General Large-Scale Development

For #general large-scale developments# involving several #zoning lots# but planned as a unit, the district regulations may impose unnecessary rigidities and thereby prevent achievement of the best possible site plan within the overall density and #bulk# controls. For these #developments#, the regulations of this Section are designed to allow greater flexibility for the purpose of securing better site planning, while safeguarding the present or future use and development of the surrounding area.

Special provisions for bulk modification

(a) For a #general large-scale development#, the City Planning Commission may permit:

(1) distribution of total allowable #floor area#, #rooming units#, #dwelling units#, #lot coverage# and total required #open space# under the applicable district regulations within a #general large-scale development# without regard for #zoning lot lines# or district boundaries subject to the following limitations:

(i) no distribution of #bulk# across the boundary of two districts shall be permitted for a #use# utilizing such #bulk# unless such #use# is permitted in both districts;

(ii) when a #general large-scale development# is located partially in a #Residence District# or in a C1, C2, C3 or C4-1 District and partially in other #Commercial# or #Manufacturing Districts#, no transfer of commercial #floor area# to a #Residence District# or to a C1, C2, C3 or C4-1 District from other districts shall be permitted;

(2) modification of the #lot area# requirement for non-#residential uses# in a #Commercial District# with a base #floor area ratio# of 15.0 provided, that for every 750 square feet of gross #residential floor area# in the #building# there is no more than one #dwelling unit#;

(3) location of #buildings# without regard for the applicable #yard#, #court#, distance between #buildings#, or height and setback regulations; and

(4) variation in the location of primary business entrances , and #show windows# and #signs# along frontages adjacent to #zoning lots# outside the #general large-scale development# without regard to regulations applicable near #Residence District# boundaries.

(b) As a condition of granting a special permit pursuant to this Section for any #general large-scale development#, the Commission shall find that:

(1) the distribution of #floor area#, #open space#, #dwelling units#, #rooming units# and the location of #buildings#, primary business entrances , and #show windows#~~ and #signs#~~ will result in a better site plan and a better relationship among #buildings# and open areas to adjacent #streets#, surrounding development, adjacent open areas and shorelines than would be possible without such distribution and will thus benefit both the occupants of the #general large-scale development#, the neighborhood, and the City as a whole;

Modification of use regulations

(a) Waterfront and related #commercial uses#

In a C4 District, the City Planning Commission may modify applicable district regulations to allow certain boating and related #uses# listed in Use Group 14A, not otherwise allowed in such district, provided the Commission shall find that:

(1) the #uses# are appropriate for the location and blend harmoniously with the rest of the #general large-scale development#; and

(2) the #streets# providing access to such #uses# will be adequate to handle the traffic generated thereby.

The Commission may prescribe appropriate conditions and safeguards to minimize adverse effects on the character of the development.

(b) Location of #commercial uses#

For any #general large-scale development#, the City Planning Commission may permit #residential# and non-#residential uses# to be arranged within a #building# without regard for the regulations set forth in Section 32-42 (Location within Buildings) provided the Commission shall find:

(1) the #commercial uses# are located in a portion of the #mixed building# which has separate access to the outside with no opening of any kind to the #residential# portion of the #building# at any #story#;

(2) the #commercial uses# are not located directly over any #story# containing #dwelling units#; and

(3) the modifications shall not have any adverse effect on the #uses# located within the #building#.

(c) Modifications of #sign# regulations

~~(1) In C6 Districts, the City Planning Commission may modify the regulations of Section 32-65 (Permitted Projection or Height of Signs) for #signs#, other than #advertising signs#, on a non-#residential building#, provided that such #signs# will not be incompatible with the character of the surrounding area.~~

(1) In all #Commercial# or #Manufacturing Districts#, the City Planning Commission may, for #developments# or #enlargements# subject to the provisions of paragraphs (a)(1), (a)(2), or (a)(3) of Section 74-743 (Special provisions for bulk modification), permit the modification of the applicable provisions of Sections 32-64 (Surface Area and Illumination Provisions), 32-65 (Permitted Projection or Height of Signs), 32-66 (Additional Regulations for Signs Near Certain Parks and Designated Arterial Highways), 42-53 (Surface Area and Illumination Provisions), 42-54 (Permitted Projection or Height of Signs), 42-55 (Additional Regulations for Signs Near Certain Parks and Designated Arterial Highways), and, the limitations on the location of #signs# in Sections 32-51 and 42-44 (Limitations on Business Entrances, Show Windows or Signs), provided the Commission finds that such modification will result in a better site plan.

The Commission may administratively, upon application, allow modifications of the special permit granted under Section 74-74 (Commercial Development Extending into More than One Block) before February 22, 1990.

In no event may the Commission grant a modification of a special permit approved prior to February 22, 1990, that would require additional #bulk# distribution among #zoning lots# or modification of the height and #lot coverage# limitations previously established. Any modifications exceeding the limitations set forth herein shall be subject to the provision of the new Section 74-74 (General Large-Scale Development).

No existing #plaza#, #residential plaza#, #urban plaza#, or other public amenity for which a #floor area# bonus or any increase in tower coverage above 40 percent of the #lot area# of the #zoning lot# has been received under Section 74-74 (Commercial Development Extending into More than One Block) prior to February 22, 1990 shall be eliminated or reduced in size except by special permit of the Commission pursuant to a finding that a proposed change will provide a greater public benefit in the light of the public amenity's purpose.

(1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and

(2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community.

To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Business Services,

New York, New York 10038 (212) 618-8782.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July. The Procurement Policy Board annually publishes prompt payment results, which may be obtained by calling (212) 788-7820.

To learn more about the City's prompt payment policy, you can obtain a copy of the City's Vendor Payment Guidelines form the Procurement Policy Board, 51 Chambers Street, Room 1126, New York 10007 by calling (212) 788-7820

PROCUREMENT POLICY BOARD RULES

To obtain a copy of the Procurement Policy Board Rules either in hard copy or on disk, call the Procurement Policy Board office, (212) 788-7820. The Rules may also be accessed on the City Website, http://NYC.GOV.

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations: Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, to Services, or to Construction. Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

DEVELOPMENT TRANSITIONAL RESIDENCES FOR HOMELESS ADULTS AND FAMILIES AND DROP IN CENTERS FOR ADULTS – CSP – PIN# 071-00S003262 – The Department of Homeless Services is soliciting proposals from organizations interested in developing and operating transitional residences for homeless adults and families and drop-in centers for adults. This is an open-ended solicitation; there is no due date for submission. Proposals will be reviewed by the Department as they are received and contracts will be awarded on an on-going basis, until the agency's capacity needs are met. DHS reserves the right to award a contract on the basis of initial offers received without discussion. Contracts will be awarded to responsible applicants whose negotiated offers are determined to be the most advantageous to the City, taking into consideration the price and other such factors and criteria set-fourth in the RFP. Contract award will be subject to the timely completion of contract negotiations between the agency and the selected proposer.

It is anticipated that the transitional residence contracts will range from 5 to 30 years and the drop-in centers will be for three years with one three year option to renew.

Pursuant to Section 312(c)(1)(ii) of the New York City Charter, the Competitive Sealed Bid procurement method is not the most advantageous method because judgement is required in evaluating competing proposals, and it is in the best interest of the city to require a balancing of price, quality and other factors.

Thus, pursuant to Section 3-03(c) of the Procurement Policy Board Rules, the open ended RFP will be used because the Department will select qualified providers to develop and operate transitional residences in order to address the need to create additional shelter capacity citywide. In addition, this open-ended method will provide interested applicants an opportunity to propose sites for the targeted population, as they become available for shelter development.

All proposers must meet the following minimum qualifications 1) must have a tax exempt status under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and or be legally incorporated and 2) must demonstrate that they have, or can obtain by the contract start date, site control of the proposed facility location.

Any organization that believes it can provide these services may contact: Calvin Pitter, Deputy Agency Chief Contracting Officer at the Department of Homeless Services at (212) 361-8000, 33 Beaver Street 13th Flr., New York, NY 10004, to request a copy of the application, which is available for pick-up only Monday through Friday on business days between the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Section 9-03 Minimum Requirements for Individuals Working on Suspension Scaffolds

(a) Applicability. In accordance with section 26-172 and 26-182 of the Administrative Code and Subchapter 19 of Chapter 1 of Title 27, "Safety of Public and Property During Construction Operations," the rules in this section establish minimum requirements for all individuals working on or operating suspension scaffolds, either performing construction or alteration work pursuant to a permit issued by the Department, or performing rigging or sign hanging work under the supervision of a licensed master or special rigger or a master or special sign hanger.

(b) Minimum Requirements. Only the following individuals may work on or operate a suspension scaffold:
(1) Where work is performed either by or under the supervision of a licensed rigger or sign hanger, the following persons may work on or operate a suspension scaffold:

(i) a licensed master or special rigger,
(ii) a licensed master or special sign hanger,
(iii) a rigging or sign hanging foreman as described in '9-01 and '9-02, or
(iv) a rigging or sign hanging crew member issued a certificate of fitness by the licensed rigger or sign hanger or his or her designated rigging or sign hanging foreman.

(2)(i) Where construction or alteration work is performed pursuant to a permit issued by the Department and, in accordance with '26-173 and '26-184 of the Administrative Code, such work is not performed by or under the supervision of a licensed rigger or sign hanger, the following persons may work on or operate a suspension scaffold:

(A) a person who holds a certificate of completion from a recognized scaffold safety training course as set forth in subdivision (d)(1) and (d)(3) of this section, or
(B) an apprentice in a recognized program, as set forth in subdivision (d)(2) of this section, or
(C) a person who holds a challenge examination certificate from a recognized administrator of challenge examinations, as set forth in subdivision (d)(4) of this section.
(ii) In accordance with '27-1045, it shall be the responsibility of the superintendent of construction to ensure that any person working on or operating a suspension scaffold on the job site has the necessary certificate of completion or challenge examination certificate or is enrolled in a recognized apprenticeship program. The superintendent of construction must maintain written records to such effect.

(3) In addition to those persons listed in (b)(1) and (b)(2) above, a registered architect or professional engineer who is familiar with rigging hardware, rigging equipment setup and operation, pertinent Building Code provisions, Federal OSHA and State safety standards, emergency procedures, and recommended industry safe work practices may work on or operate a suspension scaffold, provided, however, that a registered architect or professional engineer not familiar with such codes, standards, procedures and practices may ride on a scaffold to perform inspections so long as the architect or engineer does not perform work from or operate the scaffold,

(c) Certificate of Fitness.
(1) Minimum Requirements. A person issued a certificate of fitness must:

(i) be found capable of performing the scaffold work in a safe and responsible manner by the issuer at the time of issuance, and
(ii) be able to communicate without difficulty with the supervising licensed rigger, licensed sign hanger, rigging or sign hanging foreman, or superintendent of construction on site, and either
(iii) possess a certificate of completion from a recognized scaffold safety training course in accordance with subdivisions (d)(1) and (d)(3) of this section, or
(iv) be enrolled in a recognized scaffold apprenticeship program in accordance with subdivision (d)(2) of this section, or
(v) possess a challenge examination certificate in accordance with subdivision (d)(4) of this section.

(2) Persons Authorized to Issue a Certificate of Fitness. The following persons may issue a certificate of fitness:

(i) a licensed master or special rigger,
(ii) a licensed master or special sign hanger, or
(iii) a rigging or sign hanging foreman designated pursuant to sections 9-01 or 9-02 of these rules, as agent of the licensee.

(3) Duty of Licensee to Ensure Compliance. It shall be the sole responsibility of the licensee who issues the certificate of fitness, either personally or through a designated foreman, to ensure that the individual who receives the certificate meets the requirements of subdivision (c)(1) of this section for the particular job. It shall be the licensee's responsibility to maintain written records and copies relating to whom and when certificates were issued, as well as each certificate holder's certificate of completion from a recognized scaffold safety training course or apprentice program or challenge examination certificate, which substantiates the individual's fitness. If a person issued a certificate of fitness is later found to be unqualified or to have failed to work on a suspension scaffold in a safe and workmanlike manner, it shall be the licensee's responsibility to rescind the certificate of fitness and to remove the subject person from the job.

(4) The Certificate of Fitness. The certificate of fitness must include the name of the holder, the date of the issuance, the name, and license number of the licensee, the name, address, and telephone number of the company, and the signature of the issuer.

(i) Job-specific certificate of fitness for crew members employed only for a particular job or jobs. The certificate of fitness must contain the job location for which such certificate is valid as well as the duration of the job (see exhibit 2). Such certificate of fitness, as well as a photo identification of the certificate holder acceptable to the Department, must be available on site for inspection.
(ii) Certificate of fitness for regular members of the licensee's rigging or sign hanging crew. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision (c)(4)(i) of this section, at the option of the issuer, a permanent non job-specific photo identification or certificate of fitness may be issued to regular members of the licensee's or of the licensee's business association's rigging or sign hanging crews.

(d) Recognized Scaffold Safety Training Courses and Apprenticeship Programs.

(1) Recognized Scaffold Safety Training Course. Any organization (e.g. private, governmental, non-profit, or trade union) or institute may apply to the Department for recognition of its scaffold safety training course. Such application shall be made to the Department's Cranes and Derricks Division and shall include: instructors' qualifications, curriculum, teaching schedule, and materials used. The training course must include a significant field component, including instruction in rigging hardware (e.g. ropes, blocks, motors, scaffolds, controls, etc.), methods (e.g. reeving, suspension, startup procedures, netting, etc.), and applicable laws (NYC Building Codes and rules, OSHA standards, etc.). The Department may participate in or observe any training course without prior notification, and reserves the right to rescind recognition. The Department shall inform or approve a recognized course in writing, and shall maintain a list of approved training courses. Any organization or institute that offers the recognized scaffold safety training course must also offer a challenge examination outlined in subdivision (d)(4) of this section, either free or at a nominal cost to all applicants.

(2) Recognized Apprenticeship Program. Any organization (e.g. private, governmental, non-profit, trade union) may apply to the Department for recognition of its scaffold safety training apprenticeship program. The requirements for recognition are the same as for a recognized scaffold safety training course as set forth in subdivision (d)(1) of this section.

(3) Certificate of Completion. The organization providing a recognized scaffold safety training course or apprenticeship program may issue identification cards or certificates of completion to individuals who successfully complete the recognized course or program. The certificate of completion issued must include the name and address of the issuing organization, the date of issuance, and the name of the recipient, and must state "NYC DOB Recognized Scaffold Safety Training Course" or "Apprenticeship Program." Such certificate must be signed by the course administrator.

(4) Challenge Examination and Challenge Examination Certificate. The challenge examination shall be administered by organizations or institutes that conduct a recognized scaffold safety training course or recognized apprenticeship program. The challenge examination shall consist of written and hands-on tests that enable successful candidates to demonstrate a minimum level of knowledge and skills equivalent to graduates of a recognized scaffold safety training course or apprenticeship program. A person passing the challenge examination shall be issued a challenge examination certificate by the course or examination administrator. This challenge examination certificate shall be the equivalent to the certificate of completion and shall consist of similar data, format and signature as set forth in subdivision (d)(3) of this section.

Written and hands-on tests for the challenge examination shall be submitted to and pre-approved in writing by the Department of Buildings, Cranes and Derricks Division. The Cranes and Derricks Division reserves the right to monitor the test to ensure its quality and fairness, and to revoke any approval if guidelines are not adhered to. Organizations or institutes that offer recognized scaffold safety training or apprenticeship programs in English or in any other language must offer an equivalent challenge examination in the appropriate language to any applicant regardless of his or her gender, race, national origin, organization or union membership, religion, or creed.

(e) Compliance. Failure to comply with the above rules, including but not limited to any person working on a suspension scaffold unable to produce either a valid certificate of fitness or, where applicable, a certificate of completion or a challenge examination certificate and a photo identification card, may result in the Department's ordering all work stopped, issuing violations, and commencing disciplinary action against the licensee, and/or commencing proceedings for the imposition of fines or civil penalties.

(f) Effective date. The provisions of this section 9-03 shall take effect on and after [September 1, 2000] May 1, 2001.

STATEMENT OF BASIS AND PURPOSE

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES

Reports of the Committee on Finance

L.U. No. 686

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving an application No. 20005250 HAK, an Urban Development Action Area Project, located at 204 Tapscott Street, Council District No. 41, Borough of Brooklyn. This matter is subject to Council review and action pursuant to Article 16 of the New York General Municipal Law, at the request of the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development, and pursuant to § 696 of the General Municipal Law for a real property tax exemption.

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on February 29, 2000 (Minutes page 463) the annexed Land Use resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

Pursuant to Section 577 of the Private Housing Finance Law and Section 696 of the General Municipal Law (GML), the Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) requests partial property tax exemptions for properties that will provide housing for low, moderate, and middle income persons. These properties are developed under programs initiated by HPD. These projects, organized and operated by private not-for-profit Housing Development Fund Corporations (HDFC's) formed under Article XI may be granted exemptions from real property taxes by the local legislative body for a period of up to forty (40) years.

These properties are currently owned by the City, and thus pay no property taxes. Approval of the exemptions will result in partial tax payment on every property.

The City Council Land Use Committee has approved the disposition of these city-owned properties as Urban Development Action Area Projects.

HOMEWORKS

HomeWorks was created with the goal of expanding homeownership opportunities for all New Yorkers. Under this program, one to four family vacant City-owned buildings are sold to developers selected through a competitive Request for Proposals. Developers, which may be for-profit developers, not-for-profit organizations or joint ventures between them, are selected based on the extent to which their proposal minimizes the use of a City subsidy and on the overall strength and experience of their team. The developers are responsible for the construction, marketing and sale of the houses which all will contain from one to four units. Because of the programmatic objectives stabilizing communities and providing homeownership opportunities to the widest range of New Yorkers, the incomes of potential homebuyers are not restricted.

Pursuant to Section 696 of the General Municipal Law, a partial exemption from real property taxes is granted for six years. A full exemption is allowed for the first three years, and phased out in equal decrements over the following three years.

PARTNERSHIP NEW HOMES

Under the Partnership New Homes Program, the NYC Partnership Housing Development Fund Company purchases vacant properties from the City for purposes of constructing one two and three family homes for purchase by moderate and middle income owners (families earning between $32,000 and $70,950).

Through an RFQ process, the City and Partnership choose a builder/developer who will arrange private financing of the project. The projects are subsidized by City Article 16 Loan Funds and State Affordable Housing Funds (averaging $10,000 and $15,000 respectively per dwelling unit), and are repaid through the mortgage on the homes and resale profits.

Pursuant to Section 696 of the General Municipal Law, a partial exemption from real property is granted for twenty years. A full exemption is allowed for the first ten years, and phased out in equal decrements over the following ten years. Full taxes will be paid upon completion of the 20 year term.

TENANT INTERIM LEASE (TIL)

HPD initiated TIL to encourage private ownership and management of low income housing properties and to divest the city of its in-rem stock. The City rehabilitates occupied in-rem buildings and sells them for a nominal fee of $250 per dwelling unit to Housing Development Fund Companies (HDFC) organized pursuant to Article XI of State Private Housing Finance Law (PHFL). In TIL, they are managed by tenant HDFC's as low income housing cooperatives. Tenants are subject to income restrictions pursuant to Section 576 of the PHFL. Monthly rent for such apartments is typically $80-$90 per zoning room but does not exceed 30% of a tenant's annual income.

An exemption from property taxes will be allowed for that portion of the assessed value of the property which exceeds the ceiling amount determined by HPD. The ceiling is increased annually by an amount not to exceed 6%, and cannot increase by more than 20% over 5 years. Full taxes are paid up to the ceiling amount and a total exemption is allowed on that portion of the assessed value which exceeds this amount. This ceiling level was calculated so property tax payments would be approximately 10% of a building's entire budget. This level would reflect other property tax exemptions made available through Federal Section 202 and Mitchell-Lama programs.

The assessed value base amount for ceiling calculations was established at $3,500 per residential unit in 1989-90. The Fiscal 2000 maximum ceiling amount has increased to $5,040, which represents property tax payments of approximately $542 for each dwelling unit.

Exemptions under this program are effective until July 1, 2029 and resale restrictions are placed on all properties to Board of Estimate Resolution 78 of 1980 as amended by Resolution 56 of 1982.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

In connection herewith, Council Members Berman, Eisland and Linares offered the following resolution:

Res. No. 1398

Resolution approving an Urban Development Action Area Project located at 204 Tapscott Street (Block 3549/Lot 46), Brooklyn, and waiving the urban development action area designation requirement and the Uniform Land Use Review Procedure, pursuant to Sections 693 and 694 of the General Municipal Law (L.U. No. 686; 20005250 HAK).

By Council Members Berman, Eisland and Linares

Whereas, the New York City Department of Housing Preservation and Development ("HPD") submitted to the Council its request dated January 26, 2000 that the Council take the following actions regarding the following Urban Development Action Area Project (the "Project") located at 204 Tapscott Street (Block 3549/Lot 46), Borough of Brooklyn (the "Disposition Area"):

1. Find that the present status of the Disposition Area tends to impair or arrest the sound growth and development of the municipality and that the proposed Urban Development Action Area Project is consistent with the policy and purposes stated in Section 691 of the General Municipal Law;
2. Waive the area designation requirement of Section 693 of the General Municipal Law pursuant to said Section;
3. Waive the requirements of Sections 197-c and 197-d of the New York City Charter pursuant to Section 694 of the General Municipal Law;
4. Approve the Project as an Urban Development Action Area Project pursuant to Section 694 of the General Municipal Law; and
5. Approve the exemption of the Project from real property taxes pursuant to Section 696 of the General Municipal Law (the "Tax Exemption").

For 24 years Rev. Int. No. 718

Report of the Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs & International Intergroup Relations in favor of approving and adopting a local law in relation to a street name, Gershwin Way, Borough of Manhattan and the repeal of local law number 77 for the year 1999.

The Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs & International Intergroup Relations to which it was referred on February 8, 2000 (Minutes page 309) the annexed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

Following the enactment of Local Law No. 77 for 1999, it was determined that designating West 50th Street, between 8th Avenue and Broadway, as George Gershwin Way failed to recognize the unique partnership and achievements of George and Ira Gershwin. In order to correct this omission, this proposed local law would simply repeal the aforementioned designation and replace it with the more inclusive Gershwin Way designation.

Manhattan Community Board No. 5 supports this proposed local law.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

Int. No. 722

Report of the Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs & International Intergroup Relations in favor of approving and adopting a local law in relation to a corner name, W. Haywood Burns Corner, Borough of Manhattan.

The Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs & International Intergroup Relations to which it was referred on February 29, 2000 (Minutes page 448) the annexed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

The following biographical information is derived from material that was provided by the City University of New York Law School at Queens College, the law firm of Van Lierop, Burns and Schaap and from "Lawyers You'll Like, Putting Human Rights First", by Michael Steven Smith, published in 1999 by Smyrna Press.

W. Haywood Burns was born in 1940. He was a Harvard Scholar in Residence at Cambridge University in England in 1962 and 1963 and he received his Juris Doctor (J.D.) degree from the Yale University Law School in 1966. Following his graduation from law school, W. Haywood Burns became an Associate at the law firm of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton and Garrison.

From September, 1966 to September, 1967, he was a Law Clerk to Hon. Constance Baker Motley, a United States District Court Judge for the Southern District of New York. From September, 1967 through December, 1969, W. Haywood Burns was employed as the Assistant Counsel for the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. and from January, 1970 through December, 1973 he was the Director of the National Conference of Black Lawyers.

W. Haywood Burns' love of teaching led him to accept the following teaching positions:

- Visiting Professor of Law, State University of New York at Buffalo, 1974-1975
- Associate Professor of Law, New York University School of Law, 1976-1977
- Adjunct Professor, New York Law School
- Greenberg Professor of Urban Legal Studies, City College, City University of New York
- Vice Provost and Dean for Urban and Legal Programs, City College, City University of New York
- Director, The Max E. and Filomen M. Greenberg Center for Legal Education and Urban Policy, City College, City University of New York
- Chair, Urban Legal Studies Program, City College, City University of New York, 1977-1987
- Adjunct Professor of Law, City University of New York Law School at Queens College, 1984-1987
- Dean and Professor of Law, City University of New York Law School at Queens College, 1987-1994
- Visiting Professor, Yale Law School, 1994-1995

On page 41 of his book, referred to above, Michael Steven Smith poignantly describes some of the achievements of the life of W. Haywood Burns and the irony of the circumstances of W. Haywood Burns' death in 1996.

> "He represented Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in the Poor People's Campaign in the 1960s. King was murdered in Memphis but Haywood came through unscathed. He represented Angela Davis, successfully defending her in a frame-up charge of murder and kidnapping. He organized the defense of the Attica brothers, charging Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller with the responsibility for "human tragedy that ranks in the annals of national disgrace with My Lai." He was an anti-apartheid fighter in the 1980s and the 1990s when things in South Africa were pretty rough. He helped found the National Conference of Black Lawyers to "represent the Black Revolution".
> "But such is the irony of history that in Cape Town, South Africa, after the dust had settled, our friend, comrade and mentor, former National Lawyers Guild president and City University of New York law professor, and partner in the Harlem law firm of Van Lierop, Burns and Schaap, Haywood Burns, was killed by a truck running a stop sign."

W. Haywood Burns was survived by his wife, Jennifer Dohrn and his children Seth Rubin, Jeremiah Burns and Amilcar, Haydee and Ata Dohrn-Melendez, his brothers Junious Leon Burns and Joseph L. Teel and his sister Nancy Arlene Clark.

The corner to be named through enactment of this proposed local law is across from the office of the law firm in which he was a partner.

Manhattan Community Board No. 9 supports this legislation.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

(For text, see Introduction and Reading of Bills printed in the Minutes of the Stated Meeting of February 29, 2000, page 448.)

REPORTS:

The following biographical information was provided by the Sunnyside Chamber of Commerce and by the Sabba family.

Joseph ("Joe") Sabba was born on August 28, 1916. He attended school through the seventh grade when he went to work for Burt Heller in Brooklyn selling newspapers on the subway. In 1946, Joe Sabba bought a partnership in the Woodside Herald beginning a lengthy career of community involvement. He was the originator and chairman for over 25 years of the Sunnyside Flag Day Parade and was the founder and chairman of the Sunnyside Drum and Bugle Corps. Joe Sabba was also a member of the Board of Directors and Past President of the Sunnyside Kiwanis Club as well as of the Sunnyside Chamber of Commerce.

Joe Sabba died on May 26, 1999.

Res. No. 1237

Report of the Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs & International Intergroup Relations in favor of approving a resolution urging Attorney General Janet Reno to suspend the deportation hearing and to reexamine the McAllister family's case with a view toward granting them political asylum, based on the fact that their lives would certainly be in danger were they to be deported.

The Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs & International Intergroup Relations to which it was referred on March 20, 2000 (Minutes page 575) the annexed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

In October of 1988, Bernadette and Malachy McAllister and their four children fled Northern Ireland in fear of their lives after gunmen fired 25 shots into their Belfast home, narrowly missing the McAllisters' children and Mrs. McAllister's mother. Malachy McAllister's security files had been leaked to these assassins by the Royal Ulster Constabulary, the Northern Ireland police force. The McAllister family fled first to Canada and, eventually, to the United States where they have been denied political asylum and where the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) has initiated proceedings to deport them back to Northern Ireland. Relatives and friends of the McAllister family remaining in Northern Ireland have similarly been the targets of politically motivated violence. Theresa Clinton, one of the McAllister's relatives, was shot to death in her Belfast living room. Shots have been fired into the home of a McAllister family friend who resides a few blocks from the McAllister's former Belfast home.

Forty-six (46) members of Congress, Council Speaker Peter F. Vallone, Council Member Kathryn Freed, the New York City Comptroller and the New York City Public Advocate have all expressed support for the McAllister family.

This Resolution urges Attorney General Reno to suspend the deportation hearing pending before the INS and to grant the family political asylum in this country in recognition of the danger to their lives should they be returned to Northern Ireland.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 233

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Maltese, S.6999, and Assembly Member Seminerio, A.9942,"AN ACT to amend chapter 609 of the laws of 1996, allowing correction members of the New York city employees' retirement system to elect the benefits provided by chapter 936 of the laws of 1990, or chapter 631 of the laws of 1993, in relation to extending the time for such elections".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on April 12, 2000 (Minutes page 855) the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would allow New York City correction employees who failed to elect participation in the twenty year retirement benefit program during the original "window period" to enroll in the program if such employees file with the New York City Employees' Retirement System, a written request before December 31, 2000. The legislation would require those correction employees who opt into the program to pay additional contributions retroactive to December 19, 1990 for those correction officers below the rank of captain, and August 4, 1993 for those correction officers of the rank of captain and above. The rights of eligible members to opt for coverage by the provisions of Sections 445-a, 445-c, 504-a or 504-b of the New York State Retirement and Social Security Law ended with the close of the previous election period. This legislation would create a new election period ending on December 31, 2000.

According to Senator Maltese's Memorandum in Support, sound public policy entails maintaining a young and vigorous membership in the Uniformed Correction Services. According to the Memorandum, the enactment of this legislation would be consistent with this goal.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01
Revenues (+)	None	None	None

Impact on Revenues: There would be no impact on revenues as a result of this legislation.

Impact on Expenditures: This proposed legislation would cost approximately $1 million in fiscal year 2001, however on April 20th the Board of Directors of the New York City Employees' Retirement System approved new methods and assumptions including a restart in the pension assets valuation which in effect creates an "asset cushion" (assets greater than liabilities). If these new methods and assumptions are adopted by the State legislature as expected there will be no additional contribution required by the City to NYCERS if this legislation were to become law.

This legislation shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in effect on and after December 31, 1996.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on April 12, 2000 (Minutes page 858) the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would allow members of the police pension fund to obtain retirement cr4edit for absences without pay for child care leave. Members must file a claim for such service credit with the pension fund by December 31, 2001 or ninety days following termination of the child care leave, whichever is later. Members must also contribute the amount they would have contributed to the fund during their leave.

According to Assemblyman Vitaliano's Memorandum in Support, many police officers, due to type of work they perform, are forced to take leaves of absence after the birth of a child beyond that afforded through sick leave. This legislation would provide these officers with a mechanism to restore these benefits by making contributions to offset a portion of the costs.

