WATER BOARD

■ PUBLIC HEARINGS

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT in accordance with Section 1045-j (3) of the Public Authorities Law, public hearings will be held on May 1, 2 and 3, 2006, concerning proposed rates and charges to be effective July 1, 2006, for the use of, or services furnished, rendered or made available by the Water and Wastewater System of the City of New York (the "System") and concerning changes to certain billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges to be incorporated into the New York City Water Board's Rate Schedule effective July 1, 2006. The hearings will be held as follows:

Borough	Location	Date/Time
Manhattan	St. John's University Manhattan, Room 118 101 Murray Street New York, NY 10007	Monday May 1, 2006 5:30 PM
Queens	Department of Environmental Protection Lecture Room, 6th Floor 59-17 Junction Boulevard Flushing, NY 11373	Tuesday May 2, 2006 1:00 PM
Brooklyn	Brooklyn College Student Center Alumni Lounge, Rm. 409 (opposite Whitehead Hall) East 27th Street and Campus Road Brooklyn, NY 11210	Tuesday May 2, 2006 6:00 PM
Bronx	Herbert H. Lehman College Carman Hall, Rm. B-39 250 Bedford Park Boulevard West Bronx, NY 10468	Wednesday May 3, 2006 9:30 AM
Staten Island	College of Staten Island Center for the Arts, Recital Hall 2800 Victory Boulevard Staten Island, NY 10314	Wednesday May 3, 2006 6:00 PM

I. It is anticipated that there will be a change from currently effective water rates and wastewater charges for services provided during the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2006.

(1) Metered and unmetered water rates will increase by 9.4%.
(2) Wastewater charges will remain at 159% of water charges.
(3) The regulated rate for water provided to municipalities and water districts outside of the City which does not exceed the allowance quantities set forth in Section 24-360 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York will be increased, subject to a separate public notice and hearings to be conducted in June 2006, to an amount currently anticipated to be $660.48 per million gallons, and the rate charged for water provided to municipalities and water districts outside of the City which exceeds the allowance quantities of water set forth in Section 24-360 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York will be equal to the in-City metered rate, currently anticipated to be $2,419.79 per million gallons.

II. It is also anticipated that changes to certain billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges will be considered.

(1) Multiple Family Conservation Program (MCP) - The deadline for filing an application for the MCP, currently set forth as December 31, 2006, will be extended by two years to December 31, 2008. Other billing programs due to expire June 30, 2007 in connection with the MCP also will be extended by two years to June 30, 2009.
(2) Miscellaneous Fees for Wastewater Service – The current fee of $200 imposed when, at the request of a customer, the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) performs a dye test to determine the existence of a connection to the wastewater system will be extended to include any engineering field investigation performed in lieu of a dye test which determines the availability and/or condition of a wastewater connection.
(3) Letter of Authorization (LOA) – The maximum valid term of an LOA will be limited to one year. In addition, if a valid LOA is on file with DEP, a new LOA designating a different representative will not be accepted until the property owner withdraws in writing the previously filed LOA.
(4) Existing Water Board and DEP policies and procedures will be iterated in the Rate Schedule in the interest of providing a more complete source of information to the Board's customers including the following:

a. DEP's responsibility for the maintenance and repair of water meters used for billing purposes does not extend to the building's plumbing system, including but not limited to service lines, control valves, check valves, and internal piping which are the responsibility of the property owner. Accordingly, owners are responsible for ensuring that the building's plumbing system is in an adequate state of repair so as to enable DEP to repair, upgrade or replace the meter.
b. Currently, DEP may assess a fee when a water meter requires repair or replacement due to the customer's vandalism or other actions. The term "other actions" will be replaced with the more specific term "failure to reasonably protect the meter or components."

All members of the public who wish to obtain copies of the Board's Information Booklet describing the rate proposal, and changes to billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges, or who wish to testify at a hearing should contact Kevin Kunkle, New York City Water Board, 59-17 Junction Boulevard, 8th Floor, Flushing, NY 11373, Telephone (718) 595-3601 not later than April 27, 2006. Oral testimony will be limited to five (5) minutes duration. A copy of any prepared or written statement may be submitted to the Water Board at the above address at least two days prior to the meeting.

NEW YORK CITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION
DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The City of New York announces the public comment for a substantial amendment to the 2006 Consolidated Plan. The amendment incorporates a HUD Economic Development Initiative (EDI) grant and a Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program into its approved 2006 Consolidated Plan.

The public comment period will begin on April 7, 2006 and extend thirty (30) days to May 8, 2006.

The City of New York expects to use a $2 million EDI grant to support a $3 million Section 108 loan to enable The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. to acquire and construct a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Foundation's "Cultural Facility Project" will comprise a black box performance space, dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor and will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc., allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios. In addition to providing services to the community, the Project will retain or create approximately 304 jobs.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million.

The purpose of EDI grant funds is to minimize the potential loss of future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) allocations by strengthening the economic feasibility of the projects financed with Section 108 funds, by directly enhancing the security of the guaranteed loan or by using a combination of these or other risk mitigation techniques. The public entity receiving Section 108 funds must pledge that its CDBG funds will be used in the event other financial resources are insufficient to repay a Section 108 debt obligation.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766.

Written comments concerning the amendment to the Consolidated Plan should be sent by close of business, May 8, 2006 to: Charles V. Sorrentino, Consolidated Plan Coordinator, Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street 4N, New York, N.Y. 10007 (Fax 212-720-3495).

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, COMMUNITY BOARDS, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

In accordance with the Section 108 Loan Program regulations at 24 CFR Part 570.704 regarding the application process for loan guarantees, notice is hereby given that the City intends to submit to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) a Section 108 Loan application for the "Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. Cultural Facility Project" (the "Cultural Facility Project").

The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. proposes to create the Cultural Facility Project by acquiring and constructing a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Cultural Facility Project will comprise a black box performance space, 4-5 high quality dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Cultural Facility Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor. The Cultural Facility Project will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. by allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million. It is anticipated that the Cultural Facility Project will receive a HUD Economic Development Initiative Grant of $2 million to complement the requested Section 108 Loan of $3 million to assist in financing the project. The proposed activities meet the Section 108 Loan Program's economic development eligibility requirements at 24 CFR Part 570.703(a) and (i)(1)(2) and the national objective requirement at 570.208(a)(1)(i). The City of New York is pledging its future Community Development Block Grant funds as a condition of receiving the Section 108 Loan Guarantee. Community Development funds are pledged as security to ensure repayment.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766. Written comments should be sent to Ms. Kent at EDC, 110 William Street, New York, New York 10038 by May 8, 2006.

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:
Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.
If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

WATER BOARD

■ PUBLIC HEARINGS

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT in accordance with Section 1045-j (3) of the Public Authorities Law, public hearings will be held on May 1, 2 and 3, 2006, concerning proposed rates and charges to be effective July 1, 2006, for the use of, or services furnished, rendered or made available by the Water and Wastewater System of the City of New York (the "System") and concerning changes to certain billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges to be incorporated into the New York City Water Board's Rate Schedule effective July 1, 2006. The hearings will be held as follows:

Borough	Location	Date/Time
Manhattan	St. John's University Manhattan, Room 118 101 Murray Street New York, NY 10007	Monday May 1, 2006 5:30 PM
Queens	Department of Environmental Protection Lecture Room, 6th Floor 59-17 Junction Boulevard Flushing, NY 11373	Tuesday May 2, 2006 1:00 PM
Brooklyn	Brooklyn College Student Center Alumni Lounge, Rm. 409 (opposite Whitehead Hall) East 27th Street and Campus Road Brooklyn, NY 11210	Tuesday May 2, 2006 6:00 PM
Bronx	Herbert H. Lehman College Carman Hall, Rm. B-39 250 Bedford Park Boulevard West Bronx, NY 10468	Wednesday May 3, 2006 9:30 AM
Staten Island	College of Staten Island Center for the Arts, Recital Hall 2800 Victory Boulevard Staten Island, NY 10314	Wednesday May 3, 2006 6:00 PM

I. It is anticipated that there will be a change from currently effective water rates and wastewater charges for services provided during the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2006.

