedures short of genital surgery, including hormonal treatments;

- It does not take into account the highly individualized care transgender persons undergo; and
- By providing a new birth certificate without a gender designation, it potentially stigmatizes transgender persons and fails to provide the gender evidence they seek.

The group recommended that:

- The Department should recognize the individualized nature of transgender health care;
- Medical and mental health providers most knowledgeable about an individual's transgender health should determine whether an individual is living fully in the acquired gender;
- The Department should specify the qualifications of professionals from whom evidence would be accepted;
- The evidence should be detailed enough to ensure its integrity and validity, and to demonstrate the intended permanence of gender transition; and
- The new birth certificate should reflect the acquired gender of the applicant.

Based on the Department's review of these issues, it is proposing that the Board of Health amend the Health Code as set forth below. The Department acknowledges the gravity of changing the gender on a birth certificate and believes this change is justified in particular instances when supported by documentary evidence.

STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 1042-REGULATORY AGENDA

This proposal was not included in the Regulatory Agenda as this action is the result of the recent analysis by the Department.

The proposal is as follows:

In such a case, the original certificate shall be filed with the application for amendment.

Notes: Subdivisions (b) and (c) were added to section 207.05 by resolution adopted on _____ to authorize persons who have completed the transition to and intend to permanently remain in their acquired gender, including those who may not have undergone convertive surgery, to apply for a new birth certificate indicating the acquired gender. The former provision, §207.05(a)(5), enacted by the Board of Health in nineteen hundred and seventy-one, requiring a person to have had convertive surgery prior to filing for a new birth certificate did not recognize the highly individualized health care now available to a person to complete the transition from his or her gender at birth to the acquired gender. Also, the Board of Health excluded gender from the birth certificate form it approved for use by individuals who had undergone convertive surgery and who were applying for a new birth certificate. Further, existing subdivision (b) was re-lettered subdivision (d) and existing subdivision (c) was re-lettered subdivision (e).

NEW YORK CITY DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND MENTAL HYGIENE BOARD OF HEALTH

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF AMENDMENTS TO VARIOUS PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE 175 OF THE NEW YORK CITY HEALTH CODE

In compliance with Sections 1043(b) and (d) of the New York City Charter, a Notice of Intention to amend Article 175 of the New York City Health Code was published in the City Record on June 21, 2006 and a public hearing was held on July 26, 2006. No one testified and 1 written comment was received. At its meeting on September 26, 2006, the Board of Health adopted the following resolution.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY

These amendments to the New York City Health Code ("Health Code") are adopted pursuant to Sections 556, 558 and 1043 of the New York City Charter ("Charter") and applicable state and federal law. Section 556 of the Charter grants the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene ("Department") jurisdiction to regulate matters affecting health in New York City (NYC). Specifically, Section 556 (c)(11) of the Charter authorizes the Department to regulate all aspects of ionizing radiation within the 5 boroughs of New York City. Sections 558 (b) and (c) of the Charter empower the Board of Health to amend the Health Code and to include in the Health Code all matters to which the Department's authority extends. Section 1043 of the Charter grants rule-making powers to the Department. The New York State (NYS) Sanitary Code (i.e., 10 NYCRR §16.1(b)(3)) delegates radiation licensure regulation to those localities that have a population of more than 2,000,000, provided that said requirements are consistent with NYS Sanitary Code requirements. Section 274 of the Federal Atomic Energy Act of 1954 (the Act) (codified at 42 USC §2021) authorizes "Agreement States" to regulate byproduct material, source material and special nuclear material in quantities not sufficient to form a critical mass. New York State is an "Agreement State" within the meaning of the Act, and the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene is a component of and a party to the relevant Agreement.

STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PURPOSE

In order to maintain compatibility with applicable New York State Sanitary Code and federal regulations, the NYC Health Code is being amended concerning both Radioactive Materials and Radiation Equipment. The Health Code is also being amended to comply with a NYS Comptroller's Audit Report (2001-N-9) recommendation that all new x-ray facilities be inspected and approved by the Department prior to initiating clinical x-ray exams. Finally, the Health Code is being amended to delineate the specific protocols to be followed in calibration of x-ray therapy units, and to specify the content of the x-ray therapy calibration reports to be reviewed by the Department.

Radioactive Materials

The Department's Office of Radiological Health (ORH) licenses and inspects radioactive materials facilities for compliance with Article 175 of the New York City Health Code to protect the health and safety of patients, operators and the general public. There are about 375 licensed sites in New York City possessing radioactive material for medical, academic and research purposes. ORH inspects these facilities at frequencies of once every one, two or three years depending on the type of usage.

As noted above, New York State is an "Agreement State", which means that NYS and the United States Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) have entered into an agreement under the Atomic Energy Act, which delegates authority to NYS to regulate radioactive material at non-reactor sites within its jurisdiction. The New York State Agreement is comprised of four regulatory programs - New York State Department of Health, New York State Department of Labor, New York State Department of Environmental Conservation, and the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene. The Department, through its Office of Radiological Health, regulates radioactive material for medical, academic and research purposes within the 5 boroughs of New York City.

Each Agreement State program is required to maintain compatibility with the NRC regulatory program.[1] The NRC ensures an adequate level of compatibility through the Integrated Materials Performance Evaluation Program (IMPEP) and conducts a quadrennial review of Agreement State programs. The latest IMPEP review of the NYS program took place in July of 2002.

In the July 2002 IMPEP review, the NRC evaluated each of the four components of the New York State Agreement. NRC findings were presented in its Final Report, dated November 12, 2002. The NRC IMPEP report concluded that certain regulations needed to be incorporated into Article 175 of the New York City Health Code in order to ensure compatibility with NRC regulations. Those regulations that remained to be incorporated were:

- "Revision of the Skin Dose Limit", 10 CFR Part 20 amendment (67 FR 16298) that became effective April 5, 2002 (amending 10 CFR §§ 20.1003; 20.1201).
- "Respiratory Protection and Controls to Restrict Internal Exposures", 10 CFR Part 20 amendment (64 FR 54543; 55524) that became effective February 2, 2000 (amending 10 CFR §§ 20.1003; 20.1701 - 20.1704; adding 20.1705 and amending Appendix A to Part 20).

[1] There are currently 34 Agreement State programs.

Radiation Equipment
The Office of Radiological Health (ORH) inspects x-ray facilities for compliance with Article 175 of the New York City Health Code for the protection of the health and welfare of the patient, operator and general public. There are approximately 7000 registered sites in New York City possessing x-ray units for patient diagnosis and treatment.

The NYC Health Code is being amended to assure compatibility with the NYS Sanitary Code regulations on x-ray equipment and the federal regulations as to equipment performance standards. To achieve this compatibility, the amendments to Article 175 incorporate the language or intent of the following regulations:

- NYS Sanitary Code regulations for x-ray equipment as contained in 10 NYCRR §16.58 (effective 2/4/2004); and
- Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regulations as to the x-ray equipment performance standards as contained in 21 CFR Part 1020 (and as so stated in the NYS Sanitary Code §16.58).

In addition, Article 175 of the Health Code is being amended to:

- Comply with a NYS Comptroller Audit Report (2001-N-9) recommendation that all new x-ray facilities be inspected by ORH prior to initiating clinical x-ray exams; and,
- Delineate the specific protocols to be followed in calibration of x-ray therapy units, and specify the content of the x-ray therapy calibration reports to be reviewed by ORH.

AMENDMENTS TO THE HEALTH CODE

I. Radioactive Materials
Sections 175.02 and 175.03 of the NYC Health Code are being amended to address the NRC rule, "Revision of the Skin Dose Limit," 10 CFR Part 20 amendment (67 FR 16298) that became effective April 5, 2002 (amending 10 CFR §§ 20.1003; 20.1201). The definition of "shallow dose equivalent" is being revised (§175.02) and the method for calculation (§175.03) is being updated.

The definition of "Shallow dose equivalent" in §175.02 is being changed to read as follows: "Shallow dose equivalent" (H_S), which applies to the external exposure of the skin of the whole body or the skin of an extremity, means the dose equivalent at a tissue depth of 0.007 centimeter (7 mg/cm2). This amendment is required to achieve compatibility with the 2002 revised NRC definition found in 10 CFR §20.1003. For purposes of external exposure, "whole body" means head, trunk (including male gonads), arms above the elbow, or legs above the knee. "Extremity" means hand, elbow, arm below the elbow, foot, knee, and leg below the knee.