This legislation shall take effect immediately.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 246

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Paterson, S.3201-A and Assembly Member Wright, A.3049-A, "AN ACT authorizing the city of New York to reconvey its interest in certain real property acquired by in rem tax foreclosure in the borough of Manhattan to former owner Elisa O'Reilly notwithstanding expiration of the two year period within which application may be made to the city to release its interest in property thus acquired; Block No. 1728, Lot No. 16 on tax map for the borough of Manhattan".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on May 10, 2000 (Minutes page 1070) the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

The New York City Charter requires that sale of city-owned property be at public auction or by sealed bids, except as otherwise provided by law. Therefore, state legislative authorization is necessary to permit reconveyance of city-owned property to the former owner.

This legislation authorizes the city of New York to reconvey the real property designated as Block No. 1728, Lot No. 16 on the tax map of Manhattan to Elisa O'Reilly. Such reconveyance may be made upon approval of the In Rem Foreclosure Release Board subject to the grantee meeting certain conditions precedent.

The City of New York acquired title to these premises based on non-payment of taxes. Reportedly, the non-payment of taxes was due to an absence of notice and the inadvertent failure of, the former owner of such property, to pay taxes thereon.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 255

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Spano, S.7083, and Assembly Member Vitaliano, A.10025, "AN ACT to amend chapter 666 of the laws of 1990, amending the administrative code of the city of New York and the education law relating to the availability of additional pension benefits for an extended second public employment to certain retirees, in relation to extending the application of the provisions thereof ".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on May 24, 2000 (Minutes page 1247) the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would allow certain members in the public retirement system who were eligible to retire upon 25 years of service or less, and who retired and subsequently undertook a second career in public service which would have otherwise entitled them to become a member of the public retirement system from which he or she retired, to reactivate his or her membership in such retirement system. In order to reactivate membership, the employee must provide notice of this election, at which time his or her retirement allowance will be suspended, and he or she will be able to earn additional retirement benefits by virtue of the second public service career.

According to Senator Spano's Memorandum in Support, an opportunity was grant4ed to certain retirees in the public retirement system, who subsequently started a second career in public service, to retroactively transfer membership of the first retirement system to the second system. According to the Memorandum, this legislation would allow certain members in the public retirement system, who were unable to elect this option to do so for a second career in the same New York public retirement system.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01
Revenues (+)	None	None	None

Impact on Revenues: There would be no impact on revenues as a result of this legislation.

Impact on Expenditures: This proposed legislation would cost approximately $300,000 in fiscal year 2001, however on April 20th the Board of Directors of the New York City Employees' Retirement System approved new methods and assumptions including a restart in the pension assets valuation which in effect creates an "asset cushion" (assets greater than liabilities). If these new methods and assumptions are adopted by the State legislature as expected there will be no additional contribution required by the City to NYCERS if this legislation were to become law.

This legislation shall take effect September 1, 2000.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 256

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Marchi, S.5870-A, and by Committee on Rules, A.9040-A, "AN ACT to amend the general municipal law and the retirement and social security law, in relation to benefits for employees of governmental entities performing peace officer services in the city of New York, who are injured in the performance of their duties".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on May 24, 2000 (Minutes page 1248) the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would provide special officers, parking control specialists, school safety agents, campus peace officers, and New York City Taxi and Limousine inspectors a performance of duty disability retirement allowance if such person is injured while performing his or her duties. Currently, members of the NYCERS who are employed by the City of New York or by the New York City Health and Hospital Corporation in the position of emergency medical technician or advanced emergency medical technician are entitled to performance of duty disability retirement allowance benefits.

This legislation also provides that where a special officer, parking control specialist, school safety agent, campus peace officer, and New York City Taxi and Limousine inspector, who may have been exposed to a bodily fluid of a person under his or her care, contracts HIV, Tuberculosis, or Hepatitis, such disease shall b e presumed to be contracted as part of employment unless evidence to the contrary can be shown. According to Senator Marchi's Memorandum in Support, this legislation seeks to grant peace officers the same presumptive disease disability benefit that has been granted to paramedics, firefighters, police and correction officers. According to the Memorandum, peace officers work under extremely difficult conditions which expose them to deadly diseases such as HIV, Tuberculosis and Hepatitis.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY02	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01

Impact on Revenues: There would be no impact on revenues as a result of this legislation.

Impact on Expenditures: This proposed legislation would cost approximately $50,000 in fiscal year 2002 and each year thereafter. However on April 20th the Board of Directors of the New York City Employees' Retirement System approved new methods and assumptions including a restart in the pension assets valuation which in effect creates an "asset cushion" (assets greater than liabilities). If these new methods and assumptions are adopted by the State legislature as expected there will be no additional contribution required by the City to NYCERS if this legislation were to become law.

State Leg. Res. No. 261

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Maltese, S.7493-A, and by Committee on Rules, A.10952-A, "AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the establishment of twenty-five year retirement programs for deputy sheriffs who are subject to articles 11 and 15 of such law; and in relation to providing for employer pick up, pursuant to provisions of the internal revenue code, of certain additional member contributions required to be made by certain participants in the twenty-five year retirement programs".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 5, 2000, the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

In general, this legislation would establish twenty-five year retirement programs for New York City Deputy Sheriffs in the Department of Finance. The legislation would provide current New York City Deputy Sheriffs with the option to elect into this new program. Members who are in Tier II would pay an additional five and one-half percent of compensation for creditable service, while Tier IV members would pay an additional six percent. All future Deputy Sheriffs would be mandated to participate in the new program and pay the additional six percent.

According to Senator Maltese's Memorandum in Support, during the last ten years, employment as a Deputy Sheriff in New York City has become increasingly hazardous and law enforcement oriented. The provision of a self-funded twenty-five year retirement plan is necessary to ensure the retention of well-trained and qualified officers.

In 1999, this Committee passed a home rule message concerning similar legislation. The full Council, thereafter, approved it as well. At the State level, however, it passed the Assembly and the Senate but was vetoed by the Governor.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Subchapter 3 of chapter 1 of title 19 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding thereto a new section 19-180 to read as follows:

a. (i) The terms "vehicle," "vend," "public space," and "person" shall have the same meanings, respectively, as are set forth in §17-306 of this code.

b. In addition to any other equipment required by law, any vehicle used to vend frozen desserts that is subject to the provisions of chapter 3 of title 17 of this code that operates in a public space shall be equipped with a caution arm capable of being displayed on both the left and right sides of the vehicle which meets the specifications of subdivision c of this section. The caution arm shall be horizontally extended on the roadway side of the vehicle whenever the vehicle is stopped in a public space and used to vend frozen desserts. Such caution arm shall be retracted whenever the vehicle is in motion or is not being used to vend frozen desserts.

c. The caution arm required by subdivision b of this section shall be constructed of metal or other durable materials. That part of the caution arm that is attached to the vehicle itself shall be seven and three-sixteenths inches in height and, when extended outward and to the side of the vehicle, shall extend to a length of eighteen inches and flared to a height of eighteen inches. Located at each of the four corners of the eighteen-inch side shall be a flashing amber light visible from the front and rear of the vehicle. These lights shall be four inches in diameter and shall flash simultaneously when the caution arm is extended. The background of the caution arm shall be red and shall be reflective. The lettering shall be white. In the middle, in letters five inches in height, shall be the word "STOP", just above the word "STOP" in letters two inches in height shall be the words "IF SAFE", and just below the word "STOP" in letters two inches in height shall be the words "THEN GO." The caution arm shall be lettered in the manner described in this subdivision on both sides so that it will be visible from both the front and rear of the vehicle. The top of the caution arm shall be positioned no more than six inches in height from the bottom of the side window of the vehicle or from the bottom of the exterior side view mirror of the vehicle, whichever is lower.

d. In addition to any other equipment required by law, any vehicle used to vend frozen desserts that is subject to the provisions of chapter 3 of title 17 of this code that operates in a public space shall be equipped with convex mirrors mounted on the front and rear of the vehicle so that the driver, in the normal seated position, can see the area in front of the truck obscured by the hood of the vehicle and an area in the rear extending across the truck and four feet to the rear of the bumper.

(iii) for a third violation within a period of one year from the date of the first violation, a civil penalty of not less than one hundred and fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars; and

(iv) for any subsequent violations within a period of one year from the date of the first violation, a civil penalty of not less than three hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.

The penalties provided for in this subdivision shall be in addition to any other penalties provided by law.

Res. No. 1393

Resolution making permanent the creation of a small purchase category called "information technology" with a one hundred thousand dollar limit by repealing the sunset provision, and requesting concurrence in this action by the Procurement Policy Board.

By Council Members Freed, Espada, Warden, Fiala and Stabile (by the request of the Mayor); also Council Members Eisland, Fisher, Foster, Harrison, McCaffrey and Golden

Whereas, Pursuant to Section 314 of the New York City Charter, concurrent action by the New York City Council and the Procurement Policy Board ("PPB") is necessary to establish dollar limits for small purchases by New York City; and

Whereas, The PPB, on June 12, 1997, unanimously adopted a small purchase rule that included the creation of a small purchase category called "information technology" with a hundred thousand dollar purchase limit; and

Whereas, On June 25, 1997, the New York City Council, by Council Resolution 2335-A, concurred in the creation of such small purchase category and dollar limit, but made such concurrence effective only until 12:01 A.M. on January 1, 2001; and

Whereas, A PPB rule became effective on August 6, 1997, creating the small purchase category called "information technology" with a one hundred thousand dollar purchase limit, subject to the sunset provision described above; and

Whereas, The New York City Council now resolves to make permanent the creation of a small purchase category called "information technology" with a one hundred thousand dollar limit, as this limit is desirable and necessary to keep the City's procurement of information technology effective and efficient, and which has simplified acquisition of such technology; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York makes permanent the creation of a small purchase category called "information technology" with a one hundred thousand dollar limit by repealing the sunset provision, and requests concurrence in this action by the Procurement Policy Board.

Res. No. 1394

Resolution commending President Clinton for issuing an executive order providing extensive and coordinated environmental protection to the nation's shoreline and marine habitats, and calling upon the President to extend the same program to the Puerto Rican island of Vieques.

By Council Members Lopez, Rivera, Robles, Carrion, Clarke, Malave-Dilan, Espada, Freed, Henry, Linares, Marshall, Nelson, Perkins, Quinn, Reed, Rodriguez and Stabile; also Council Members DiBrienza, Eisland, Fisher, Foster, McCaffrey, Michels and Robinson

Whereas, President Clinton has demonstrated commendable leadership in directing the Commerce Department, the Department of the Interior and the Environmental Protection Agency to implement extensive programs to protect the nation's fragile shoreline and coral reefs on a scale similar to those programs that currently exist to protect large tracts of inland wilderness; and

Whereas, This protection aims to preserve marine life, weather and climate systems, and recreational uses provided by the nation's shorelines; and

Whereas, President Clinton has the authority to and did pass these initiatives expediently by executive order, and which require for the first time that the different environmental agencies work together in creating and implementing these programs; and

Whereas, Since World War II, the United States Navy has operated a training facility on the 9,300 resident Puerto Rican island of Vieques; and

Whereas, Serious environmental problems also exist at Vieques, in part because of the naval operations performed on the island; and

Whereas, The storage, disposal and firing of live and inert weapons of all classes, including napalm, bullets reinforced with depleted uranium and 500 pound bombs fired from jets traveling at high altitudes and great speed, places not only the island in imminent peril, but also exposes its residents to serious health risks, including cancer, associated with exposure to radioactive materials; and

Whereas, The President, having demonstrated excellent leadership in protecting the shoreline and coral reefs of the nation, should also apply the same initiative in protecting the island and its residents from the continuing environmental hazards caused by the United States Navy; and

Whereas, A coalition of lawmakers and advocacy groups, both on Puerto Rico and the mainland, has already called upon President Clinton to order the immediate closure of the Navy's facilities on Vieques; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York commends President Clinton for issuing an executive order providing extensive and coordinated environmental protection to the nation's shoreline and marine habitats, and calling upon the President to extend the same program to the Puerto Rican island of Vieques.

Adopted.

Int. No. 763

A LOCAL LAW to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the promotion of officers and members of the New York City Fire Department.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Section 15-110 of the Administrative Code of the city of New York is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 15-110 Promotions. Promotions of officers and members of the force to each of the positions of lieutenant, supervising fire marshal, captain, battalion chief, deputy chief and chief of department, or their equivalent, shall be made by the commissioner on the basis of seniority, meritorious service in the department and superior capacity as shown by competitive examination. Individual acts of personal bravery may be treated as an element of meritorious service in such examination, the relative rating therefor to be fixed by the commissioner of citywide administrative services. The fire commissioner shall transmit to the commissioner of citywide administrative services in advance of such examination the complete record of each candidate for promotion.

§ 2. This local law shall take effect immediately.

Referred to the Committee on Fire and Criminal Justice Services.

Int. No. 764

By Council Members McCaffrey, Berman, Malave-Dilan and Marshall; also Council Members Foster, Koslowitz, Lasher, O'Donovan, Pinkett, Robinson, Watkins, White and Wooten

A LOCAL LAW to amend the administrative code of the city of New York in relation to the appointment of traffic enforcement agents as special patrolmen.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Section 14-106 of the Administrative Code is hereby amended by adding a new paragraph g to read as follows:

g. The commissioner shall appoint and swear in as special patrolmen all traffic enforcement agents. The exercise of these powers of special patrolman by a traffic enforcement agent so appointed shall be limited to the traffic enforcement agent's geographical area of employment, and the traffic enforcement agent shall possess the powers of a special patrolman only during the time the traffic enforcement agent is on duty. The persons so appointed shall be subject to the orders of the commissioner and shall obey the rules and regulations of the department and conform to its general discipline and to such special regulations as may be made. Nothing in this section shall be construed to constitute such special patrolmen as members of the force, or to entitle them to the privileges of the regular members of the force, or to give them the power to possess firearms, or to receive any additional salary, pay, compensation or money whatever from the department or the city by reason of such appointment, unless agreed to by the commissioner.

Section 2. This local law shall become effective immediately after it shall be approved by the voters of the city at the next general election held after its enactment.

Referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

Res. No. 1395

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to amend the Criminal Procedure Law to include New York City Traffic Enforcement Agents as peace officers.

By Council Members McCaffrey, Berman, Malave-Dilan, Foster, Marshall and White; also Council Members Harrison, Koslowitz, Lasher, O'Donovan, Pinkett, Robinson and Watkins

Whereas, Traffic Enforcement Agents are responsible for issuing traffic summonses and enforcing various sections of the Vehicle and Traffic Law of the State of New York; and

Whereas, In the performance of these duties, Traffic Enforcement Agents exercise an important law enforcement function in this City, thus adding to the quality of life enjoyed by all New Yorkers; and

Whereas, The New York State Legislature, in Criminal Procedure Law § 2.20, sets forth the powers of peace officers; and

Whereas, Criminal Procedure Law § 2.10 delineates the individuals deemed peace officers under New York State law, which includes those individuals who are special patrolmen under subdivisions c and e of § 14-106 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York; and

Whereas, The nature of the work performed by Traffic Enforcement Agents, in its law enforcement and quality of life enhancing aspects, warrants the designation of peace officer; and

Whereas, By deeming Traffic Enforcement Agents peace officers, the State Legislature will accord Traffic Enforcement Agents the power and recognition they deserve; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to amend the Criminal Procedure Law to include Traffic Enforcement Agents as peace officers.

Referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

Int. No. 754

By Council Members Perkins, Lopez, Quinn, Eldridge, Reed, DiBrienza, Cruz, Eisland, Espada, Freed, Linares, Miller, Moskowitz, the Public Advocate (Mr. Green), Rodriguez, Boyland, Malave-Dilan, Fisher, Henry and Koslowitz; also Council Members Leffler, McCaffrey, Pinkett, Sabini, Watkins and White

A LOCAL LAW to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to gender-based discrimination.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Legislative findings and intent. The City Council finds and declares that it is in the interest of the City of New York to protect its citizens from discrimination. Discrimination, prejudice, intolerance and bigotry directly and profoundly threaten the rights and freedom of New Yorkers. The City Council established the Human Rights Law to protect its inhabitants from these dangers. Included in the City's Human Rights Law is a prohibition of discrimination against individuals based on gender. The scope of this gender-based protection, however, requires clarification. This local law is intended to make clear that all gender-based discrimination—including, but not limited to, discrimination based on an individual's actual or perceived sex, and discrimination based on an individual's gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior, or expression—constitutes a violation of the City's Human Rights Law.

Gender-based discrimination effects a broad range of individuals. But the impact of gender-based discrimination is especially debilitating for those whose gender self-image and presentation do not fully accord with the legal sex assigned to them at birth. For those individuals, gender-based discrimination often leads to pariah status including the loss of a job, the loss of an apartment, and the refusal of service in public accommodations such as restaurants or stores. The impact of such discrimination can be especially devastating for those who endure other prejudices due to their race, ethnicity, national origin, or citizenship status, in addition to gender-based discrimination. In adopting this legislation, the City Council declares that the ability of all New Yorkers to work and to live free from invidious discrimination based on gender is the guiding principle of public policy and law.

§ 2. Section 8-102 of chapter one of title eight of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision 23 to read as follows:

23. The term "gender" shall include actual or perceived sex and shall also include a person's gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior or expression, whether or not that gender identity, self-image, appearance, behavior or expression is different from that traditionally associated with the legal sex assigned to that person at birth.

§ 3. This local law shall take effect immediately.

State Leg. Res. No. 257

State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass a bill introduced by Committee on Rules, A.11049, "AN ACT authorizing the reopening of certain state roadways".

By Council Members Provenzano, Golden and Stabile

Whereas, a bill has been introduced in the New York State Legislature by Committee on Rules, A.11049, "AN ACT authorizing the reopening of certain state roadways"; and

Whereas, The enactment of the above State Legislation requires the concurrence of the Council of the City of New York as the local legislative body; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York, in accordance with the provisions of Section 2 of Article 9 of the Constitution of the State of New York, does hereby request the New York State Legislature to enact into law the aforesaid pending bill.

Referred to the Committee on State and Federal Legislation.

Res. No. 1396

Resolution urging the N.R.A. to halt all plans regarding a proposed theme store and restaurant in Times Square.

By Council Members Quinn, Provenzano, DiBrienza, Clarke, Foster, Freed, Koslowitz, Linares, Marshall, Nelson, Perkins, Pinkett, Reed, Warden and Fiala (in conjunction with the Borough President of Manhattan); also Council Members Boyland, Eisland, Michels, Robinson and White

Whereas, In May 2000, the National Rifle Association (N.R.A.) announced plans to build a theme store and restaurant in the Times Square area that will allegedly use "total shooting sports" as its focal theme and promote the ideals of the N.R.A.; and

Whereas, The N.R.A. continues to rally for the preservation and expansion of gun access and against several proposed programs that call for gun control despite the consistent string of gun-related violence that capture headlines in New York City and throughout the nation and world on a regular basis; and

Whereas, The debate over gun control has always been heavily focused on the safety of our children, and these issues have gone before legislators in the United States Congress and in state and city legislatures throughout the nation and the N.R.A. has consistently taken a position against most gun control proposals; and

Whereas, Now, the N.R.A. has literally brought its cause to the streets, having taken the unconscionable step of promoting guns and gun use right here in New York City by announcing plans for a family-oriented theme store and restaurant that will use guns as its theme; and

Whereas, Family theme restaurants and stores in New York City have long attracted children, families and tourists with themes like pop music, Hollywood, sports and science fiction; and

Whereas, One family-oriented theme restaurant that Times Square does not need is one that boasts and promotes guns, a concept entirely antithetical to the values that we teach our children in school and at home; and

Whereas, The planned N.R.A. theme store and restaurant will feature virtual electronic gun games that will attract youngsters to an environment where gun violence is presented as appropriate entertainment and where not only games are offered but N.R.A. branded merchandise and shooting and outdoor recreation products; and

Whereas, Allowing a restaurant such as this one to take root in Times Square would not serve the best interests of the people who live in the immediate and surrounding community, the people of New York City as a whole or the millions of people who visit our City each year; and

Whereas, The promotion of guns has no place in such a entertainment venture and especially not in Times Square, where the City has worked hard to rid the area of guns and gun-related violence; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York urges the N.R.A. to halt all plans regarding a proposed theme store and restaurant in Times Square.

Adopted and Council Member Ognibene voted in the negative.

Res. No. 1397

Resolution declaring the week of June 25 to July 1, 2000 Dominoes Week in the City of New York in recognition of the unique game and its significance to New York City.

By Council Members Rodriguez, Malave-Dilan, Espada, Marshall, Golden and Stabile; also Council Members Eisland, Fisher, Koslowitz and Abel

Whereas, Like many classic games played outdoors in New York City such as chess and backgammon, the game of dominoes has survived in residential backyards and on the neighborhood pavement, kept alive by the game's enthusiasts throughout the five boroughs; and

Whereas, A truly working class game with a long history in New York City, the game of dominoes requires only a table and a set of tiles that bear the well-known number configurations marked by small white dots; and

Whereas, Dominoes is a game that is both accessible and inviting to all people, though it requires great skill and sophisticated, strategic thinking in order to master the game, as many have done in the neighborhoods of New York City; and

Whereas, New Yorkers of Puerto Rican and Dominican descents are two of many ethnic groups that have embraced the game of dominoes and have sewn its intricate and rich history and culture into the multi-cultural fabric of New York City; and

Whereas, New Yorkers of South American and Central American descent as well as Caribbean-Americans from English, French and Dutch-speaking nations have also made their mark on the game and its place in New York City, as have New Yorkers from many other ethnic backgrounds; and

Whereas, Dominoes is most often played at social and family gatherings and is best played with the sun at one's back with a New York summer breeze cooling off the players and onlookers; and

Whereas, The game of dominoes brings people together in a positive social setting that promotes family unity and mathematical and strategic thinking, and it has been a valuable contribution to the multi-cultural dynamic of New York City; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York declares the week of June 25 to July 1, 2000 Dominoes Week in the City of New York in recognition of the unique game and its significance to New York City.

Res. No. 1410

IN MEMORIAM — TITO PUENTE

By the Entire Council

Whereas, The Council of the City of New York celebrates the life and mourns the death of one of New York's great legends, the innovator, percussionist, bandleader and consummate showman, Tito Puente; and

Whereas, El Rey, or the King, as Tito Puente was commonly known, recorded 118 records and won five Grammys during his tremendous five-decade-career in music; he was a tireless performer, working 200 to 300 performances a year even in recent years; and

Whereas, Tito Puente, who brought his trademark timbale-fueled mambo sound to generations, is considered the most important Latin musician of the last half century and one of the most influential leaders in the Latin jazz movement; and

Whereas, The mightiest of the "Mambo Kings," as he was depicted in the 1992 eponymous movie, Tito Puente, a native of El Barrio used the clubs and concert halls of New York City as his Latin music laboratory, orchestrating legendary performances at the Palladium and at the Village Gate, where he was a staple of the Salsa Meets Jazz series; and

Whereas, Tito Puente began playing drums at a very early age and got his big break performing with the Machito Orchestra during the 1940's, one of the first bands to fuse jazz and Latin; and

Whereas, After serving in no less than nine battles as a U.S. Navy serviceman during World War II, Tito Puente returned to New York to study at the Julliard School of Music, but Mr. Puente always considered performing with his band his most useful venture in music education; and

Whereas, In 1948, he started his own band, the Piccadilly Boys, which he later changed to the famous Tito Puente Orchestra, which recorded mambo hits like "Abaniquito," "Barbarabatiri," "El Rey del Timbal," "Mambo Gallego," and in 1963, "Oye Como Va," which was later recorded by Carlos Santana; and

Whereas, Tito Puente both distinguished his band and elevated the stage presence of his instrument of choice by putting the percussion at the front of the stage; the rearrangement was a success and had been mimicked by numerous bands in the years to follow; and

Whereas, Throughout his career, Tito Puente performed and recorded with the world's great Latin and jazz musicians, always bringing his ceaseless energy, jovial smile and seemingly infinite range of talent to every session and every gig; and

Whereas, Nowhere is Tito Puente more appreciated than right here in New York City, the city that his parents adopted after migrating from Puerto Rico and the city that

Mr. Puente both loved and helped to make a better place, marching proudly in Puerto Rican Day Parades and investing in neighborhoods like City Island, where he opened his popular seafood restaurant; and

Whereas, Tito Puente was a singular figure in American music of the 20th Century and will be fondly remembered as a great musician, composer and New Yorker; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York celebrates the life and mourns the death of Tito Puente, expresses its deepest sympathies to his family and friends and adjourns today in his honor.

Adopted.

At the request of the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) the Public Advocate (Mr. Green) declared the meeting to be in recess.

Communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the tax law, the state finance law and the public authorities law, in relation to the payment of state-collected taxes to certain public benefit corporations, the borrowing power of the New York city transitional finance authority and the bonds issued by such authority; and to amend chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, amending the public authorities law and other laws relating to creating the New York city transitional finance authority, in relation to the continued authorization of such authority to issue such bonds." S. 7967

To the Legislature:

Pursuant to Article IX of the Constitution, the City of New York requests the enactment of Senate bill No. 7967 entitled "AN ACT to amend the tax law, the state finance law and the public authorities law, in relation to the payment of state-collected taxes to certain public benefit corporations, the borrowing power of the New York city transitional finance authority and the bonds issued by such authority; and to amend chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, amending the public authorities law and other laws relating to creating the New York city transitional finance authority, in relation to the continued authorization of such authority to issue such bonds."

It is hereby declared that a necessity exists for the enactment of such legislation, and that the facts establishing such necessity are as follows:

☒ The local government does not have the power to enact such legislation by local law.

Such request is made by:

☒ The chief executive officer of such local government, concurred in by a majority of the total membership of the local legislative body.

(Signed) Rudolph W. Giuliani
Mayor

Date: June 3, 2000

AN ACT to amend the tax law, the state finance law and the public authorities law, in relation to the payment of state-collected taxes to certain public benefit corporations, the borrowing power of the New York city transitional finance authority and the bonds issued by such authority; and to amend chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, amending the public authorities law and other laws relating to creating the New York city transitional finance authority, in relation to the continued authorization of such authority to issue such bonds.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration. The legislature hereby finds and declares that the New York city transitional finance authority has assisted the city of New York in financing its capital program, and that an increase in the authority's borrowing and variable rate capacity would allow the continued availability of adequate funding for the maintenance, expansion, and rebuilding of the infrastructure of the city. The legislature further finds and declares that, notwithstanding section 1 of chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, it is appropriate to permit such authority to continue to issue its bonds, subject to the amount limitations set forth by law, to support the city's capital needs in circumstances not directly related to whether the city is approaching its constitutional debt limit. Such permission is appropriate because the continued availability to the city of the proceeds of issuances by this established credit, which is now well known among investors in public debt, promotes the long-term fiscal stability and efficiency of the financing of the city's capital program, and allows the city to continue to access the authority debt which is backed by the city's personal income tax.

§ 2. Subdivision (a) of section 1261 of the tax law, as amended by chapter 89 of the laws of 1976, is amended to read as follows:

(a) All taxes, penalties and interest imposed by cities, counties or school districts under the authority of section twelve hundred ten, twelve hundred eleven, twelve hundred twelve or twelve hundred twelve-A of this article, which are collected by the [state tax commission] commissioner, shall be deposited daily with such responsible banks, banking houses or trust companies, as may be designated by the state comptroller, to the credit of the comptroller, in trust for the cities, counties or school districts imposing the tax, or for any public benefit corporation to which the tax may be payable pursuant to law. Such deposits and deposits received pursuant to subdivision (b) of section twelve hundred fifty-two of this article shall be kept in trust and separate and apart from all other monies in the possession of the comptroller. The comptroller shall require adequate security from all such depositories of such revenue collected by the [tax commission] commissioner, including the deposits received pursuant to subdivision (b) of section twelve hundred fifty-two of this article. Any amount payable to a public benefit corporation pursuant to law shall, at the time it is otherwise payable to the taxing jurisdiction as specified in this section, be paid instead to such public benefit corporation.