(1) Metered and unmetered water rates will increase by 9.4%.
(2) Wastewater charges will remain at 159% of water charges.
(3) The regulated rate for water provided to municipalities and water districts outside of the City which does not exceed the allowance quantities set forth in Section 24-360 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York will be increased, subject to a separate public notice and hearings to be conducted in June 2006, to an amount currently anticipated to be $660.48 per million gallons, and the rate charged for water provided to municipalities and water districts outside of the City which exceeds the allowance quantities of water set forth in Section 24-360 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York will be equal to the in-City metered rate, currently anticipated to be $2,419.79 per million gallons.

II. It is also anticipated that changes to certain billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges will be considered.

(1) Multiple Family Conservation Program (MCP) - The deadline for filing an application for the MCP, currently set forth as December 31, 2006, will be extended by two years to December 31, 2008. Other billing programs due to expire June 30, 2007 in connection with the MCP also will be extended by two years to June 30, 2009.
(2) Miscellaneous Fees for Wastewater Service – The current fee of $200 imposed when, at the request of a customer, the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) performs a dye test to determine the existence of a connection to the wastewater system will be extended to include any engineering field investigation performed in lieu of a dye test which determines the availability and/or condition of a wastewater connection.
(3) Letter of Authorization (LOA) – The maximum valid term of an LOA will be limited to one year. In addition, if a valid LOA is on file with DEP, a new LOA designating a different representative will not be accepted until the property owner withdraws in writing the previously filed LOA.
(4) Existing Water Board and DEP policies and procedures will be iterated in the Rate Schedule in the interest of providing a more complete source of information to the Board's customers including the following:

a. DEP's responsibility for the maintenance and repair of water meters used for billing purposes does not extend to the building's plumbing system, including but not limited to service lines, control valves, check valves, and internal piping which are the responsibility of the property owner. Accordingly, owners are responsible for ensuring that the building's plumbing system is in an adequate state of repair so as to enable DEP to repair, upgrade or replace the meter.

b. Currently, DEP may assess a fee when a water meter requires repair or replacement due to the customer's vandalism or other actions. The term "other actions" will be replaced with the more specific term "failure to reasonably protect the meter or components."

All members of the public who wish to obtain copies of the Board's Information Booklet describing the rate proposal, and changes to billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges, or who wish to testify at a hearing should contact Kevin Kunkle, New York City Water Board, 59-17 Junction Boulevard, 8th Floor, Flushing, NY 11373, Telephone (718) 595-3601 not later than April 27, 2006. Oral testimony will be limited to five (5) minutes duration. A copy of any prepared or written statement may be submitted to the Water Board at the above address at least two days prior to the meeting.

This project is considered highly technical in terms of facade restoration. The structure was completed in 1929. The bulk of the work for this project entails Structural Steel Restoration, Granite Restoration and Mortar and Re-pointing of the Indiana Limestone. AGENCY RULES

TAXI AND LIMOUSINE COMMISSION

NOTICE

Notice of Promulgation of Rules

Notice is hereby given in accordance with section 1043(e) of the Charter of the City of New York ("Charter") that the Taxi and Limousine Commission hereby promulgates rules relating to digital recording of hearings.

The rules are promulgated pursuant to sections 1043 and 2303(b)(11) and (c) of the Charter and section 19-503 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York.

These rules were published for comment in The City Record on March 1, 2006, and a public hearing in connection with these rules was held on April 4, 2006, before the Taxi and Limousine Commission. Pursuant to section 1043(e)(1)(c) of the Charter, these rules will take effect 30 days following publication in The City Record.

Statement of Basis and Purpose of Rule

The rule allows for digital recording of hearings conducted in the administrative tribunal of the Taxi and Limousine Commission ("TLC"). Previously, hearings were tape recorded, and section 8-13 of the TLC's rules contains numerous references to tape recordings and cassette tapes. The TLC is upgrading from audiotape to digital recording of hearings, and the rule change makes the appropriate technical changes in section 8-13.

Prior to the present amendment, respondents who requested copies of tape recordings were required to supply blank cassette tapes with the requests. The amended rule provides that a form to be prescribed by the TLC Chairperson will contain instructions on the submission of requests for copies of recordings. Those instructions will direct respondents to submit any blank recording medium that may be required. However, it is anticipated that in most cases copies of digital recordings of hearings will be e-mailed to respondents who request copies of such recordings. It is also anticipated that a respondent who is unable to receive e-mail may be required to submit a blank CD-ROM.

Section 1. Subdivisions (a) and (c) of section 8-13 of chapter 8 of title 35 of the Rules of the City of New York are amended to read as follows:

[Material to be deleted appears in brackets.]
Material to be added is underscored.

§ 8-13 Procedures on Appeal.

(a) The respondent may appeal the decision of an ALJ as follows:

(i) An appeal must be addressed to the Deputy Commissioner for Legal Affairs/General Counsel and received within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the decision to be appealed.

(ii) The appeal must be accompanied by a copy of the ALJ decision and proof that all fines imposed have been paid in full.

(iii) The respondent may request a [taped] copy of the recording of the hearing within seven (7) calendar days of the ALJ's determination. Such request must be made in writing [and accompanied by a blank cassette tape] on a form to be prescribed by the Chairperson. Such form shall be completed and submitted in accordance with instructions to be printed on the form. An appeal must be received by the Commission within twenty-one (21) days of the [mailing of the tape recorded] issuance of the requested copy by the Commission, whether by mailing or otherwise.

(c) The Commission may seek review of a determination by an Administrative Law Judge by filing an appeal with the Deputy Commissioner for Legal Affairs/General Counsel within thirty (30) calendar days of such determination. If a Commission appeal is filed, the respondent will be notified by mail. The appeal will include a written statement setting forth the basis for the appeal. The respondent may respond to the appeal within twenty-one (21) calendar days of the mailing of the appeal. The respondent may request a [taped] copy of the recording of the hearing within seven (7) calendar days of the notice of appeal. Such request must be in writing [to the Commission and must be accompanied by a blank cassette tape] on a form to be prescribed by the Chairperson. Such form shall be completed and submitted in accordance with instructions to be printed on the form. If a respondent requests [such a tape] a copy of the recording of the hearing, his or her time to respond to the notice of appeal is extended until twenty-one (21) calendar days after the [mailing of the tape recording] issuance of the requested copy by the Commission, whether by mailing or otherwise.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The City of New York announces the public comment for a substantial amendment to the 2006 Consolidated Plan. The amendment incorporates a HUD Economic Development Initiative (EDI) grant and a Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program into its approved 2006 Consolidated Plan.

The public comment period will begin on April 7, 2006 and extend thirty (30) days to May 8, 2006.

The City of New York expects to use a $2 million EDI grant to support a $3 million Section 108 loan to enable The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. to acquire and construct a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Foundation's "Cultural Facility Project" will comprise a black box performance space, dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor and will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc., allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios. In addition to providing services to the community, the Project will retain or create approximately 304 jobs.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million.

The purpose of EDI grant funds is to minimize the potential loss of future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) allocations by strengthening the economic feasibility of the projects financed with Section 108 funds, by directly enhancing the security of the guaranteed loan or by using a combination of these or other risk mitigation techniques. The public entity receiving Section 108 funds must pledge that its CDBG funds will be used in the event other financial resources are insufficient to repay a Section 108 debt obligation.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766.