The method for calculating shallow-dose equivalent is being updated in §175.03 to state that the assigned shallow-dose equivalent must be the dose averaged over the contiguous 10 square centimeters of skin receiving the highest exposure. This change achieves compatibility with the revised NRC occupational dose limits for adults found in 10 CFR §20.1201.

Also, §175.03 of the NYC Health Code is being amended to address the NRC rule: "Respiratory Protection and Controls to Restrict Internal Exposures" 10 CFR Part 20 amendment (64 FR 54543; 55524) that became effective February 2, 2000 (amending 10 CFR §§ 20.1003; 20.1701 - 20.1704; adding 20.1705 and amending Appendix A to Part 20).

The NYC Health Code previously did not specify conditions under which licensees should use respirators. Revisions to §175.03 incorporate revised NRC language concerning ANSI standards, and the summing of internal and external radiation doses for ALARA (As Low As Reasonably Achievable) purposes. A statement is being added to §175.03 that an individual user who participates in a respiratory protection program is to be determined medically fit periodically at a frequency determined by a physician. (See also, "Frequency of Medical Examinations for Use of Respiratory Protection Equipment" (60 FR 7900) that became effective March 13,1995 (amending 10 CFR § 20.1703), which is incorporated within the "Respiratory Protection and Controls to Restrict Internal Exposures" 10 CFR Part 20 amendment). A provision for licensees to consider the impact on workers' industrial health and safety is being added to address OSHA requirements with respect to use of appropriate respiratory protective equipment. Additional requirements are being added to §175.03 regarding breathing air quality and procedures for respirator selection, repair, and quality assurance.

In addition, a large body of definitions relevant to Respiratory Protection and Controls is being added to §175.03 APPENDIX A - Protection Factors For Respirators.

II. Radiation Equipment
Section 175.51(d)(1), (2) of the NYC Health Code is being amended to implement a NYS Comptroller Audit Report (2001-N-9) recommendation that all new x-ray facilities be inspected by the ORH prior to initiating clinical x-ray exams.

To accomplish this, the Health Code is being amended with language to authorize ORH to enforce this new registration policy. ORH registers two types of x-ray facilities in New York City:

1) Facilities such as dental offices, podiatrist offices and veterinary offices, all of which are not legally mandated to have a Quality Control (QC) program in effect for their facility; and
2) Facilities such as medical offices, radiologist offices, chiropractic offices, and other large facilities that must have a functioning and on-going QC program at their facility.

At the time of a new registration, facilities not mandated to have a QC program (i.e., dental, podiatrist, and veterinary facilities) shall not be allowed to initiate clinical patient x-rays until they have passed an ORH inspection and corrected all violations (if any) so noted. At the time of a new registration, facilities required to have a QC program (i.e., large facilities, radiologist's offices, medical doctor's offices, and chiropractor's offices) will be mandated to submit all initial acceptance testing to ORH for review and approval prior to conducting clinical studies.

Section 175.62(d) of the NYC Health Code is being amended to implement the NYS Sanitary Code regulations (i.e., NYS Sanitary Code § 16.58 (a)(7), (8) and (9)) pertaining to fluoroscopic x-ray equipment as to the utilization of a new patient equivalent phantom composition[2], the maximum radiation output rate, and the measurements to be conducted by each facility to determine patient Entrance Skin Exposure (ESE). Also, as per these amendments, fluoroscopic exposure rates for the most frequently performed procedures are now to be conspicuously posted.

[2] A phantom is an object that behaves in the same manner as human tissue with respect to absorption or scattering of ionizing radiation.

Section 175.62(d) of the NYC Health Code is being amended to reflect the utilization of a new patient equivalent phantom. Per NYS Sanitary Code § 16.58 (a)(7), the new phantom adds 0.2 mm copper sheets to the existing 1½ inches Type 1100 aluminum phantom thickness to more realistically match the x-ray attenuation properties of the human abdomen. Manufacturers of x-ray fluoroscopic units have hardened the x-ray beam quality (i.e., made the x-ray beam penetrate to deeper depths in matter) over the last several years. The existing 1½ thick aluminum phantom due to the hardened x-ray beams does not simulate the attenuation properties of the human abdomen, hence, necessitating the addition of material to the 1½ inches of aluminum.

Section 175.62(d) of the NYC Health Code is being further amended to implement the language adopted in the NYS Sanitary Code §16.58 (a)(8) that conforms to the FDA fluoroscopic performance standards as reflected in 21 CFR §1020.32 (d), (e)(1), (2) (59 FR 26402, effective May 19, 1995). The NYS Department of Health has succinctly codified the FDA changes, and ORH is adopting the same language in its amendments. These performance standards mandate the maximum radiation output rate that the fluoroscopic equipment is not to exceed, determined by: 1) date of manufacture of the fluoroscopic equipment, and 2) whether a high-level boost mode is present on the equipment. The NYC Health Code is amended to reflect these more restrictive regulations as outlined in §16.58 (a)(8) of the NYS Sanitary Code.

Also, per NYS Sanitary Code §16.58 (a)(9), the State requires that patient ESE values be measured for each fluoroscopic unit and be posted. This requirement to post is to make the fluoroscopic operators aware of the typical exposures for different body sizes. Accordingly, §175.62(d) of the NYC Health Code is being updated to reflect this NYS Sanitary Code change in posting requirements.

Section 175.62(h)(1)-(2) of the NYC Health Code is being amended to implement the language adopted in NYS Sanitary Code §16.58(a)(12), (13) as to:

1) The new methodology for conducting compliance measurements for the high and low contrast resolution standards for fluoroscopic equipment; and,
2) The utilization of a new high contrast test tool, measuring high contrast resolution in line pairs per millimeter (lp/mm).

Reflecting the medical physicist's testing methods in determining high and low contrast resolution for fluoroscopic units, the State changed the testing methodology as to the fluoroscopic operating parameters (for example, determining resolution in the magnification mode of operation) and changed the test tool used to determine high contrast resolution. The NYC Health Code is being updated to reflect this more professional method in measuring the resolution performance of fluoroscopic units.

Finally, §175.64(g)(8)(ii), (iv) of the NYC Health Code is being amended to specify the use of x-ray therapy protocols developed by the American Association of Physicists in Medicine (AAPM) to be followed by each facility in conducting the annual radiation output measurement for each therapy unit, and to delineate the minimal content that should be contained in each annual calibration report by the facility for review by ORH inspectors. These provisions of the Health Code are also being modified to be more comprehensive as to the content of x-ray therapy output calibration reports and more specific as to the methodology employed in the actual output calibration measurements.

Each facility utilizing the specialized x-ray units for patient cancer treatment (denoted as LINACs) must make annual output calibrations for each unit and save these reports for review by ORH. The AAPM has published professional guidance for therapy calibration protocols that should be utilized when calibrating LINACs. If followed, the AAPM protocols result in the validity of the actual numerical value for radiation output to have an uncertainty of +/- 5%. The AAPM protocols are published in peer-reviewed journals and so represent the best collective reasoning and knowledge of the top medical physicists working in radiation therapy. Prior to this amendment, Article 175 (specifically, §175.64(g)(8)(ii)) did not delineate specific protocols to be followed during calibration of the LINACs. The amended section is now specific as to the AAPM protocols that may be followed by facilities during calibration of their LINAC units. Also, there is confusion as to the exact content of each calibration report that is to be generated and reviewed by ORH. By amending § 175.64 (g)(8)(iv), the section now accurately reflects the content of the calibration report to be retained by the facility for inspection purposes. Both changes were more in the form of clarification of existing ORH inspection standards.

The adopted rule is as follows:

(h) Respiratory protection and controls to restrict internal exposure in restricted areas.
(1) Use of process or other engineering controls. The licensee or registrant shall use to the extent practicable, process or other engineering controls, such as containment, decontamination, or ventilation, to control the concentrations of radioactive material in air.

(2) Use of other controls. When it is not practicable to apply process or other engineering controls to control the concentrations of radioactive material in air to values below those that define an airborne radioactivity area, the licensee or registrant shall, consistent with maintaining the total effective dose equivalent ALARA, increase monitoring and limit intakes by one or more of the following means:
(i) control of access; or
(ii) limitation of exposure times; or
(iii) use of respiratory protection equipment; or
(iv) other controls.
If the licensee performs an ALARA analysis to determine whether or not respirators should be used, the licensee may consider safety factors other than radiological factors. The licensee should also consider the impact of respirator use on workers' industrial health and safety.