§ 1313. Deposit and disposition of revenues. All revenue collected by the commissioner [of taxation and finance] from the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law shall be deposited daily with such responsible banks, banking houses or trust companies, as may be designated by the state comptroller, to the credit of the comptroller, in trust for the city of New York or the New York city transitional finance authority, as their interests may appear pursuant to this section. Such deposits shall be kept in trust and separate and apart from all other moneys in the possession of the comptroller. The comptroller shall require adequate security from all such depositories of such revenue collected by the commissioner [of taxation and finance]. The comptroller shall retain in his hands such amount as the commissioner [of taxation and finance] may determine to be necessary for refunds in respect to the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and for reasonable costs of the commissioner [of taxation and finance] in administering, collecting and distributing such taxes, out of which the comptroller shall pay any refunds of such taxes to which taxpayers shall be entitled under any law enacted pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law. The comptroller, after reserving such refund fund and such costs shall, commencing on or before the fifteenth day of each month, pay to the New York city transitional finance authority on a daily basis the balance of taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law to be applied to the authority, in the following order of priority: first pursuant to the authority's contracts with bondholders, then to pay the authority's operating expenses not otherwise provided for, and then pursuant to the authority's agreements with the city, which agreements shall require the authority to transfer the balance of such taxes not required to meet contractual or other obligations of the authority to the city as frequently as practicable; except that he shall pay to the state department of social services that amount of overpayments of the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and the interest on such amount which is certified to him by the commissioner [of taxation and finance] as the amount to be credited against past-due support pursuant to subdivision six of section one hundred seventy-one-c of this chapter and except that he shall pay to the New York state higher education services corporation that amount of overpayments of the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and the interest on such amount which is certified to him by the commissioner [of taxation and finance] as the amount to be credited against the amount of defaults in repayment of guaranteed student loans pursuant to subdivision five of section one hundred seventy-one-d of this chapter and except that he shall pay to the state university of New York or the city university of New York respectively that amount of overpayments of the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and the interest on such amount which is certified to him by the commissioner [of taxation and finance] as the amount to be credited against the amount of defaults in repayment of state or city university loans pursuant to subdivision six of section one hundred seventy-one-e of this chapter and except that, notwithstanding any provision of law, he shall credit to the revenue arrearage account, pursuant to section ninety-one-a of the state finance law, that amount of overpayments of the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and the interest on such amount which is certified to him by the commissioner [of taxation and finance] as the amount to be credited against a past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision six of section one hundred seventy-one-f of this chapter, provided, however, he shall credit to the special offset fiduciary account, pursuant to section ninety-one-c of the state finance law, any such amount creditable as a liability as set forth in paragraph (b) of subdivision six of section one hundred seventy-one-f of this chapter, and except further that he shall pay to a non-obligated spouse that amount of overpayment of tax imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and the interest on such amount which has been credited pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one-c, one hundred seventy-one-d, one hundred seventy-one-e or section one hundred seventy-one-f of this chapter and which is certified to him by the commissioner [of taxation and finance] as the amount due such non-obligated spouse pursuant to paragraph six of subsection (b) of section six hundred fifty-one of this chapter, and he shall deduct a like amount which he shall pay into the treasury to the credit of the general fund from amounts subsequently payable to the [department of social services] office of temporary and disability assistance, the state university of New York, the city university of New York, the higher education services corporation, or the revenue arrearage account or special offset fiduciary account pursuant to section ninety-one-a or ninety-one-c of the state finance law, as the case may be, whichever had been credited the amount originally withheld from such overpayment. The amount deducted for administering, collecting and distributing such taxes during such monthly period shall be paid by the comptroller into the general fund of the state treasury to the credit of the state purposes account therein. The first payment to such chief fiscal officer shall be made on or before March fifteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-six, which payment shall represent the balance of revenue after provision for refund and such reasonable costs, with respect to taxes collected from January first, nineteen hundred seventy-six through February twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred seventy-six. Subsequent payments shall be made on or before April fifteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-six, and on or before the fifteenth day of each succeeding month thereafter, and shall represent the balance of revenue with respect to taxes collected the preceding calendar months. The amounts so payable shall be certified to the comptroller by the commissioner [of taxation and finance] or his delegate, either of whom shall not be held liable for any inaccuracy in such certificate. Where the amount so paid over to such chief fiscal officer is more or less than the amount then due such city, the amount of overpayment or underpayment shall be certified to the comptroller by the commissioner [of taxation and finance] or his delegate, either of whom shall not be held liable for any inaccuracy in such certificate. The amount of overpayment or underpayment shall be so certified to the comptroller as soon after the discovery of the overpayment or underpayment as reasonably possible and subsequent payments by the comptroller to such chief fiscal officer shall be adjusted by subtracting the amount of any such overpayment from, or by adding the amount of any such underpayment to such number of subsequent payments and distributions as the comptroller and the commissioner [of taxation and finance] shall consider reasonable in view of the amount of the overpayment or underpayment and all other facts and circumstances. The balance payable to the New York city transitional finance authority pursuant to this section shall instead be paid to the chief fiscal officer of the city of New York unless and until the comptroller has received from such authority a notice, which shall be conclusive and upon which the comptroller may rely without further inquiry, that such authority has incurred obligations payable by it, whether for borrowed money, operating expenses or otherwise. On and after the date of such notice and until such date as the authority shall have no obligations outstanding, the city shall have no right, title or interest in or to the taxes, except as provided in the authority's agreements with the city.

§ 4. Subdivisions 3 and 6 of section 92-d of the state finance law, as added by chapter 168 of the laws of 1975, are amended to read as follows:

3. The taxes, interest and penalties imposed, pursuant to sections eleven hundred seven or eleven hundred eight (as the case may be) of the tax law within the territorial limits of a city in aid of which a municipal assistance corporation has been created, and received by the [state tax commission] commissioner of taxation and finance, after deducting the amount which the commissioner of taxation and finance shall, determine to be necessary for reasonable costs of the [state tax commission] commissioner of taxation and finance in administering, collecting and distributing such taxes, shall be appropriated (i) to the municipal assistance corporation which has been created in aid of such city in order to enable such corporation to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of its notes and bonds and to carry out its corporate purposes, including the maintenance of the capital reserve fund, and (ii) the balance, if any, to the city in aid of which such corporation has been created, or to a public benefit corporation to which the tax may be otherwise payable pursuant to law, as hereinafter provided.

6. Upon receipt by the comptroller of a certificate or certificates from the chairman of a municipal assistance corporation that such corporation requires a payment or payments in order to comply with any agreement with the holders of its notes and bonds and to carry out its corporate purposes, including the maintenance of the capital reserve fund, from the special account established for such corporation, each of which certificates shall specify the required payment or payments and the date when the payment or payments is required, the comptroller shall pay from such special account on or before the specified date or within thirty days after such receipt, whichever is later, to such corporation, as the chairman thereof may direct in any such certificate, the amount or amounts so certified. The chairman of such corporation shall furnish the commissioner of taxation and finance with copies of such certificates. The comptroller shall from time to time, but in no event later than the fifteenth day of October, January and April and the last day of June of each fiscal year, pay over and distribute to the chief fiscal officer of the city in aid of which such municipal assistance corporation has been created to be paid into the treasury of such city to the credit of the general fund, or pay over and distribute to a public benefit corporation to which the tax may otherwise be payable pursuant to law, all revenues in the special account established for such corporation in the municipal assistance tax fund, if any, in excess of the aggregate amount which the chairman of such corporation has certified to the comptroller and which has been previously appropriated and paid to such corporation as hereinabove authorized. In no event shall the comptroller pay over and distribute any revenues (other than the amount to be deducted for administering, collecting and distributing such sales and compensating use taxes) to any person other than the municipal assistance corporation unless and until the aggregate of all payments certified to the comptroller as required by such corporation as of such date in order to comply with its agreements with the holders of its notes and bonds and to carry out its corporate purposes, including the maintenance of the capital reserve fund, which remain unappropriated or unpaid to such corporation shall have been appropriated to such corporation and shall have been paid in full; provided, however, that no person, including such corporation or the holders of its notes or bonds shall have any lien on such revenues and such agreement shall be executory only to the extent of such revenues available to the state in such special account. On the day on which the comptroller pays over and distributes to the chief fiscal officer of such city any revenues from such special account the commissioner of taxation and finance shall certify to the comptroller the amount to be deducted for administering, collecting and distributing the tax imposed pursuant to section eleven hundred seven or eleven hundred eight (as the case may be) of the tax law within the territorial limits of such city since he last certified such amount and the comptroller shall pay such amount into the general fund of the state treasury to the credit of the state purposes fund therein.

§ 5. Subdivision 4 of section 2799-bb of the public authorities law, as added by chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

4. "Capital financing need" means a period during which and only the extent to which [the city is unable to implement its capital plan because such plan would require the city to incur debt and contract liabilities in excess of the limit imposed by the state constitution and implementing legislation, all] the issuance of bonds in accordance with this title would assist the city in meeting its capital needs as determined by the mayor pursuant to section twenty-seven hundred ninety-nine-ff of this title.

§ 6. Subdivision 1 of section 2799-gg of the public authorities law, as added by chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

1. The authority shall have the power and is hereby authorized from time to time to issue bonds, in conformity with applicable provisions of the uniform commercial code, in such principal amounts as it may determine to be necessary pursuant to section twenty-seven hundred ninety nine-ff of this title to pay the cost of any project and to fund reserves to secure such bonds, including incidental expenses in connection therewith.

The aggregate principal amount of such bonds, notes or other obligations so issued shall not exceed [seven billion, five hundred million dollars ($7,500,000,000)] ten billion dollars ($10,000,000,000), excluding bonds, notes or other obligations issued to refund or otherwise repay bonds, notes or other obligations theretofore issued for such purposes; provided, however, that upon any refunding or repayment of bonds (which term shall not, for this purpose, include bond anticipation notes), the total aggregate principal amount of outstanding bonds, notes or other obligations may be greater than [seven billion, five hundred million dollars ($7,500,000,000)] ten billion dollars ($10,000,000,000) only if the refunding or repayment bonds, notes or other obligations were issued in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (a) of subdivision two of paragraph b of section 90.10 of the local finance law, as amended from time to time. The authority shall have the power from time to time to refund any bonds of the authority by the issuance of new bonds whether the bonds to be refunded have or have not matured, and may issue bonds partly to refund bonds of the authority then outstanding and partly to pay the cost of any project pursuant to section twenty-seven hundred ninety-nine-ff of this title. Bonds issued by the authority shall be payable solely out of particular revenues or other moneys of the authority as may be designated in the proceedings of the authority under which the bonds shall be authorized to be issued, subject to any agreements entered into between the authority and the city, and subject to any agreements with the holders of outstanding bonds pledging any particular revenues or moneys.

§ 7. Subdivision 3 of section 2799-gg of the public authorities law, as added by chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

3. (a) The authority (i) shall amortize its serial and term bonds in accordance with sections 11.00, 21.00 and 57.00 of the local finance law and its bond anticipation notes in accordance with section [21.00] 23.00 of the local finance law, as amended from time to times (ii) shall establish provisions relating to redemption of its bonds that conform with section 53.00 of the local finance law, as amended from time to time, (iii) subject to the limitation set forth in paragraph (b) of this subdivision, may issue bonds with variable rates of interest, and enter into agreements related thereto, subject to the limitations prescribed in paragraphs a and c of section 54.90 of the local finance law, as amended from time to time, other than the limitation therein on the total principal amount of such variable rate bonds, and (iv) shall not issue refunding bonds without meeting the standards of subparagraph (a) or (b) of subdivision two of paragraph b of section 90.10 of the local finance law, as amended from time to time. In addition, except as provided in this title, bonds of the authority shall be subject to all other provisions of the local finance law, as amended from time to time, applicable to bonds of the city of Now York, except where application of such law to bonds of the authority would be inappropriate. Functions assigned by such law to the mayor, comptroller, finance board and chief fiscal officer shall, to the extent not performed by such officers pursuant to this title, be reserved or delegated by the directors of the authority.

(b) The authority shall not issue variable rate bonds if the principal amount of its variable rate bonds outstanding after such issuance would exceed (seven hundred fifty million dollars] two billion dollars ($2,000,000,000), excluding bonds (i) bearing interest at rates and for periods of time that are specified without reference to future events or contingencies, (ii) the interest on which is economically fixed in conjunction with other bonds, or (iii) the interest on which is offset by agreements with financially responsible third parties.

§ 8. Section 2799-ii of the public authorities law, as added by chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

§ 2799-ii. Agreement with the state. The state does hereby pledge and agree with the holders of any issue of bonds and/or bond anticipation notes secured by such a pledge that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in the authority to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with such holders pursuant to this title, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders or the security for such bonds and/or bond anticipation notes until such bonds and/or bond anticipation notes, together with the interest thereon and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceeding by or on behalf of such holders, are fully paid and discharged. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to restrict the right of the state to amend, modify, repeal or otherwise alter statutes imposing or relating to the taxes payable to the authority pursuant to section thirteen hundred thirteen of the tax law, but such taxes shall in all events continue to be so payable so long as any such taxes are imposed. Not less than thirty days prior to the beginning of each city fiscal year, the chairperson of the authority shall certify to the state comptroller, the governor, and the members of the board of directors of the authority a schedule of maximum annual debt service payments due on the bonds and notes of the corporation then outstanding. To the extent that the tax revenues payable to the authority under section thirteen hundred thirteen of the tax law during such fiscal year are projected by the mayor to be insufficient to meet at least one hundred fifty percent of maximum annual debt service on authority bonds then outstanding, the mayor shall so notify the state comptroller and the state comptroller shall pay to the authority from alternative revenues such amount as is necessary to provide at least one hundred fifty percent of the maximum annual debt service; provided, however, that for so long as any indebtedness of the municipal assistance corporation for the city of New York remains outstanding no alternative revenues that are, as of the effective date of this title, or may in the future be, required to be deposited in the municipal assistance tax fund established under section ninety-two-d of the state finance law shall be paid to the authority except out of funds that are otherwise required to be paid to the city under such section of the state finance law. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to obligate the state to make any additional payments or impose any taxes to satisfy the debt service obligations of the authority.

§ 9. Section 10 of chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, amending the public authorities law and other laws relating to creating the New York city transitional finance authority, is amended to read as follows:

§ 10. This act shall take effect immediately[; provided, however, that upon the effective date of an amendment to section 4 of article 8 of the state constitution and any implementing legislation which modifies the limitation on local indebtedness applicable to the city of New York, the New York city transitional finance authority shall no longer be authorized to issue bonds, except for refunding purposes].

§ 10. Separability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered.

June 6, 2000

TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Dear Council Members:

In accordance with Section 107(e) of the New York City Charter, I seek your approval to appropriate new revenues of $898.6 million in fiscal year 2000 to add $761.1 million to the Budget Stabilization Account in the City's Debt Service budget and to provide for the prepayment of $137.5 million of cash based subsidy payments for the renovation of Transit facilities and reduced fares for the elderly. The $898 million results from forecasted increases in tax collections of $729 million, increases in miscellaneous revenues of $45 million and additional savings in prior payables of $125 million.

Your approval of modification MN-9 is respectfully requested.

Sincerely,

Adam L. Barsky

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — Submitting the Proposed City Fiscal Year 2001 Community Development Program, the Proposed CFY'00 Budget, the Proposed Reallocations—the CD XXVI Funds, Proposed CD XXVII Statement of Objectives and Budget, dated April 18, 2000.

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on April 25, 2000 (Minutes, page 896) the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

The Proposed City Fiscal Year 2001 Community Development Program, Proposed Reallocation of Twenty-Sixth Year Community Development Funds, and Proposed Twenty-Seventh Year Community Development Program were submitted by the Mayor to the Council on April 18, 2000 and referred to the Committee on Finance. The Committee on Finance held hearings on May 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 15, 16, and 17, 2000. The testimony elicited at these hearings regarding the budget as a whole and with respect to specific needs and projects was supplemented by further data developed at the meetings of the Committee on Finance, and from Council staff and representatives of City agencies. The primary concern of the Committee was that the funding contained in the Proposed Fiscal Year 2001 Community Development Program would meet the actual and perceived needs of the communities the City of New York comprises.

In its deliberations, the Committee on Finance took into consideration the testimony of the citizenry at the public hearings and the information furnished by Council Members, staff assistants and City agencies.

The Committee recommends a Fiscal Year 2001 Community Development Program totalling (See Attachment A, line 1) including various changes as indicated in the attached resolution. The changes to the Proposed 2001 Fiscal Year Program are shown in the attached resolution.

The Committee recommends a Reallocated Twenty-Sixth Year Community Development Program totalling (See Attachment A, line 2) including various changes as indicated in the attached resolution. The changes to the Proposed Reallocation of Twenty-Sixth Year Community Development Funds are shown in the attached resolution.

The Committee recommends a Twenty-Seventh Year Community Development Program totalling (See Attachment A, line 3). The Committee makes this recommendation with the stipulation that the portion of the Twenty-Seventh Year Community Development budget which will be spent in Fiscal Year 2002 and not Fiscal Year 2001, estimated at approximately (See Attachment A, line 4) will be subject to review and reallocation in the Fiscal Year 2002 Community Development budget recommendations to be made in June, 2001.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

In connection herewith, Council Member Berman offered the following resolution:

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of concurring in a communication from the New York City Banking Commission — Transmitting recommendation that the discount rate to be allowed for prepayment of real estate taxes be continued at two percent (2%) per annum for Fiscal Year 2001, pursuant to Section 1519 of the City Charter.

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on May 10, 2000 (Minutes, pages 1006 and 1055) the annexed communication and resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

Section 1519 of Chapter fifty-eight of the New York City Charter requires the Banking Commission to transmit to the City Council, not later than the fifteenth day of May in each year, a written recommendation of the proposed discount rate for the ensuing fiscal year, in regard to the prepayment of real estate taxes. The City Council may adopt a discount rate for such ensuing fiscal year on the fifth day of June preceding such ensuing fiscal year or at any time thereafter.

The Banking Commission has forwarded a recommendation to the Council that the discount rate on the prepayment of real estate taxes for Fiscal Year 2001 be continued at 2 percent per annum. The Banking Commission submitted its recommendation to the Council by letter dated April 25, 2000. The discount applies to the prepayment of second, third and fourth quarter installments of real estate taxes.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of concurring in a communication from the New York City Banking Commission — Transmitting recommendation that the interest rate for non-payment of real estate taxes where annual tax is more than $2,750, or vacant or unimproved land; and non-payment of charges for work performed pursuant to orders of the Board of Health or Department of Health be 18 percent (18%) for Fiscal Year 2001.

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on May 10, 2000 (Minutes, pages 1006 and 1056) the annexed communication and resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

Local Law Number 46 of 1976, as amended by Local Law Number 32 of 1979, amended section 11-224 of title eleven of the Administrative Code to require that the New York City Banking Commission, not later than the 25th day of May in each year, transmit a written recommendation to the City Council of the proposed interest rate to be charged for unpaid real estate taxes on a parcel where the annual tax is more than $2,750 or where, irrespective of the annual tax, a parcel consists of vacant or unimproved land.

Local Law No. 44 of 1978 repealed and reenacted Section 17-151 of title seventeen of the Administrative Code to require that the New York City Banking Commission, not later than the 25th day of May in each year, transmit a written recommendation to the City Council of the proposed interest rate to be charged for non-payment of charges for work performed pursuant to a Board of Health or a Department of Health order.

The Banking Commission forwarded, by letter, a recommendation to the City Council to establish an 18 percent per annum interest rate for such non-payments for fiscal year 2001. The law mandates that the Banking Commission recommend an interest rate at least six percent greater than the prevailing prime rate. Currently, according to the Banking Commission, the prime rate is 9.00%. Pursuant to Local Law No. 47 of 1990, all such interest required to be paid shall be compounded daily. For fiscal years 1996, 1997, 1998 and 1999 and 2000 the rate adopted was 18%.

This resolution would take effect immediately and would be deemed to have been in effect as of July 1, 2000.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of concurring in a communication from the New York City Banking Commission — Transmitting resolution recommending that the interest rate to be charged for non-payment of taxes on real property where the annual tax is not more than $2,750 or where the real property taxes are held in escrow and paid by a mortgage escrow agent be eighteen percent (18%), and nine percent (9%) in all other such parcels.

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on May 10, 2000 (Minutes, pages 1009 and 1053) the annexed communication and resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

Local Law No. 47 of 1990 requires the Banking Commission to transmit a written recommendation to the City Council of proposed interest rates to be charged for non-payment of taxes on real property in those cases where the annual tax on a parcel, other than a parcel which consists of vacant or unimproved land, is not more than two thousand seven hundred fifty dollars.

In the case of any such parcel where the real property taxes are held in escrow and paid to the Commissioner of Finance by a "mortgage escrow agent," as that term is defined in section fifteen hundred nineteen of the City Charter, the proposed interest rate shall be at least six percent per annum greater than the prevailing interest rate charged for commercial loans extended to prime borrowers by commercial banks operating in the City (the "Prime Rate"). In the case of all other such parcels, the proposed interest rate shall be at least equal to such Prime Rate. According to the Banking Commission, the Prime Rate is currently 9%.

The Banking Commission forwarded, by letter, a recommendation to the Council to establish an interest rate of 18 percent per annum for Fiscal Year 2001 to be charged for non-payment of taxes of real property in those cases in which the annual tax on a parcel, other than a parcel which consists of vacant or unimproved land, is not more than two thousand seven hundred fifty dollars, where such real property taxes are held in escrow and paid to the Commissioner of Finance by a mortgage escrow agent.

The Banking Commission also recommended an interest rate of 9 percent per annum for Fiscal Year 2001 to be charged for non-payment of taxes on real property in the case of all other such parcels where the annual tax is not more than two thousand seven hundred fifty dollars.

This resolution would take effect immediately and would be deemed to have been in effect as of July 1, 2000.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of concurring in a communication from the New York City Banking Commission — Transmitting resolution recommending that the interest rate to be charged for non-payment of water rents and sewer rents be eighteen percent (18%) where the annual tax on parcel is more than $2,750 or where taxes are held in escrow or where parcel consists of vacant or unimproved land, and nine percent (9%) in all other cases.

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on May 10, 2000 (Minutes, pages 1009 and 1055) the annexed communication and resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

Local Law No. 47 of 1976 amended sections 11-312 and 11-313 of title eleven of the Administrative Code to require that the New York City Banking Commission, not later than the 25th day of May of each year, transmit a written recommendation to the City Council of the proposed interest rate to be charged for non-payment of water and sewer rents.

The Banking Commission forwarded, by letter, a recommendation to the City Council to establish an 18 percent per annum interest rate for Fiscal Year 2001 for non-payment of water and sewer rents for any parcel where the annual real estate tax is more than $2,750, or for any parcel where the real estate taxes are held in escrow and paid to the Commissioner of Finance by a mortgage escrow agent, or where the parcel consists of vacant or unimproved land. In these cases, the law mandates that the Banking Commission recommend an interest rate at least six percent greater than the prevailing prime rate. Pursuant to Local Law Number 47 of 1990, all such interest required to be paid shall be compounded daily. For Fiscal Years 1997, 1998 and 1999 and 2000 the rate adopted was also 18%.

The 18% rate recommended by the Banking Commission is 9% greater than the current prime rate which the Banking Commission notes is 9%. Last year, the rate recommended was 10.25% greater than the prevailing prime rate. In the prior four years, the Banking Commission recommended a percentage difference of 9.50%, 9.75%, 9.75%, and 11.25% respectively.

This resolution would take effect immediately and would be deemed to have been in effect as of July 1, 2000.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of concurring in a communication from the Office of Management and Budget — Transfer funds within and between various city agencies (MN-8).

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on June 6, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

At a meeting of the Committee on Finance of the City Council of the City of New York on June 6, 2000, the Committee on Finance received a communication, dated June 6, 2000, from the Office of Management and Budget of the Mayor of The City of New York, of a proposed request, (the "Modification"), to modify units of appropriation and transfer city funds between units of appropriation in the Fiscal 2000 Expense Budget (as defined below) pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter of the City of New York (the "Charter").

The Council annually adopts the City's budget covering expenditures other than for capital projects (the "expense budget") pursuant to Section 254 of the Charter. On June 7, 1999, the Council adopted the expense budget for fiscal year 2000 (the "Fiscal 2000 Expense Budget"). This modification represents a reallocation of City funds between various agencies in order to adjust the fiscal 2000 budget as passed by the City Council.

If the Mayor wishes to transfer part or all of any unit of appropriation to another unit of appropriation from one agency to another or such that the transfer results in any unit of appropriation being increased or decreased by the greater of five percent or $50,000, Section 107(b) of the Charter requires that the Mayor must first notify the Council of the proposed action. Within 30 days after the first stated meeting of the Council following receipt of such notice, the Council may disapprove such proposed action. If the Council fails to approve or disapprove such proposed action within such 30-day period, the proposed action becomes effective and the Mayor has the authority to make such transfer.

In the above-captioned resolution, the Council would approve the Modification pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter. Such resolution would take effect as of the date of adoption.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

In connection herewith, Council Member Berman offered the following resolution:

Res. No. 1421

Resolution approving the modification (MN-8) of units of appropriation and the transfer of city funds between agencies proposed by the Mayor pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter of the City of New York.

By Council Member Berman:

Whereas, at a meeting of the Committee on Finance of the City Council of the City of New York (the "City Council") on June 6, 2000, the Committee on Finance received a communication from the Office of Management and Budget of the Mayor of The City of New York (the "Mayor"), of a proposed request, attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Modification"), to modify units of appropriation and transfer city funds between various agencies in the fiscal year 2000 expense budget as adopted by the Council on June 7, 1999, pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter of the City of New York (the "Charter"); and

Whereas, pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter, the City Council has thirty (30) days after the first stated meeting of the City Council following such receipt within which to act upon the Modification;

Now, Therefore, The Council of The City of New York hereby resolves as follows:

1. Approval of Modification. The City Council hereby approves, pursuant to Section 107(b) of the Charter, the actions proposed by the Mayor as set forth in the Modification.

2. Effective Date. This resolution shall take effect as of the date hereof.

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of concurring in a communication from the Office of Management and Budget — Recognize an additional $898.6 million in new revenues, pursuant to Section 107(e) of the New York City Charter. (MN-9)

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on June 6, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

By letter dated June 6, 2000, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget submitted to the Council pursuant to section 107(e) of the New York City Charter a request to appropriate new revenues of $898.6 million in Fiscal 2000 to provide for the prepayment of $137.5 million of cash based subsidy payments for the renovation of Transit facilities and reduced fares for the elderly and to add $761.1 million to the Budget Stabilization Account.

This modification (MN-9) seeks to recognize new revenues in the amount of $898.6 million for Fiscal 2000. This amount results from increases in tax collections of $729 million, increases in miscellaneous revenues of $45 million and savings in prior year payables of $125 million.

This modification represents an increase in the Fiscal 2000 budget of $898.6 million.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

In connection herewith, Council Member Berman offered the following resolution:

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of concurring in a resolution of the Council of the City of New York fixing the tax rate for the Fiscal Year 2001, adopted June 6, 2000 upon the recommendation of the Committee on Finance of the Council.

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on June 6, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

On April 18, 2000, the Mayor submitted the executive budget for Fiscal 2001 to the Council pursuant to Section 249 of the Charter. On the date hereof, the Council adopted the budget for Fiscal 2001 pursuant to Section 254 of the Charter (the "Fiscal 2001 Budget"). Pursuant to Section 1516 of the Charter, the Council must fix the annual real property tax rates immediately upon such approval of the Fiscal 2001 Budget. In the resolution, captioned above, fixing the real property tax rates for Fiscal 2001 (the "Tax Fixing Resolution"), the Council fixes the annual real property tax rates, as described in greater detail below, and authorizes the levy of real property taxes for Fiscal 2001.

Determining the Amount of the Real Property Tax Levy. In the Tax Fixing Resolution, the Council determines the amount of the real property tax levy for Fiscal 2001, pursuant to the provisions of Section 1516 of the Charter, in the following manner. (1) First, the Council acknowledges the amount of the Fiscal 2001 Budget to be $37,613,797,806, as set forth in the communication from the Mayor pursuant to Section 1515(a) of the Charter (the "Fiscal 2001 Budget Amount"). (2) The Council then acknowledges the estimate of the probable amount of all non-property tax revenues to be $29,591,430,162, as set forth in the communication from the Mayor pursuant to Section 1515(a) of the Charter (the "Fiscal 2001 Revenue Estimate"). (Attached hereto as Exhibit A is a description of the Fiscal 2001 Revenue Estimate, detailing all sources of revenues exclusive of real property taxes.) (3) Pursuant to Section 1516 of the Charter, the Council finally determines the net amount required to be raised by tax on real property to be $8,022,367,643 by subtracting the amount of the Fiscal 2001 Revenue Estimate from the Fiscal 2001 Budget Amount.

In order to achieve a real property tax yield of $8,022,367,643, however, due to provision for uncollectible taxes and refunds and collection of levies from prior years equal in the aggregate to $707,896,069, the Council determines that a real property tax levy of $8,730,263,712 is required. Such amount, levied at rates on the classes of real property as further described below, will produce a balanced budget within generally accepted accounting principles for municipalities.

The Council also provides for the application of the real property tax levy (net of provision for uncollectible taxes and refunds and collection of levies from prior years) to (1) debt service not subject to the constitutional operating limit, (2) debt service subject to the constitutional operating limit and (3) the Fiscal 2000 Budget in excess of the amount of the Fiscal 2001 Revenue Estimate.

Authorizing and Fixing the Real Property Tax Rates. After having determined the amount of the real property tax levy, the Council authorizes and fixes the real property tax rates. On May 25, 2000, the Commissioner of the Department of Finance (the "Commissioner") delivered the certified assessment rolls for all real property assessable for taxation in the City in each borough thereof for Fiscal 2001 to the Council, pursuant to Section 1514 of the Charter (the "Fiscal 2001 Assessment Rolls"). On June 6, 2000, the Council adopted a resolution in which the Council computed and certified the current base proportion, the current percentage and the base percentage of each class of real property in the City for Fiscal 2001 pursuant to Section 1803-a(1), Real Property Tax Law (the "Current Base Proportion Resolution"). On June 6, 2000, pursuant to Section 1803-a, Real Property Tax Law, the Council adopted a resolution in which the Council adjusted the current base proportions of each class of real property in the City for Fiscal 2001, to reflect the additions to, and full or partial removal from, the Fiscal 2001 Assessment Rolls (the "Adjusted Base Proportion Resolution").

The following sections describe the determinations the Council must make before it fixes the real property tax rates and the process by which the Council fixes the real property tax rates.

Assessed Valuation Calculations. In the Tax Fixing Resolution, the Council sets out the assessed valuation calculations of taxable real property in the City by class within each borough of the City. Next, the Council sets out the assessed valuation (1) by class of real property for the purpose of taxation (exclusive of the assessed valuation of veterans' real property exempt under state law from tax for general purposes but subject to tax for school purposes) in each borough of the City and (2) by class of veterans' real property subject to tax for school purposes in each borough of the City.

Compliance with Constitutional Operating Limit Provisions. In the Tax Fixing Resolution, the Council also provides evidence of compliance with constitutional operating limit provisions. The Council determines that the amount to be raised by tax on real property for the Fiscal 2000 Budget does not exceed the limit imposed by Section 10, Article VIII of the Constitution of the State of New York, as amended, and Article 12-A, Real Property Tax Law (the "Operating Limit Provisions"). The Operating Limit Provisions require that the City not levy taxes on real property in any fiscal year in excess of an amount equal to a combined total of two and one-half percent (2 1/2%) of the average full valuation of taxable real property, determined by taking the assessed valuations of taxable real property on the last completed assessment roll and the four (4) preceding assessment rolls of the City and applying thereto the special equalization ratio which such assessed valuations of each such roll bear to the full valuations as fixed and determined by the State Board of Real Property Services ("SBRPS"), minus (i) the amount to be raised by tax on real property in such year for the payment of the interest on and the redemption of certificates of other evidence indebtedness described in the Constitution and (ii) the aggregate amount of business improvement district charges exclusive of debt service.

Adjusted Base Proportions. The Tax Fixing Resolution sets forth the adjusted base proportions for Fiscal 2001, pursuant to the Adjusted Base Proportion Resolution, to be used in determining the Fiscal 2000 tax rates for the four classes of properties.