Written comments concerning the amendment to the Consolidated Plan should be sent by close of business, May 8, 2006 to: Charles V. Sorrentino, Consolidated Plan Coordinator, Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street 4N, New York, N.Y. 10007 (Fax 212-720-3495).

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, COMMUNITY BOARDS, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

In accordance with the Section 108 Loan Program regulations at 24 CFR Part 570.704 regarding the application process for loan guarantees, notice is hereby given that the City intends to submit to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) a Section 108 Loan application for the "Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. Cultural Facility Project" (the "Cultural Facility Project").

The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. proposes to create the Cultural Facility Project by acquiring and constructing a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Cultural Facility Project will comprise a black box performance space, 4-5 high quality dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Cultural Facility Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor. The Cultural Facility Project will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. by allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million. It is anticipated that the Cultural Facility Project will receive a HUD Economic Development Initiative Grant of $2 million to complement the requested Section 108 Loan of $3 million to assist in financing the project. The proposed activities meet the Section 108 Loan Program's economic development eligibility requirements at 24 CFR Part 570.703(a) and (i)(1)(2) and the national objective requirement at 570.208(a)(1)(i). The City of New York is pledging its future Community Development Block Grant funds as a condition of receiving the Section 108 Loan Guarantee. Community Development funds are pledged as security to ensure repayment.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766. Written comments should be sent to Ms. Kent at EDC, 110 William Street, New York, New York 10038 by May 8, 2006.

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:
Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.
If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are conducted on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

The Rules may also be accessed on the City Website, http://NYC.GOV.Selltonyc

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

Public Scoping Meeting - First Avenue Properties Rezoning (CEQR No. 06DCP039M)

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to Section 5-07 of the Rules of Procedure for Environmental Review (CEQR) and 6 NYCRR 617.8 (State Environmental Quality Review) that the New York City Department of City Planning, acting on behalf of the City Planning Commission as CEQR lead agency, has determined that a Draft Supplemental Environmental Impact Statement (SEIS) is to be prepared for the proposed First Avenue Properties Rezoning, CEQR Number 06DCP039M.

A Positive Declaration for the proposal was issued on February 17, 2006 and the first of two public scoping meetings was held on March 28, 2006. A second scoping meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 16, 2006. The second scoping meeting is intended to provide an opportunity for potentially affected community districts throughout New York City to comment on the proposed zoning text amendments associated with the above-referenced proposal. The zoning text amendments concern General Large-Scale Developments and would apply to certain sites in C5 and C6 zoning districts located in Manhattan Community Districts 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 8; Queens Community Districts 2 and 12; and Brooklyn Community District 2.

The meeting will take place at Yeshiva University's Geraldine Shottenstein Cultural Center, 239 East 34th Street, between Second and Third Avenues, New York, New York, 10016. The meeting will be held in two sessions: one beginning at 4:00 PM and another beginning at 7:00 PM.

Public comments are requested with respect to issues to be addressed in the SEIS. Comments will be accepted by the lead agency through Friday, May 26, 2006. Comments should be addressed to Robert Dobruskin, Director, Environmental Assessment and Review Division (EARD), New York City Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street, 4E, New York, New York 10007.

Copies of the Draft Scope of Work and the Environmental Assessment Statement may be obtained from the Environmental Assessment and Review Division (EARD), New York City Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street, 4E, New York, New York 10007, Robert Dobruskin, Director (212) 720-3423; or from the Office of Environmental Coordination, 100 Gold Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038, Robert Kulikowski, Director (212) 788-2937. The Draft Scope of Work and scoping protocol are also available for download at www.nyc.gov/planning.

The proposal involves an application by East River Realty Company, LLC, (ERRC) for a zoning map amendment to change existing C1-9, M1-5 and M3-2 zoning districts to C4-6 and C5-2 zoning districts. The proposal also includes several zoning text amendments, special permits and certifications, described in greater detail below. The project area is generally bounded by First Avenue and the FDR Drive and East 35th and East 41st streets and is located within Community District 6, Manhattan.

The proposed action would facilitate a proposal by the applicant to develop four parcels located at 616 First Avenue (Block 967, Lot 1), 685 First Avenue (Block 945, Lot 33) and 700 and 708 First Avenue/Waterside (Block 970, Lot 1). The development parcels contains an aggregate area of approximately 378,280 square feet.

The applicant intends to develop a total of 4,324,635 gross square feet (gsf) of residential use, 60,725 gsf of community facility use, 1,119,979 gsf of commercial office use, 40,433 gsf of retail use, and 721,018 gsf of below grade space (which includes 314,460 gsf of parking, or 1,183 public spaces and 376 accessory spaces). The proposed development program also includes 149,863 sf (3.44 acres) of publicly accessible open space. The development parcels, previously owned by Con Edison, are presently vacant, with the exception of a parking lot and a decommissioned power generating plant (undergoing demolition). Some portions of the vacant sites are currently being used as support area in connection with ongoing demolition and remediation work.

On November 15, 2000, Con Edison entered into a contract of sale with ERRC for the transfer of its fee interest in the four parcels. The sale of the parcels required discretionary approval from the New York State Public Service Commission (PSC) and, therefore, compliance with Article 8 of the Environmental Conservation Law, State Environmental Quality Review Act, and its implementing regulations (6 NYCRR Part 617) (SEQRA). On June 24, 2002, PSC, acting as the lead agency for the environmental review, accepted the Draft Generic Environmental Impact Statement (DGEIS) as complete and issued it for public comment. Based on the comments received and announcements of other projects in the immediate area of the parcels, the PSC determined that additional environmental analysis would be necessary and prepared a Supplemental DGEIS. The Supplemental DGEIS was completed on May 23, 2003. On January 30, 2004, the PSC adopted and issued a Final Generic Environmental Impact Statement (FGEIS), which incorporated the DGEIS and Supplemental DGEIS.

Because the applicant's development program may result in significant adverse environmental impacts not identified in the FGEIS, an SEIS is being prepared. The SEIS will analyze the extent to which the proposed action could result in any significant adverse environmental impacts not previously identified in the FGEIS.

As noted above, the proposed action would change the existing C1-9, M1-5 and M3-2 zoning districts to C4-6 and C5-2 zoning districts. C1-9 zoning districts allow residential and commercial retail uses built to a maximum FAR of 12.0 (maximum FAR of 2.0 for commercial uses). M1-5 and M2-3 zoning districts allow manufacturing and some commercial uses built to FARs of 5 and 2, respectively. The proposed C4-6 and C5-2 zoning districts allow residential and commercial uses to a maximum FAR of 12 (residential use is allowed in mixed-use buildings in C5-2 districts only if the residential use is located above a commercial use).

In addition to the zoning map amendments, the proposed action includes zoning text changes, special permits and certifications, which are described in detail below.

The proposed action includes the following zoning text amendments to:

- expand the definition of a General Large Scale Development to include, in C5 and C6 zoning districts, for a development with a lot area of at least 5 acres, a zoning lot that contains an existing building that is not integrally related to the other parts of the general large-scale development, provided that the building covers less than 15 percent of the general large-scale development lot area;
- amend Zoning Resolution (ZR) section 74-743 to allow, by special permit, a residential plaza to be located anywhere within a general large scale development without regard for zoning lot lines, provided the general large-scale development has a minimum lot area of 5 acres and is located in a C5 or a C6 zoning district; and
- amend ZR section 74-744 to allow, by special permit and in C5 and C6 zoning districts, for any large scale development with a minimum lot area of 5 acres, one story of Use Group 6A or 6C uses to be located directly over a story containing dwelling units without regard for regulations pertaining to locations of uses within buildings.