(3) Use of individual respiratory protection equipment. (i) If the licensee or registrant uses respiratory protection equipment to limit intakes pursuant to §175.03(h)(2):

(A) Except as provided in §175.03(h)(3)(i)(B), the licensee or registrant shall use only respiratory protection equipment that is tested and certified or had certification extended by the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health and the Mine Safety and Health Administration.

(B) If the licensee or registrant wishes to use equipment that has not been tested or certified by the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health and the Mine Safety and Health Administration or has not had certification extended by the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health and the Mine Safety and Health Administration, or for which there is no schedule for testing or certification, the licensee or registrant shall submit an application to the Department for authorized use of that equipment [,]. The application must include [including] a demonstration by licensee testing [,] or a demonstration on the basis of reliable test information, that the material and performance characteristics of the equipment are capable of providing the proposed degree of protection under anticipated conditions of use.

(C) The licensee or registrant shall implement and maintain a respiratory protection program that includes:
(a) air sampling sufficient to identify the potential hazard, permit proper equipment selection, and estimate [exposures] doses; and
(b) surveys and bioassays, as [appropriate] necessary, to evaluate actual intakes; and

(c) testing of respirators for operability (user seal check for face sealing devices and functional check for others) immediately prior to each use; and
(d) written procedures regarding respirator selection [fitting] ; fit testing; inventory and control, storage, issuance [,]; maintenance, repair and testing of respirators, including testing for operability immediately prior to each use; supervision and training of [personnel] respirator users; monitoring, including air sampling and bioassays, and breathing air quality; and quality assurance and recordkeeping; and
(e) determination by a physician [prior to initial fitting of respirators, and at least every 12 months thereafter,] that the individual user is [physically able] medically fit to use the respiratory protection equipment[.] prior to initial fitting of a face sealing respirator; before the first field use of non-face sealing respirators and either every 12 months thereafter, or periodically at a frequency determined by a physician.
(f) Fit testing, with a fit factor 10 times the APF for negative pressure devices, and a fit factor greater than or equal to 500 for any positive pressure, continuous flow, and pressure demand devices, before the first field use of tight fitting, face sealing respirators and periodically thereafter at a frequency of at least once per year. Fit testing must be performed with the face-piece operating in the negative pressure mode.

(D) The licensee or registrant shall issue a written policy statement on respirator usage covering:
(a) the use of process or other engineering controls, instead of respirators; and
(b) the routine, nonroutine, and emergency use of respirators; and
(c) [the length of] limitations on periods of respirator use and relief from respirator use.

(F) The licensee or registrant shall use respiratory protection equipment within the equipment manufacturer's expressed limitations for type and mode of use [and shall provide proper visual, communication, and other special capabilities, such as adequate skin protection, when needed]. When selecting respiratory devices, the licensee shall provide for low temperature work environments, and the concurrent use of other safety or radiological protection equipment or skin protection, when needed. The licensee shall use equipment in such a way as not to interfere with the proper operation of the respirator.

(ii) When estimating exposure of individuals to airborne radioactive materials, the licensee or registrant may make allowance for respiratory protection equipment used to limit intakes pursuant to §175.03(h)(2), provided that the following conditions, in addition to those in §175.03(h)(3)(i), are satisfied:

(A) the licensee or registrant selects respiratory protection equipment that provides a protection factor, specified in Appendix A of this section, greater than the multiple by which peak concentrations of airborne radioactive materials in the working area are expected to exceed the values specified in Table 1, Column 3 of Appendix B of this section. However, if the selection of respiratory protection equipment with a protection factor greater than [the] this multiple of peak concentration is inconsistent with the goal specified in §175.03(h)(2) of keeping the total effective dose equivalent ALARA, the licensee or registrant may select respiratory protection equipment with a lower protection factor provided that such a selection would result in a total effective dose equivalent that is ALARA. [The concentration of radioactive material in the air that is inhaled when respirators are worn may be initially estimated by dividing the average concentration in air, during each period of uninterrupted use, by the protection factor. If the exposure is later found to be greater than initially estimated, the corrected value shall be used; if the exposure is later found to be less than initially estimated, the corrected value may be used.] In estimating the dose to individuals from intake of airborne radioactive materials, the concentration of radioactive material in the air that is inhaled when respirators are worn is initially assumed to be the ambient concentration in air without respiratory protection, divided by the assigned protection factor. If the dose is later found to be greater than the initially estimated dose, the corrected value must be used. If the dose is later found to be less than the initially estimated dose, the corrected value may be used.

(B) The licensee or registrant shall obtain authorization from the Department before [assigning respiratory] using assigned protection factors in excess of those specified in Appendix A of this section. The Department may authorize a licensee or registrant to use higher protection factors on receipt of an application that:
(a) describes the situation for which a need exists for higher protection factors, and
(b) demonstrates that the respiratory protection equipment provides these higher protection factors under the proposed conditions of use.

(4) Further restrictions on the use of respiratory protection equipment. The Department may impose restrictions, in addition to those in §175.03(h)(2) [and] , §175.03(h)(3) and in Appendix A to §175.03 to:
(i) ensure that the respiratory protection program of the licensee is adequate to limit [exposures of] doses to individuals [to] from intakes of airborne radioactive materials consistent with maintaining total effective dose equivalent ALARA; and
(ii) limit the extent to which a licensee may use respiratory protection equipment instead of process or other engineering controls.

2. [Only for shaven faces and where nothing interferes with the seal of tight-fitting facepieces against the skin.] The licensee shall ensure that no objects, materials or substances, such as facial hair, or any conditions that interfere with the face, face-piece seal or valve function, and that are under the control of the respirator wearer, are present between the skin of the wearer's face and the sealing surface of a tightfitting respirator face-piece. Hoods and suits are excepted.

9. Appropriate protection factors shall be determined, taking into account the design of the suit and its permeability to the contaminant under conditions of use. [There shall be a standby rescue person equipped with a respirator or other apparatus appropriate for the potential hazards and communications equipment whenever supplied-air suits are used.] Standby rescue persons are required whenever one piece atmosphere-supplying suits, or any combination of supplied air respiratory protection device and personnel protective equipment are used from which an unaided individual would have difficulty extricating himself or herself. The standby persons must be equipped with communications devices and respiratory protection devices or other apparatus appropriate for the potential hazards. The standby rescue persons shall observe or otherwise maintain continuous communication with the workers (visual, voice, signal line, telephone, radio, or other suitable means), and be immediately available to assist them in case of a failure of the air supply or for any other reason that requires relief from distress. A sufficient number of standby rescue persons must be immediately available to assist all users of this type of equipment and to provide effective emergency rescue if needed.

Definitions:

"Airpurifying respirator" means a respirator with an air purifying filter, cartridge, or canister that removes specific air contaminants by passing ambient air through the air purifying element.

"Assigned protection factor" or "APF" means the expected workplace level of respiratory protection that would be provided by a properly functioning respirator or a class of respirators to properly fitted and trained users. Operationally, the inhaled concentration can be estimated by dividing the ambient airborne concentration by the APF.

"Atmosphere-supplying respirator" means a respirator that supplies the respirator user with breathing air from a source independent of the ambient atmosphere, and includes suppliedair respirators (SARs) and self-contained breathing apparatus (SCBA) units.
"Demand respirator" means an atmosphere-supplying respirator that admits breathing air to the face-piece only when a negative pressure is created inside the face-piece by inhalation.

"Disposable respirator" means a respirator for which maintenance is not intended and that is designed to be discarded after excessive breathing resistance, sorbent exhaustion, physical damage, or endofservice-life renders it unsuitable for use. Examples of this type of respirator are a disposable halfmask respirator or a disposable escape-only selfcontained breathing apparatus (SCBA).

"Filtering face-piece" or "dust mask" means a negative pressure particulate respirator with a filter as an integral part of the face-piece or with the entire face-piece composed of the filtering medium, not equipped with elastomeric sealing surfaces and adjustable straps.

"Fit factor" means a quantitative estimate of the fit of a particular respirator to a specific individual, and typically estimates the ratio of the concentration of a substance in ambient air to its concentration inside the respirator when worn.

"Fit test" means the use of a protocol to qualitatively or quantitatively evaluate the fit of a respirator on an individual.

"Helmet" means a rigid respiratory inlet covering that also provides head protection against impact and penetration.

"Hood" means a respiratory inlet covering that completely covers the head and neck and may also cover portions of the shoulders and torso.