Tax Rates on Adjusted Base Proportions. Finally, in the Tax Fixing Resolution, the Council authorizes and fixes, pursuant to Section 1516 of the Charter, the rates of tax for Fiscal 2001 by class (1) upon each dollar of assessed valuation of real property subject to taxation for all purposes of, and within, the City, as fixed in cents and thousandths of a cent per dollar of assessed valuation, as follows:

All One-, Two- and Three-Family Residential Real Property	0.11331
All Other Residential Real Property	0.10846
Utility Real Property	0.10849
All Other Real Property	0.09699

and (2) upon each dollar of assessed valuation of veterans' real property exempt under state law from tax for general purposes but subject to tax for school purposes of, and within, the City, as fixed in cents and thousandths of a cent per dollar of assessed valuation, as follows:

All One-, Two- and Three-Family Residential Real Property	0.06855
All Other Residential Real Property	0.06598
Utility Real Property	0.00000
All Other Real Property	0.05907

Authorization of the Levy of Proposed Taxes for Fiscal 2001. The Council authorizes and directs the Commissioner, pursuant to Section 1517 of the Charter, to set down in the Fiscal 2000 Assessment Rolls, opposite to the several sums set down as the valuation of real property, the respective sums to be paid as a tax thereon and add and set down the aggregate valuations of real property in the boroughs of the City and send a certificate of such aggregate valuation in each such borough to the State Comptroller. The Tax Fixing Resolution then requires the City Clerk to procure the proper warrants, in the form attached thereto, such warrants to be signed by the Public Advocate and counter-signed by the City Clerk.

The Tax Fixing Resolution would take effect as of the date of adoption.

Accordingly, the Committee on Finance recommends adoption of the Tax Fixing Resolution.

FOOTNOTES

(1) In accordance with Accounting Systems Directive No. 7 of the State Comptroller, Fiscal 2000 expenditures of the Municipal Assistance Corporation of The City of New York (MAC) have been treated only for accounting purposes of the City as if they were City expenditures. Consequently. these estimates of General Fund receipts for Fiscal 2000 do not reflect anticipated reductions in amounts to be received by the City from the four percent sales tax levied in the City by the State, from the stock transfer tax and from per capita State aid. In fact, the expenditures of MAC are to be appropriated by the State from the four percent sales tax levied in the City by the State, from the stock transfer tax and from per capita State aid otherwise payable to the City; any remaining funds from these sources are to be appropriated by the State to the City. Thus, the expenditures of MAC reduce the funds which may be appropriated and paid to the City from these sources. The presentation of MAC expenditures, instead of showing MAC expenditures as reductions in anticipated City revenues, is made solely to comply with Accounting Systems Directive No. 7 and has no bearing on the statutory relationship between the City and MAC: see Section 3016 of the Public Authorities Law.

(B) The Operating Limit Provisions require that average full valuations of taxable real property be determined by taking the assessed valuations of taxable real property on the last completed assessment roll and the four (4) preceding assessment rolls of the City and applying thereto the special equalization ratios which such assessed valuations of each such roll bear to the full valuations as fixed and determined by the State Board of Real Property Services ("SBRPS") pursuant to Section 1251, Real Property Tax Law. as shown below:

Public Advocate of the City of New York

Clerk of the City of
New York (SEAL)

HERBERT E. BERMAN, Chairperson; ARCHIE SPIGNER, WENDELL FOSTER, SHELDON S. LEFFLER, STANLEY E. MICHELS, JUNE EISLAND, JEROME X. O'DONOVAN, PRISCILLA A. WOOTEN, VICTOR L. ROBLES, WALTER L. McCAFFREY, A. GIFFORD MILLER, ANGEL RODRIGUEZ, AL STABILE—June 6, 2000

On motion of the Speaker (Council Member Vallone), and adopted, the foregoing matter was coupled as a General Order for the day. (See ROLL CALL ON SUPPLEMENTAL GENERAL ORDERS FOR THE DAY.)

At this point the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) announced that the following items had been preconsidered by the Committee on Finance and had been favorably reported for adoption.

Res. No. 1411

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving a resolution computing and certifying base percentage, current percentage, and current base proportion of each class of real property for Fiscal 2001 to the State Board of Real Property Services pursuant to Section 1803-a, Real Property Tax Law.

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on June 6, 2000, the annexed resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

Section 1803-a, a Real Property Tax Law, requires the City Council to certify to the State Board or Real Property Services (the "SBRPS") certain calculations used in the process of updating the class shares from the previous year. These calculations are made every year by the Council to reflect the following changes in each class of real property:

a. Changes in the market value of taxable real property (as determined by SBRPS sample studies),

b. Physical changes as a result of new construction or demolitions,

c. Changes in taxable status, and

d. Transfers of real property among the four classes of real property as a result of changes in use or for other reasons.

Under SBRPS regulations, the Council must update the class shares by making two separate certifications. The action to be taken in the above-referenced resolution constitutes the first step of establishing the class shares of the four classes of taxable real property in the City to which the tax levy for the Fiscal 2001 budget will be applied. The purpose of this step is to give effect to the latest class equalization rates required by Article 18, Real Property Tax Law. Using these rates, new estimates of market values for each class are calculated.

The second step, certifying the "adjusted base proportions", is the subject of a separate resolution that takes account of all the changes that are included in the final assessment roll, after Tax Commission review of taxpayer protests. Attached hereto, as Exhibit A, are definitions of terms that are used in the analysis, below.

Analysis. The class equalization rates described above produce a prospective current base proportion which shows increases in Classes 1, 2 and 3 above the Fiscal 2000 adjusted base proportions, or "class shares" (as shown in column R of SBRPS Form RP-6700 attached to the above-captioned resolution), and a 2.71 percent decrease for Class 4. Under current law, if the increase in any class exceeds 5 percent, the Council is directed to shift the excess (and only the excess) to any other class or classes as long as the shift does not cause the current base proportion of any other class to increase by more than the 5 percent limit. In the above-captioned resolution, the excess above 5 percent from Class 3 would be shifted to Class 4.

Class	Percent Change Before Shifting Excess to Class 4	Percent Change After Shifting Excess to Class 4
1	+2.69	+2.69
2	+1.12	+1.12
3	+6.60	+5.00
4	–2.71	–2.45

However, these "current base proportions" must still be adjusted for the physical changes and transfers among classes which are contained in the final assessment roll. These adjustments will be made in a separate resolution constituting the Council's second step. The "adjusted base proportions" thus derived will be the class shares used for allocating the real property tax levy for Fiscal 2001.

"Class equalization rate" represents the percentage that the total assessed value of each class is of the market value of the class, as shown in SBRPS sample studies.

"Base percentage" represents the percentage of total market value that each class constitutes in the 1989 base tax roll. The 1989 base tax roll is the one which was used in setting the tax levy for Fiscal 1990.

"Current percentage" is similar to the base percentage, but applies to the most recent year for which the SBRPS has established class equalization rates (in this case, the 1999 tax roll).

"Local base proportions" are the class tax shares used to fix the tax rates for Fiscal 1991.

"Current base proportions" are the local base proportions modified to take into account the market value changes revealed by the latest class equalization rates.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

On motion of the Speaker (Council Member Vallone), and adopted, the foregoing matter was coupled as a General Order for the day. (See ROLL CALL ON SUPPLEMENTAL GENERAL ORDERS FOR THE DAY.)

At this point the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) announced that the following item had been preconsidered by the Committee on Finance and had been favorably reported for adoption.

Res. No. 1412

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving a resolution computing and certifying adjusted base proportion of each class of Real Property for Fiscal 2001 to the State Board of Real Property Services pursuant to Section 1803-a, Real Property Tax Law.

The Committee on Finance to which it was referred on June 6, 2000, the annexed resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

The above-captioned resolution completes the certification procedure required by Section 1803-a, Real Property Tax Law, to establish the class shares used in levying the real property taxes for the adopted Fiscal 2001 budget.

In a separate resolution, the Council computed and certified the current base proportions for Fiscal 2001 (the "CBP Resolution"). The above-captioned resolution uses those current base proportions, together with data supplied by the New York City Department of Finance from the final assessment roll on May 25, 2000, to determine the adjusted base proportions (or class shares) in accordance with the procedure established by the State Board of Real Property Services (the "SBRPS").

The current base proportion for each class of real property takes into account the market value changes in the class occurring between the assessment roll for the base period, 1989, and the latest roll for which SBRPS has established class equalization rates, 1999. The CBP Resolution modified the class shares for the Fiscal 2001 property tax levy accordingly. The remaining step, to be taken in the above-captioned resolution, adjusts these current base proportions to take account of the various physical changes (such as demolitions, new construction, changes in exempt status and transfers among classes) which are reflected in the new final assessment roll. The computations called for in the SBRPS procedure are designed to separate the effects of these physical changes from equalization changes made by local assessors.

The calculations shown on the SBRPS Form RP-6702 attached to the above-captioned resolution modify the share for each class to reflect physical changes. For Fiscal 2001, all classes show modest physical increases, resulting in the following changes. The Fiscal 2001 adjusted base proportion for Classes 1 and 4 show slight decreases from the Fiscal 2001 current base proportion, while the changes in the adjusted class share for Classes 2 and 4 show modest increases from the current base proportion. However, the changes from the adjusted base proportions for Fiscal 2000, as reported in the table below, show a decrease 2.6 percent for Class 4, but increases for the other classes; of 2.5 percent for Class 1, 1.2 percent for 2 and 5.7 percent for Class 3. (Last year's increase in class shares was capped at 2.5 percent.)

Comparison of Class Shares for Fiscal 2000 and Fiscal 2001
Class	Fiscal 2000	Fiscal 2001	Percent Change
1	13.2574	13.5892	+2.50
2	34.0816	34.5008	+1.23
3	7.4292	7.8547	+5.73
4	45.2318	44.0553	–2.60
Total	100.0000	100.0000

The tax rates resulting from the use of class shares shown above for Fiscal 2001 are compared to the Fiscal 2000 tax rates in the following table:

Comparison of Tax Rates for Fiscal 2000 and Fiscal 2001 (Per $100 Assessed Value)
Class	Fiscal 2000	Fiscal 2001	Difference
1	11.167	11.331	+.164
2	10.851	10.846	–.005
3	9.398	10.849	+1.451
4	9.989	9.699	–.290

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

Reports of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation (cont'd)

M-838

Reports of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor "AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, in relation to contracts for public work." S.2284/A.4222

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on April 25, 2000 (Minutes page 906) the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would amend subdivision one of section 103 of the General Municipal Law to authorize the City of New York to include in any public works project "any work deemed necessary or desirable . . . for the completion of such project that requires the maintenance, support, protection, or other accommodation of energy, telecommunications or other private facilities or structures not owned by such city which are located within, traversing or adjacent to the construction area of such project. . . ."

According to the Mayor's Memorandum in Support, public rights of way generally contain municipally owned utility services such as water mains and sewers, as well as privately owned utility lines for the transmission of energy and telecommunications. These private facilities must often be moved or protected in order for the municipal work to proceed. As a result, utilities must either contract with the public works contractor or employ another contractor to move or protect such private facilities, which often causes delays in City construction projects. In an attempt to alleviate the inconvenience resulting from these delays, the City began "joint bidding" its public works contracts. This practice required bidders to provide, within a single bid, separate prices for the municipal work and the private utility work. Thereafter, the contract would be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder for the combined work. According to the Mayor's Memorandum, the utilities, by separate agreement, would reimburse the City for the additional cost of the City's share of the overall low bid if the low bidder on the municipal work was not the same as the low bidder on the combined work. As a result, the cost to the City would never be more than the lowest bid for the municipal work.

The City had been utilizing joint bidding since 1992 in an effort to expedite public works projects. However, in July 1998, the New York State Court of Appeals ruled in Diamond Asphalt Corp. v. Sander that this practice was in violation of General Municipal Law section 103 and prohibited the City from engaging in joint bidding, unless there was an amendment made to the state law. This legislation would provide the necessary state law amendment to allow the City to continue the use of joint bidding on public works projects.

In 1999, this Committee passed a home rule message concerning this legislation. The full Council, thereafter, approved it as well. At the State level, however, it died in the Senate and Assembly Rules Committees.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY00	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01
Expenditures (–)	$0	$0	$0
Net	$0	$0	$0

Impact on Revenues: There would be no impact on revenues as a result of this legislation.

Impact on Expenditures: There would be no impact on expenditures as a result of this legislation, as any additional costs resulting from the joint bidding arrangement would be borne by the utilities and other private entities.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

At this point the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) announced that the following items had been preconsidered by the Committee on State and Federal Legislation and had been favorably reported for adoption.

M-875

Reports of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to authorize the city of New York to discontinue the use of park land of a portion of a park strip in the borough of the Bronx which is not needed for park purposes and to transfer such land to the metropolitan transportation authority for purposes related to the reconstruction of the coliseum bus depot in exchange for the transfer and dedication as park land of a greater amount of land of an equal or greater fair market value." S.7969/A.11231

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 6, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would authorize the City of New York to discontinue the use as park land a portion of a park strip (name of park) in the borough of The Bronx and transfer such land to the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA) for the reconstruction of the Coliseum Bus Depot. The discontinuance of the parkland will be conditioned on the MTA surrendering to the City of New York for dedication as parkland a parcel of land owned by the City of New York and under the jurisdiction of the MTA.

According to the Mayor's Memorandum in Support, this transfer of park land would facilitate the construction of a new bus depot for the maintenance and storage of alternative fuel buses. According to the Memorandum, the park land at issue is not readily accessible to the public and would accommodate additional parking associated with the construction of the new bus depot.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01
Revenues (+)	None	None	None
Net	$0	$0	$0

Impact on Revenues: There would be no impact on revenues as a result of this legislation.

Impact on Expenditures: There is no anticipated cost of this legislation as this action involves the exchange and dedication of park land between the city of New York and the Metropolitan Transportation Authority.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

M-876

Reports of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the tax law, the state finance law and the public authorities law, in relation to the payment of state-collected taxes to certain public benefit corporations, the borrowing power of the New York city transitional finance authority and the bonds issued by such authority; and to amend chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, amending the public authorities law and other laws relating to creating the New York city transitional finance authority, in relation to the continued authorization of such authority to issue such bonds." S. 7967

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 6, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

Section 4 of Article 8 of the Constitution, prohibits New York City from contracting indebtedness beyond an established debt limit. Since the debt limit constrains the ability to enter into capital contracts, the continuation of the City's capital program, which includes funding for education and transportation, and the capital needs of other City operations, is dependent on sufficient debt limit capacity. The TFA Act of 1997 created the New York City Transitional Finance Authority ("TFA") as an emergency financing mechanism to ensure that, as the City approached its constitutional debt limit, adequate funding would be available to meet the City's capital needs.

The city is now nearing its limit under the 1997 TFA Act. The main provision of this legislation increases the aggregate principal amount of bonds permitted to be issued by the TFA to $10 billion from the current limit, which is $7.5 billion.

In addition, this legislation also amends the definition of "capital financing needs" to eliminate the requirement that a period of capital financing need be one in which the capital program would require the City to incur debt in excess of the limit imposed by the state constitution. Instead, a period of capital financing need would occur when the issuance of bonds by the TFA would assist the City in meeting its capital needs as determined by the Mayor.

According to the administration, the legislation would delete the provision which prevents the TFA from issuing bonds other than for refunding purposes as soon as the city's constitutional debt limit is increased.

Finally, other provisions would change the requirement on the issuance of variable rate bonds and clarify provisions regarding the availability of personal income and sales tax revenues to the TFA.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 179

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Marchi, S.6353, and Assembly Member Connelly, A.9337, "AN ACT authorizing the city of New York to reconvey its interest in certain real property acquired by in rem tax foreclosure in the borough of Staten Island to former owners Robert M. and Lillian McNee, without public auction and notwithstanding expiration of the two year period within which application may be made to the city to release its interest in property thus acquired; Block No. 69, Lot No. 98 on tax map for the borough of Staten Island".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on February 8, 2000 (Minutes page 305) the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

The New York City Charter requires that sale of city-owned property be at public auction or by sealed bids, except as otherwise provided by law. Therefore, state legislative authorization is necessary to permit reconveyance of city-owned property to the former owner.

This legislation authorizes the city of New York to reconvey the real property designated as Block No. 69, Lot No. 98 on the tax map of Staten Island to Robert M. and Lillian McNee. Such reconveyance may be made upon approval of the In Rem Foreclosure Release Board subject to the grantee meeting certain conditions precedent.

The City of New York acquired title to these premises based on non-payment of taxes. Reportedly, the non-payment of taxes was due to an absence of notice and the inadvertent failure of, the former owner of such property, to pay taxes thereon.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Marchi, S.6239, and Assembly Member Straniere, A.9300, "AN ACT authorizing the city of New York to reconvey its interest in certain real property acquired by in rem tax foreclosure in the borough of Staten Island to the former owners Philip and Georgette DePalma, notwithstanding expiration of the two year period within which application may be made to the city to release its interest in property thus acquired; Block No. 238, Lot No. 136 on tax map for the borough of Staten Island".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on February 29, 2000 (Minutes page 449) the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

The New York City Charter requires that sale of city-owned property be at public auction or by sealed bids, except as otherwise provided by law. Therefore, state legislative authorization is necessary to permit reconveyance of city-owned property to the former owner.

This legislation authorizes the city of New York to reconvey the real property designated as Block No. 238, Lot No. 136 on the tax map of Staten Island to Philip and Georgette DePalma. Such reconveyance may be made upon approval of the In Rem Foreclosure Release Board subject to the grantee meeting certain conditions precedent.

The City of New York acquired title to these premises based on non-payment of taxes. Reportedly, the non-payment of taxes was due to an absence of notice and the inadvertent failure of, the former owner of such property, to pay taxes thereon.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

At this point the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) announced that the following item had been preconsidered by the Committee on State and Federal Legislation and had been favorably reported for adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 263

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Maltese, S.7976-A, and by Committee on Rules, A.11239-A, "AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to combining the correction officers' variable supplements fund provided for in such code and the correction captains' and above variable supplements fund provided for such code into a single correction officers' variable supplements fund for eligible service retirees of the uniformed force of the New York city department of correction in all ranks, the benefits payable by and the structure and assets of such variable supplements fund, the method of determining the payability and amount of investment earnings of the New York city employees' retirement system which are eligible for transfer from such retirement system to such variable supplements fund, and in relation to providing for the transfer of assets from the New York city employees' retirement system to the transit police officer's variable supplements fund provided for in such code, the transit police superior officers' variable supplements fund provided for in such code, the housing police officer's variable supplements fund provided for in such code and the housing police superior officers' variable supplements fund provided for in such code in such amounts as are necessary for such variable supplements funds to pay benefits which are guaranteed to eligible beneficiaries of such funds, and repealing paragraph (d) of subdivision three of section 13-194 of such code, relating to arbitration of certain matters where the board of trustees of the correction officers' variable supplements fund deadlocks thereon, and repealing subdivisions 97 and 98 of section 13-101 of such code and section 13-195 of such code, relating to the provisions governing the correction captains' and above variable supplements fund".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 6, 2000, the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would combine the correction officers' variable supplements fund and the correction "captains and above" variable supplements fund into a single correction officers' variable supplements fund for eligible service retirees of all ranks of the uniformed force of the New York City Department of Corrections. It provides defined benefit of $8,500 beginning in calendar year 2000 and increasing by $500 a year until the benefit reaches $12,000 in 2007 and subsequent years. However, the year 2000 until the year 2019, the defined benefit is only payable if, and to the extent that the actuary determines that the value of the pension assets are sufficient in accordance with the terms of the legislation.

This legislation also addresses the funding of Transit and Housing police officers employees who retired under NYCERS pension system. As a result of the merger of Transit and Housing police officers into the Police retirement system, there is no longer any skim into the variable supplement fund which pays for this defined benefit active employees paying into NYCERS, thereby jeopardizing future variable supplement payments to these retirees. This legislation corrects the situation created by the merger, by requiring NYCERS to pick up any of the costs for future payments to these retirees.

This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after December 29, 1999.

Revenues (+)	N.A.	N.A.	N.A.

Impact on Revenues: There is no impact on revenue as a result of this legislation.

Impact on Expenditures: There is an estimated cost of $10 million as a result of the changes relating to requiring NYCERS to cover any shortfall in payments for the Transit Police and Housing Police defined benefit guarantee payment. However, on April 20th, the board of directors of the NYCERS approved a new methods and assumptions including a restart in the pension assets valuation which in effect creates an "asset cushion" (assets greater than liabilities). Upon adoption by the state legislature of the methods and assumptions the City Actuary will revalue the pension assets thereby creating an "asset cushion" which would result in no additional contribution required by the City to NYCERS if this legislation were to become law.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

By Council Members Perkins, Robles, Fisher, Quinn, Espada, Lopez, Marshall and Robinson; also Council Member Eisland

Whereas, According to a Department of Health report entitled, "Epidemiologic Profile of HIV/AIDS in New York City, June 1999", as of June 30, 1999, 1324 of the people living in New York City with AIDS were diagnosed as adolescents and young adults; and

Such review may be requested, within the time provided for by section two hundred fifty-seven-a or two hundred sixty-three of this article, as the case may be, by a party to the instrument or person interested therein or in the property affected thereby or such review may be initiated by the commissioner of taxation and finance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that any city in the state having a population of one million or more acting through its local legislative body adopts and amends its local laws to provide for the partial exemption from the taxes imposed under subdivision one of section two hundred fifty-three or subdivision one of section two hundred fifty-three-a of this article for a "first-time homebuyer," a review by the commissioner of taxation and finance of the act of a recording officer in recording or refusing to record an instrument in connection with such an exemption, the recording officer's determination, if any, and the application of this article thereto may be requested, within the time provided for by section two hundred fifty-seven-a or two hundred sixty-three of this article, as the case may be, by the commissioner of finance of the city of New York. After such review, the commissioner of taxation and finance shall notify (i) the party or person who has so requested such review or, in the case of such review initiated by the commissioner of taxation and finance or the commissioner of finance of the city of New York, the party to the instrument or person interested therein or in the property affected thereby, and (ii) the city of New York, or the county treasurer, as the case may be, to whom the tax imposed by this article may be payable, of his determination. Such determination shall be fixed and irrevocable unless within ninety days of the mailing of such notice, the party or person, who has so requested such review, or, in the case of such review initiated by the commissioner of taxation and finance, any party to the instrument or person interested therein or in the property affected thereby, or the city of New York, or the county treasurer, as the case may be, to whom the tax imposed by this article may be payable, petitions the division of tax appeals for a hearing unless the parties mentioned in clauses (i) and (ii) of this section waive their right to petition in such matter. After such hearing, the division of tax appeals shall give notice of the determination of the administrative law judge to such party or person who so filed such petition, to such city or such county treasurer and to the commissioner of taxation and finance. Such determination may be reviewed by the tax appeals tribunal, as provided in article forty of this chapter, at the instance of any party to such hearing, and by the city of New York or the county treasurer, as the case may be, to whom such tax may be payable. The provisions of this section shall be construed as amplifying and extending the rights of review expressly provided in other sections of this article, and shall in no manner be deemed a restriction thereof.

§ 2. Subdivision 1 of section 253 of the tax law, as amended by chapter 350 of the laws of the laws of 1969, is amended to read as follows:

1. A tax of fifty cents for each one hundred dollars and each remaining major fraction thereof of principal debt or obligation which is, or under any contingency may be secured at the date of the execution thereof or at any time thereafter by a mortgage on real property situated within the state recorded on or after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and six, is hereby imposed on each such mortgage, and shall be collected and paid as provided in this article. If the principal debt or obligation which is or by any contingency may be secured by such mortgage recorded on or after the first day of July, nineteen hundred and seven, is less than one hundred dollars, a tax of fifty cents is hereby imposed on such mortgage, and shall be collected and paid as provided in this article. Notwithstanding anything in this section to the contrary, any city in this state having a population of one million or more, acting through its local legislative body, is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local laws providing that a mortgage on real property situated in such city and securing a principal debt or obligation of three hundred thousand dollars or less shall not be subject to the tax imposed by this subdivision with respect to the amount of the principal debt or obligation secured by such mortgage not exceeding one hundred fifty thousand dollars if such real property is a one, two, or three-family house, or individual residential condominium unit that is owned and used by the mortgagor as a "principal residence" immediately following the recording of the mortgage and for a period of two years thereafter and the mortgagor qualifies as a "first-time homebuyer" as defined below. In the event that any city in the state having a population of one million or more, acting through its local legislative body, adopts and amends its local laws to provide for the full or partial exemption from the tax imposed by this subdivision for first-time homebuyers, the lender shall provide documentation in a format approved by the commissioner of taxation and finance and by the commissioner of finance of such city to enable recording officers to affirmatively determine when a mortgage being presented for recording is entitled to such exemption. For purposes of such local law, a "first-time homebuyer" shall mean an individual or an individual and that individual's spouse or domestic partner, none of whom has or had an ownership interest in a principal residence, vacation residence, or investment residence at any time prior to the recording of the mortgage, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. For purposes of such local law, "ownership interest" includes: a fee simple interest, a joint tenancy, a tenancy-in-common, a tenancy-by-the-entirety, the interest of a tenant shareholder in a cooperative, a life estate, and a land contract, but shall not include: a remainder interest, a lease with or without an option to purchase, a mere expectancy to inherit an ownership interest, the interest a purchaser of a residence acquires in the execution of a purchase contract, an interest in real estate that is not a residence, vacation residence, or investment residence, or an ownership interest in a mobile home that is not permanently attached to the land, provided, however, if due to his or her ownership of a mobile home, an individual has claimed a real estate tax or home mortgage deduction on his or her federal, state or city income tax returns, such individual shall not be considered a first-time homebuyer regardless of whether the mobile home was permanently attached to the land. For purposes of such local law, a "principal residence" shall have the same meaning as when used in section one hundred twenty-one of the internal revenue code. Such local law may, in accordance with principles similar to those applicable under paragraph (a) of subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-three-a of this article, provide that the principal debt or obligation secured by one or more mortgages may be aggregated for the purpose of determining whether the amount of principal debt or obligation secured by such mortgage or mortgages exceeds the limitations applicable to the exemption granted by such local law. Such local law shall provide that, in the event that a mortgagor does not own and use the property as a principal residence for a period of not less than two years after the recording of the mortgage, any additional tax shall become immediately due and payable plus interest and the mortgagor shall be subject to a penalty as provided in subdivision two of Section two hundred fifty-eight of this article.

§ 3. Section 253-a of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 1-a to read as follows:

1-A. Notwithstanding anything in this section to the contrary, any city in this state having a population of one million or more, acting through its local legislative body, is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local laws providing that a mort- gage on real property situated in such city and securing a principal debt or obligation of three hundred thousand dollars or less shall not be subject to the tax imposed by subdivision one of this section with respect to the amount of the principal debt or obligation secured by such mortgage not exceeding one hundred fifty thousand dollars if such real property is a one, two, or three-family house, or individual residential condominium unit that is owned and used by the mortgagor as a "principal residence" immediately following the recording of the mortgage and for a period of two years thereafter and the mortgagor qualifies as a "first-time homebuyer" as defined below. In the event that any city in the state having a population of one million or more, acting through its local legislative body, adopts and amends its local laws to provide for the full or partial exemption from the tax imposed by subdivision one of this section for first-time homebuyers, the lender shall provide documentation in a format approved by the commissioner of taxation and finance and by the commissioner of finance of such city to enable recording officers to affirmatively determine when a mortgage being presented for recording is entitled to such exemption. For purposes of such local law, a "first-time homebuyer" shall mean an individual or an individual and that individual's spouse or domestic partner, none of whom has or had an ownership interest in a principal residence, vacation residence, or investment residence at any time prior to the recording of the mortgage, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision. For purposes of such local law, "ownership interest" includes: a fee simple interest, a joint tenancy, a tenancy-in-common, a tenancy-by-the-entirety, the interest of a tenant shareholder in a cooperative, a life estate, and a land contract, but shall not include: a remainder interest, a lease with or without an option to purchase, a mere expectancy to inherit an ownership interest, the interest a purchaser of a residence acquires in the execution of a purchase contract, an interest in real estate that is not a residence, vacation residence, or investment residence, or an ownership interest in a mobile home that is not permanently attached to the land, provided, however, if due to his or her ownership of a mobile home, an individual has claimed a real estate tax or home mortgage deduction on his or her federal, state or city income tax returns, such individual shall not be considered a first-time homebuyer regardless of whether the mobile home was permanently attached to the land. For purposes of such local law, a "principal residence" shall have the same meaning as when used in section one hundred twenty-one of the internal revenue code. Such local law may, in accordance with principles similar to those applicable under paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this section, provide that the principal debt or obligation secured by one or more mortgages may be aggregated for the purpose of determining whether the amount of principal debt or obligation secured by such mortgage or mortgages exceeds the limitations applicable to the exemption granted by such local law. Such local law shall provide that, in the event that a mortgagor does not own and use the property as a principal residence for a period of not less than two years after the recording of the mortgage, any additional tax shall become immediately due and payable plus interest and the mortgagor shall be subject to a penalty as provided in subdivision two of section two hundred fifty-eight of this article.