The proposed action includes the following special permits:

- to allow a residential plaza to be located anywhere in a General Large Scale Development Plan pursuant to ZR Section 74-74 at Waterside/708 and 685 First Avenue;
- to modify height and setback regulations at all parcels, pursuant to ZR Section 74-74 (General Large Scale Development Plan);
- to modify supplementary use regulations, pursuant to Section 74-744, to allow one story of Use Group 6A or 6C above residential uses, pursuant to Section 32-422, at 708 First Avenue;
- to modify the residential plaza design standards pursuant to ZR Section 74-96 at Waterside/708 and 685 First Avenue;
- to allow a public parking garage pursuant to ZR Sections 13-562 and 74-52 at 616 First Avenue; and
- to allow a public parking garage and an accessory parking garage, pursuant to ZR Sections 13-561, 13-562 and 74-52, at Waterside/708 First Avenue.

The proposed action includes the following ministerial certifications pursuant to:

- ZR Section 26-15 (curb cuts), to allow more than one curb cut on a narrow street for 616 First Avenue and curb cuts for public parking, and loading berths on the FDR Drive Service Road (a wide street) for the 708 First Avenue/Waterside site; and
- ZR Section 37-023, to limit the size of a kiosk in a residential plaza, and to modify the two year operation agreement.

The applicant intends to record a Restrictive Declaration that will contain provisions governing as-of-right development on the four parcels (under the proposed zoning map amendments), in the event that the General Large Scale Development Special Permit is not exercised. These provisions will:

- establish a bulk envelope that will define a) the maximum building heights of each of the buildings, b) the outside dimensions in plan at each height, c) the minimum dimensions between the exterior walls of the building and the lot lines of the zoning lot, and d) the maximum building widths;

- set forth the maximum amount of floor area allowable for each type of use permitted by the proposed zoning;
- provide a minimum east west view corridor on the site, extending from East 39th and 40th Streets and First Avenue towards the river;
- delineate zones within which each pedestrian and vehicular ingress and egress and curb cuts or drop off lanes can be located, as well as the location of service and parking entrances;
- provide appropriate publicly accessible open spaces;
- provide design and location guidelines for retail uses on the development parcels; and
- provide for the implementation of any required mitigation measures for as of right development pursuant to the provisions of the Restrictive Declaration.

In addition to the actions described above, the applicant is seeking modification to a previously approved New York City Board of Standards and Appeals (BSA) special permit authorizing development of a substation at 685 First Avenue. The modification of the special permit is required for new development at the site.

The proposal has an anticipated completion date of 2014. According to the EAS, absent the proposed action in 2014, conditions on the development parcels would remain the same as the existing conditions, with the exception of the ongoing demolition of the decommissioned Waterside power plant (which will occur in the absence of the proposed action).

The hearings will be held as follows:

Staten Island	College of Staten Island Center for the Arts, Recital Hall 2800 Victory Boulevard Staten Island, NY 10314	Wednesday May 3, 2006 6:00 PM

I. It is anticipated that there will be a change from currently effective water rates and wastewater charges for services provided during the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2006.

(1) Metered and unmetered water rates will increase by 9.4%.
(2) Wastewater charges will remain at 159% of water charges.
(3) The regulated rate for water provided to municipalities and water districts outside of the City which does not exceed the allowance quantities set forth in Section 24-360 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York will be increased, subject to a separate public notice and hearings to be conducted in June 2006, to an amount currently anticipated to be $660.48 per million gallons, and the rate charged for water provided to municipalities and water districts outside of the City which exceeds the allowance quantities of water set forth in Section 24-360 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York will be equal to the in-City metered rate, currently anticipated to be $2,419.79 per million gallons.

II. It is also anticipated that changes to certain billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges will be considered.

(1) Multiple Family Conservation Program (MCP) - The deadline for filing an application for the MCP, currently set forth as December 31, 2006, will be extended by two years to December 31, 2008. Other billing programs due to expire June 30, 2007 in connection with the MCP also will be extended by two years to June 30, 2009.
(2) Miscellaneous Fees for Wastewater Service – The current fee of $200 imposed when, at the request of a customer, the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) performs a dye test to determine the existence of a connection to the wastewater system will be extended to include any engineering field investigation performed in lieu of a dye test which determines the availability and/or condition of a wastewater connection.
(3) Letter of Authorization (LOA) – The maximum valid term of an LOA will be limited to one year. In addition, if a valid LOA is on file with DEP, a new LOA designating a different representative will not be accepted until the property owner withdraws in writing the previously filed LOA.
(4) Existing Water Board and DEP policies and procedures will be iterated in the Rate Schedule in the interest of providing a more complete source of information to the Board's customers including the following:

a. DEP's responsibility for the maintenance and repair of water meters used for billing purposes does not extend to the building's plumbing system, including but not limited to service lines, control valves, check valves, and internal piping which are the responsibility of the property owner. Accordingly, owners are responsible for ensuring that the building's plumbing system is in an adequate state of repair so as to enable DEP to repair, upgrade or replace the meter.
b. Currently, DEP may assess a fee when a water meter requires repair or replacement due to the customer's vandalism or other actions. The term "other actions" will be replaced with the more specific term "failure to reasonably protect the meter or components."

All members of the public who wish to obtain copies of the Board's Information Booklet describing the rate proposal, and changes to billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges, or who wish to testify at a hearing should contact Kevin Kunkle, New York City Water Board, 59-17 Junction Boulevard, 8th Floor, Flushing, NY 11373, Telephone (718) 595-3601 not later than April 27, 2006. Oral testimony will be limited to five (5) minutes duration. A copy of any prepared or written statement may be submitted to the Water Board at the above address at least two days prior to the meeting.

SEQRA Classification: Type I

The proposal involves an application by Manhattan Community Board 6 for a 197-a Plan, pursuant to the New York City Charter (Section 197-a), for the eastern portion of Manhattan's Community District 6.

The proposed 197-a Plan has been prepared to address ongoing changes in the eastern portion of Community District 6, defined as the area bounded by East 59th and East 14th streets, the East River and the west side of Second Avenue (for a distance of 100 feet west of Second Avenue).

The proposed 197-a Plan focuses particular attention on areas where significant changes are anticipated. These changes include the following:

- rebuilding of portions of the FDR Drive;
- redevelopment of parts of the Bellevue Hospital and NYU Medical Center campus;
- decommissioning and redevelopment of the Con Edison Waterside properties on First Avenue between East 35th and East 41st;
- construction of a new UNDC building at the Robert Moses Playground site;
- construction of the Second Avenue Subway;
- additional ferry service landings at 34th Street; and
- development of the Perlbinder site at 36-37th Streets on Second Avenue.

In addition to these large-scale individual projects, the Comprehensive Manhattan Waterfront 197-a Plan, adopted in 1997 by the City Council, makes specific recommendations for the area, including the creation of a continuous waterfront esplanade and improved access to the East River waterfront. Portions of the esplanade have already been constructed with the creation of Stuyvesant Cove Park, between East 23rd and East 18th Streets. The proposed 197-a Plan addresses the completion of the esplanade along the entire Community District 6 waterfront.

The Environmental Assessment and Review Division of the Department of City Planning, on behalf of the City Planning Commission, has completed its technical review of the Environmental Assessment Statement dated March 30, 2006, prepared in connection with the ULURP Application (N060273NPM). The City Planning Commission has determined that the proposed action will have no significant effect on the quality of the environment.

The above determination is based on an environmental assessment which finds that no significant effects on the environment which would require an Environmental Impact Statement are foreseeable.