"Loosefitting face-piece" means a respiratory inlet covering that is designed to form a partial seal with the face.
"Negative pressure respirator" or "tight fitting respirator" means a respirator in which the air pressure inside the face-piece is negative during inhalation with respect to the ambient air pressure outside the respirator.

"Positive pressure respirator" means a respirator in which the pressure inside the respiratory inlet covering exceeds the ambient air pressure outside the respirator. "Powered air purifying respirator" or "PAPR" means an air-purifying respirator that uses a blower to force the ambient air through airpurifying elements to the inlet covering.

"Pressure demand respirator" means a positive pressure atmosphere-supplying respirator that admits breathing air to the face-piece when the positive pressure is reduced inside the face-piece by inhalation.

"Qualitative fit test" or "QLFT" means a pass/fail fit test to assess the adequacy of respirator fit that relies on the individual's response to the test agent.

"Quantitative fit test" or "QNFT" means an assessment of the adequacy of respirator fit by numerically measuring the amount of leakage into the respirator.

"Self-contained breathing apparatus" or "SCBA" means an atmosphere-supplying respirator for which the breathing air source is designed to be carried by the user.

"Suppliedair respirator" or "SAR" or "airline respirator" means an atmosphere-supplying respirator for which the source of breathing air is not designed to be carried by the user.

"Tight-fitting face-piece" means a respiratory inlet covering that forms a complete seal with the face.

"User seal check" or "fit check" means an action conducted by the respirator user to determine if the respirator is properly sealed to the face. Examples include negative pressure check, positive pressure check, irritant smoke check, or isoamylacetate check.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY

These amendments to the Health Code are promulgated pursuant to §§558 and 1043 of the Charter. Sections 558(b) and (c) of the Charter empower the Board of Health to amend the Health Code and to include in the Health Code all matters to which the Department's authority extends. Section 1043 grants the Department rule-making authority.

STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PURPOSE

The New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (the "Department") is authorized and required by law to promote and protect the health and safety of New York City residents and visitors by promoting an environment free from animal-borne diseases and hazards, as well as those caused by other vectors. The Department enforces Article 161 and Article 11 of the New York City Health Code ("Health Code") and provisions of other applicable law related to ownership and management of animals in the City of New York.

State and City laws and regulations require that dogs (a) be actively vaccinated against the disease of rabies (Health Code §11.66), (b) be licensed (Ch. 115, laws of 1894, as amended), (c) have a dog license tag attached to the dog's collar when the animal is in a public place (Health Code §161.04), and be restrained by a leash or chain not more than six feet in length when the animal is in a public place (Health Code §161.05).

In addition to the Department, special patrolmen employed by Animal Care and Control of New York City, Inc., New York City Department of Sanitation (DSNY) K-9 enforcement agents, and Police Department (NYPD) officers issue violations to the owners of dogs in a public place that do not have a dog license tag attached to their collars and for unrestrained dogs. Department of Parks and Recreation (DOPR) enforcement agents enforce Health Code §§161.03, 161.04 and 161.05 in DOPR facilities. DSNY K-9 enforcement agents also enforce New York Public Health Law §1310 ("pooper scooper" law) in areas of the City not under DOPR jurisdiction.

In 1942, restraining a dog in New York City public areas by a leash or chain, replaced a Board of Health requirement that dogs in public areas be muzzled. DOPR's current rules generally require that dogs be leashed in DOPR facilities, except as permitted by the DOPR commissioner. See DOPR rules, 56 RCNY §§1-04(i) ("Failure to control animals") and 1-05(s)(3) ("Dog runs"). In the 1990's DOPR initiated a policy of "Courtesy Hours" to accommodate dog owners in certain areas of some parks that did not have dog runs, enabling them to exercise their dogs off leash during the hours of 9:00 P.M. and 9:00 A.M. DOPR has informed the Department that this policy was implemented at the request of dog owners who had no alternative place to exercise their dogs. DOPR has requested that the Board of Health amend §161.05 of the Health Code to provide explicit authorization for the DOPR "off the leash" policy in the areas and facilities within DOPR's jurisdiction.

The Department, like DOPR, realizes that alternative space for dogs to exercise is not generally available in our urban environment. The Department recommends adoption of an amendment to §161.05 of the Health Code to allow dog owners who comply with formal DOPR rules to exercise their dogs off leash, in specific areas of specified park facilities during specified times. Department data for 2004 show that 93 (2.3%) of 4,082 dog bites reported Citywide occurred in DOPR facilities, and that about the same proportion, 86 (2.2%) of the 3,956 dog bites reported citywide, occurred in DOPR facilities in 2005. These bite reports do not indicate whether the biting dog was restrained or off leash. The Department supports codification of DOPR's policy of ACourtesy Hours,@ which has existed for more than 15 years, whereby DOPR will adopt specific rules concerning where and when dogs may be off the leash in City parks areas and facilities. In addition, rabies remains endemic in New York City and the numbers of cases of rabies in wildlife appears to be increasing: from six positive cases in 2003, to 14 in 2004, doubling to 28 cases in 2005. Wild animals, many subject to rabies, reside in City parks, and also enter New York City from suburban habitats, seeking open spaces in the City, including those in parks. While rabies remains endemic in the City, all dogs must be vaccinated against rabies, in accordance with Health Code §§11.65 and 11.66. However, when dogs are off the leash in park areas and facilities and not under their owners' constant observation, the dogs are at greater risk of exposure to rabid animals than leashed dogs. Accordingly, this Health Code amendment will require DOPR to adopt rules providing that owners of dogs off the leash maintain and present proof that their dogs have current rabies vaccinations. Finally, the proposed amendment requires the DOPR to provide the public with appropriate information concerning dog licensing and rabies vaccination requirements, as well as times when and places where in DOPR areas and facilities where dogs will be allowed off the leash.

STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 1042 – REGULATORY AGENDA

The proposed amendment was not included in the Department's Regulatory Agenda because it resulted from a recent analysis by the Department.

The proposal is as follows:

Note-matter in brackets [ ] to be deleted
Matter underlined is new

RESOLVED, that §161.05 of the New York City Health Code, set forth in title 25 of the Rules of the City of New York, as amended by resolution adopted on the seventeenth of December, two thousand three, be and the same hereby is amended to be printed together with explanatory notes, as follows:

§161.05 Dogs to be restrained.

(a) [A] Except as specified in subdivision (b) of this section, a person who owns, possesses or controls a dog shall not permit it to be in any public place or in any open or unfenced area abutting on a public place unless the dog is effectively restrained by a leash or chain not more than six feet long.

(b) Dogs within areas and facilities under the jurisdiction and control of the Department of Parks and Recreation ("DOPR"), or successor agency, shall be restrained except as otherwise permitted in accordance with the rules of the DOPR. Such rules shall require that owners of dogs allowed to be off the leash in DOPR areas and facilities maintain and provide proof of current rabies vaccination when such dogs are allowed to be off the leash. In addition, DOPR shall make available to the public information concerning rabies vaccination and dog licensure requirements, and the specific locations where and times when dogs may be allowed off the leash in DOPR areas and facilities.

[(b)] (c) Notices of violation for failure to comply with subdivision (a) of this section may be issued by any authorized employee, officer or agent of the Department, or of the Departments of Sanitation and Parks and Recreation, or successor agencies.

Notes: Section 161.05 was amended by resolution adopted on xxx, adding a new subdivision (b) authorizing the Department of Parks and Recreation to adopt rules providing for dogs to be off leash in areas and facilities under its jurisdiction and control, for owners of dogs off the leash to maintain and provide proof of rabies vaccination, and for DOPR to provide public information about dog licensing, rabies vaccination, and the times when and locations where dogs are allowed to be off leash.

STATUTORY AUTHORITY

These amendments to the New York City Health Code ("Health Code") are promulgated pursuant to Sections 556, 558 and 1043 of the New York City Charter ("Charter"). Section 556 of the Charter grants the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene (the "Department") jurisdiction to regulate matters affecting health in the City of New York. Section 558(b) and (c) of the Charter empower the Board of Health to amend the Health Code and to include in the Health Code all matters to which the Department's authority extends. Section 1043 of the Charter grants the Department rule making powers.

STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PURPOSE

In the City of New York, the Department's Bureau of Tuberculosis Control is responsible for carrying out the Department's duties under the Public Health Law, Charter, Health Code and State Sanitary Code of preventing transmission of tuberculosis (TB) disease and securing treatment for persons who have or are suspected of having TB. While the Department has been highly successful during the past decade in controlling TB transmission, including transmission of disease caused by highly resistant strains of TB, the challenge for the Department is to identify and prevent further illness from developing in populations currently at highest risk for TB exposure and disease. A first step in such efforts is testing for TB infection and use of an accurate test is essential. When active disease is ruled out in a person with positive test results, the Department recommends that such persons receive treatment for latent TB infection (LTBI) to prevent future development of active disease.

The tuberculin skin test administered by the Mantoux method (TST) has been used to screen for Mycobacterium tuberculosis infection for over a century. However, the TST has several disadvantages and there has been much interest in developing a new test to better detect TB infection.[1] Recently a new blood-based test, QuantiFERON®-TB Gold (QFT-G; Cellestis Limited, Carnegie, Victoria, Australia), was approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA). The U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) released guidelines in December 2005 that stated that QFT-G can be used in all settings in which the TST is used.[2] QFT-G is an enzyme-linked immunosorbent assay (ELISA) that detects the release of interferon-gamma (IFN-?) in whole blood from sensitized persons when it is incubated with mixtures of synthetic peptides that simulate proteins present in M. tuberculosis. QFT-G has shown similar sensitivity and better specificity than the TST.[3-6] Additionally, QFT-G results are not subjective like the TST and the test only requires one patient visit. Two other blood-based TB tests, including a new version of QFT-G, are currently being reviewed by the FDA and are expected to receive approval in the near future. There has been increasing demand for QFT-G in the community and soon it likely will be offered by many non-DOHMH providers. Blood-based tests are expected to become the standard means of detecting TB infection. Therefore, it is important that the Health Code reflect the availability of these tests and the change in TB control practice.

Accordingly, it is proposed that all provisions of the Health Code that pertain to tuberculosis testing, currently only referring to skin testing, be amended to allow use of both tuberculin skin testing administered by the Mantoux method and the new FDA approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test. These provisions include §11.03 ("Diseases and conditions reportable") and §11.47 ("Tuberculosis; reporting, examination, exclusion, removal and detention") in Article 11 (Reportable Diseases and Conditions"); §45.09 ("Staff") in Article 49 ("General Provisions Governing Schools and Children's Institutions") and §49.06 ("Mandatory tuberculosis examination") in Article 49 ("Schools"). Amendments to provisions relating to required tuberculosis examinations for day care services staff in Article 47 were adopted by the Board of Health at its June, 2006 meeting.

Additionally, it is proposed that the tuberculosis examination requirement for home employees in §11.48 ("Home Employees; testing for tuberculosis; referral.") be repealed, as no longer serving any substantive public health purpose. Since 1974, this provision has required that home employees, working for eight or more hours weekly in a household occupied by children aged six and under have pre-employment and annual tuberculin skin tests. The tested employee is required to present to the employer a written certification from a physician indicating that he or she is "free of tuberculosis in a communicable form." Although §11.48 (c) requires this certification to be retained by the employee and "exhibited to a duly designated representative of the Department on request," it is impossible to know if this testing requirement has been complied with in any regard. Moreover, the current view of the purpose of conducting screening for tuberculosis infection is to identify individuals with latent infection in order to provide treatment to prevent active tuberculosis disease. Although Department records show that there are, on average, four cases of active tuberculosis per year reported as occurring among private home employees, none of these cases were reported as a result of pre-employment or annual screening.

RESOLVED, that subsection (b) of section 11.47 of the New York City Health Code, set forth in title 24 of the Rules of the City of New York, as added by resolution adopted on the ninth of March, nineteen hundred ninety-three, be and the same hereby is, amended, to be printed together with explanatory notes, to read as follows:

(b) A physician who attends a case of active tuberculosis shall examine or cause all household contacts to be examined or shall refer them to the Department for examination. The physician shall promptly notify the Department of such referral. When required by the Department, non-household contacts and household contacts not examined by a physician shall submit to examination by the Department. An examination required by this section shall include such tests as may be necessary to diagnose the presence of tuberculosis, including but not limited to [tuberculin tests] tuberculin skin tests administered by the Mantoux method or U.S. Food and Drug Administration approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic tests, and where indicated, laboratory examinations, and x-rays. If any suspicious abnormality is found, steps satisfactory to the Department shall be taken to refer the person promptly to a physician or appropriate medical facility for further investigation and, if necessary, treatment. Contacts shall be re-examined at such times and in such manner as the Department may require. When requested by the Department, a physician shall report the results of any examination of a contact.

Notes: Subdivision (b) of §11.47 was amended by resolution adopted on XXX to add that examinations of contacts may include either a U.S. Food and Drug Administration approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test or a tuberculin skin test.

§11.47 Tuberculosis; reporting, examination, exclusion, removal and detention.
§11.48 Home Employees; testing for tuberculosis; referral. - Repealed
§11.49 Typhoid fever; isolation and exclusion.

Notes: Section 11.48 ("Home Employees; testing for tuberculosis; referral") was repealed by resolution adopted on XXX. This provision required pre-employment and annual tuberculosis testing of such employees to determine if they are "free of tuberculosis in a communicable form." The current view of the purpose of screening for tuberculosis infection is to identify individuals with latent infection in order to provide treatment to prevent active tuberculosis disease. None of the Department reports of active tuberculosis disease occurring in home employees, approximately four cases per year, resulted from pre-employment or annual screening, and the provision no longer appears to serve any substantive public health purpose.

RESOLVED, that subsection (c) of §45.09 of the New York City Health Code, set forth in title 24 of the Rules of the City of New York, as amended by resolution adopted on the twelfth of December, two thousand and two, be and the same hereby is, amended, to be printed together with explanatory notes, to read as follows

(c) A person in charge, teacher, volunteer worker or any other person who regularly associates with children shall not be permitted to work in a school, children's institution, or public or private high school nor shall any person [who is a member of] employed by the Department of Parks and Recreation [in the Recreational Occupational Group, as defined in the Rules of the Civil Service Commission, and] who regularly associates with children under the age of sixteen years in the course of an organized recreational or play program be permitted to work with such children unless a tuberculin skin test administered by the Mantoux method ("tuberculin skin test") or a U.S. Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test is performed before he or she begins employment and thereafter at such intervals as may be prescribed by the Department as necessary for the protection of children, subject to the following conditions.

(1) The tuberculin skin test or FDA approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test shall be administered and interpreted either by the Health Department or by a private physician. If the tuberculin skin test or FDA approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test shall be administered and interpreted by a private physician, it shall be administered and interpreted in accordance with such criteria as may be established by the Department to insure the accuracy of the results of such test. If the [person does not react to the] tuberculin skin test or FDA approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test is negative, X-ray examination will not be necessary. If the [person reacts to the] tuberculin skin test or FDA approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test is positive, [he] the person shall be X-rayed. The X-ray film shall either be taken by the Department or by a private physician. Such film shall be interpreted independently by at least two qualified interpreters of chest X-rays as defined by §1.03(q) of this Code. If an X-ray film is taken by a private physician, a report containing an interpretation of such film shall be specifically identified and submitted to the Department together with certificates on forms furnished by the Department. If the Department requires, the person shall be given further medical and laboratory examination and treatment, if deemed necessary by the Department.

(2) If the [person does not react to the] person's tuberculin skin test or FDA approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test result is negative or if the [person reacts to the] person's tuberculin skin test or FDA blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test result is positive but a satisfactory X-ray film has been taken or a satisfactory X-ray report has been received by the Department, and he or she is deemed by the Department as not requiring further medical or laboratory examinations, a certificate of compliance shall be issued by the Department and kept on file by the school, children's institution, or public or private high school so long as the person is employed and two years thereafter.

(3) The requirement for a tuberculin skin test or FDA approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test shall not apply when a person presents satisfactory proof that he or she (a) was treated for or diagnosed as having tuberculosis in the past, or (b) had reacted positively to a tuberculin skin test or FDA approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic test or (c) had a BCG vaccination within the five years immediately preceding such employment, in which case a chest X-ray shall be taken in lieu thereof, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision (1) of this subsection.

Notes: Subsection (c) was amended by resolution adopted on XXX to allow use of both FDA approved blood-based tuberculosis diagnostic and tuberculin skin tests to be used for diagnosing tuberculosis infection.