§ 4. Subdivision 2 of section 258 of the tax law, as added by chapter 241 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows:

2. In any city in this state having a population of one million or more, in order to obtain a release or discharge of record where the mortgagor is not liable for the special additional tax imposed under subdivision one-a of section two hundred fifty-three of this {~~chapter~~} article, such mortgagor or any subsequent owner of the mortgaged property or a part thereof may pay the tax imposed under such subdivision one-a with accrued interest and any penalties, and may either apply for the credit allowable under this chapter for payment of such additional tax or may maintain an action to recover the amounts so paid against any person liable for payment of the tax or any subsequent assignees or owners of such mortgage or consolidated mortgage of which such mortgage is a part, as if such amounts of tax and penalties were a debt personally owed by such persons to the mortgagor or subsequent owner. No judgment or final order in any action or proceeding shall be made for the foreclosure or the enforcement of any mortgage which is subject to any tax imposed by this article or of any debt or obligation secured by any such mortgage, unless the taxes imposed by this article shall have been paid as provided in this article; and whenever it shall appear that any mortgage has been recorded without payment of a tax imposed by this article there shall be added to the tax interest on the amount of tax not paid. The commissioner of taxation and finance shall set the rate of interest to be paid on any underpayment of tax imposed by this article at the rate of interest prescribed in subsection (e) of section one thousand ninety-six of this chapter for underpayments of tax. Such interest shall be compounded daily. In addition to interest there shall be added to the tax a penalty of ten percent of the amount of tax due for the first month of delay in payment of the tax plus two percent of the amount of tax for each month of delay thereafter, up to a maximum of twenty-five percent, (a) where it could not be determined from the face of the instrument that a tax was due, (or) (b) where an advance has been made on a prior advance mortgage or a corporate trust mortgage or a re-advance had been made on a mortgage where the original indebtedness it secured had been paid in whole or in part, or (c) in the event that any city in the state having a population of one million or more acting through its local legislative body adopts and amends its local laws to provide for the partial exemption from the taxes imposed under subdivision one of section two hundred fifty-three or subdivision one of section two hundred fifty-three-a of this article for a "first-time homebuyer," where the mortgagor or their spouse did not qualify as a first-time homebuyer at the time of the recording of the mortgage or as a result of the mortgagor's failure to meet the two-year ownership and use requirement for such partial exemption. In any case where a mortgage of real property subject to a tax imposed by this article has heretofore been recorded or is hereafter recorded in good faith, and the county clerk or register has held such mortgage nontaxable or taxable at one amount, and it shall later appear that it was taxable or taxable at a greater amount, the commissioner of taxation and finance may remit the penalties but not interest. Where paragraph (c) of this subdivision applies, the commissioner of taxation and finance may remit the penalties but not the interest where the two-year ownership and use requirement for the partial tax exemption for a "first-time homebuyer" is not met if the mortgagor can show that the failure was due to either (i) an employment relocation outside the city, where such relocation required the individual to become a resident outside the city, or (ii) an unforeseeable financial emergency that cannot be relieved by reimbursement or compensation through insurance or otherwise or liquidation of the mortgagor's assets, provided such liquidation would not itself cause a severe financial hardship. For purposes of the foregoing sentence, an "unforeseeable financial emergency" shall mean a severe financial hardship to the individual resulting from a sudden and unexpected illness or accident of the individual or of a dependent.

§ 5. Section 1310 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (f) to read as follows:

(4) A local law enacted pursuant to this subsection shall be applicable with respect to any taxable year only if it has been enacted on or before July thirty-first of such year. A certified copy of such local law shall be mailed by registered mail to the state department of taxation and finance at its office in Albany within fifteen days of its enactment. However, the state department of taxation and finance may allow additional time for such certified copy to be mailed if it deems such action to be consistent with its duties under this article.

§ 6. Section 1310 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (g) to read as follows:

(g) Earned income tax credit. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any city having a population of one million or more, acting through its local legislative body, is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local laws granting in any such city, for taxable years beginning after nineteen hundred ninety-nine, a credit against the city personal income tax equal to the applicable percentage of the earned income credit allowed under section thirty-two of the internal revenue code for the same taxable year. The applicable percentage of any such credit shall be established by such local law and shall not exceed five percent.

(2) Residents. In the case of a resident taxpayer, the credit provided by local law adopted pursuant to this subsection shall be allowed against the taxes authorized by this article for the taxable year reduced by the credits permitted by this article. If the credit exceeds the tax as so reduced, the taxpayer may receive, and the comptroller, subject to a certificate of the commissioner, shall pay as an overpayment, without interest, the amount of such excess.

(3) Part-year residents. If a taxpayer changes his or her status during the taxable year from city resident to city nonresident, or from city nonresident to city resident, the credit determined under this subsection shall be limited to the amount determined by multiplying the amount of such credit by a fraction, the numerator of which is such taxpayer's city adjusted gross income, as defined in chapter seventeen of title eleven of the administrative code of the city of New York, for the period of residence, and the denominator of which is such taxpayer's city adjusted gross income determined as if he or she were a city resident for the entire taxable year. City adjusted gross income shall be adjusted as provided in section 11-1754 of the administrative code of the city of New York. The credit as so limited shall be applied as provided in paragraph two of this subsection.

(4) Husband and wife. Subject to the provisions of paragraph three of this subsection, in the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return, but who are required to determine their city personal income taxes separately, the credit authorized pursuant to this subsection may be applied against the tax of either or divided between them as they may elect. In the case of a husband and wife who are not required to file a federal return, the credit under this subsection shall be allowed only if such taxpayers file a joint city personal income tax return.

(5) Any local law adopted pursuant to this subsection may condition the availability of the refundable and nonrefundable portions so that such credit shall be available or refundable in accordance with the provisions of paragraph two hereof only in those taxable years for which the New York state director of the budget has certified, on or before September first of the taxable year that either (a) any portion specified in such local law of the cost to such city of providing such credit for eligible persons, as determined in accordance with rules promulgated under part a of title iv of the social security act, shall be reimbursed with federal funds available pursuant to part a of title iv of the social security act, or (b) the state shall reimburse such city for any portion specified in such local law of such cost by reducing financial participation by such city in public assistance costs.

(6) A local law enacted pursuant to this subsection shall be applicable with respect to any taxable year only if it has been enacted on or before July thirty-first of such year. A certified copy of such local law shall be mailed by registered mail to the state department of taxation and finance at its office in Albany within fifteen days of its enactment. However, the state department of taxation and finance may allow additional time for such certified copy to be mailed if it deems such action to be consistent with its duties under this article.

(6) Notification. The commissioner shall periodically, but not less than every three years, make efforts to alert taxpayers that may be currently eligible to receive the credit provided under this subsection, and the credit provided under any local law enacted pursuant to subsection (g) of section thirteen hundred ten of this chapter, as to their potential eligibility. In making the determination of whether a taxpayer may be eligible for such credit, the commissioner shall use such data as may be appropriate and available, including, but not limited to, data available from the United States Department of Treasury, Internal Revenue Service and New York state income tax returns for preceding tax years.

(7) Reports. The commissioner shall prepare a preliminary written report after July thirty-first and a final written report after December thirty-first of each calendar year, which shall contain statistical information regarding the credits granted on or before such dates under this subsection, and under any local law enacted pursuant to subsection (g) of section thirteen hundred ten of this chapter, during such calendar year. Copies of these reports shall be submitted by such commissioner to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, the chairman of the senate finance committee and the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee within sixty days of July thirty-first with respect to the preliminary report, and within forty-five days of December thirty-first with respect to the final report, and copies of such reports with respect to credits under any local law enacted pursuant to subsection (g) of section thirteen hundred ten of this chapter shall be submitted in addition to the mayor and the speaker of the council of the city where such a local law is in effect. Such reports shall contain, but need not be limited to, the number of credits and the average amount of such credits allowed; and of those, the number of credits and the average amount of such credits allowed to taxpayers in each county; and of those, the number of credits and the average amount of such credits allowed to taxpayers whose earned income falls within ranges, determined by the commissioner, of not more than four thousand dollars; and of those, the number of credits and the average amount of such credits allowed to taxpayers who file under the different statuses set forth in subsections (a), (b) and (c) of section six hundred one; and of those, the number of credits and the average amount of such credits allowed to taxpayers whose number of qualifying children falls within the categories set forth in such section thirty-two of the internal revenue code.

§ 8. Paragraph 3 of subsection (e) of section 697 of the tax law, as amended by section 2 of part M of chapter 63 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

(3) Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the department, its officers or employees from furnishing information to the office of temporary and disability assistance relating to the payment of the credit for certain household and dependent care services necessary for gainful employment under subsection (c) of section six hundred six of this article and the earned income credit under subsection (d) of section six hundred six of this article, or pursuant to a local law enacted by a city having a population of one million or more pursuant to subsection (g) of section thirteen hundred ten of this chapter, only to the extent necessary to calculate qualified state expenditures under paragraph seven of subdivision (a) of section four hundred nine of the federal social security act or to document the proper expenditure of federal temporary assistance for needy families funds under section four hundred three of such act. The office of temporary and disability assistance may redisclose such information to the United States department of health and human services only to the extent necessary to calculate such qualified state expenditures or to document the proper expenditure of such federal temporary assistance for needy families funds. Provided, however, such delivery shall only be made pursuant to an order of the chief administrator of the courts, appointed pursuant to section two hundred ten of the judiciary law. No such order may be issued unless such chief administrator is satisfied that such mailing list is needed to compile a proper list of prospective jurors for the county for which such order is sought and that, in view of the responsibilities imposed by the various laws of the state on the department, it is reasonable to require the commissioner to furnish such list. Such order shall provide that such list shall be used for the sole purpose of compiling a list of prospective jurors and that such commissioner of jurors, or such county clerk, shall take all necessary steps to insure that the list is kept confidential and that there is no unauthorized use or disclosure of such list. Furthermore, nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to a taxpayer or his or her duly authorized representative of a certified copy of any return or report filed in connection with his or her tax or to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports or returns and the items thereof, or the inspection by the attorney returns required under this article by the comptroller or duly designated officer or employee of the state department of audit and control, for purposes of the audit of a refund of any tax paid by a taxpayer under this article, or the furnishing to the state department of labor of unemployment insurance information obtained or derived from quarterly combined withholding, wage reporting and § 10. Section 1310 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (h) to read as follows:

(h) Credit for certain household and dependent care services necessary for gainful employment. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any city having a population of one million or more, acting through its local legislative body, is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local laws granting in any such city, for taxable years beginning after nineteen hundred ninety-nine, a credit against the city personal income tax of up to forty percent of the credit for household and dependent care services allowed under subsection (c) of section 606 of this chapter for the same taxable year.

(2) Residents. In the case of a resident taxpayer, the credit provided by local law adopted pursuant to this subsection shall be allowed against the taxes authorized by this article for the taxable year reduced by the credits permitted by this article. If the credit exceeds the tax as so reduced, the taxpayer may receive, and the comptroller, subject to a certificate of the commissioner, shall pay as an overpayment, without interest, the amount of such excess.

(3) Part-year residents. If a taxpayer changes his or her status during the taxable year from city resident to city nonresident, or from city nonresident to city resident, the credit authorized pursuant to this subsection shall be limited to the amount determined by multiplying the amount of such credit by a fraction, the numerator of which is such taxpayer's city adjusted gross income, as defined in chapter seventeen of title eleven of the administrative code of the city of New York, for the period of residence, and the denominator of which is such taxpayer's city adjusted gross income determined as if he or she were a city resident for the entire taxable year. City adjusted gross income shall be adjusted as provided in section seventeen hundred fifty-four of title eleven of the administrative code of the city of New York. The credit as so limited shall be applied as provided in paragraph two of this subsection.

(4) Husband and wife. Subject to the provisions of paragraph three of this subsection, in the case of a husband and wife who file a joint return, but who are required to determine their city personal income taxes separately, the credit authorized pursuant to this subsection may be applied against the tax computed without regard to such credit and imposed pursuant to the authority of this article on the spouse with the lower separate city adjusted gross income determined in all cases as if he or she were a city resident for the entire taxable year without regard to the actual resident status of such spouse. In the case of a husband and wife who are not required to file a federal return, the credit under this subsection shall be allowed only if such taxpayers file a joint city personal income tax return.

(5) A local law enacted pursuant to this subsection shall be applicable with respect to any taxable year only if it has been enacted on or before July thirty-first of such year. A certified copy of such local law shall be mailed by registered mail to the state department of taxation and finance at its office in Albany within fifteen days of its enactment. However, the state department of taxation and finance may allow additional time for such certified copy to be mailed if it deems such action to be consistent with its duties under this article.

§ 11. Section 1310 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (i) to read as follows:

(i) Senior renter tax credit. (1) (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any city having a population of one million or more, acting through its local legislative body, is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local laws granting in any such city, for taxable years beginning after nineteen hundred ninety-nine, a senior renter credit against the city personal income tax for any qualified taxpayer. If any such credit exceeds the tax for such year, such local law may provide that such qualified taxpayer receive, and the comptroller, subject to a certificate of the commissioner, shall pay as an overpayment, without interest, any excess between such tax as so reduced and the amount of the credit. If a qualified taxpayer is not required to file a return pursuant to a local law enacted pursuant to this article, such local law may provide that such qualified taxpayer may nevertheless receive and the comptroller, subject to a certificate of the commissioner, shall pay as an overpayment the full amount of the credit, without interest.

(b) Any credit provided by a local law adopted pursuant to this subsection shall be one percent of the rental paid by the qualified taxpayer on a qualified residence up to an annual rent of eight thousand four hundred dollars.

(2) If a qualified taxpayer occupies a qualified residence for a period of less than twelve months during the taxable year or occupies two or more qualified residences during different periods in such taxable year, the credit provided by a local law adopted pursuant to this subsection shall be computed in such manner as the commissioner may, by regulation, prescribe in order to properly reflect the credit or portion thereof attributable to such qualified residence or residences and such period or periods.

(3) Only one credit per household per qualified taxpayer shall be allowed per taxable year under this subsection. (a) When two or more members of a household are able to meet the qualifications for a qualified taxpayer, the credit shall be equally divided between or among such individuals unless such individuals file with the commissioner a written agreement among such individuals setting forth a different division.

(b) Provided, however, where a joint income tax return has been filed pursuant to the provisions of section thirteen hundred six by a qualified taxpayer and his or her spouse (or where both spouses are qualified taxpayers and have filed a joint return), the credit, or the portion of the credit if divided pursuant to subparagraph (a) of this paragraph, to which the husband and wife are entitled shall be applied against the tax of both spouses and any overpayment shall be made to both spouses.

(c) Where any return required to be filed pursuant to the provisions of section thirteen hundred six is combined with any return of tax imposed pursuant to the authority of this chapter or any other law if such tax is administered by the commissioner, the credit or the portion of the credit if divided, allowed to the qualified taxpayer may be applied by the commissioner toward any liability for the aforementioned taxes.

(4) For purposes of any local law adopted pursuant to this subsection:

(a) "Qualified taxpayer" shall mean a resident individual of the city of New York (i) who has attained the age of sixty-five years before the beginning of or during the taxable year, and (ii) who has occupied the same qualified residence for six months or more of the taxable year, and (iii) whose household gross income does not exceed fifty thousand dollars for the taxable year.

(b) "Adjusted rent" shall mean rental paid for the right of occupancy of a residence, excluding charges for heat, gas, electricity, furnishings and board. Where charges for heat, gas, electricity, furnishings or board are included in rental but where such charges and the amount thereof are not separately set forth in a written rental agreement, for purposes of determining adjusted rent the local law shall provide that such qualified taxpayer reduce rental paid as follows:

(i) For heat, or heat and gas, deduct fifteen percent of rental paid.

(ii) For heat, gas, and electricity, deduct twenty percent of rental paid.

(iii) For heat, gas, electricity and furnishings, deduct twenty-five percent of rental paid.

(iv) For heat, gas, electricity, furnishings and board, deduct fifty percent of rental paid.

The commissioner may reduce such rent, for purposes of the computation of the credit, to an amount substantially equivalent to rent for a comparable accommodation, if the commissioner determines that the adjusted rent shown on the return is excessive.

(c) "Household" or "members of the household" shall mean a qualified taxpayer and all other persons, not necessarily related, who have the same residence and share its furnishings, facilities and accommodations. Such term shall not include a tenant, sub-tenant, roomer or boarder who is not related to the qualified taxpayer in any degree specified in paragraphs one through eight of subsection (a) of section one hundred fifty-two of the internal revenue code. Provided, however, no person may be a member of more than one household at one time.

(d) "Household gross income" shall mean the aggregate adjusted gross income of all members of the household for the taxable year as reported for federal income tax purposes, or which would be reported as adjusted gross income if a federal income tax return were required to be filed, with the modifications in subdivision (b) of section 11-1712 of the administrative code of the city of New York but without the modifications in subdivision (c) of such section, plus any portion of the gain from the sale or exchange of property otherwise excluded from such amount; earned income from sources without the United States excludable from federal gross income by section nine hundred eleven of the internal revenue code; support money not included in adjusted gross income; nontaxable strike benefits; supplemental security income payments; the gross amount of any pension or annuity benefits to the extent not included in such adjusted gross income (including, but not limited to, railroad retirement benefits and all payments received under the federal social security act and veterans disability pensions); non-taxable interest received from the state of New York, its agencies, instrumentalities, public corporations, or political subdivisions (including a public corporation created pursuant to agreement or compact with another state or Canada); workers' compensation; the gross amount of "loss-of-time" insurance; and the amount of cash public assistance and relief, other than medical assistance for the needy, paid to or for the benefit of the qualified taxpayer or members of the household. Household gross income shall not include surplus foods or other relief in kind or payments made to individuals because of their status as victims of Nazi persecution as defined in p.L. 103-286. Provided, further, household gross income shall only include all such income received by all members of the household while members of such household.

(e) "Qualified residence" shall mean a dwelling in the city of New York, which is rented, and so much of the land abutting it, not exceeding one acre, as is reasonably necessary for use of the dwelling as a home, and may consist of a part of a multi-dwelling or multi-purpose building including a cooperative or condominium, and rental units within a single dwelling, provided, however, that such dwelling, or building of which such dwelling is a part, is subject to the real property tax. Qualified residence includes a trailer or mobile home which is rented and used exclusively for residential purposes, which is defined as real property pursuant to paragraph (g) of subdivision twelve of section one hundred two of the real property tax law, and which is subject to the real property tax.

(5) No credit shall be granted under this subsection to an individual who is not a city resident individual for the entire taxable year.

(6) Except as provided in subparagraph (b) of paragraph three of this subsection, the right to claim a credit or the portion of a credit, where such credit has been divided under this subsection, shall be personal to the qualified taxpayer and shall not survive his or her death, but such right may be exercised on behalf of a claimant by his or her legal guardian or attorney in fact during his or her lifetime.

(7) Returns. If a qualified taxpayer is not required to file a return pursuant to section thirteen hundred six, a claim for a credit may be taken on a return filed with the commissioner within three years from the time it would have been required that a return be filed pursuant to such section had the qualified taxpayer had a taxable year ending on December thirty-first. Returns under this paragraph shall be in such form as shall be prescribed by the commissioner, which shall make available such forms and instructions for filing such returns.

(8) Proof of claim. The commissioner may require a qualified taxpayer to furnish the following information in support of his claim for credit under this subsection: household gross income, rent paid, name and address of owner or managing agent of the property rented, the names of members of the household and other qualifying taxpayers occupying the same residence and their identifying numbers including social security numbers, household gross income, size and nature of property claimed as residence and all other information which may be required by the commissioner to determine the credit.

(9) Administration. The provisions of article twenty-two of this chapter, including the provisions of section six hundred fifty-three, six hundred fifty-eight, and six hundred fifty-nine and the provisions of part six of such article relating to procedure and administration, including the judicial review of the decisions of the tax appeals tribunal, except so much of section six hundred eighty-seven of such article which permits a claim for credit or refund to be filed after the period provided for in paragraph seven of this subsection and except sections six hundred fifty-seven, six hundred eighty-eight and six hundred ninety-six of such article, shall apply to the provisions of this subsection in the same manner and with the same force and effect as if the language of those provisions had been incorporated in full into this subsection and had expressly referred to the credit allowed or returns filed under this subsection, except to the extent that any such provision is either inconsistent with a provision of this subsection or is not relevant to this subsection. As used in such sections and such part, the term "taxpayer" shall include a qualified taxpayer under this subsection and, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (e) of section six hundred ninety-seven of this chapter, where a qualified taxpayer has protested the denial of a claim for credit under this subsection and the time to file a petition for redetermination of a deficiency or for refund has not expired, he or she shall, subject to such conditions as may be set by the commissioner, receive such information (a) which is contained in any return filed under this article by a member of his or her household for the taxable year for which the credit is claimed, and (b) which the commissioner finds is relevant and material to the issue of whether such claim was properly denied. The commissioner shall have the authority to promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary for the processing, determination and granting of credits and refunds under this subsection.

(10) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the credit allowed by a local law enacted under this subsection shall be determined after the determination and application of any other credits permitted under the provisions of this article.

(11) A local law enacted pursuant to this subsection shall be applicable with respect to any taxable year only if it has been enacted on or before July thirty-first of such year. A certified copy of such local law shall be mailed by registered mail to the state department of taxation and finance at its office in Albany within fifteen days of its enactment. However, the state department of taxation and finance may allow additional time for such certified copy to be mailed if it deems such action to be consistent with its duties under this article.

§ 13. Subdivision 1 of section 1 of chapter 161 of the laws of 1970, relating to enabling any city having a population of one million or more to impose and collect taxes on the occupancy of hotel rooms in such city, is amended by adding a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

§ 15. This act shall take effect immediately, except that any local law enacted pursuant to section one or section two of this act shall not apply to any mortgage recorded on or before November 30, 2000 and except that any local law enacted pursuant to section twelve or section thirteen of this act shall not apply to any tax imposed on or before November 30, 2000, and provided that the amendments to paragraph 3 of subsection (e) of section 697 of the tax law made by section eight of this act shall be subject to the expiration and reversion of such paragraph pursuant to chapter 491 of the laws of 1993, as amended, when upon such date the provisions of section nine of this act shall take effect. (ii) Any such adjustment (or adjustments in the aggregate) shall be designed to amortize in installments over a period and by such method as shall be established by the board of trustees or retirement board of such retirement system on the recommendation of its actuary, and commencing on such first day, the increase or decrease in the actuarial accrued liability of such retirement system or pension fund resulting from any such change or changes. (ii) In determining such schedule, the actuary shall employ an interest rate of eight per centum per annum, compounded annually; provided that if a valuation rate of interest (as defined in paragraph eleven of subdivision a of section 13-638.2 of this subchapter) other than eight per centum per annum is prescribed by law for FPF for any fiscal year included in the eleven-year amortization period, the schedule contribution installments which are required to be paid, for such fiscal year in which such changed valuation rate of interest is in effect, to FPF shall be redetermined by the actuary thereof on the basis of a rate of interest equal to such changed rate, compounded annually, so as to reflect such changed rate appropriately in such redetermined installments.

(4) Any amount required to be contributed to FPF with respect to any fiscal year under the provisions of this subdivision shall be payable with interest on such amount at the valuation rate of interest (as defined in paragraph eleven of subdivision a of section 13-638.2 of this subchapter) for such pension fund for such fiscal year.

(5) In each fiscal year of the eleven-year amortization period, the city shall pay into the contingent reserve fund of FPF the contribution installments applicable to such fiscal year under the schedule established pursuant to paragraph two of this subdivision.

§ 23. Section 13-705 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision d to read as follows:

d. In each city fiscal year, beginning with investment expenses paid during the nineteen hundred ninety-eight—nineteen hundred ninety-nine fiscal year, whenever the income, interest or dividends derived from deposits or investments of the funds of a retirement system are used pursuant to subdivision c of this section to pay the expenses incurred by such retirement system in acquiring, managing or protecting investments of its funds, the monies so paid shall be made a charge to be paid by each participating employer otherwise required to make contributions to such retirement system no later than the end of the fiscal year next succeeding the fiscal year during which such monies were drawn upon. In the event that such retirement system has more than one participating employer, the actuary shall calculate and allocate to each such participating employer its share of such charge. All charges to be paid pursuant to this subdivision shall be paid at the regular rate of interest utilized by the actuary in determining employer contributions to the retirement system pursuant to the provisions of paragraph two of subdivision b of section 13-638.2 of this title.

§ 24. Item (i) of subparagraph 4 of paragraph (c) of subdivision 16 of section 2575 of the education law, as amended by chapter 249 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:

(i) Upon the basis of the latest mortality and other tables authorized by the applicable provisions of the rules and regulations and regular interest, the actuary shall determine, as of June thirtieth, nineteen hundred eighty and as of each succeeding June thirtieth, the amount of the total liability for all benefits provided in the rules and regulations, in articles eleven and fourteen of the retirement and social security law and in any other law prescribing benefits payable by the retirement system on account of all members and beneficiaries, excluding the liability on account of future increased-take-home-pay contributions, if any, and the liability for benefits attributable to the annuity savings fund and to the variable annuity savings fund, provided, however, that in determining such total liability as of June thirtieth, nineteen hundred ninety-five and as of each succeeding June thirtieth, the actuary shall include (a) the liability on account of future increased-take-home-pay contributions, if any, (b) the liability on account of future public employer obligations under the provisions of subdivision twenty of section two hundred forty-three of the military law, to pay in behalf of members qualifying for such benefit, member contributions with respect to certain periods of the military service of such members and (c) the liability for benefits attributable to the annuity savings fund and to the variable annuity savings fund, and provided further that in determining such total liability as of June thirtieth, nineteen hundred ninety-nine and as of each succeeding June thirtieth, the actuary shall include any other liability, as determined by the actuary, for benefits attributable to the variable annuity programs, and provided further that in determining such total liability as of June thirtieth, two thousand and as of each succeeding June thirtieth, the actuary shall include the amount, if any, as estimated by the actuary, of the total liability of the retirement system on account of payments which the retirement system may be required to make to any other fund without a corresponding offset in the liabilities of the retirement system.

§ 25. Item (iii) of subparagraph 4 of paragraph (c) of subdivision 16 of section 2575 of the education law, as amended by chapter 914 of the laws of 1982, is amended to read as follows:

(iii) The normal rate of contribution determined by the actuary shall not be less than zero, shall be [~~determined and~~] certified by the actuary after a valuation and shall continue in force until the next succeeding valuation and certification. The actuary shall make a valuation, as of June thirtieth of each year, of the assets and liabilities of the various funds created by the rules and regulations.

§ 26. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after July 1, 1999. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the purposes of calculating an actuarial reserve pursuant to the provisions of section 13-557 of the administrative code of the city of New York, the valuation rate of interest and mortality tables in effect on June 30, 1988 shall be utilized by the actuary.

FISCAL NOTE.—BACKGROUND: During December, 1999, January 2000 and February 2000, the Actuary for the five actuarially-funded New York City Retirement Systems ("NYCRS") (i.e., the New York City Employees' Retirement System ("NYCERS"), New York City Teachers' Retirement System ("NYCTRS"), New York City Board of Education Retirement System ("BERS"), New York City Police Department, Subchapter Two Pension Fund ("POLICE"), New York City Fire Department, Subchapter Two Pension Fund ("FIRE")), presented Reports to the NYCRS` Boards of Trustees ("Reports") proposing changes in actuarial assumptions and methods to be used to compute employer contributions for Fiscal Year 2000 through Fiscal Year 2004.

These Reports were developed by the Actuary after a thorough analysis of an actuarial experience study prepared by Watson Wyatt & Company under the direction of the Office of the Comptroller of the City of New York as required by the New York City Charter.

Some of the recommendations of the Actuary (e.g., probabilities of decrement from active service, probabilities of death after retirement) require adoption by the Boards of Trustees of the NYCRS.

Other of the Actuary`s proposed changes in actuarial assumptions and methods require the enactment of enabling legislation by the New York State Legislature and Governor.

The provisions of this proposed legislation, together with the adoption of actuarial tables by the Boards of Trustees and the Market Value Restarts of the Actuarial Values of Assets to be made by the Actuary, represent the packages of actuarial assumptions and methods recommended by the Actuary as the most appropriate for financing the NYCRS.

PROVISIONS OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION: This proposed legislation would amend Sections 13-127, 13-228, 13-331, 13-527, 13-638.2, 12-638.3 and 13-705 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York ("ACNY") and Section 2575 of the Education Law by including provisions impacting the development of employer contributions to the NYCRS.

Specifically, for each of the NYCRS (unless noted otherwise) this proposed legislation would:

* Reduce for Fiscal Years 2000 through 2004 from 8.75% per annum to 8.0% per annum the Actuarial Interest Rate ("AIR") assumption to be used for developing employer contributions.
* Retain for Fiscal Years 2000 through 2004 at 8.25% per annum the current rates for crediting interest on Tier I and Tier II member contributions and Increased-Take-Home-Pay ("ITHP") Reserves.
* Restrict the Normal Contribution Rates to be not less than zero.
* Reestablish and consolidate Unfunded Actuarial Accrued Liabilities ("UAAL") as of June 30, 1999. Limit, where applicable, those UAAL determined as of June 30, 1999 to be not less than zero.
* Amortize the reestablished UAALs, if any, over periods of 11 years from June 30, 1999, where each annual payment after the first would equal 103% of its preceding annual payment.
* Establish for NYCTRS and BERS certain previously unrecognized liabilities attributable to their Variable Annuity Programs.
* Revise for NYCERS, NYCTRS and BERS the methodology used to recognize the financial impact of any potential transfers of excess earnings to their Variable Supplements Funds ("VSF") or similar programs, if any.
* Recover investment expenses paid in the Fiscal Year next following the Fiscal Year incurred in the development of employer contributions.

ADDITIONAL ACTUARIAL PRESENT VALUES OF BENEFITS: Enactment of this proposed legislation, together with the other changes in actuarial assumptions and methods to be adopted by the Boards of Trustees, will result in an increase in the Actuarial Present Value of Benefits ("APVB") of the NYCRS of approximately $5.3 billion as of June 30, 1999 as shown in the following Table I:

Table I

Comparison Of Actuarial Present Values Of Benefits
Before And After Recommended Changes
In Actuarial Assumptions And Methods
As Of June 30, 1999
($ Billions)

Retirement System	Actuarial Present Values Of Benefits: Before Changes	After Changes	Increase
NYCERS	$ 34.7	$ 35.4	$ .7
NYCTRS	34.0	37.1	3.1
BERS	1.9	2.0	0.1
POLICE	19.1	19.8	0.7
FIRE	7.3	8.0	0.7
Total	$ 97.0	$102.3	$ 5.3

ADDITIONAL ANNUAL EMPLOYER CONTRIBUTIONS: In order to determine the Actuarial Present Values ("APV") of Future Employer Contributions, APVB are reduced by the sum of: (1) the Actuarial Values of Assets, (2) the unfunded Actuarial Accrued Liabilities (if any) and (3) the APV Future Member Contributions.

This APV of Future Employer Contributions is funded over individual future years in the form of annual Employer Normal Contributions and annual Employer Contributions toward the UAAL, if any.

In addition, Employer Contributions include recovery of administrative expenses (NYCERS and NYCTRS only under current and proposed methodologies) and investment expenses (all NYCRS under proposed methodologies only).

As noted earlier, this proposed legislation would reestablish UAAL as of June 30, 1999.