This Negative Declaration has been prepared in accordance with Article 8 of the Environmental Conservation Law 6 NYCRR part 617.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The City of New York announces the public comment for a substantial amendment to the 2006 Consolidated Plan. The amendment incorporates a HUD Economic Development Initiative (EDI) grant and a Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program into its approved 2006 Consolidated Plan.

The public comment period will begin on April 7, 2006 and extend thirty (30) days to May 8, 2006.

The City of New York expects to use a $2 million EDI grant to support a $3 million Section 108 loan to enable The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. to acquire and construct a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Foundation's "Cultural Facility Project" will comprise a black box performance space, dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor and will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc., allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios. In addition to providing services to the community, the Project will retain or create approximately 304 jobs.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million.

The purpose of EDI grant funds is to minimize the potential loss of future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) allocations by strengthening the economic feasibility of the projects financed with Section 108 funds, by directly enhancing the security of the guaranteed loan or by using a combination of these or other risk mitigation techniques. The public entity receiving Section 108 funds must pledge that its CDBG funds will be used in the event other financial resources are insufficient to repay a Section 108 debt obligation.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766.

Written comments concerning the amendment to the Consolidated Plan should be sent by close of business, May 8, 2006 to: Charles V. Sorrentino, Consolidated Plan Coordinator, Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street 4N, New York, N.Y. 10007 (Fax 212-720-3495).

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBMISSION OF A SECTION 108 LOAN APPLICATION TO THE U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT

TO ALL INTERESTED AGENCIES, COMMUNITY BOARDS, GROUPS AND PERSONS:

In accordance with the Section 108 Loan Program regulations at 24 CFR Part 570.704 regarding the application process for loan guarantees, notice is hereby given that the City intends to submit to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) a Section 108 Loan application for the "Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. Cultural Facility Project" (the "Cultural Facility Project").

The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. proposes to create the Cultural Facility Project by acquiring and constructing a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Cultural Facility Project will comprise a black box performance space, 4-5 high quality dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Cultural Facility Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor. The Cultural Facility Project will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. by allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million. It is anticipated that the Cultural Facility Project will receive a HUD Economic Development Initiative Grant of $2 million to complement the requested Section 108 Loan of $3 million to assist in financing the project. The proposed activities meet the Section 108 Loan Program's economic development eligibility requirements at 24 CFR Part 570.703(a) and (i)(1)(2) and the national objective requirement at 570.208(a)(1)(i). The City of New York is pledging its future Community Development Block Grant funds as a condition of receiving the Section 108 Loan Guarantee. Community Development funds are pledged as security to ensure repayment.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766. Written comments should be sent to Ms. Kent at EDC, 110 William Street, New York, New York 10038 by May 8, 2006.

Furthermore, in accordance with 24 CFR 91.505 of the HUD Consolidated Plan regulations regarding amendments, the City of New York announces the public comment period for a substantial amendment to the 2006 Consolidated Plan. The amendment proposes to incorporate the City of New York's Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project Section 108 Loan Project into its approved 2006 Consolidated Plan.

A public hearing to obtain comments on the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project Section 108 Loan will be held on Tuesday, April 11, 2006 at 3:30 P.M. (immediately following the Consolidated Plan hearing) in Spector Hall at the Department of City Planning, 22 Reade St., New York, New York 10007.

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:

Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

WATER BOARD

■ PUBLIC HEARINGS

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT in accordance with Section 1045-j (3) of the Public Authorities Law, public hearings will be held on May 1, 2 and 3, 2006, concerning proposed rates and charges to be effective July 1, 2006, for the use of, or services furnished, rendered or made available by the Water and Wastewater System of the City of New York (the "System") and concerning changes to certain billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges to be incorporated into the New York City Water Board's Rate Schedule effective July 1, 2006. The hearings will be held as follows:

Borough	Location	Date/Time
Manhattan	St. John's University Manhattan, Room 118 101 Murray Street New York, NY 10007	Monday May 1, 2006 5:30 PM
Queens	Department of Environmental Protection Lecture Room, 6th Floor 59-17 Junction Boulevard Flushing, NY 11373	Tuesday May 2, 2006 1:00 PM
Brooklyn	Brooklyn College Student Center Alumni Lounge, Rm. 409 (opposite Whitehead Hall) East 27th Street and Campus Road Brooklyn, NY 11210	Tuesday May 2, 2006 6:00 PM
Bronx	Herbert H. Lehman College Carman Hall, Rm. B-39 250 Bedford Park Boulevard West Bronx, NY 10468	Wednesday May 3, 2006 9:30 AM
Staten Island	College of Staten Island Center for the Arts, Recital Hall 2800 Victory Boulevard Staten Island, NY 10314	Wednesday May 3, 2006 6:00 PM

I. It is anticipated that there will be a change from currently effective water rates and wastewater charges for services provided during the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2006.

(1) Metered and unmetered water rates will increase by 9.4%.
(2) Wastewater charges will remain at 159% of water charges.
(3) The regulated rate for water provided to municipalities and water districts outside of the City which does not exceed the allowance quantities set forth in Section 24-360 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York will be increased, subject to a separate public notice and hearings to be conducted in June 2006, to an amount currently anticipated to be $660.48 per million gallons, and the rate charged for water provided to municipalities and water districts outside of the City which exceeds the allowance quantities of water set forth in Section 24-360 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York will be equal to the in-City metered rate, currently anticipated to be $2,419.79 per million gallons.

II. It is also anticipated that changes to certain billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges will be considered.

(1) Multiple Family Conservation Program (MCP) - The deadline for filing an application for the MCP, currently set forth as December 31, 2006, will be extended by two years to December 31, 2008. Other billing programs due to expire June 30, 2007 in connection with the MCP also will be extended by two years to June 30, 2009.
(2) Miscellaneous Fees for Wastewater Service – The current fee of $200 imposed when, at the request of a customer, the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) performs a dye test to determine the existence of a connection to the wastewater system will be extended to include any engineering field investigation performed in lieu of a dye test which determines the availability and/or condition of a wastewater connection.
(3) Letter of Authorization (LOA) – The maximum valid term of an LOA will be limited to one year. In addition, if a valid LOA is on file with DEP, a new LOA designating a different representative will not be accepted until the property owner withdraws in writing the previously filed LOA.
(4) Existing Water Board and DEP policies and procedures will be iterated in the Rate Schedule in the interest of providing a more complete source of information to the Board's customers including the following:

a. DEP's responsibility for the maintenance and repair of water meters used for billing purposes does not extend to the building's plumbing system, including but not limited to service lines, control valves, check valves, and internal piping which are the responsibility of the property owner. Accordingly, owners are responsible for ensuring that the building's plumbing system is in an adequate state of repair so as to enable DEP to repair, upgrade or replace the meter.
b. Currently, DEP may assess a fee when a water meter requires repair or replacement due to the customer's vandalism or other actions. The term "other actions" will be replaced with the more specific term "failure to reasonably protect the meter or components."

All members of the public who wish to obtain copies of the Board's Information Booklet describing the rate proposal, and changes to billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges, or who wish to testify at a hearing should contact Kevin Kunkle, New York City Water Board, 59-17 Junction Boulevard, 8th Floor, Flushing, NY 11373, Telephone (718) 595-3601 not later than April 27, 2006. Oral testimony will be limited to five (5) minutes duration. A copy of any prepared or written statement may be submitted to the Water Board at the above address at least two days prior to the meeting.