RESOLVED, that §49.06 of the New York City Health Code, set forth in title 24 of the Rules of the City of New York, as last amended by resolution adopted on the tenth of June, nineteen hundred ninety-six, be, and the same hereby is, amended to be printed with explanatory notes, to read as follows:

STATUTORY AUTHORITY

These amendments to the New York City Health Code ("Health Code") are proposed pursuant to Sections 556, 558 and 1043 of the New York City Charter ("Charter"). Section 556 of the Charter grants the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene ("Department") jurisdiction to regulate all matters affecting health in the City of New York. Specifically, Section 556 (a)(3) requires the Department to, "exercise its functions, powers and duties in the area extending over the city, and over the waters adjacent thereto...." Sections 558 (b) and (c) of the Charter empower the Board of Health to amend the Health Code and to include in the Health Code all matters to which the Department's authority extends. Section 1043 of the Charter grants rule-making powers to the Department.

STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PURPOSE

The Department is responsible for protecting the health and safety of the public who use permitted bathing beaches by providing for the proper construction, operation and maintenance of these facilities within New York City. Article 167 of the New York City Health Code sets forth standards for the operation and maintenance of bathing beaches under permit by the Department.

In order to maintain consistency with relevant New York State Department of Health requirements and to provide greater clarity to bathing beach operators and the public, it is proposed that certain changes be made to various provisions of Article 167, as stated below. Specifically, and for example, the current definition of "public health hazard" in the Health Code consists merely of a list of items that constitute a "public health hazard." The Department wishes to expand that list to include additional items that rise to the seriousness of a "public health hazard." Also, in order to provide greater clarity and guidance to both bathing beach operators and the public, the Department wishes to add a general definition of "public health hazard" applicable to this Article.

PROPOSED CHANGES TO THE HEALTH CODE

It is proposed that the following definition of "public health hazard" should be added to the list of definitions in Section 167.03: "'Public Health Hazard' is any condition which poses an imminent threat to the health or safety of the public." This definition is derived from the New York State Department of Health's Environmental Health Manual, Technical Reference, Item No. ADM2, dated 3/3/03. Therefore, the Department requests that Section 167.03 of the Health Code be amended to include the above definition of "public health hazard." It is further proposed that a reference to public health hazards in Section 167.17(c)(4) be amended such that the word "defined" be replaced by the word "illustrated" and to read as follows: "Presence of public health hazards as illustrated in §167.09."

It is proposed that the requirements found in the sections below should be added to Section 167.09(a) to reflect that violations of these requirements constitute a "public health hazard":

- §167.05(a), (c) (operating without a valid permit issued by the Department);
- §167.23(a) (operating without a Department-approved Beach Safety Plan);
- §167.29(b)(4),(5) (failure to provide depth markings, safety lines and diving requirements);
- §167.37(f)(1), (f)(2)(B),(C) (failure to provide appropriate safety and warning signs, e.g., when diving/swimming/bathing is allowed).

Additionally, the list of existing "public health hazards" in Section 167.09(a) should be amended to include citations to the applicable Health Code sections where none are currently cited.

Finally, it is proposed that Section 167.21(b) be amended to correct a technical unit error from "yards" to "feet", in order to be consistent with the intent of the relevant New York State Sanitary Code provision [i.e., 10 NYCRR § 6-2.17 (b)(1)], which provides that, "Lifesaving equipment shall be readily accessible at all bathing beaches." Accordingly, the amended Section 167.21(b) would read: "At least one set of the items listed in (2), (3) and (4) above shall be provided for each 500 feet of beachfront or fraction thereof, and shall be readily accessible to the lifeguards therein."

STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 1042-REGULATORY AGENDA

This proposal was not included in the Department's fiscal year 2007 Regulatory Agenda as this action is the result of recent analysis.

The proposal is as follows:

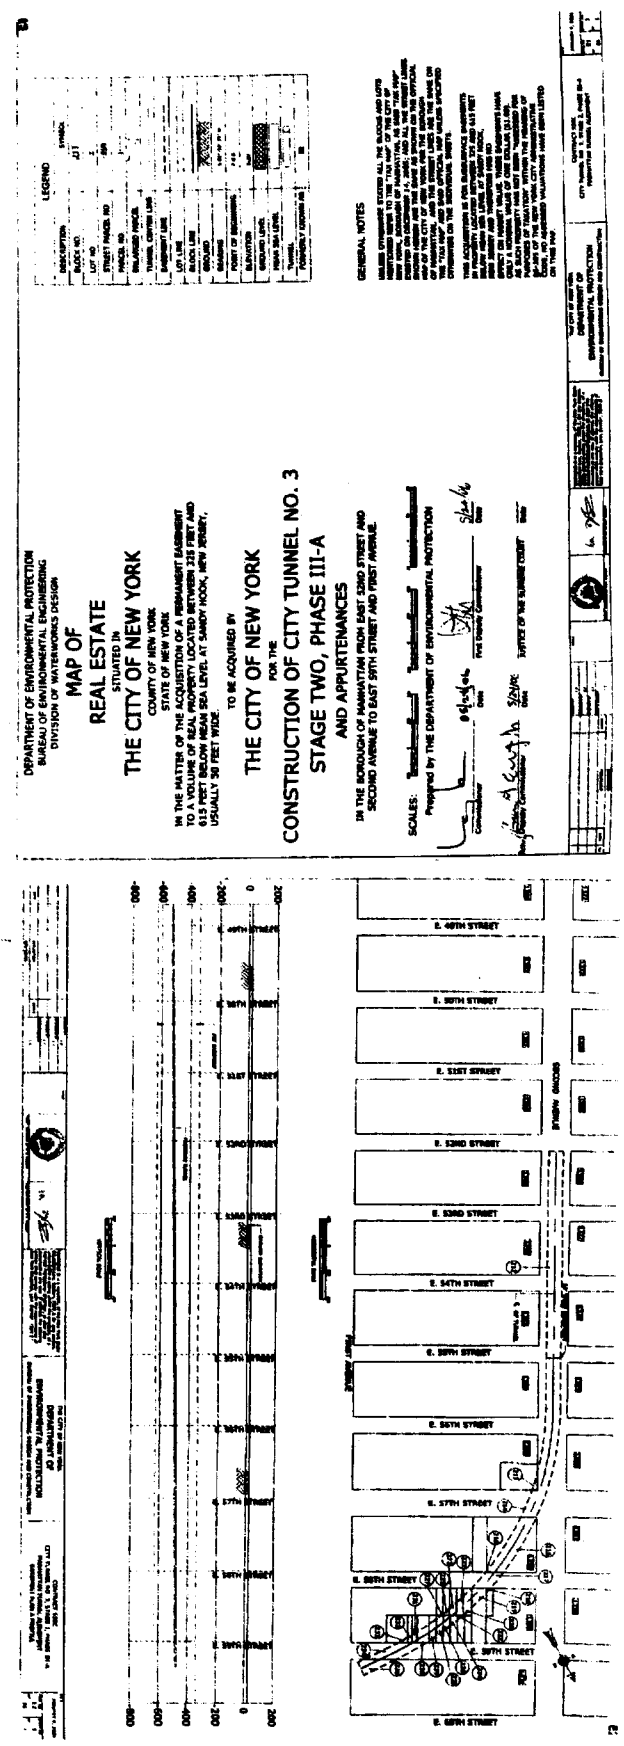
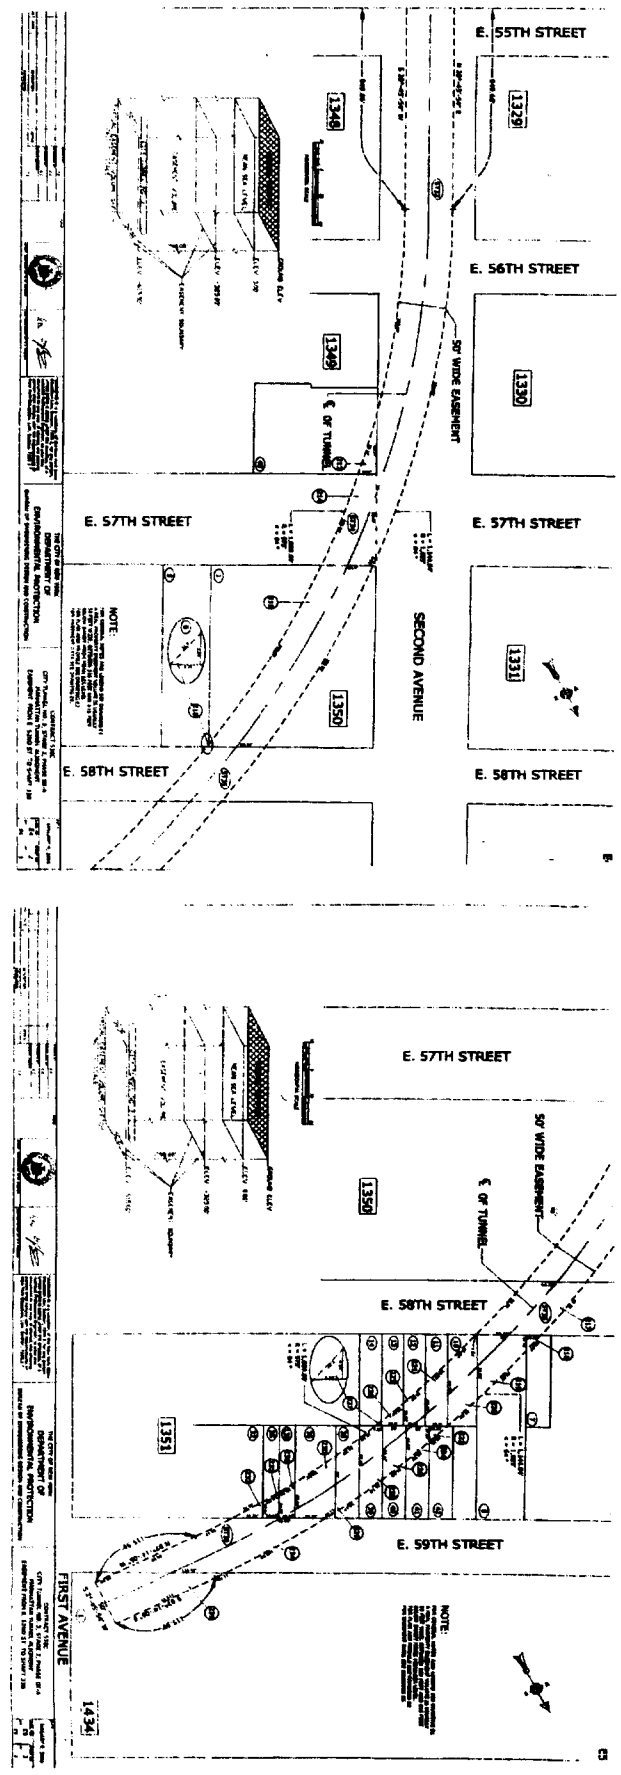
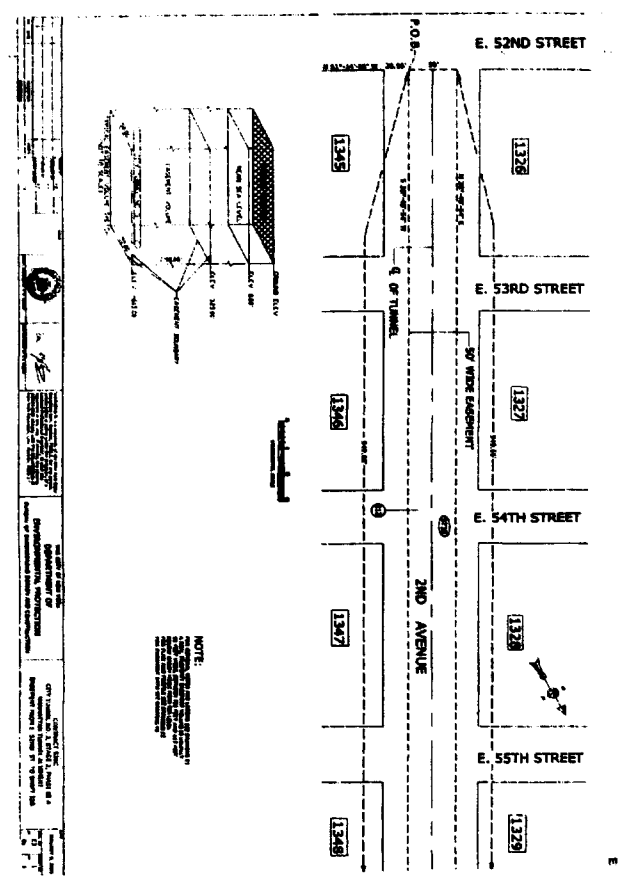
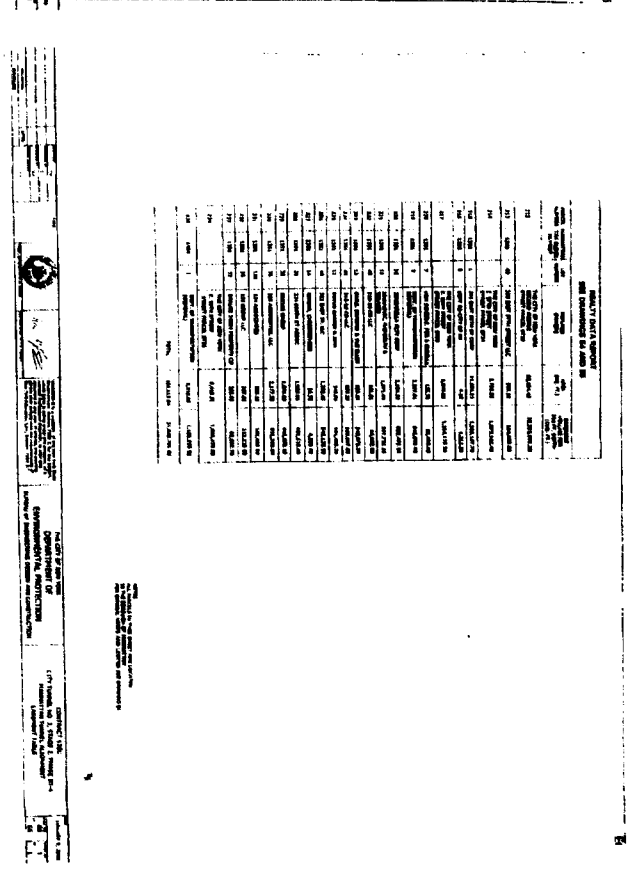
COURT NOTICE MAPS FOR CONSTRUCTION OF CITY TUNNEL NO.3 STAGE TWO, PHASE III - A AND APPURTENANCES