Such reestablished UAAL would be determined using the Entry Age Normal Actuarial Cost Method. Such reestablished UAAL (if any) would then be amortized periods of 11 years from June 30, 1999, where each annual payment after the first would equal 103% of the preceding annual payment.

In addition, the Actuary proposes to reestablish the Actuarial Value of Assets as of June 30, 1999 of each of the NYCRS to equal its Market Value.

The following Table II presents the combined impact of all of the Actuary`s recommended changes in actuarial assumptions and methods on the Fiscal Year 2000 employer contributions to the NYCRS.

Specifically, the following Table II shows a comparison between: (1) estimated Fiscal Year 2000 employer contributions based upon the actuarial assumptions and methods currently in effect ("Before Changes") and (2) estimated Fiscal Year 2000 employer contributions computed in accordance with this proposed legislation and all of the other proposed actuarial assumptions and methods ("After Changes"):

Table II

Comparison Of Estimated Fiscal Year 2000 Employer Contributions Calculated Using Current Actuarial Assumptions And Methods With Those Calculated Using Proposed Actuarial Methods And Assumptions ($ Millions)

Retirement System	Before Changes*	After Changes	Increase (Decrease)
NYCERS	$ 48.6	$ 68.3	$ 19.7
NYCTRS	398.3	181.8	(216.5)
BERS	39.7	9.5	(30.2)
POLICE	521.4	250.0	(271.4)
FIRE	243.1	182.9	(60.2)
Total	$1,251.1	$ 692.5	$ (558.6)

* Based upon current actuarial assumptions and methods.

 Computed in accordance with proposed legislation and all of the Actuary`s proposed actuarial assumptions and methods.

 Such amount represents the minimum required employer contribution (i.e., Administrative Expense contribution plus Investment Expense contribution plus Group Term Life Insurance contribution).

Note: This comparison of estimated employer contributions based on current actuarial employer and methods with those computed based on the proposed actuarial assumptions and methods would differ for Fiscal Year 2001 and after. This difference primarily reflects the impact of different rates of recognition of investment gains in the Actuarial Values of Assets.

CENSUS DATA: The census data used to determine APVB and estimated Fiscal Year 2000 employer contributions are the active and retired members included in the June 30, 1999 actuarial valuations of the NYCRS.

ACTUARIAL ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODS: The actuarial assumptions and methods used to determine estimated Fiscal Year 2000 employer contributions Before Changes are the same as those utilized in the June 30, 1998 actuarial valuations of the NYCRS.

The actuarial assumptions and methods used to determine estimated Fiscal Year 2000 employer contributions After Changes are those recommended by the Actuary to be effective June 30, 1999. These recommendations were presented to the Boards of Trustees of the NYCRS between December 1999 and February 2000.

The portions of employer contributions estimated for Fiscal Year 2000 attributable to Unfunded Actuarial Accrued Liability Contributions are developed as amortizations of such UAAL, if any, over fixed periods of 11 years ending on June 30, 2010.

FISCAL NOTE IDENTIFICATION: This estimate is intended for use only during the 2000 Legislative Session. It is Fiscal Note 2000-07, dated June 2, 2000, prepared by the Chief Actuary for the New York City Employees' Retirement System, the New York City Teachers' Retirement System, the New York City Board of Education Retirement System, the New York City Police Department, Subchapter Two Pension Fund and the New York City Fire Department, Subchapter Two Pension Fund.

Referred to the Committee on State and Federal Legislation.

Int. No. 608

Report of the Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs and International Intergroup Relations in favor approving and adopting a local law in relation to a street name, Bravo Boulevard, Borough of Brooklyn.

The Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs and International Intergroup Relations to which it was referred on July 21, 1999 (Minutes page 2035) the annexed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

Members of the Bay Ridge Ambulance Volunteer Organization (BRAVO) provided the following information.

To commemorate BRAVO's 25 years of service (as of 1999), to the Bay Ridge/Dyker Heights community, local elected officials and Community Board 10 are supporting the volunteer service's request that 7th Avenue, between 62nd Street and 92nd Street, the site of its past and present operation, be designated as "BRAVO Boulevard".

BRAVO was established in 1974 to meet the community's growing need for faster, more accessible ambulance service. The volunteers responded to their first call on July 4, 1974 and instituted 24-hour service on August 1, 1974. BRAVO relies almost entirely on private and corporate donations for financial support and responds to an average of 300 calls for help each month. BRAVO's more than 200 members volunteer their time as dispatchers, ambulance attendants, and as administrators of the organization, totally without compensation. In its 25 years of operation BRAVO has responded to more than 125,000 calls, including the delivery of over thirty babies and many resuscitations of patients who were in cardiac arrest.

This local law shall take effect immediately.

Int. No. 661

Report of the Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs and International Intergroup Relations in favor approving and adopting a local law in relation to a corner name, Louis Tuzzie Corner, Borough of The Bronx.

The Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs and International Intergroup Relations to which it was referred on November 23, 1999 (Minutes page 2687) the annexed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

Louis John Tuzzio was born in 1911 in the Lower East Side area known as "Little Italy." He was the oldest of eight children born to Italian immigrants. Because of his family's abject poverty, his dream of becoming a draftsman never came to fruition. Despite the hardships, Louis Tuzzio provided for his family by taking on various unskilled positions. In 1938, Louis Tuzzio married Liboria Lumia and they settled in The Bronx. In 1942, he joined the National Guard, which was also the year that the first of his two daughters was born.

In 1952, Louis Tuzzio rented an apartment on Buck Street in the Zerega area of The Bronx. The Zerega community soon became his extended family. Although Louis was forced to move after the sale of the Buck Street house, he was determined to remain in the Zerega area. In 1959, he moved to 2440 Maclay Avenue and remained there for the next forty years. Mr. Tuzio raised his two daughters and cared for his grandchildren and great-grandchildren at the Maclay Avenue apartment that he loved so dearly.

After many years of working as a weaver in a local Bronx lace factory, Louis Tuzzio decided to work closer to home after the closing of the factory and was employed during the 1970's at Westchester Square hospital, also in the Zerega area. Living and working in the Zerega area gave him the opportunity to make trips to his famous "stomping ground"; Frank & Joe's Deli located at 1700 Zerega Avenue. He would engage everyone with his infectious smile and kindness and soon many residents began to call him "The Mayor of Maclay."

Louis came from an area that was densely populated and he welcomed many visitors and new families to the area. Louis Tuzzio was a proud Italian American, and he enjoyed talking to many of the new immigrants in the neighborhood, feeling a kinship with them struggling to make a living in The Bronx, as he had. He had several opportunities to move to areas with plenty of open space. One area in particular was Bellport, Long Island. His daughter Linda tried persistently to get him to move, but he always replied "there's not enough people out there like my neighborhood."

His daily routine included shopping at local stores for various residents of the neighborhood who were housebound. Louis Tuzzio knew that the type of houses in which people live are irrelevant compared with the quality of the people that live in them.

To call Louis Tuzzio a Bronxite is an understatement. In 1988, Louis was so enraged by the possibility of his beloved New York Yankees moving out of The Bronx that he joined local politicians and became a participant at the age of seventy-five, in the Keep The Bronx Bombers in The Bronx Committee. Louis also spent his summers in The Bronx and for over twenty years kept cool at the Castle Hill Pool & Beach Club, until its closing. Every Sunday he paid a visit to his parish of Santa Maria, in which he was an active member, until poor health besieged him. He was also a member of the Chippewa Democratic Club for over twenty years.

Louis Tuzzio was a devoted family man and loving friend to his entire community. During his forty-seven years in the Zerega area, Louis John Tuzzio was an important part of the fabric that enriched the lives of many of the residents of the Zerega community. During the last year of his life he lived with Francesca Mahoney, one of his daughters, in the Country Club area. Every single day he would begin by saying, "I would like to go home to 2440 Maclay Ave." He never forgot his extended family despite the ravages of old age. On February 8, 1999, at the age of eighty-seven, Louis John Tuzzio passed away. Ironically, Liboria his devoted wife of sixty one years had passed away one month earlier on January 8, 1999. At the funeral for Louis Tuzzio many of the residents of the Zerega community came out to pay their respects to one of their own. It would be a fitting and lasting tribute to this humble man, who gave so much to others throughout his life, to have the northeast corner of Maclay Avenue and Sedden Street named in his honor. Louis Tuzzio was survived by his daughters, Francesca Mahoney and Linda Sherwood, 7 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

This local law shall take effect immediately.

Int. No. 726

Report of the Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs and International Intergroup Relations in favor approving and adopting a local law in relation to a street name, Raul Vasquez, Jr. Place, Borough of Brooklyn.

The Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs and International Intergroup Relations to which it was referred on February 29, 2000 (Minutes page 458) the annexed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

The following biographical composition was provided by Raul and Yvonne Vasquez, the parents of Raul Vasquez Jr.

Raul Vasquez Jr. was born on November 6, 1974, in the Cumberland Hospital in Brooklyn, the first born of Raul Vasquez Sr. and Yvonne Vasquez.

In his early years, Raul Vasquez Jr. went to Pal Head Start. Then to Public School 133 and to Junior High School 51. In 1993, Raul graduated from South Brooklyn High School.

Prior to graduation, Raul began to work at his first job at Jetro Cash and Carry, as a stock and truck loader, but left that job seeking advancement. In 1994, his next step toward bettering his career was a job as a plumbing technician helper at Vigilante Plumbing and Heating. Raul began as a helper with the hope of one day becoming a technician. Unfortunately his life was cut short and he was unable to accomplish this goal.

During his free time he was a devoted son and brother as well as a friend. He was an all around pal to all of the boys and girls on Union Street where he grew up and became a man. He was there for them when they needed someone to talk to or had a problem. He taught them to play basketball and felt that by keeping the children occupied in worthwhile sports it would keep them away from trouble and harm.

He was loved and respected by all of the parents on Union Street where he spent most of his free time. Raul was loved by all of the children who looked up to him. All the business people on this street also admired him, not only because of his manners, but also for his high moral standards and his work ethic.

It is ironic that he lost his life, by a stray bullet, on that very same street on July 31, 1995. Where he was loved and respected, he was also violated. On this street, in his loving memory, stands a mural in his honor, still there four years after his death. Raul Vasquez Jr. is still honored and missed by all of his family members, neighbors and friends, but most of all by the children to whom he was a role model. There is still a part of him there on Union Street, with the children he loved so dearly. His life was short, only 20 years. It is therefore fitting that Union Street between 3rd Avenue and 4th Avenue be named "Raul Vasquez Jr. Place" in his honor. His parents Raul and Yvonne, a brother Saul and a sister, Tania, survived young Mr. Vasquez.

This local law shall take effect immediately.

Int. No. 737

Report of the Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs and International Intergroup Relations in favor approving and adopting a local law in relation to a street name, Police Officer Harry Ryman, Borough of Brooklyn.

The Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs and International Intergroup Relations to which it was referred on April 12, 2000 (Minutes page 850) the annexed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

The following biographical information was provided by the New York City Police Department.

Harry Robert Ryman was born on October 15, 1936 in Brooklyn, New York. Mr. Ryman and his wife, the former Dorothy Clark, had five children: Harry Robert, Nora Ann, Edward, Margaret and Janet. He served for eight years in the United States Navy followed by 17 years of service with the New York Police Department (NYPD). During his years with the NYPD, Harry Ryman received 17 medals. He attended John Jay College of the City University of New York.

In 1981, Police Officer Harry Ryman was posthumously awarded the NYPD Medal of Honor. The Medal of Honor booklet distributed at that ceremony describes the circumstances of his line of duty death as follows:

> "At about 3:30 A.M. on August 14, 1980, Police Officer Harry Ryman was off duty and sleeping in his residence, located within the confines of the 63rd Precinct. After being awakened as the result of the suspicious noises on the street, Officer Ryman equipped himself with his shield and off-duty revolver and went to investigate. He observed three males tampering with a parked automobile apparently in the act of attempting to steal it. Upon identifying himself as a police officer, Officer Ryman was fired upon and immediately returned fire. Although fatally wounded, Officer Ryman was able to wound one of his assailants before falling unconscious. The suspects fled in an auto but the wounded felon was arrested when he sought aid and the two remaining perpetrators were subsequently arrested."

A letter dated January 31, 2000 from NYPD Assistant Chief Joseph Raguso to Council Member Howard Lasher, describes the reason that this location was chosen to honor the memory of Police Officer Harry Ryman.

> "The surviving family members have requested that the street in front of the 60th Precinct, 2951 West 8th Street, where Police Officer Ryman was assigned, be renamed Police Officer Harry R. Ryman Street. The Ryman family has requested that the dedication be held on August 14, 2000. This date will mark the twentieth anniversary of Officer Ryman's passing.
> I believe that this is a fitting tribute for an individual who made the supreme sacrifice while in the performance of his duty."

Brooklyn Community Board No. 13 is in support of this proposed local law.

Report of the Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs and International Intergroup Relations in favor approving and adopting a local law in relation to a street name, Commodore John Barry Boulevard, Borough of Staten Island.

The Committee on Parks, Recreation, Cultural Affairs and International Intergroup Relations to which it was referred on May 10, 2000 (Minutes page 1065) the annexed Local Law respectfully

REPORTS:

The following biographical information was excerpted from materials provided by the Richmond County Board of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in America.

John Barry was born in 1745 at Ballysampson on Our Lady's Island, in County Wexford, Ireland. He began his career on the sea as a ship's cabin boy and graduated from seaman to able seaman and, ultimately, to a Mate's rating.

John Barry's first naval command came in 1766 aboard the schooner, Barbadoes, sailing out of Phi'adelphia. His next command, the Patty and Polly, was a small brigantine which he took on a single voyage and, shortly after, he took command of the Industry, a 45-ton vessel.

About the time of the First Continental Congress in 1774, John Barry began a lifelong friendship and collaboration with Revolutionary War financier Robert Morris. John Barry's last pre-Revolutionary War sailing experience was in the service of Morris on the 200-ton ship Black Prince. It was aboard Black Prince, on a return voyage from England, that John Barry established the unparalleled record of traveling 237 miles by dead reckoning in a 24-hour period, the fastest day of sailing recorded in the 18th century.

When John Barry arrived back in Philadelphia aboard the Black Prince, he was told that the Colonies and Great Britain were at war and was given the task of outfitting the first Continental Navy's ships which were put to sea from Philadelphia. Upon completion of this work, John Barry was rewarded with a Captain's commission in the Continental Navy, dated March 14, 1776 and signed by the President of Congress, John Hancock. With his commission went command of John Barry's first warship, the brig Lexington. In his first sea battle, John Barry's Lexington had great success against the British tender, Edward.

Later in 1776, John Barry was given command of the 32-gun Effingham, one of three frigates then under construction in Philadelphia. With the 1777 British assault on Philadelphia imminent, John Barry was forced to scuttle his new command, the Effingham.

On March 8, 1778, John Barry attacked a British fleet with seven small craft, including rowboats, barges and longboats and surprised armed sloops as well as a fortified schooner capturing all three British ships. He succeeded in destroying three other ships, holding off a frigate and a ship-of-the-line and garnering vital British intelligence and valuable engineer's entrenching tools.

Later in 1778, John Barry was given command of the 32-gun frigate, Raleigh. Defeated by superior British naval forces, John Barry attempted to blow up the Raleigh in Maine's Penobscot Bay to prevent it from falling into British hands, leading two-thirds of his crew to safety in rowboats to Boston.

John Barry was then given command of the Alliance, a 36-gun ship which was the only regularly commissioned ship still afloat at the close of the Revolution in 1783. It was in battle on the Alliance that John Barry was injured while defeating two British ships, the Atlanta and the Trespass.

John Barry's final battle of the Revolution was also the last battle of the Continental Navy. On March 10, 1783, John Barry was returning from Havana aboard the Alliance, escorting the Duc de Lauzon, a transport carrying a shipment of 72,000 Spanish silver dollars destined for the Continental Congress when he battled the British frigate Sybil. He drove the Sybil off after inflicting significant damage to it.

After the War for Independence and the dissolution of the Continental Navy, from 1787 to 1789 John Barry reentered the maritime trade, opening commerce with China and the Orient while captaining the merchant ship Asia.

In the 1790's, under George Washington's guidance, the Navy was revived as a permanent entity. On June 5, 1794, Secretary of War Henry Knox wrote to John Barry informing him that the President, with the advice and consent of the United States Senate, had selected him senior captain of the Federal Navy. On February 22, 1797, President Washington called John Barry to the President's Mansion to receive Commission Number One in the Navy, which was dated June 4, 1794 the date of his original selection. He held the courtesy title of Commodore from this period through the end of his active naval career on March 6, 1801. He is popularly regarded as the Father of the United States Navy.

Commodore John Barry died at the age of 58 on September 12, 1803 of a long standing asthmatic condition.

Staten Island Community Board No. 1 is in support of this proposed local law.

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, in relation to governing body approval of urban development action area projects." S.7893-A/A.1223-A

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 13, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would amend the general municipal law to require City Council action on a waiver of designation of an urban development action area and approval of an urban development action area project ("UDAAP") within 150 days of the submission of the request from the Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD). UDAAP requests seek authorization of the City Council to exempt certain dispositions of city-owned property from the Uniform Land Use Review Procedure of the Charter. According to the Memorandum in Support, accelerated UDAAP only applies to projects for the new construction of one to four unit dwellings or the rehabilitation of existing residential buildings. Under the proposed legislation, if no action is taken by the Council within the period, the request would be deemed approved. In addition, on the effective date of the legislation, the Council would have the full 150 day period to approve or disapprove requests that may be pending before it on that date.

According to the Memorandum in support, this legislation would resolve problems of delays occurring in what is supposed to be an expedited process.

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the general city law, chapter 772 of the law of 1966, relating to enabling any city having a population of one million or more to raise tax revenue and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to increasing tax credits authorized under the relocation and employment assistance program in certain areas of cities having a population of one million or more, to amend the real property tax law, in relation to modifying the criteria for eligibility for real property tax exemptions and abatements for industrial and commercial properties in certain areas of cities having a population of one million or more and in relation to expanding a real property tax abatement program for certain commercial properties in cities having a population of one million or more by providing an abatement to industrial properties in certain areas of such cities and by extending the eligibility period and benefit period in such areas." S.8078/A.11355

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 13, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would provide increased tax credits under the relocation and employment assistance program (REAP), as well as property tax exemptions and abatements to certain businesses that locate in nine areas of the City which would be newly designated as "revitalization areas" by the proposed legislation. These areas are: (1) the Sunset Park area of Brooklyn; (2) Red Hook in the Brooklyn; (3) the Brooklyn Navy Yard; (4) Downtown Brooklyn; (5) the St. George area of Staten Island; (6) Long Island City in Queens; (7) the South Bronx; and (8) Fordham Road in The Bronx; and (9) the 125th Street corridor in Manhattan.

Currently, state law provides for REAP credits for businesses that relocate to the four boroughs other than Manhattan or to Northern Manhattan. These are credits against the City's Corporation Tax, Unincorporated Business Tax or gross receipts tax (for utilities) based upon the number of eligible employees which the eligible business is relocating. The current credits are either $500 per employee share (which is based on the number of employees) or $1000 per employee share. The proposed legislation would provide credits of $3,000 per eligible employee for eligible businesses that relocate to one of the nine newly designated revitalization areas. The credits are allowable for twelve years after relocation. In addition, these credits would be refundable for the taxable year of the relocation, as well as the following year, thus, allowing a business that did not have sufficient (or any) taxable income to take advantage of the credits.

The act would also eliminate waiting periods which prevent commercial projects located in spaces previously used for manufacturing purposes from taking advantage of real property tax exemptions pursuant to the Industrial Commercial Incentive Program (ICIP) in the designated areas. It also provides for broader property tax abatements for "industrial construction work" on certain industrial or manufacturing properties located in the revitalization areas. Under the new provisions, abatements would be available (on a pro rata basis) even to properties where less than 75% of the space is devoted to manufacturing, as long as at least 25% of the space is for manufacturing and the total available manufacturing space after the construction has not decreased.

Finally, the proposal would provide to tenant/businesses locating in the newly designated areas that undertake certain improvements, similar commercial real estate tax abatements as those currently available to tenant/businesses that locate in the lower Manhattan revitalization area (industrial and manufacturing tenants would also be eligible, although retail and hotel businesses are generally excluded from the program's benefits). Eligible businesses locating in eligible commercial properties in the newly designated areas between July 1, 2000 and June 30, 2003 would be eligible to receive the abatements which would last until June 30, 2009.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY04
Revenues (+)	($4,000,000)	($7,000,000)	($14,000,000)
Expenditures (–)	$0	$0	$0
Net	($4,000,000)	($7,000,000)	($14,000,000)

Impact on Revenues: For fiscal years 2001 the revenue cost of this revitalization program is estimated to be $4 million, growing to $7 million, $11 million and $14 million in Fiscal 2002, Fiscal 2003 and Fiscal 2004, respectively.

Impact on Expenditures: There would be no impact on expenditures from this legislation.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to the additional tax on the New York city personal income tax." S.8134/A.11364-A

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 13, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

Section 1304-B of the state tax law provides for a fourteen percent surcharge on the personal income tax which is set to sunset at the end of the 2001 taxable year. The legislation would allow the City to amend its local laws imposing this surcharge for taxable years after 1999 but before 2002 to set the surcharge at a rate lower than the current 14% rate and to vary the rates of the surcharge.

Any local law adopted pursuant to the legislation would have to be enacted prior to July 31st of the taxable year to which the change is to apply.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01
Revenues (+)	($329,000,000)	($344,000,000)	($329,000,000)
Expenditures (–)	$0	$0	$0
Net	($329,000,000)	($344,000,000)	($329,000,000)

Impact on Revenues: Given the large amount of revenue raised by the surcharge, approximately $675 million in Fiscal Year 2000, the City may choose to grant targeted relief from the surcharge to, for example, lower- and middle-income households and reduce the surcharge for other taxpayers. The current tax reduction plan has an estimated cost of $329 million in Fiscal 2001 and $339 million in Fiscal 2002.

Impact on Expenditures: There would be no impact on expenditures as a result of this legislation.

M-884

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to authorizing any city having a population of one million or more to proved a partial tax exemption from the mortgage recording tax and to provide certain credits against the personal income tax of any such city, and to amend chapter 161 of the laws of 1970, relating to enabling any city having population of one million or more to impose and collect taxes on the occupancy of hotel rooms in such city, in relation to authorizing such city to reduce the rates of such taxes." S.8065/A.11367-A

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 13, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would authorize any city having a population of one million or more to adopt local legislation providing for: (1) certain exemptions to the mortgage recording tax for certain "first time homebuyers"; (2) a credit against the City's personal income tax for shareholders of S corporations for taxes paid by the corporations under the City's corporation or banking corporation tax; (3) an earned income tax credit, a child care credit and a senior renters credit against the City's personal income tax; and (4) a reduction in the hotel tax.

Specifically, the legislation provides that New York City could, by local law, provide an exemption from the mortgage recording tax for first time homebuyers for up to $150,000 of any mortgage securing real property, where the principal obligation secured by the mortgage does not exceed $300,000. The property secured by the mortgage must be bought and owned by the purchaser as his or her "principal residence" both at the time of purchase and for two years thereafter. Any local law granting the mortgage recording tax exemption could only apply to mortgages recorded on or after December 1, 2000.

The proposed state legislation would allow New York City to provide, by local law, a credit against the City personal income tax for taxes paid under the General Corporation Tax or the Banking Corporation Tax by New York S Corporations or qualified subchapter S Corporations. This credit would be on a sliding scale and would range from 20% of the tax attributable to the S Corporation if the taxpayer's income is less than or equal to $42,000 down to 5% if the income is $142,000 or more. According to the Memorandum in Support, the credit is modeled after the unincorporated business tax credit, and would provide partial relief to entities which, under federal tax law, are not taxed at the entity level. In New York City, income of these entities is taxed at the corporate level, and then taxed again as personal income of th shareholder when the income flows through to the businesses' owners.

With regard to the personal income tax credits, the legislation would allow New York City, by local law, to adopt an earned income tax credit, which could not exceed 5% of the federal earned income tax credit. Similarly, the act would allow the City to adopt a local law providing for a credit of up to 40% of the credit for household and dependent care services which th state tax law allows. Finally, the act would allow the City to adopt a local law providing for a credit against the personal income tax of one percent of the rental (up to an annual rent of $8400 or $700 per month) paid by a "qualified taxpayer" on a "qualified residence." A qualified taxpayer would have to be (1) at least 65 years old (at some point during the tax year), (2) would have to have lived in a qualified residence (in the City) for at least six months during the year, and (3) could not have a household income that exceeds $50,000 for the year. These credits could only be enacted for taxable years beginning with the year 2000.

Lastly, the act would allow the City to, by local law, lower or repeal the flat, pre-day tax on hotel rooms. According to the Memorandum in support, the current tax amounts to $2 per day on hotel rooms costing at least $40. Any local law effectuating this a lowering or repeal of this tax could not apply to any hotel tax imposed before December 1, 2000.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY02
Revenues (+)	($95,000,000)	($125,000,000)	($125,000,000)
Expenditures (–)	$0	$0	$0
Net	($95,000,000)	($125,000,000)	($125,000,000)

Impact on Revenues: The impact on revenues for Fiscal 2001 would be as follows: Mortgage Recording Tax Reduction, $10 million in Fiscal 2001 (half year effect) increasing to $20 million in Fiscal 2002 when fully effective; S-Corp. Shareholders Credit, $15 million; Earned Income Tax Credit, $8 million; Child and Dependent Care Credit, $23 million; Senior Renters Credit, $20 million; and Hotel Tax Elimination, $19 million, for a total of $95 million. The total impact will increase in Fiscal 2001 as programs become fully effective.

Impact on Expenditures: There would be no impact on expenditures from this legislation.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to increased-take-home pay contributions made on behalf of certain members of New York city's public retirement system." S.8102/A.11382

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 13, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would require the City of New York to contribute to the New York City Police Pension Fund and the New York City Fire Department Pension Fund, the employee contributions which the City had paid on behalf of these members prior to 1976.

Prior to 1976, the City had assumed employee pension contributions in an effort to give police and firefighters increased "take-home pay". In 1976, due to the budget crisis, the City cut its assumption of these contributions by half. This legislation would restore the City's payment of these pre-1976 contributions for the period starting September 2000 and ending on July 1, 2001.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01

Net	$58,600,000	$58,600,000	$58,600,000

Impact on Revenues: There are no revenue implications associated with this legislation.

Impact on Expenditures: The impact on expenditures would be approximately $58.6 million in increased pension contributions for the city of New York. This estimate which is based on the fiscal note from the office of the actuary requires an increase of $44 million in Police Pension contribution and $14.6 million in fire pension contribution.

This legislation shall take effect on October 1, 2000.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

S.8100/A.11381

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 13, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would change the method of determining "final average salary" used in computing the retirement benefits granted to Tier II members of the New York City Police Department Pension Fund and the New York City Fire Department Pension Fund. The legislation would require use of the salary earned by such members during the year immediately prior to retirement, excluding termination pay, lump sum payment for deferred compensation, sick leave, accumulated vacation credit or any other payment for time not worked. Currently, a member's "final average salary" is equal to the three-year average salary the member earned prior to his or her retirement.

According to the Memorandum in Support, changing the definition of "final average salary" will eliminate some of the disparities between Tier I and Tier II members of the Police and Fire Pension Funds.

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the rate of regular interest used in the actuarial valuation of liabilities for the purpose of calculating contributions to the New York city employees' retirement system, the New York city teachers' retirement system, the police pension fund, subchapter two, the fire department pension fund, subchapter two and the board of education retirement system of such city by public employers and other obligors required to make employer contributions to such retirement systems, the making of contributions to such retirement systems by such public employers and other obligors, including contributions for the purpose of amortizing certain unfunded accrued liabilities of such retirement systems, and the crediting of special interest and additional interest to members of such retirement systems, and the allowance of supplementary interest on the funds of such retirement systems; to repeal paragraph one of subdivision k of section 13-638.2 of such code and subdivision 1 of such section, relating to certain funding adjustments where actuarial assumptions are changed; and to amend the education law, in relation to employer contributions to the board of education retirement system of such city." S.8099/A.11383

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 13, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

The main provisions of this legislation would lower the Actuarial Interest Rate assumption to be used for Fiscal Years 2000 through 2004 to 8.0% from the current assumption of 8.75% for each of the five actuarially-funded New York City retirement systems (NYCERS, New York City Teachers' retirement system, New York City Board of Education retirement system, Police Pension Fund and Fire Pension Fund). According to the Memorandum in Support, the bill also provides for the cancellation of the remaining unfunded accrued liability (UAL) payments and balance sheet liability (BSL) payments to the five systems. Starting June 30th, there would be a new calculation of UAL based upon the 8% rate of interest with the recalculated unpaid balance of the BSL folded into the new UALs. These new calculations would include certain estimated liabilities for future required transfers of earnings to variable supplements funds and would be amortized over the eleven year period (July 1, 1999 to June 30, 2010).

In addition, according to the Memorandum in Support, minor adjustments would be made in the method of computing annual normal employer contributions to the Board of Education system and the teachers' system to absorb liabilities pertaining to the variable annuity funds of those systems. Finally, the bill requires the City to reimburse investment expenses to the funds no later than the end of the fiscal year following the incursion of those expenses. Currently, these expenses are repaid through the City's normal contributions.

According to the bill's Fiscal Note, the Chief Actuary proposed these changes to the actuarial assumptions and methods to be used to compute employer contributions to the five pension systems after a thorough analysis of an actuarial experience study. According to the bill's notes, the provisions in the bill, together with the adoption of actuarial tables by the Boards of Trustees of the five systems, and the Market Value Restarts of the Actuarial, Values of Assets are the most appropriate steps for the financing of the five pension systems, and will result in an increase in recognized pension assets of $5.3 billion.

State Leg. Res. No. 222

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senators Mendez and Rosado, S.6828, and Assembly Member Arroyo, A.9799, "AN ACT authorizing the city of New York to reconvey its interest in certain real property acquired by in rem tax foreclosure in the borough of Bronx to the former owner St. Peter's Lutheran Church Inc., notwithstanding expiration of the two year period within which application may be made to the city to release its interest in property thus acquired; Block No. 2285, Lot No. 75 on tax map for the borough of Bronx."