CORRECTION: BALANCE OF FACADE REPAIRS AT 80 CENTRE ST., MANHATTAN – Competitive Sealed Bids – PIN# 856060000673 – DUE 05-09-06 AT 10:00 A.M. – Scope of Work: This is a limestone, Art Deco structure. TAXI AND LIMOUSINE COMMISSION

■ NOTICE

Notice of Promulgation of Rules

Notice is hereby given in accordance with section 1043(e) of the Charter of the City of New York ("Charter") that the Taxi and Limousine Commission ("TLC") hereby promulgates amendments to rules governing issuance and public sale of taxicab licenses.

These amended rules are promulgated pursuant to sections 1043 and 2303(b)(11) and of the Charter and sections 19-503 and 19-532 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York.

Proposed amended rules were published for comment in The City Record on March 1, 2006. A public hearing on those proposed rules was held before the TLC at its offices at 40 Rector Street, 5th Floor, New York, New York 10006 on April 4, 2006 and further amendments were made at the hearing. Pursuant to section 1043(e)(1)(c) of the Charter, these rules will take effect 30 days following publication in The City Record.

Statement of Basis and Purpose of Rules

The rules amend chapter 13 of the rules of the Taxi and Limousine Commission ("TLC"), governing the issuance and public sale of taxicab licenses, generally known as medallions.

These amended rules would apply to the third round of taxicab license auctions authorized by chapter 63 of the laws of 2003 and section 19-532 of the New York City Administrative Code. The first two rounds of auctions were conducted in the spring and fall of 2004.

The amended rules include a number of technical and terminological amendments to existing rules, as well as the following substantive amendments:

- The amended rules expressly allow a minifleet owner to bid on a single restricted medallion (alternative fuel medallion or accessible medallion) to be added to an existing minifleet, in order to expand the pool of eligible bidders.
- The rules eliminate the bidder's option to submit a bond in lieu of a deposit. This amendment is based on the fact that no bidder used the bond option in past auctions.
- The rules provide that tie bids will be decided by drawing at the public bid opening, regardless whether the bidders choose to attend the opening. This provision is intended to eliminate an unnecessary delay in the auction process.
- The rule clarifies that a bidder's failure to submit the required deposit within 30 days of notification of the winning bid, or to close on the bid within 60 days of the bid opening, would result in a disqualification of the winning bidder and forfeiture of the first deposit of $2000 per medallion. This provision is intended to ensure that winning bidders close on their bids promptly, and put their medallions into service promptly.
- The rule expressly provides that closing on a winning bid shall be scheduled only after the winning bidder demonstrates satisfaction with the requirements of medallion ownership and submits proof that the bidder has purchased a vehicle that is eligible for hack-up. This provision is intended to ensure that winning bidders promptly qualify to own medallions, and promptly put their medallions into service.
- The rule states expressly that a winning bidder must hack-up each purchased medallion to a taxicab no later than five business days after closing on the sale, to ensure that new medallions are put into service promptly.
- The rule requires new fingerprints from any winning bidder who does not have fingerprints less than six months old on file with the TLC, rather than three years old as previously provided. The change is required by a procedural change in the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services' processing of fingerprints.
- The rule clarifies that the ratio of independent medallions and minifleet medallions will be maintained by selling unrestricted medallions to the high bidders, without regard to whether the bids are for independent medallions or minifleet medallions, and adjusting the ratio of independent medallions and minifleet medallions in the unrestricted medallion auction as needed to maintain the required overall ratio.

The Chairperson may establish different upset prices for accessible medallions, alternative fuel medallions, unrestricted independent medallions and unrestricted minifleet medallions. (f) The ten (10) highest non-winning bids for unrestricted independent medallion[s] lots and the ten (10) highest non-winning bids for unrestricted minifleet medallion lots shall be notified of reserve status. Separately for accessible medallion lots and for alternative fuel medallion lots, [T]the five (5) highest non-winning bids for alternative fuel medallion[s] lots and the five (5) highest non-winning bids for accessible medallion[s] lots shall also be notified of reserve status. Reserve status may be converted to a winning bid upon the failure of a winning bidder to comply with either subdivision (e) or subdivision (h) of this section [above or to close within sixty (60) days of the bid opening, unless said sixty (60) days be extended by the Chairperson for reasonable cause shown]. In the event that a reserve status is converted to a winning bid, the holder of such reserve status shall be so notified, and the date of notification shall be deemed to be the date of the bid opening for purposes of calculating such holder's deadlines pursuant to this chapter.

(g) The rights of a winning bidder[(s)] are not assignable prior to the close of sale, [provided however,] except that such rights may be assigned to a corporation[, the] by a winning bidder who is a shareholder[s] of [which are the winning bidder(s)]such corporation.

(h) Each winning bidder must demonstrate compliance with all of the requirements applicable for issuance of a taxicab license, and must submit proof of purchase of a vehicle eligible for hack-up pursuant to section 3-03 or section 3-03.1 of this title, before a closing can be scheduled. All sales shall close no later than sixty (60) days after bid opening unless extended by the Chairperson for reasonable cause shown.

(i) All deposits [hereunder] of winning bidders shall be credited toward the sale price or, in the event the winning bidder does not meet the qualifications for issuance of a taxicab license [ownership], refunded to the bidder. [A]However, a winning bidder who fails to comply with the [provisions of] deadlines provided in subdivision (e) or subdivision (h) of this section [above] shall forfeit [all] deposits made pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section [hereunder]. The [Commission]Chairperson will return deposits of non-winning bidders.

(j) In addition to the amount bid, [the highest] each winning bidder[s] will be responsible on the transfer closing date for any applicable taxes or fees, provided however, there will not be any medallion transfer tax collected for this initial issuance of medallions. Each medallion license shall be issued for two (2) years and all the required inspection fees shall be collected at closing.

(k) [The Chairperson is authorized to delegate matters pertaining to the sale and to take such further measures as in his or her discretion may be appropriate to the timely, efficient and fiscally sound sale of the medallions; provided nothing herein shall authorize the Chairperson to waive or reduce any payment or deposit required of any prospective or winning bidder.]

Each medallion sold pursuant to this chapter must be hacked up, as that term is used in section 3-01(a) of this title, no later than the fifth business day following the day of the closing on the sale of the medallion, unless extended by the Chairperson for reasonable cause shown.

(l) Failure of a winning bidder to meet the deadlines provided in subdivision (e) or subdivision (h) of this section regarding a winning bid shall result in the disqualification of that bidder as to that winning bid and forfeiture of deposits made pursuant to subdivision (a) of this section.

§ 13-04 Classifications of Medallions

A medallion issued pursuant to this chapter as an accessible medallion, an alternative fuel medallion, an independent medallion, or a minifleet medallion shall remain so classified despite any change in ownership of the medallion after its issuance.

Notice of Promulgation of Rules

Notice is hereby given in accordance with section 1043(e) of the Charter of the City of New York ("Charter") that the Taxi and Limousine Commission ("TLC") hereby promulgates rules to require for-hire vehicles registered in New York State to have New York State license plates embossed with the legend "T&LC."

These rules are promulgated pursuant to section 1043 of the Charter and section 19-504 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York.

These rules were published for comment in The City Record on March 3, 2006. A public hearing on these proposed rules was held before the TLC at its offices at 40 Rector Street, 5th Floor, New York, New York 10006 on April 4, 2006. Pursuant to section 1043(e)(1)(c) of the Charter, these rules will take effect 30 days following publication in The City Record.

New material is underscored.

Section 1. Subdivision (e) of section 6-12 of title 35 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended by the addition of a new paragraph (3), which reads as follows:

(3) A for-hire vehicle that is registered in New York State for which a for-hire vehicle license is issued or renewed on or after May 10, 2006, must have New York State license plates affixed to the vehicle that are embossed with the legend "T & LC."