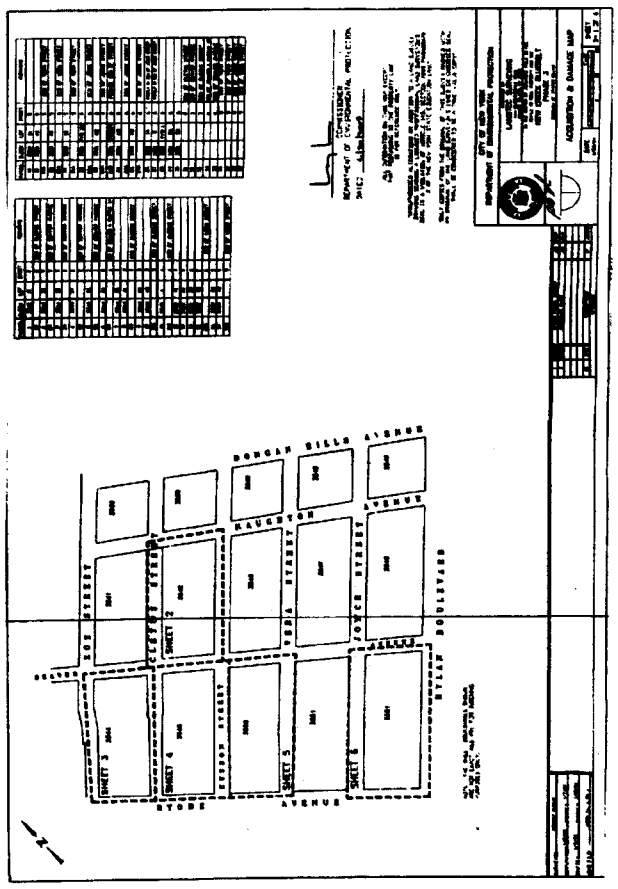


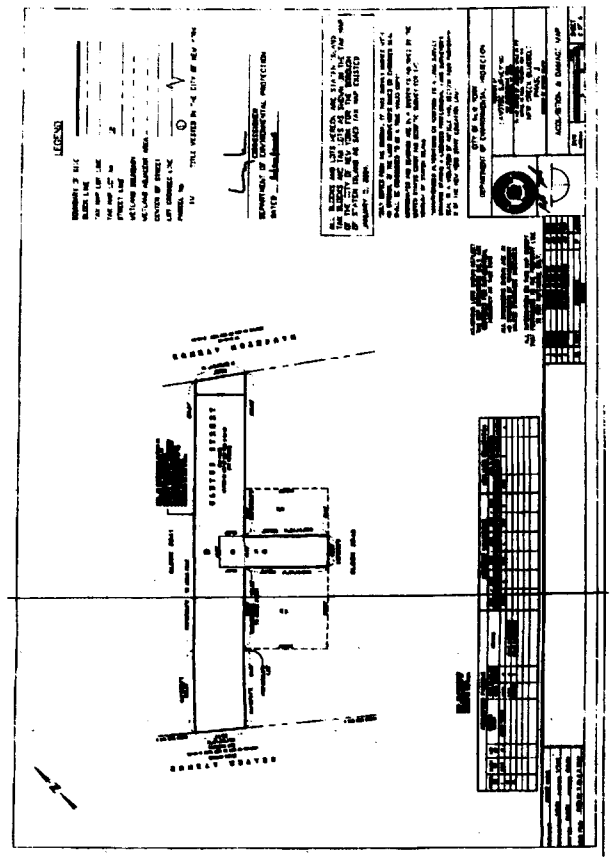


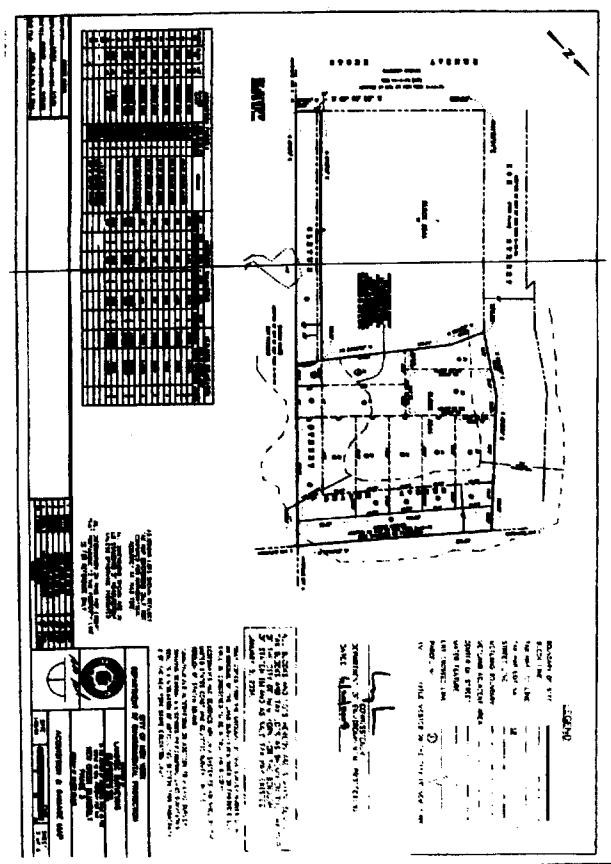


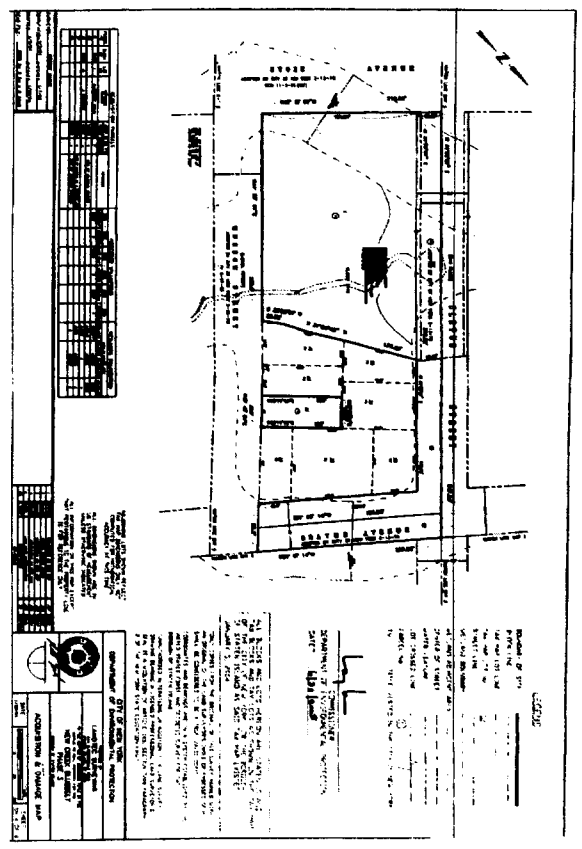


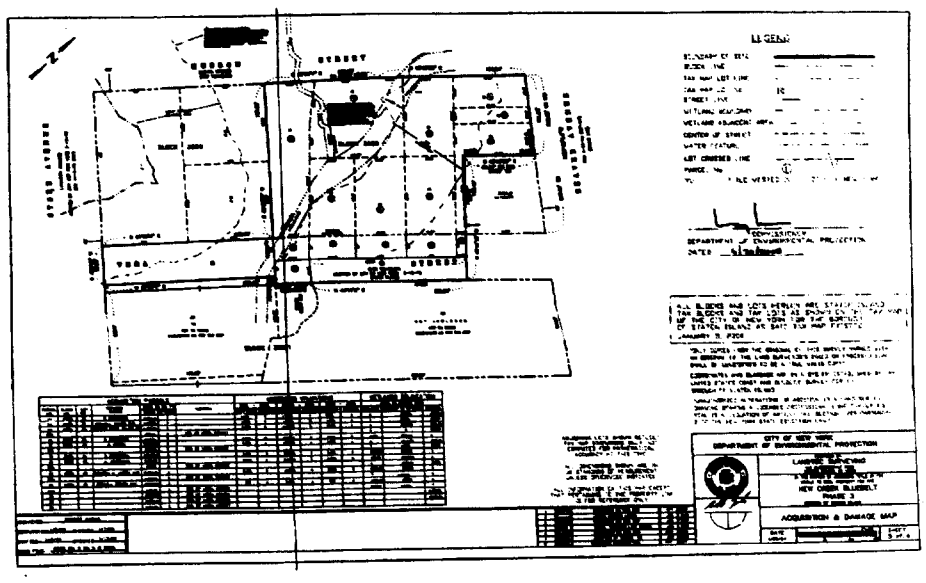
COURT NOTICE MAPS FOR NEW CREEK BLUEBELT, PHASE 3

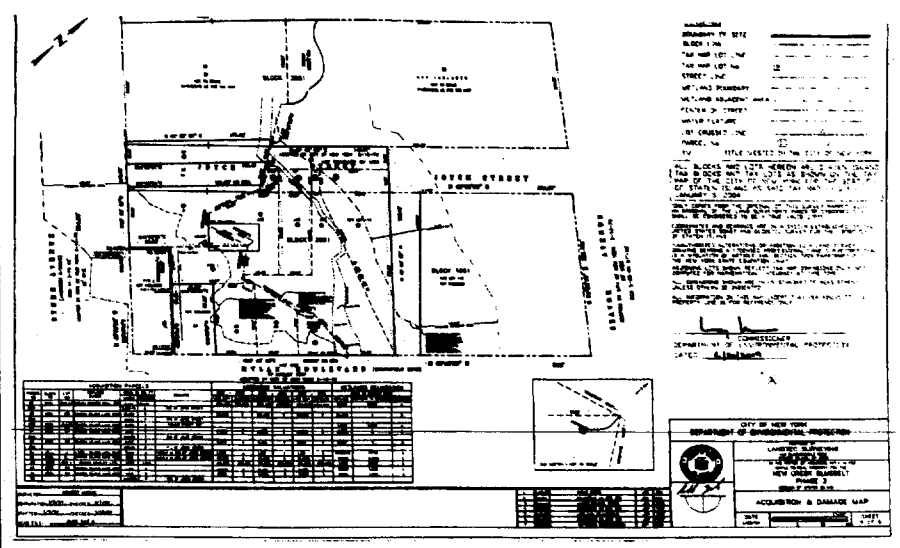












READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:
Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.
If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

PROCUREMENT POLICY BOARD RULES

The Rules may also be accessed on the City Website, http://NYC.GOV.Selltonyc

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.