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on March 29, 2000 (Minutes, page 708) the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

The New York City Charter requires that sale of city-owned property be at public auction or by sealed bids, except as otherwise provided by law. Therefore, state legislative authorization is necessary to permit reconveyance of city-owned property to the former owner.

This legislation authorizes the city of New York to reconvey the real property designated as Block No. 2285, Lot No. 75 on the tax map of the Bronx to St. Peter's Church Inc. Such reconveyance may be made upon approval of the In Rem Foreclosure Release Board subject to the grantee meeting certain conditions precedent.

The City of New York acquired title to these premises based on non-payment of taxes. Reportedly, the non-payment of taxes was due to an absence of notice and the inadvertent failure of, the former owner of such property, to pay taxes thereon.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 236

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass a bill introduced by Senator Maltese, S.7214, "AN ACT to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the designation of deputy warden (warden level II) in the department of correction of the city of New York."

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on April 12, 2000 (Minutes, page 857) the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would amend section 9-117 of the Administrative Code to provide that assistant deputy wardens who are promoted to deputy warden and serve in that position for at least a year would be permanently appointed to the rank of deputy warden. Thus, in order to revoke that designation, the Commissioner of the Department of Corrections would have to comply with the due process requirements of section 75 of the State Civil Service Law.

According to the Memorandum in Support, this change would ensure that union members who serve as deputy wardens for a year would be afforded appropriate civil service due process protections in the event their removal is sought. This protection is similar to that enjoyed by police officers who serve as detectives for eighteen months.

State Leg. Res. No. 276

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Leibell, S.6765-B, and Assembly Member Vitaliano, A.9687-B, "AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to the establishment of twenty-five year/age fifty retirement programs for senior automotive service workers, automotive service workers, auto body workers, auto mechanics and oil burner specialists who are subject to articles 11 and 15 of such law; and in relation to providing for employer pick up, pursuant to provisions of the internal revenue code, of certain additional member contributions required to be made by certain participants in the twenty-five year/age fifty retirement programs."

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 13, 2000, the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would extend the designation of physical taxing to include the title of senior automotive service worker, automotive service worker, auto body worker and oil burner specialists. These titles were created after the original designation of physical taxing positions were created, and the union that represents these titles have been unable to work out a collective bargaining agreement to have these positions included as physically taxing. These titles perform the same work as an Auto Mechanic which is designated as a physically taxing position.

Once given this designation, the age for service retirement drops to fifty from fifty-five. Once given the designation of physical taxing an additional pension contribution of 4.83% will be mandated.

This bill will take effect immediately.

Impact on Revenues: There would be no impact on revenues as a result of this legislation.

Impact on Expenditures: This proposed legislation would cost approximately $2.5 million In fiscal year 2001, however on April 27th the Board of Directors of the New York City Employees Retirement System approved new methods and assumptions including a restart in the pension assets valuation which in effect creates an "asset cushion" (assets greater than liabilities). If these new methods and assumptions are adopted by tile State legislature as expected there will be no additional contribution required by tile City to NYCERS if this legislation were to become laws.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 277

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Padavan, S.8029, and Assembly Member Carozza A.11340, "AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to the determination of adjusted base proportions in special assessing units that are cities for fiscal year 2001."

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 13, 2000, the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would provide that for fiscal year 2001, the current base proportion of any class of real property in the city of New York could not exceed last year's adjusted base proportion by more than two percent.

State law requires New York City to apportion property taxes based upon rates calculated by the State Office of Real Property Services in order to distribute the tax levy among the four classes of real property. Those classes are: (1) class one, consisting of one to three family homes; (2) class two, consisting of other residential properties such as apartment buildings, coops and condos; (3) class three, consisting of utility property; and (4) class four which is all other real property.

Paragraph (c) of subdivision one of section 1803-a of the Real Property Tax Law provides that notwithstanding the results of these calculations, the increase in the base proportion of any class is not to exceed five percent. According to the Memorandum in Support, even with this five percent cap, the tax rate on class one properties would increase significantly, resulting in an average yearly tax increase of $54 for a typical class one home. Class three's tax rate would substantially increase, and these utility tax increases would be passed onto consumers in the form of higher energy costs.

Therefore, the proposed legislation would lower the five percent cap on the allowable increase in the base proportion of any class to two percent. According to the sponsor's Memorandum in Support, this would result in a smaller tax rate increase on class one properties ($.01 per $100 of assessed valuation rather than $.016 per $100), and class three properties ($1.14 per $100 of assessed valuation rather than $1.45 per $100), than the current law provides.

Under current law the increase in the current base proportions for each class is limited to 5 percent for Fiscal 2001. For Fiscal 2000, the City Council and the Mayor, together with the State legislature, limited the increase to 2.5 percent. The SBRPS has calculated this year's class equalization rates used in levying the real estate tax. Unlike last year, when the share for Class 1 increased by more than 4 percent, this year the increase for Class 1 was 2.7 percent. Class 3's share increased by 6.6 percent, while Class 2's share, like last year, increased by less than 2.0 percent. Class 4's portion continued its pattern of decreasing over its prior year's share.

Last year, the Council and the Mayor determined that maintaining the 5 percent cap on increases in class shares would present a hardship for Class 1 property owners. Many of the same reasons exist this year for lowering the cap on increases to 2.0 percent.

There is no impact on revenues or expenditures since the real estate tax levy remains the same ($8,730 million), whether the increase in class shares is capped at 5 percent or 2 percent. However, the dollar amount of each class's share of the levy will be affected by the cap. By using a 2.0 percent cap on the increases in class shares, instead of the 5 percent cap, it is estimated that Class 1's share would decrease by $8 million, Class 2's share would remain the same, and Class 3's share would decrease by $19.5 million, shifting the total savings of $27.5 million for these three classes to Class 4.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01
Expenditures (–)	$0	$0	$0

Impact on Revenues: There would be no impact on revenues as a result of this legislation.

Impact on Expenditures: There would be no impact on expenditures as a result of this legislation.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 278

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Smith, S.7956, and by Committee on Rules, A.11210, "AN ACT to amend chapter 239 of the laws of 1995 relating to authorizing the city of New York to sell waterfront property in the Broad channel area, in relation to extending authorization."

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 13, 2000, the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

The legislation would extend the City's authority to sell waterfront property in the Broad channel area for an additional year. The bill would extend: (1) the Mayor's right to authorize, without competitive bidding, the sale of the city's interest in any such parcel which was subject to a leasehold interest prior to August 19, 1982 to the lessee or his or her heirs, to the owner of the parcel's improvements if the lessee cannot be found, or to the occupant if neither the lessee or owner of improvements can be found; and (2) the Mayor's right to authorize, without competitive bidding but subject to the Charter's Uniform Land Use Review Procedure, the sale of the city's interest in certain parcels, which are adjacent to a privately owned parcel, to the private owner.

According to the Memorandum in Support, the extension of this authority is needed to give the City and residents of Broad Channel the opportunity to complete the successful program which is allowing tenants of record and other occupants to purchase parcels from the City by negotiated sale, and to acquire adjacent property.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01

Resolution calling for the appointment of a special federal prosecutor to investigate alleged human rights violations, wrongful removals, and unconstitutional practices against children and their families by the New York City Administration for Children's Services and its contracted agencies, and to investigate the New York Family Court System for violation of the United States Court of Appeals ruling that "it is unconstitutional for the Administration for Children's Services to remove children from their parents' custody without a court order unless there is an imminent risk of harm."

By Council Members Foster, Henry, Perkins and Rivera; also Council Member Pinkett

Whereas, On October 13, 1999, the United States Court of Appeals ruled that "it is unconstitutional for the Administration for Children's Services to remove children from their parents' custody without a court order unless there is an imminent risk of harm"; and

Whereas, The National Action Network organized an "ACS Committee" in 1999 to assist parents who are not "financially, legally, or emotionally capable of dealing with the system" of the Administration for Children's Services in cases of removal of their children from their custody; and

Whereas, The National Action Network has conducted forums in which testimony was presented about widespread abuses by the Administration for Children's Services in removing children from their parents with insufficient cause; and

Whereas, The National Action Network believes that the New York Family Courts are not abiding by the 4th, 5th, 6th and 14th amendments to the Constitution in the removal of children from their homes without the necessary showing of imminent harm, and, therefore, believes that children improperly removed should be returned to their families; now, therefore, be it

Res. No. 1424

Resolution calling upon the appropriate committee of the Council of the City of New York to hold hearings on the recommendations of the New York Civil Liberties Union to ameliorate police misconduct in New York State.

By Council Members Foster, Perkins and Rivera

Whereas, The New York Civil Liberties Union (NYCLU) and its six regional chapters and offices adopted recommendations in February, 2000 at its New York State-Wide Summit on Police Brutality to ameliorate police misconduct in New York State; and

Whereas, These recommendations, which call for State-wide action, have applicability to New York City; and

Whereas, Among the recommendations, the NYCLU called upon the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) to be strengthened and supported the creation of a Special Prosecutor to monitor police misconduct and corruption; and

Whereas, The NYCLU also urged police departments throughout the State to offer incentives for hiring, promotion and retention of police forces and bonuses for those who are fluent in the languages spoken in the neighborhoods where they work, and to produce racial statistics of all citizens stopped by the police, in order to determine or substantiate claims for racial profiling; and

Whereas, The NYCLU also urged the State of New York to appoint a supervisor to review the faculty and curriculum of police academies statewide and that the training period for police recruits be increased to one year, and that police departments implement continuing education programs; and

Whereas, As the NYCLU resolution recognizes, the vast majority of police officers are good officers but a "small, yet significant percent of police officers who engage in excessive force, abuse of authority, discourteous and /or racial, religious, ethnic and homophobic slurs" still persists; and

Whereas, The NYCLU's suggestions are common sense proposals which will help stem the tide of police misconduct and brutality; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the appropriate committee of the Council of the City of New York hold hearings on the recommendations of the New York Civil Liberties Union to ameliorate police misconduct in New York State.

Whereas, The City-Wide Community Board Caucus to Stop Police Brutality (the City-Wide Community Board Caucus) has adopted recommendations for improving the policy and practices of policing in New York City; and

Whereas, The City-Wide Community Board Caucus states that it has identified serious and systemic problems within the New York City Police Department (NYPD) and the agencies that are supposed to provide oversight and accountability over the NYPD; and

Whereas, With regard to civilian oversight, the City-Wide Community Board Caucus has recommended that the Civilian Complaint Review Board - the agency empowered to exercise oversight and control over the NYPD – be supported and strengthened; and

Whereas, With regard to police corruption and brutality, the City-Wide Community Board Caucus urges the creation of a Special Prosecutor to investigate and prosecute cases of police brutality and corruption, and that the 48 hour rule, whereby police officers are not required to speak to NYPD investigators for 48 hours after being identified as suspects, be eliminated; and

Whereas, With regard to fostering better police-community relations, the City-Wide Community Board Caucus supports implementation of a residency requirement and that the kind of training police officers receive at the Academy and in the precinct be improved and include discussions about diversity, race-relations and community-police relations, and that community groups work with police officers to advocate for policy changes (e.g. police pay, improved facilities, and increased use of computers) that will improve police morale; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the appropriate committee of the Council of the City of New York hold hearings on the recommendations of the City-Wide Community Board Caucus to Stop Police Brutality.

AN ACT to amend the tax law, the state finance law and the public authorities law, in relation to the payment of state-collected taxes to certain public benefit corporations, the borrowing power of the New York city transitional finance authority and the bonds issued by such authority; and to amend chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, amending the public authorities law and other laws relating to creating the New York city transitional finance authority, in relation to the continued authorization of such authority to issue such bonds (Part A); to authorize the accelerated payment of certain state apportionments to the city school districts of the cities of Buffalo and Yonkers; to amend the education law, in relation to authorizing the appointment of supervising staff in the city school district of the city of Buffalo by the superintendent of such district; and to amend the public authorities law, in relation to authorizing the state of New York municipal bond bank agency to finance certain costs of certain city school districts (Part B); to provide appropriations to the Nassau county interim finance authority (Part C)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Each component is wholly contained within a Part identified as Parts A through C. The effective date for each particular provision contained within such Part is set forth in the last section of such Part. Any provision in any section contained within a Part, including the effective date of the Part, which makes reference to a section "of this act", when used in connection with that particular component, shall be deemed to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Part in which it is found. Section three of this act sets forth the general effective date of this act.

PART A

Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration. The legislature hereby finds and declares that the New York city transitional finance authority has assisted the city of New York in financing its capital program, and that an increase in the authority's borrowing and variable rate capacity would allow the continued availability of adequate funding for the maintenance, expansion, and rebuilding of the infrastructure of the city. The legislature further finds and declares that, notwithstanding section 1 of chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, it is appropriate to permit such authority to continue to issue its bonds, subject to the amount limitations set forth by law, to support the city's capital needs in circumstances not directly related to whether the city is approaching its constitutional debt limit. Such permission is appropriate because the continued availability to the city of the proceeds of issuances by this established credit, which is now well known among investors in public debt, promotes the long-term fiscal stability and efficiency of the financing of the city's capital program, and allows the city to continue to access the authority debt which is backed by the city's personal income tax.

§ 2. Subdivision (a) of section 1261 of the tax law, as amended by chapter 89 of the laws of 1976, is amended to read as follows:

(a) All taxes, penalties and interest imposed by cities, counties or school districts under the authority of section twelve hundred ten, twelve hundred eleven, twelve hundred twelve or twelve hundred twelve-A of this article, which are collected by the [~~state tax commission~~] commissioner, shall be deposited daily with such responsible banks, banking houses or trust companies, as may be designated by the state comptroller, to the credit of the comptroller, in trust for the cities, counties or school districts imposing the tax, or for any public benefit corporation to which the tax may be payable pursuant to law. Such deposits and deposits received pursuant to subdivision (b) of section twelve hundred fifty-two of this article shall be kept in trust and separate and apart from all other monies in the possession of the comptroller. The comptroller shall require adequate security from all such depositories of such revenue collected by the [~~tax commission~~] commissioner, including the deposits received pursuant to subdivision (b) of section twelve hundred fifty-two of this article. any amount payable to a public benefit corporation pursuant to law shall, at the time it is otherwise payable to the taxing jurisdiction as specified in this section, be paid instead to such public benefit corporation.

§ 3. Section 1313 of the tax law, as amended by chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1313. Deposit and disposition of revenues. All revenue collected by the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] from the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law shall be deposited daily with such responsible banks, banking houses or trust companies, as may be designated by the state comptroller, to the credit of the comptroller, in trust for the city of New York or the New York city transitional finance authority, as their interests may appear pursuant to this section. Such deposits shall be kept in trust and separate and apart from all other moneys in the possession of the comptroller. The comptroller shall require adequate security from all such depositories of such revenue collected by the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~]. The comptroller shall retain in his hands such amount as the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] may determine to be necessary for refunds in respect to the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and for reasonable costs of the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] in administering, collecting and distributing such taxes, out of which the comptroller shall pay any refunds of such taxes to which taxpayers shall be entitled under any law enacted pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law. The comptroller, after reserving such refund fund and such costs shall, commencing on or before the fifteenth day of each month, pay to the New York city transitional finance authority on a daily basis the balance of taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law to be applied by the authority, in the following order of priority: first pursuant to the authority's contracts with bondholders, then to pay the authority's operating expenses not otherwise provided for, and then pursuant to the authority's agreements with the city, which agreements shall require the authority to transfer the balance of such taxes not required to meet contractual or other obligations of the authority to the city as frequently as practicable; except that he shall pay to the state department of social services that amount of overpayments of the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and the interest on such amount which is certified to him by the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] as the amount to be credited against past-due support pursuant to subdivision six of section one hundred seventy-one-c of this chapter and except that he shall pay to the New York state higher education services corporation that amount of overpayments of the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and the interest on such amount which is certified to him by the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] as the amount to be credited against the amount of defaults in repayment of guaranteed student loans pursuant to subdivision five of section one hundred seventy-one-d of this chapter and except that he shall pay to the state university of New York or the city university of New York respectively that amount of overpayments of the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and the interest on such amount which is certified to him by the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] as the amount to be credited against the amount of defaults in repayment of state or city university loans pursuant to subdivision six of section one hundred seventy-one-e of this chapter and except that, notwithstanding any provision of law, he shall credit to the revenue arrearage account, pursuant to section ninety-one-a of the state finance law, that amount of overpayments of the taxes imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and the interest on such amount which is certified to him by the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] as the amount to be credited against a past-due legally enforceable debt owed to a state agency pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision six of section one hundred seventy-one-f of this chapter, provided, however, he shall credit to the special offset fiduciary account, pursuant to section ninety-one-c of the state finance law, any such amount creditable as a liability as set forth in paragraph (b) of subdivision six of section one hundred seventy-one-f of this chapter, and except further that he shall pay to a non-obligated spouse that amount of overpayment of tax imposed pursuant to the authority of this article or article two-E of the general city law and the interest on such amount which has been credited pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one-c, one hundred seventy-one-d, one hundred seventy-one-e or section one hundred seventy-one-f of this chapter and which is certified to him by the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] as the amount due such non-obligated spouse pursuant to paragraph six of subsection (b) of section six hundred fifty-one of this chapter, and he shall deduct a like amount which he shall pay into the treasury to the credit of the general fund from amounts subsequently payable to the [~~department of social services~~] office of temporary and disability assistance, the state university of New York, the city university of New York, the higher education services corporation, or the revenue arrearage account or special offset fiduciary account pursuant to section ninety-one-a or ninety-one-c of the state finance law, as the case may be, whichever had been credited the amount originally withheld from such overpayment. The amount deducted for administering, collecting and distributing such taxes during such monthly period shall be paid by the comptroller into the general fund of the state treasury to the credit of the state purposes account therein. The first payment to such chief fiscal officer shall be made on or before March fifteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-six, which payment shall represent the balance of revenue after provision for refund and such reasonable costs, with respect to taxes collected from January first, nineteen hundred seventy-six through February twenty-ninth, nineteen hundred seventy-six. Subsequent payments shall be made on or before April fifteenth, nineteen hundred seventy-six, and on or before the fifteenth day of each succeeding month thereafter, and shall represent the balance of revenue with respect to taxes collected the preceding calendar months. The amounts so payable shall be certified to the comptroller by the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] or his delegate, either of whom shall not be held liable for any inaccuracy in such certificate. Where the amount so paid over to such chief fiscal officer is more or less than the amount then due such city, the amount of overpayment or underpayment shall be certified to the comptroller by the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] or his delegate, either of whom shall not be held liable for any inaccuracy in such certificate. The amount of overpayment or underpayment shall be so certified to the comptroller as soon after the discovery of the overpayment or underpayment as reasonably possible and subsequent payments by the comptroller to such chief fiscal officer shall be adjusted by subtracting the amount of any such overpayment from, or by adding the amount of any such underpayment to such number of subsequent payments and distributions as the comptroller and the commissioner [~~of taxation and finance~~] shall consider reasonable in view of the amount of the overpayment or underpayment and all other facts and circumstances. The balance payable to the New York city transitional finance authority pursuant to this section shall instead be paid to the chief fiscal officer of the city of New York unless and until the comptroller has received from such authority a notice, which shall be conclusive and upon which the comptroller may rely without further inquiry, that such authority has incurred obligations payable by it, whether for borrowed money, operating expenses or otherwise. On and after the date of such notice and until such date as the authority shall have no obligations outstanding, the city shall have no right, title or interest in or to the taxes, except as provided in the authority's agreements with the city.

§ 4. Subdivisions 3 and 6 of section 92-d of the state finance law, as added by chapter 168 of the laws of 1975, are amended to read as follows:

3. The taxes, interest and penalties imposed, pursuant to sections eleven hundred seven or eleven hundred eight (as the case may be) of the tax law within the territorial limits of a city in aid of which a municipal assistance corporation has been created, and received by the [~~state tax commission~~] commissioner of taxation and finance, after deducting the amount which the commissioner of taxation and finance shall determine to be necessary for reasonable costs of the [~~state tax commission~~] commissioner of taxation and finance in administering, collecting and distributing such taxes, shall be appropriated (i) to the municipal assistance corporation which has been created in aid of such city in order to enable such corporation to fulfill the terms of any agreements made with the holders of its notes and bonds and to carry out its corporate purposes, including the maintenance of the capital reserve fund, and (ii) the balance, if any, to the city in aid of which such corporation has been created, or to a public benefit corporation to which the tax may be otherwise payable pursuant to law, as hereinafter provided.

The chairman of such corporation shall furnish the commissioner of taxation and finance with copies of such certificates. The comptroller shall from time to time, but in no event later than the fifteenth day of October, January and April and the last day of June of each fiscal year, pay over and distribute to the chief fiscal officer of the city in aid of which such municipal assistance corporation has been created to be paid into the treasury of such city to the credit of the general fund, or pay over and distribute to a public benefit corporation to which the tax may otherwise be payable pursuant to law, all revenues in the special account established for such corporation in the municipal assistance tax fund, if any, in excess of the aggregate amount which the chairman of such corporation has certified to the comptroller and which has been previously appropriated and paid to such corporation as hereinabove authorized. In no event shall the comptroller pay over and distribute any revenues (other than the amount to be deducted for administering, collecting and distributing such sales and compensating use taxes) to any person other than the municipal assistance corporation unless and until the aggregate of all payments certified to the comptroller as required by such corporation as of such date in order to comply with its agreements with the holders of its notes and bonds and to carry out its corporate purposes, including the maintenance of the capital reserve fund, which remain unappropriated or unpaid to such corporation shall have been appropriated to such corporation and shall have been paid in full; provided, however, that no person, including such corporation or the holders of its notes or bonds shall have any lien on such revenues and such agreement shall be executory only to the extent of such revenues available to the state in such special account. On the day on which the comptroller pays over and distributes to the chief fiscal officer of such city any revenues from such special account the commissioner of taxation and finance shall certify to the comptroller the amount to be deducted for administering, collecting and distributing the tax imposed pursuant to section eleven hundred seven or eleven hundred eight (as the case may be) of the tax law within the territorial limits of such city since he last certified such amount and the comptroller shall pay such amount into the general fund of the state treasury to the credit of the state purposes fund therein.

§ 5. Subdivision 4 of section 2799-bb of the public authorities law, as added by chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

4. "Capital financing need" means a period during which and only the extent to which [~~the city is unable to implement its capital plan because such plan would require the city to incur debt and contract liabilities in excess of the limit imposed by the state constitution and implementing legislation, all~~] the issuance of bonds in accordance with this title would assist the city in meeting its capital needs as determined by the mayor pursuant to section twenty-seven hundred ninety-nine-ff of this title.

1. REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES (CONT'D)

Reports of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation

At this point the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) announced that the following items had been preconsidered by the Committee on State and Federal Legislation and had been favorably reported for adoption.

M-888

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the tax law, the state finance law and the public authorities law, in relation to the payment of state-collected taxes to certain public benefit corporations, the borrowing power of the New York city transitional finance authority and the bonds issued by such authority; and to amend chapter 16 of the laws of 1997, amending the public authorities law and other laws relating to creating the New York city transitional finance authority, in relation to the continued authorization of such authority to issue such bonds (Part A); to authorize the accelerated payment of certain state apportionments to the city school districts of the cities of Buffalo and Yonkers; to amend the education law, in relation to authorizing the appointment of supervising staff in the city school district of the city of Buffalo by the superintendent of such district; and to amend the public authorities law, in relation to authorizing the state of New York municipal bond bank agency to finance certain costs of certain city school districts (Part B); to provide appropriations to the Nassau county interim finance authority (Part C)" S.8167/A.11477

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 14, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

Section 4 of Article 8 of the Constitution, prohibits New York City from contracting indebtedness beyond an established debt limit. Since the debt limit constrains the ability to enter into capital contracts, the continuation of the City's capital program, which includes funding for education and transportation, and the capital needs of other City operations, is dependent on sufficient debt limit capacity. The TFA Act of 1997 created the New York City Transitional Finance Authority ("TFA") as an emergency financing mechanism to ensure that, as the City approached its constitutional debt limit, adequate finding would be available to meet the City's capital needs.

The city is now nearing its limit under the 1997 TFA Act. The main provision of this legislation applicable to the New York City Transitional Finance Authority (contained in Part A of the legislation; Parts B and C deal predominantly with Buffalo, Yonkers and Nassau County) increases the aggregate principal amount of bonds permitted to be issued by the TFA to $11.5 billion from the current limit, which is $7.5 billion.

In addition, this legislation also amends the definition of "capital financing needs" to eliminate the requirement that a period of capital financing need be one in which the capital program would require the City to incur debt in excess of the limit imposed by the state constitution. Instead, a period of capital financing need would occur when the issuance of bonds by the TFA would assist the City in meeting its capital needs as determined by the Mayor.

According to the administration, the legislation would delete the provision which prevents the TFA from issuing bonds other than for refunding purposes as soon as the city's constitutional debt limit is increased.

Finally, other provisions would change the requirement on the issuance of variable rate bonds and clarify provisions regarding the availability of personal income and sales tax revenues to the TFA.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY00	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01

Impact on Revenues: The bill increases the borrowing power of NYCTFA to $11.5 billion from $7.5 billion but has no effect on the revenue budget.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

At this point the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) announced that the following items had been preconsidered by the Committee on State and Federal Legislation and had been favorably reported for adoption.

M-899

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to the definition of eligible building for purposes of title 4-A of article 4 of such law; and to amend chapter 772 of the laws of 1966, relating to enabling any city having a population of one million or more to raise tax revenue, and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to increasing tax credits authorized under the relocation and employment assistance program in certain areas of cities having a population of one million or more." S.8153/A.11438

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 14, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would amend the definition of "Eligible building" in the state Real Property Tax Law for the purposes of real property tax benefits available to certain buildings pursuant to the City's proposed "Other Borough Development Program" (which was the subject of S.8078 and A.11355 for which an MM and SLR was adopted by this Committee and the Council on June 13, 2000, the "original legislation") in the nine newly designated "revitalization areas" contained in the original legislation.

In addition, the legislation would make the increased tax credits under the relocation and employment assistance program (REAP), refundable for four years in addition to the year of relocation. This REAP credits which would amount to $3000 per employee share under the original legislation for businesses that locate in the nine would have been refundable for the taxable year of the relocation, as well as the following year in the original legislation. Under this bill, the credit would be refundable for the taxable year of the relocation as well as for the four following years.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY04
Revenues (+)	minimal	minimal	minimal
Net	minimal	minimal	minimal

Impact on Revenues: It is anticipated that the expansion of the refundable REAP credit will impact on a small number of firms.

Impact on Expenditures: There would be no impact on expenditures from this legislation.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 231

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Markowitz, S.7337, and by Committee on Rules, A.8962-A, "AN ACT authorizing the city of New York to reconvey its interest in certain real property acquired by in rem tax foreclosure in the borough of Brooklyn to former owner Vincent Frangello, notwithstanding expiration of the two year period within which application may be made to the city to release its interest in property thus acquired; Block No. 5228, Lot No. 37 on tax map for the borough of Brooklyn".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on April 12, 2000 (Minutes page 850), the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

The New York City Charter requires that sale of city-owned property be at public auction or by sealed bids, except as otherwise provided by law. Therefore, state legislative authorization is necessary to permit reconveyance of city-owned property to the former owner.

This legislation authorizes the city of New York to reconvey the real property designated as Block No. 5228, Lot No. 37 on the tax map of Brooklyn to Vincent Frangello. Such reconveyance may be made upon approval of the In Rem Foreclosure Release Board subject to the grantee meeting certain conditions precedent.

The City of New York acquired title to these premises based on non-payment of taxes. Reportedly, the non-payment of taxes was due to an absence of notice and the inadvertent failure of, the former owner of such property, to pay taxes thereon.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES (CONT'D)

Reports of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation

At this point the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) announced that the following items had been preconsidered by the Committee on State and Federal Legislation and had been favorably reported for adoption.

M-891

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the local finance law, in relation to the issuance of bonds and notes with variable rates of interest." S.7197-B/A.10106-A

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 22, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

Currently, the Local Finance Law provides that municipalities may issue variable rate bonds or notes until July 15, 2000. The total principal amount of variable rate bonds or notes issued by a municipality cannot exceed 10% of the municipality's limit under section 104 of the local finance law. The legislation would amend the local finance law to extend for three years the ability of a municipality to issue bonds or notes with variable interest rates.

The bill also provides, however, that for New York City, the Finance Board may issue variable rate bonds or notes the principal amounts of which aggregate up to 20% of its limit. This authorization would also end on July 15, 2003.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY 01	FY Succeeding Effective FY 02	Full Fiscal Impact FY 01

Impact on Revenues: There would be no impact on revenues as a result of this legislation.

Impact on Expenditures: The bill would expand the permitted amount of variable rate capacity from 10 to 20 percent of the debt limit in New York City. The city currently estimates that the use of floating rate debt has saved approximately 200 basis points over comparable fixed rate debt in the last few years. As debt service costs continue to rise, it is increasingly important for the city to take advantage of opportunities to reduce those costs. The proposed increase in variable rate capacity could result in potential savings of $60 million per year in the city's debt service costs.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

JOSE RIVERA, Chairperson; MARY PINKETT, VICTOR L. ROBLES, KENNETH K. FISHER, JOHN D. SABINI, HOWARD L. LASHER, A. GIFFORD MILLER, MADELINE PROVENZANO, AL STABILE, JAMES ODDO—June 22, 2000

On motion of the Speaker (Council Member Vallone), and adopted, the foregoing matter was coupled as a General Order for the day. (See ROLL CALL ON SUPPLEMENTAL GENERAL ORDERS FOR THE DAY.)

At this point the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) announced that the following items had been preconsidered by the Committee on State and Federal Legislation and had been favorably reported for adoption.