Section 2. Section 6-22 of title 35 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended to read as follows:

Rule No.	Penalty	Personal Appearance Required
6-12(e)(2)	$100	No
6-12(e)(3)	$350 and summary suspension until compliance pursuant to section 8-17(b) of this title	No
6-12(f)(1)	$25	No

Statement of Basis and Purpose

Section 6-12(e)(3) requires that licensed for-hire vehicles (liveries, black cars and luxury limousines) that are registered in New York State must have New York State license plates that are embossed with the legend "T&LC" below the license plate number, signifying licensure by TLC as for-hire vehicles. The requirement will apply to for-hire vehicles that are issued new or renewal for-hire vehicle licenses on or after May 10, 2006.

Without this rule, for-hire vehicles registered at New York State addresses outside of New York City are able to obtain license plates that are embossed with the legend "livery" from New York State's Department of Motor Vehicles ("DMV"). DMV has indicated to TLC staff that it will honor the requirement in the rule that TLC-licensed for-hire vehicles must have the "T&LC" legend. Requiring all TLC-licensed for-hire vehicles to have "T&LC" embossed license plates would facilitate recognition of such vehicles by the public, TLC staff, insurance providers, and others.

In particular, TLC staff research indicates that insurers recognize the "T&LC" license plate as an indication that the vehicle is TLC-licensed, and is therefore subject to the mandatory minimum insurance coverage requirements set forth in section 6-11(d)(4) of TLC's rules. Such research further indicates that a for-hire vehicle with "livery" license plates is not recognized by insurers as TLC-licensed, and therefore in some cases owners of such vehicles are able to purchase insurance coverage less than that mandated by TLC rules.

Similarly, mandatory "T&LC" license plates will facilitate the collection the applicable annual $400 commercial New York City motor vehicle tax, which in some cases has been evaded by owners of for-hire vehicles with "livery" license plates.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The City of New York announces the public comment for a substantial amendment to the 2006 Consolidated Plan. The amendment incorporates a HUD Economic Development Initiative (EDI) grant and a Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program into its approved 2006 Consolidated Plan.

The public comment period will begin on April 7, 2006 and extend thirty (30) days to May 8, 2006.

The City of New York expects to use a $2 million EDI grant to support a $3 million Section 108 loan to enable The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. to acquire and construct a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Foundation's "Cultural Facility Project" will comprise a black box performance space, dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor and will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc., allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios. In addition to providing services to the community, the Project will retain or create approximately 304 jobs.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million.

The purpose of EDI grant funds is to minimize the potential loss of future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) allocations by strengthening the economic feasibility of the projects financed with Section 108 funds, by directly enhancing the security of the guaranteed loan or by using a combination of these or other risk mitigation techniques. The public entity receiving Section 108 funds must pledge that its CDBG funds will be used in the event other financial resources are insufficient to repay a Section 108 debt obligation.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766.

Written comments concerning the amendment to the Consolidated Plan should be sent by close of business, May 8, 2006 to: Charles V. Sorrentino, Consolidated Plan Coordinator, Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street 4N, New York, N.Y. 10007 (Fax 212-720-3495).

Section 11.

Each of the steps in the Grievance Procedure, as well as time limits prescribed at each step of this Grievance Procedure, may be waived by mutual agreement of the parties.

Section 12.

The grievance and the arbitration procedure contained in this Agreement shall be the exclusive remedy for the resolution of disputes defined as "grievances" herein. This shall not be interpreted to preclude either party from enforcing the arbitrator's award in court. This Section shall not be construed in any manner to limit the statutory rights and obligations of the Employer under Article XIV of the Civil Service Law.

Section 13. Expedited Arbitration Procedure

a. The parties agree that there is a need for an expedited arbitration process which would allow for the prompt adjudication of the grievances as set forth below.

b. READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:
Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.
If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

PROCUREMENT POLICY BOARD RULES

The Rules may also be accessed on the City Website, http://NYC.GOV.Selltonyc

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

The hearings will be held as follows:

Staten Island	College of Staten Island Center for the Arts, Recital Hall 2800 Victory Boulevard Staten Island, NY 10314	Wednesday May 3, 2006 6:00 PM

I. It is anticipated that there will be a change from currently effective water rates and wastewater charges for services provided during the fiscal year commencing July 1, 2006.

(1) Metered and unmetered water rates will increase by 9.4%.
(2) Wastewater charges will remain at 159% of water charges.
(3) The regulated rate for water provided to municipalities and water districts outside of the City which does not exceed the allowance quantities set forth in Section 24-360 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York will be increased, subject to a separate public notice and hearings to be conducted in June 2006, to an amount currently anticipated to be $660.48 per million gallons, and the rate charged for water provided to municipalities and water districts outside of the City which exceeds the allowance quantities of water set forth in Section 24-360 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York will be equal to the in-City metered rate, currently anticipated to be $2,419.79 per million gallons.

II. It is also anticipated that changes to certain billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges will be considered.

(1) Multiple Family Conservation Program (MCP) - The deadline for filing an application for the MCP, currently set forth as December 31, 2006, will be extended by two years to December 31, 2008. Other billing programs due to expire June 30, 2007 in connection with the MCP also will be extended by two years to June 30, 2009.
(2) Miscellaneous Fees for Wastewater Service – The current fee of $200 imposed when, at the request of a customer, the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) performs a dye test to determine the existence of a connection to the wastewater system will be extended to include any engineering field investigation performed in lieu of a dye test which determines the availability and/or condition of a wastewater connection.
(3) Letter of Authorization (LOA) – The maximum valid term of an LOA will be limited to one year. In addition, if a valid LOA is on file with DEP, a new LOA designating a different representative will not be accepted until the property owner withdraws in writing the previously filed LOA.
(4) Existing Water Board and DEP policies and procedures will be iterated in the Rate Schedule in the interest of providing a more complete source of information to the Board's customers including the following:

a. DEP's responsibility for the maintenance and repair of water meters used for billing purposes does not extend to the building's plumbing system, including but not limited to service lines, control valves, check valves, and internal piping which are the responsibility of the property owner. Accordingly, owners are responsible for ensuring that the building's plumbing system is in an adequate state of repair so as to enable DEP to repair, upgrade or replace the meter.
b. Currently, DEP may assess a fee when a water meter requires repair or replacement due to the customer's vandalism or other actions. The term "other actions" will be replaced with the more specific term "failure to reasonably protect the meter or components."

All members of the public who wish to obtain copies of the Board's Information Booklet describing the rate proposal, and changes to billing policies and miscellaneous fees and charges, or who wish to testify at a hearing should contact Kevin Kunkle, New York City Water Board, 59-17 Junction Boulevard, 8th Floor, Flushing, NY 11373, Telephone (718) 595-3601 not later than April 27, 2006. ■ NOTICE

OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The City of New York announces the public comment for a substantial amendment to the 2006 Consolidated Plan. The amendment incorporates a HUD Economic Development Initiative (EDI) grant and a Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program into its approved 2006 Consolidated Plan.

The public comment period will begin on April 7, 2006 and extend thirty (30) days to May 8, 2006.

The City of New York expects to use a $2 million EDI grant to support a $3 million Section 108 loan to enable The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. to acquire and construct a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Foundation's "Cultural Facility Project" will comprise a black box performance space, dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor and will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc., allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios. In addition to providing services to the community, the Project will retain or create approximately 304 jobs.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million.

The purpose of EDI grant funds is to minimize the potential loss of future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) allocations by strengthening the economic feasibility of the projects financed with Section 108 funds, by directly enhancing the security of the guaranteed loan or by using a combination of these or other risk mitigation techniques. The public entity receiving Section 108 funds must pledge that its CDBG funds will be used in the event other financial resources are insufficient to repay a Section 108 debt obligation.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766.