M-892

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of concurring in a communication from the Mayor — "AN ACT to amend the general city law, chapter 772 of the laws of 1966, relating to enabling any city having a population of one million or more to raise tax revenue, the administrative code of the city of New York and the real property tax law, in relation to increasing tax credits authorized under the relocation and employment assistance program in certain areas of cities having a population of one million or more, to amend the real property tax law, in relation to modifying the criteria for eligibility for real property tax exemptions and abatements for industrial and commercial properties in certain areas of cities having a population of one million or more and in relation to expanding a real property tax abatement program for certain commercial properties in cities having a population of one million or more by providing an abatement to industrial properties in certain areas of such cities and by extending the eligibility period and benefit period in such areas and the exemption from taxation of certain multiple dwellings." S.8219/A.11510

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 22, 2000, the annexed communication respectfully

REPORTS:

This legislation would provide increased tax credits under the relocation and employment assistance program (REAP), as well as property tax exemptions and abatements to certain businesses that locate in areas of the City outside of Manhattan's central business district. Unlike legislation for which an SLR and Mayor's Message was adopted by this Committee and the full Council on June 13, 2000 (the "original legislation"), this proposal does not limit its benefits to nine designated areas. Rather, the legislation defines "revitalization area" as any area of the City zoned C4, C5, C6, M1, M2 or M3 that is outside of that part of Manhattan south of 96th Street. In addition, this proposal provides a five year extension of a tax abatement and exemption applicable to conversions of properties to residential use for buildings in the lower Manhattan development area.

Currently, state law provides for REAP credits for eligible businesses that relocate to the four boroughs other than Manhattan or to Northern Manhattan. These are credits against the City's Corporation Tax, Unincorporated Business Tax or gross receipts tax (for utilities) based upon the number of eligible employees which the eligible business is relocating. The current credits are either $500 per eligible employee share (which is based on the number of employees) or $1000 per employee share. The proposed legislation would provide credits of $3,000 per eligible employee share for eligible businesses that relocate to an eligibly-zoned area of the City outside of Manhattan's central business district (i.e., south of 96th Street) after July 1, 2000. The credits are allowable for twelve years after relocation. In addition, these credits would be refundable for the taxable year of the relocation, as well as the following four years (this change from one year to four years following the year of relocation was a change to the original legislation also contemplated by a separate proposal which was the subject of an SLR and Mayor's Message adopted by this Committee and the full Council on June 14, 2000), thus, allowing a business that did not have sufficient (or any) taxable income to take advantage of the credits.

The act would also eliminate certain waiting periods (applicable to certain areas in Queens) which prevent commercial projects located in spaces previously used for manufacturing purposes from taking advantage of real property tax exemptions pursuant to the Industrial Commercial Incentive Program (ICIP). It also provides for broader property tax abatements for "industrial construction work" on certain industrial or manufacturing properties. Under the new provisions, abatements would be available (on a pro rata basis) even to properties where less than 75% of the space is devoted to manufacturing, as long as at least 25% of the space is for manufacturing and the total available manufacturing space after the construction has not decreased.

The proposal would provide to tenant/businesses locating in eligible commercial or manufacturing areas outside of Manhattan south of 96th Street that undertake certain improvements, similar commercial real estate tax abatements as those currently available to tenant/businesses that locate in the lower Manhattan revitalization area. Eligible businesses locating in eligible commercial properties between July 1, 2000 and June 30, 2003 would be eligible to receive the abatements which would last until June 30, 2009. In addition, the legislation would amend the definition of "eligible building" to make certain non-residential or mixed-use buildings constructed after 1975 eligible for the abatements (this proposal was the subject of an SLR and Mayor's Message adopted by this Committee and the full Council on June 14, 2000, which would have amended the original legislation).

Finally, the legislation would amend the real property tax law to provide a five year extension of certain tax abatements and exemptions applicable to conversions of properties to residential use for buildings in the lower Manhattan development area.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01
Revenues (+)	minimal	minimal	minimal
Net	minimal	minimal	minimal

Impact on Revenues: It is anticipated that the expansion of the refundable REAP credit will impact on a small number of firms.

Impact on Expenditures: There would be no impact on expenditure from this legislation.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption.

JOSE RIVERA, Chairperson; MARY PINKETT, VICTOR L. ROBLES, KENNETH K. FISHER, JOHN D. SABINI, HOWARD L. LASHER, A. GIFFORD MILLER, MADELINE PROVENZANO, AL STABILE, JAMES ODDO—June 22, 2000

At this point the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) announced that the following item had been preconsidered by the Committee on State and Federal Legislation and had been favorably reported for adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 279

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass bills introduced by Senator Padavan, S.8219, and by the Committee on Rules, A.11510, "AN ACT to amend the general city law, chapter 772 of the laws of 1966, relating to enabling any city having a population of one million or more to raise tax revenue, the administrative code of the city of New York and the real property tax law, in relation to increasing tax credits authorized under the relocation and employment assistance program in certain areas of cities having a population of one million or more, to amend the real property tax law, in relation to modifying the criteria for eligibility for real property tax exemptions and abatements for industrial and commercial properties in certain areas of cities having a population of one million or more and in relation to expanding a real property tax abatement program for certain commercial properties in cities having a population of one million or more by providing an abatement to industrial properties in certain areas of such cities and by extending the eligibility period and benefit period in such areas and the exemption from taxation of certain multiple dwellings".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 22, 2000, the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

At this point the Speaker (Council Member Vallone) announced that the following item had been preconsidered by the Committee on State and Federal Legislation and had been favorably reported for adoption.

State Leg. Res. No. 281

Report of the Committee on State and Federal Legislation in favor of approving a State Legislation Resolution requesting the New York State Legislature to pass a bill introduced by Committee on Rules, A.11511, "AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to the additional tax on the New York city personal income tax".

The Committee on State and Federal Legislation to which it was referred on June 22, 2000, the annexed State Legislation resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

Section 1304-B of the state tax law provides for a fourteen percent surcharge on the personal income tax which is set to sunset at the end of the 2001 taxable year. The legislation would allow the City to amend its local laws imposing this surcharge for taxable years after 1999 but before 2002 to set the surcharge at a rate lower than the current 14% rate and to vary the rates of the surcharge. The Committee and full Council adopted an SLR and Mayor's Message on the Senate version of this legislation on June 13, 2000.

Any local law adopted pursuant to the legislation would have to be enacted prior to July 31st of the taxable year to which the change is to apply.

Fiscal Impact Statement:

	Effective FY01	FY Succeeding Effective FY02	Full Fiscal Impact FY01
Revenues (+)	($329,000,000)	($344,000,000)	($329,000,000)
Expenditures (–)	$0	$0	$0
Net	($329,000,000)	($329,000,000)	($329,000,000)

Impact on Revenues: Given the large amount of revenue raised by the surcharge, approximately $675 million in Fiscal Year 2000, the City may choose to grant targeted relief from the surcharge to, for example, lower- and middle-income households and reduce the surcharge for other taxpayers. The current tax reduction plan has an estimated cost of $329 million in Fiscal 2001 and $339 million in Fiscal 2002.

Impact on Expenditures: There would be no impact on expenditures as a result of this legislation.

2. Every report shall have annexed thereto a certification by the president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, chief accounting officer or another officer of the taxpayer duly authorized so to act to the effect that the statements contained therein are true. In the case of an association, within the meaning of paragraph three of section (a) of section seventy-seven hundred one of the internal revenue code, a publicly-traded partnership treated as a corporation for purposes of the internal revenue code pursuant to section seventy-seven hundred four thereof and any business conducted by a trustee or trustees wherein interest or ownership is evidenced by certificates or other written instruments, such certification shall be made by any person duly authorized so to act on behalf of such association, publicly-traded partnership or business. The fact that an individual's name is signed on a certification of the report shall be prima facie evidence that such individual is authorized to sign and certify the report on behalf of the corporation. Blank forms of reports shall be furnished by the commissioner of finance, on application, but failure to secure such a blank shall not release any corporation from the obligation of making any report required by this subchapter.

§ 10. Subdivision 3 of section 11-605 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by chapter 525 of the laws of 1988, is amended to read as follows:

The allowance of a tentative carryback adjustment based upon a net operating loss carryback or net capital loss carryback pursuant to section sixty-four hundred eleven of the internal revenue code shall be treated as a final determination for purposes of this subdivision. Any taxpayer filing an amended return with such department shall also file within ninety days thereafter an amended report with the commissioner of finance.

§ 11. Subdivision 1 of section 11-608 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

1. Every taxpayer subject to the tax imposed by section 11-603 of this subchapter shall pay with the report required to be filed for the preceding privilege period, if any, or with an application for extension of the time and filing such report, an amount equal to twenty-five per centum of the preceding year's tax[, computed without regard to the credit provided for in subdivision twelve of section 11-604 of this subchapter,] if such preceding year's tax exceeded one thousand dollars.

§ 12. Subdivisions 1-a through 1-f of section 11-608 of the administrative code of the city of New York are REPEALED.

§ 13. Paragraph (d) of subdivision 3 of section 11-674 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

(d) Deficiency attributable to [net operating loss] carryback. If a deficiency of tax under subchapter two of this chapter is attributable to the application to taxpayer of a net operating loss carryback or a capital loss carryback, it may be assessed at any time that a deficiency for the taxable year of the loss may be assessed.

§ 14. Subdivision 5 of section 11-675 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as renumbered by chapter 241 of the laws of 1989, is amended to read as follows:

5. Tax reduced by carryback. If the amount of tax under subchapter two for any taxable years is reduced by reason of a carryback of a net operating loss or a capital loss, such reduction in tax shall not affect the computation of interest under this section for the period ending with the filing date for the taxable year in which the net operating loss or capital loss arises. Such filing date shall be determined without regard to extensions of time to file.

§ 15. Subdivision 4 of section 11-678 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

4. Overpayment attributable to net operating loss carryback or capital loss carryback. A claim for credit or refund of so much of an overpayment under subchapter two of this chapter as is attributable to the application to the taxpayer of a net operating loss carryback or a capital loss carryback shall be filed within three years from the time the return was due (including extensions thereof) for the taxable year of the loss, or within the period prescribed in subdivision two in respect of such taxable year, or within the period prescribed in subdivision three, where applicable, in respect to the taxable year to which the net operating loss or capital loss is carried back, whichever expires the latest. Where such claim for credit or refund is filed after the expiration of the period prescribed in subdivision one or in subdivision two where applicable, in respect to the taxable year to which the net operating loss or capital loss is carried back, the amount of such credit or refund shall be computed without change of the allocation of income or capital upon which the taxpayer's return (or any additional assessment) was based.

§ 16. Subdivision 4 of section 11-679 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

4. Refund of tax caused by carryback. For purposes of this section, if any overpayment of tax imposed by subchapter two of this chapter results from a carryback of a net operating loss or a net capital loss, such overpayment shall be deemed not to have been made prior to the filing date for the taxable year in which such net operating loss or net capital loss arises. Such filing date shall be determined without regard to extensions of time to file. For purposes of subdivision three of this section any overpayment described herein shall be treated as an overpayment for the loss year and such subdivision shall be applied with respect to such overpayment by treating the return for the loss year as not filed before claim for such overpayment is filed. The term "loss year" means the taxable year in which such loss arises.

§ 17. Subdivision 2 of section 11-680 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as amended by chapter 808 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:

2. Petition for redetermination of a deficiency. Within ninety days, or one hundred fifty days if the notice is addressed to a taxpayer whose last known address is outside the United States, after the mailing of the notice of deficiency authorized by section 11-672 of this subchapter, or if the commissioner of finance has established a conciliation procedure pursuant to section 11-124 of the code and the taxpayer has requested a conciliation conference in accordance therewith, after ninety days from the mailing of the conciliation decision or the date of the commissioner's confirmation of the discontinuance of the conciliation proceeding, the taxpayer may file a petition with the tax appeals tribunal for redetermination of the deficiency. Such petition may also assert a claim for refund for the same taxable year or years, subject to the limitations of subdivision seven of section 11-678 of this subchapter. For special restriction where the notice of deficiency relates to a proposed assessment made as a result of (a) a net operating loss carryback or a capital loss carryback, (b) an increase or decrease in federal or New York state taxable income or other basis of tax or federal or New York state tax, or (c) a federal or New York state change or correction or renegotiation, or computation or recomputation of tax, which is treated in the same manner as if it were a deficiency for federal or New York state income tax purposes, see paragraph (g) of subdivision three of section 11-674 of this subchapter.

§ 18. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 10 of section 11-683 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

(c) All taxes, additions to tax, penalties and interest which have become a lien under this subdivision shall[,] cease to be a lien after the expiration of [ten] twenty years from the date they became due and payable, [cease to be a lien,] except that taxes, additions to tax, penalties and interest which have become a lien under this subdivision (1) as to real estate in the hands of persons who are owners thereof who would be purchasers in good faith but for such taxes, additions to tax, penalties or interest and (2) as to the lien on real estate of mortgages held by persons who would be holders thereof in good faith but for such taxes, additions to tax, penalties or interest, as against such purchasers [of] or holders, shall cease to be lien after the expiration of ten years from the date they become due and payable. The limitations herein provided for shall not apply to any transfer from a corporation to a person or corporation with intent to avoid payment of any taxes, or where with like intent the transfer is made to a grantee corporation, or any subsequent grantee corporation, controlled by such grantor or which has any community of interest with it, either through stock ownership or otherwise.

§ 19. This local law shall take effect immediately, except that sections one through seven of this local law shall take effect for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000.

PROCUREMENT

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR), published each business day, lists notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement information. Solicitation notices for most procurements above $25,000 for goods and services, $50,000 for construction and construction-related services, and $100,000 for information technology are published for at least one day. Other types of procurement such as sole source require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days.

Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. except legal holidays.

BIDDERS LIST APPLICATIONS

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction related services each year. The NYC's Procurement Policy Board rules require that agencies primarily solicit from bidder/proposer lists developed for each commodity/category. Suppliers interested in being placed on such lists may obtain an application from the following agencies:

Goods

● Department of Citywide Administrative Services, Division of Municipal Supplies, Office of Vendor Relations, 1 Centre St.,18th Floor, NY, NY 10007. (212) 669-8562.

Construction & Construction Related Services

● Mayor's Office of Construction, Bidders List Unit, 75 Park Place, 7th Floor, New York, NY 10007. (212) 788-2502.

All Other Services

● Mayor's Office of Contracts, Bidders List Unit, 253 Broadway, 9th Floor, New York, NY 10007. (212) 788-0010. Applications may also be obtained directly from each City agency. Relevant names, addresses, and telephone numbers are listed in Chapter 4 of the Vendor Information Manual.(see next section)

VENDOR INFORMATION MANUAL

This manual contains information on how to do business with the City. It can be obtained, at no cost, from the Department of Business Services, 110 William Street - 2nd floor, New York 10038. Request should be made to Gordon Richards, Director - Procurement Outreach Program, (212) 513-6356 (Tel) or (212) 618-8899 (Fax).

PREQUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from prequalified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a prequalified list, criteria for prequalification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to prequalify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questioner may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of prequalified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearing (OATH) Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of prequalified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Board of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority.Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10 am to 3 pm. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contracts at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business.

In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it:

(1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and

(2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community.

To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Business Services,

110 William Street, 2nd Floor,

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July. The Procurement Policy Board annually publishes prompt payment results, which may be obtained by calling (212) 788-7820.

To learn more about the City's prompt payment policy, you can obtain a copy of the City's Vendor Payment Guidelines form the Procurement Policy Board, 51 Chambers Street, Room 1126, New York 10007 by calling (212) 788-7820

PROCUREMENT POLICY BOARD RULES

To obtain a copy of the Procurement Policy Board Rules either in hard copy or on disk, call the Procurement Policy Board office, (212) 788-7820. The Rules may also be accessed on the City Website, http://NYC.GOV.

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations: Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, to Services, or to Construction. Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

DEVELOPMENT TRANSITIONAL RESIDENCES FOR HOMELESS ADULTS AND FAMILIES AND DROP IN CENTERS FOR ADULTS – CSP – PIN# 071-00S003262 – The Department of Homeless Services is soliciting proposals from organizations interested in developing and operating transitional residences for homeless adults and families and drop-in centers for adults. This is an open-ended solicitation; there is no due date for submission. Proposals will be reviewed by the Department as they are received and contracts will be awarded on an on-going basis, until the agency's capacity needs are met. DHS reserves the right to award a contract on the basis of initial offers received without discussion. Contracts will be awarded to responsible applicants whose negotiated offers are determined to be the most advantageous to the City, taking into consideration the price and other such factors and criteria set-fourth in the RFP. Contract award will be subject to the timely completion of contract negotiations between the agency and the selected proposer.

It is anticipated that the transitional residence contracts will range from 5 to 30 years and the drop-in centers will be for three years with one three year option to renew.

Pursuant to Section 312(c)(1)(ii) of the New York City Charter, the Competitive Sealed Bid procurement method is not the most advantageous method because judgement is required in evaluating competing proposals, and it is in the best interest of the city to require a balancing of price, quality and other factors.

Thus, pursuant to Section 3-03(c) of the Procurement Policy Board Rules, the open ended RFP will be used because the Department will select qualified providers to develop and operate transitional residences in order to address the need to create additional shelter capacity citywide. In addition, this open-ended method will provide interested applicants an opportunity to propose sites for the targeted population, as they become available for shelter development.

All proposers must meet the following minimum qualifications 1) must have a tax exempt status under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and or be legally incorporated and 2) must demonstrate that they have, or can obtain by the contract start date, site control of the proposed facility location.

Any organization that believes it can provide these services may contact: Calvin Pitter, Deputy Agency Chief Contracting Officer at the Department of Homeless Services at (212) 361-8000, 33 Beaver Street 13th Flr., New York, NY 10004, to request a copy of the application, which is available for pick-up only Monday through Friday on business days between the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Notice of Promulgation

Notice of Opportunity to Comment On Proposed Rules Governing Tax Exemption and Tax Abatement under §489 of the Real Property Tax Law and § 11-243 of the New York City Administrative Code

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN THE Commissioner of Housing Preservation and Development by §1802 (6)(c) and in accordance with the requirements of §1043 of the New York City Charter that the Department of Housing Preservation and Development intends to modify the rules governing tax exemption under §489 of the Real Property Tax Law of the State of New York and §11-243, formerly §J-51-2.5, of the Administrative Code of the City of New York. Proposed additions to the rules are underlined and proposed deletions are [bracketed].

Jerilyn Perine, Commissioner
November 20, 2000

Section 1. §5-07(f)(2) of Chapter 5 of Title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended to read as follows:

(2) The real estate taxes [or water or sewer charges] and other charges having tax lien status with respect to the building (and land) total $1,000 or more and remain unpaid for one year after the same are due and payable to the City and the applicant or his or her predecessor in title has not entered into an installment agreement with the City which provides for the payment of delinquent taxes, assessments or other legal charges pursuant to §11-401 et seq. of the Administrative Code or has entered into an installment agreement but all payments required by said agreement have not been paid when due.

Section 2. §5-07 of Chapter 5 of Title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision (j) to read as follows:

(j) The Department of Finance shall use the following procedure to effect revocation and re-instatement of tax benefits for non-payment of real estate taxes:

(1) In January of each calendar year, the Department of Finance shall notify the owner of such outstanding real estate taxes (as defined in paragraph 2 of §5-07 (f)) pursuant to §5-07(g) of these Rules. Following the date of this notification, the owner shall have sixty (60) days to pay such outstanding taxes. This shall constitute the first cure period.

(2) If the owner has paid such outstanding taxes during the first cure period (or entered into a valid installment agreement with the City), the tax exemption and/or abatement benefits shall continue on the property. If the owner has not paid such outstanding taxes before the expiration of the first cure period, the Department of Finance shall revoke all tax exemption and/or abatement benefits for the tax year commencing July 1 after the date of the beginning of the first cure period.

(3) Following the expiration of the first cure period, the Department of Finance shall again notify the owner of such outstanding real estate taxes (as defined in paragraph 2 of §5-07 (f)) pursuant to §5-07(g) of these Rules. Following the date of this notification, the owner shall have ninety (90) days to pay such outstanding taxes. This shall constitute the second cure period.

(4) If the owner has paid such outstanding taxes during the second cure period (or entered into a valid installment agreement with the City), the Department of Finance shall, upon notification by the taxpayer, reinstate tax exemption and/or abatement benefits to the property for the tax year commencing July 1 after the date of the beginning of the first cure period. If the owner has not paid such outstanding taxes before the expiration of the second cure period, the property shall irrevocably lose all tax exemption and/or abatement benefits for such tax year, and the Department of Finance shall also revoke all tax exemption and/or abatement benefits for all tax years commencing on or after the second July 1 that follows the date of the beginning of the first cure period.

(5) Following the expiration of the second cure period, the Department of Finance shall again notify the owner of such outstanding real estate taxes (as defined in paragraph 2 of §5-07 (f)) pursuant to §5-07(g) of these Rules. Following the date of this notification, the owner shall have one-hundred and eighty (180) days to pay such outstanding taxes. This shall constitute the third cure period.

(6) If the owner has paid such outstanding taxes during the third cure period (or entered into a valid installment agreement with the City), the Department of Finance shall reinstate the tax exemption and/or abatement benefits to the property for all tax years commencing on or after July 1 after the date of the beginning of the first cure period. If the owner has not paid such outstanding taxes before the expiration of the third cure period, the property owner shall irrevocably lose all J-51 tax exemption and/or abatement benefits awarded by HPD for such tax years.

(7) The Commissioner may exempt projects assisted with Substantial Governmental Assistance or projects supervised or monitored by HPD from the procedures in this subdivision by giving notice in writing to the Department of Finance, Attn: Director of Exemptions, provided, further, that projects exempted from these procedures shall continue to have tax exemption and/or abatement benefits revoked for the period of their tax delinquency for failure to pay real estate taxes pursuant to the provisions of §5-07(f)(2).

(8) All claims for reinstatement of J-51 tax exemption and/or abatement benefits resulting from revocations made prior to the effective date of these Rules must be made in writing to the Department of Finance, Property Exemption Unit, within one year of the effective date of these Rules.

Section 3. Paragraph 5 of subdivision (f) of §5-07 of Chapter 5 of Title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended to read as follows:

(5) Benefits granted hereunder shall not be withdrawn if within thirty (30) days after notice of a breach or omission pursuant to §5-07(g), the purported breach or omission has been cured or the owner has established to the satisfaction of the Office or the Department of Finance that it did not occur.

Section 4. Subdivision (g) of §5-07 of Chapter 5 of Title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended to read as follows:

(g) Prior to revocation or reduction of tax exemption and tax abatement hereunder, notice of the breach or omission shall be given either by the Office or by the Department of Finance to the applicant by [certified] regular mail to the address to which the Department of Finance sends tax bills or to such other address for the applicant on record with the Department of Finance, and to the mortgagee if registered [with the Office] to receive tax bill from the Department of Finance, [or to such other address as may be provided by the applicant.] Benefits shall not be withdrawn if within thirty (30) days after notice of breach or omission the owner establishes that such breach or omission did not occur.

Section 5. Subdivision (c) of §5-08 of Chapter 5 of Title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended by adding a new item for food waste disposers to the Itemized Cost Breakdown Schedule:

ITEM	UNITS	ALLOWANCE
16. Food Waste Disposers.[13]	units	$300

Statement of Basis and Purpose

The proposed rules add the installation of food waste disposers in multiple dwellings as a J-51 eligible, non-MCI plumbing item. Local Law 74 of 1997 permits food waste disposers to be installed in residential kitchens throughout the City, as of October, 1997. Research also indicates that such devices can divert substantial amounts of solid waste from the City's landfills and enrich the quality of the septic sludge the City produces, thereby improving the City's solid waste management function. The proposed rules also change the procedures for revocation of tax benefits and add a new procedure for re-instatement of tax benefits following revocation. These changes will make the process of revocation of J-51 tax benefits more efficient and less cumbersome for the Department of Finance, which implements all J-51 benefits awarded by HPD.

For #general large-scale developments# involving several #zoning lots# but planned as a unit, the district regulations may impose unnecessary rigidities and thereby prevent achievement of the best possible site plan within the overall density and #bulk# controls. (i) no distribution of #bulk# across the boundary of two districts shall be permitted for a #use# utilizing such #bulk# unless such #use# is permitted in both districts;

(ii) when a #general large-scale development# is located partially in a #Residence District# or in a C1, C2, C3 or C4-1 District and partially in other #Commercial# or #Manufacturing Districts#, no transfer of commercial #floor area# to a #Residence District# or to a C1, C2, C3 or C4-1 District from other districts shall be permitted;

(1) the #uses# are appropriate for the location and blend harmoniously with the rest of the #general large-scale development#; and

(2) the #streets# providing access to such #uses# will be adequate to handle the traffic generated thereby.

The Commission may prescribe appropriate conditions and safeguards to minimize adverse effects on the character of the development.

(b) Location of #commercial uses#

~~(1) In C6 Districts, the City Planning Commission may modify the regulations of Section 32-65 (Permitted Projection or Height of Signs) for #signs#, other than #advertising signs#, on a non-#residential building#, provided that such #signs# will not be incompatible with the character of the surrounding area.~~

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR), published each business day, lists notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement information. Solicitation notices for most procurements above $25,000 for goods and services, $50,000 for construction and construction-related services, and $100,000 for information technology are published for at least one day. Other types of procurement such as sole source require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days.

Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. except legal holidays.

BIDDERS LIST APPLICATIONS

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction related services each year. The NYC's Procurement Policy Board rules require that agencies primarily solicit from bidder/proposer lists developed for each commodity/category. Suppliers interested in being placed on such lists may obtain an application from the following agencies:

Goods

● Department of Citywide Administrative Services, Division of Municipal Supplies, Office of Vendor Relations, 1 Centre St.,18th Floor, NY, NY 10007. (212) 669-8562.

Construction & Construction Related Services

● Mayor's Office of Construction, Bidders List Unit, 75 Park Place, 7th Floor, New York, NY 10007. (212) 788-2502.

All Other Services

● Mayor's Office of Contracts, Bidders List Unit, 253 Broadway, 9th Floor, New York, NY 10007. (212) 788-0010. Applications may also be obtained directly from each City agency. Relevant names, addresses, and telephone numbers are listed in Chapter 4 of the Vendor Information Manual.(see next section)

VENDOR INFORMATION MANUAL

This manual contains information on how to do business with the City. It can be obtained, at no cost, from the Department of Business Services, 110 William Street - 2nd floor, New York 10038. Request should be made to Gordon Richards, Director - Procurement Outreach Program, (212) 513-6356 (Tel) or (212) 618-8899 (Fax).

PREQUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from prequalified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a prequalified list, criteria for prequalification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to prequalify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questioner may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of prequalified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearing (OATH) Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of prequalified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10 am to 3 pm. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contracts at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business.

In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it:

(1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and

(2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community.

To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Business Services,

110 William Street, 2nd Floor,

New York, New York 10038 (212) 618-8782.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July. The Procurement Policy Board annually publishes prompt payment results, which may be obtained by calling (212) 788-7820.

To learn more about the City's prompt payment policy, you can obtain a copy of the City's Vendor Payment Guidelines form the Procurement Policy Board, 51 Chambers Street, Room 1126, New York 10007 by calling (212) 788-7820

PROCUREMENT POLICY BOARD RULES

To obtain a copy of the Procurement Policy Board Rules either in hard copy or on disk, call the Procurement Policy Board office, (212) 788-7820. The Rules may also be accessed on the City Website, http://NYC.GOV.

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations: Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, to Services, or to Construction. Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

DEVELOPMENT TRANSITIONAL RESIDENCES FOR HOMELESS ADULTS AND FAMILIES AND DROP IN CENTERS FOR ADULTS – CSP – PIN# 071-00S003262 – The Department of Homeless Services is soliciting proposals from organizations interested in developing and operating transitional residences for homeless adults and families and drop-in centers for adults. This is an open-ended solicitation; there is no due date for submission. Proposals will be reviewed by the Department as they are received and contracts will be awarded on an on-going basis, until the agency's capacity needs are met. DHS reserves the right to award a contract on the basis of initial offers received without discussion. Contracts will be awarded to responsible applicants whose negotiated offers are determined to be the most advantageous to the City, taking into consideration the price and other such factors and criteria set-fourth in the RFP. Contract award will be subject to the timely completion of contract negotiations between the agency and the selected proposer.

It is anticipated that the transitional residence contracts will range from 5 to 30 years and the drop-in centers will be for three years with one three year option to renew.
Pursuant to Section 312(c)(1)(ii) of the New York City Charter, the Competitive Sealed Bid procurement method is not the most advantageous method because judgement is required in evaluating competing proposals, and it is in the best interest of the city to require a balancing of price, quality and other factors.

Thus, pursuant to Section 3-03(c) of the Procurement Policy Board Rules, the open ended RFP will be used because the Department will select qualified providers to develop and operate transitional residences in order to address the need to create additional shelter capacity citywide. In addition, this open-ended method will provide interested applicants an opportunity to propose sites for the targeted population, as they become available for shelter development.

All proposers must meet the following minimum qualifications 1) must have a tax exempt status under 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and or be legally incorporated and 2) must demonstrate that they have, or can obtain by the contract start date, site control of the proposed facility location.

Any organization that believes it can provide these services may contact: Calvin Pitter, Deputy Agency Chief Contracting Officer at the Department of Homeless Services at (212) 361-8000, 33 Beaver Street 13th Flr., New York, NY 10004, to request a copy of the application, which is available for pick-up only Monday through Friday on business days between the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

PROCUREMENT

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR), published each business day, lists notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement information. Solicitation notices for most procurements above $25,000 for goods and services, $50,000 for construction and construction-related services, and $100,000 for information technology are published for at least one day. Other types of procurement such as sole source require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days.

Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. except legal holidays.

BIDDERS LIST APPLICATIONS

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction related services each year. The NYC's Procurement Policy Board rules require that agencies primarily solicit from bidder/proposer lists developed for each commodity/category. Suppliers interested in being placed on such lists may obtain an application from the following agencies:

Goods

● Department of Citywide Administrative Services, Division of Municipal Supplies, Office of Vendor Relations, 1 Centre St.,18th Floor, NY, NY 10007. (212) 669-8562.

Construction & Construction Related Services

Request should be made to Gordon Richards, Director - Procurement Outreach Program, (212) 513-6356 (Tel) or (212) 618-8899 (Fax).

PREQUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from prequalified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a prequalified list, criteria for prequalification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to prequalify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questioner may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of prequalified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearing (OATH) Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of prequalified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July. The Procurement Policy Board annually publishes prompt payment results, which may be obtained by calling (212) 788-7820.

To learn more about the City's prompt payment policy, you can obtain a copy of the City's Vendor Payment Guidelines form the Procurement Policy Board, 51 Chambers Street, Room 1126, New York 10007 by calling (212) 788-7820

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, to Services, or to Construction. Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed.