Written comments concerning the amendment to the Consolidated Plan should be sent by close of business, May 8, 2006 to: Charles V. Sorrentino, Consolidated Plan Coordinator, Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street 4N, New York, N.Y. 10007 (Fax 212-720-3495).

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:
Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.
If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

■ NOTICE

DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING PRESERVATION AND DEVELOPMENT

Notice of Opportunity to Comment on Proposed Amendments to Rules Governing City-Aided Limited-Profit Housing Companies

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN THE Commissioner of the Department of Housing Preservation and Development by §1802 of the New York City Charter and Sections 32(3) and 32-a of the Private Housing Finance Law, and in accordance with the requirements of § 1043 of the New York City Charter that the Department of Housing Preservation and Development intends to promulgate amended rules for City-Aided Limited-Profit Housing Companies.

Written comments regarding these rules may be sent to the Department of Housing Preservation and Development, Attention: Julie Walpert, Assistant Commissioner, 100 Gold Street, Room 9-Z1, New York, New York 10038, on or before May 22, 2006. A public hearing shall be held from 3:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. on May 22, 2006, at 100 Gold Street, First Floor, Room 1R, New York, New York. Persons seeking to testify are requested to notify the Assistant Commissioner at the foregoing address. Written comments and a summary of oral comments received at the hearing will be available for public inspection within a reasonable time after receipt between the hours of 9:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. at the Office of the Assistant Commissioner.

Persons that request that a sign language interpreter or other form of a reasonable accommodation for a disability be provided at the hearing are requested to notify the Assistant Commissioner by May 8, 2006.

The proposed rule amendments were not included in HPD's 2005-6 Regulatory Agenda because the need for the rule was not anticipated at the time the regulatory agenda was formulated.

Section one. Paragraph (7) of subdivision (i) of Section 3-14 of Chapter 3 of Title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended to read as follows:

(7) Special meeting to authorize dissolution and/or reconstitution of mutual housing companies. Pursuant to the applicable notice period in the mutual housing company's by-laws, a special meeting to authorize dissolution and/or reconstitution shall be convened by the board of directors of the mutual housing company after the acceptance by the office of the Attorney General of the State of New York of the filing of the offering plan pertaining to the proposed transfer from the mutual company to a private cooperative or condominium corporation. Eligible voters for purposes of a quorum and for the vote on dissolution and/or reconstitution shall be persons named on the stock certificate. Dissolution and/or reconstitution of the mutual housing company requires approval of two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares of the corporation as mandated by the Business Corporation Law.

Statement of Basis and Purpose. The proposed amendments are intended to clarify the dissolution procedures for mutual housing companies. The proposed amendments provide that the special meeting for shareholders to vote to authorize the dissolution or reconstitution of such housing companies cannot occur until after the acceptance by the Attorney General's Office of the filing of the offering plan for the proposed conversion to a private cooperative or condominium corporation. The Attorney General's Office has informed HPD that under the Martin Act, it must accept a comprehensive offering plan before a final vote is taken by shareholders to dissolve and reconstitute a Mitchell-Lama cooperative into a private cooperative. The rule change ensures that HPD's Mitchell-Lama rules are in conformity with this requirement.

Notice of Proposed Rules

Notice of Opportunity to Comment on Proposed Amendments to Rules Governing City-Aided Limited-Profit Housing Companies

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN PURSUANT TO THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN THE Commissioner of the Department of Housing Preservation and Development by §1802 of the New York City Charter and Sections 32(3) and 32-a of the Private Housing Finance Law, and in accordance with the requirements of § 1043 of the New York City Charter that the Department of Housing Preservation and Development intends to modify the rules governing City-Aided Limited-Profit Housing Companies.

Written comments regarding these rules may be sent to the Department of Housing Preservation and Development, Attention: Julie C. Walpert, Assistant Commissioner for Housing Supervision, 100 Gold Street, Room 9Z-1, New York, New York 10038, on or before May 22, 2006. A public hearing shall be held from 3:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. on May 22, 2006, at 100 Gold Street, First Floor, Room 1R, New York, New York. Persons seeking to testify are requested to notify the Assistant Commissioner at the foregoing address. Written comments and a summary of oral comments received at the hearing will be available for public inspection within a reasonable time after receipt between the hours of 9:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M. at the Office of the Assistant Commissioner.

Persons that request that a sign language interpreter or other form of a reasonable accommodation for a disability be provided at the hearing are requested to notify the Assistant Commissioner by May 8, 2006.

The proposed rule amendments were inadvertently omitted from HPD's Regulatory Agenda for 2005-06.

Additions to the rules are underlined and proposed deletions are [bracketed].

Section one. Paragraph three of subdivision (p) of section 3-02 of title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended to read as follows:

(3) Unless otherwise prohibited by occupancy restrictions based upon income limitations pursuant to federal, state or local law, regulations or other requirements of governmental agencies, if the tenant/cooperator has permanently vacated the apartment, any member of such tenant/cooperator's family, who has resided with the tenant/cooperator in the apartment as a primary residence, as determined by §3-02 (n)(4) of these rules, for a period of not less than two years immediately prior to the tenant/cooperator's permanent vacating of the apartment, and has appeared on the income affidavits for at least the two consecutive annual reporting periods prior to the tenant/cooperator's permanent vacating of the apartment, or where such person seeking succession rights is a senior citizen or disabled person, for a period of not less than one year immediately prior to the tenant/cooperator's permanent vacating of the apartment, and has appeared on the income affidavit for at least the reporting period immediately prior to the permanent vacating of the apartment by the tenant/cooperator, or from the inception of the tenancy or commencement of the relationship if for less than such periods, may request to be named as a tenant/cooperator on the lease and where applicable on the stock certificate. In the event that HPD has authorized the housing company not to collect surcharges based on income affidavits, the family member shall be asked to provide other evidence of occupancy for the required period of time. The burden of proof is on said family member to show use of the apartment as his or her primary residence during the required period to be eligible to succeed to possession.

§ 2. Subdivision (d) of section 3-03 of title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York is amended to read as follows:

(d) General requirements. (1) In the event that a tenant/cooperator shall fail to return a fully completed affidavit by April 30th of each year, the income of such tenant/cooperator shall be presumed to have exceeded the maximum allowable income by 150 percent or more. Written notice shall thereupon be given, informing such tenant/cooperator that the maximum surcharge will be imposed effective July 1st. In the event completed income affidavits are submitted after April 30th but prior to June 30th, the maximum surcharge will not be imposed. However a non-refundable administrative fee, payable to the housing company, shall be charged. This fee shall not exceed $50.00. The housing company may remit half of any such fee collected to the managing agent to compensate for the additional administrative work.

In the event completed income affidavits are submitted after June 30th, a correction to the maximum surcharge billing shall be made effective the first day of the month following the submission of such income affidavit. However, a non-refundable administrative fee, payable to the housing company, shall be charged. This fee shall not exceed $150.00. The housing company may remit half of any such fee collected to the managing agent to compensate for the additional administrative work. HPD may permit reimbursement of excess surcharge to the tenant/cooperator in extenuating circumstances.

(2) [If eviction proceedings are commenced against a tenant/cooperator because of failure to pay a maximum surcharge imposed or because of failure to submit his or her fully completed income affidavit, the housing company shall seek to recover all legal fees and costs incurred by the housing company in such proceedings against such tenant/cooperator. Legal fees and court costs are in addition to the penalty charged for late submission.] Reserved.

(3) Whenever changes occur in rentals or carrying charges or any component thereof used in the computation of surcharges, surcharges shall be recalculated by the housing company or its managing agent.

(4) [Summary dispossess proceedings shall be commenced by the] A housing company cannot bring an eviction proceeding against any tenant/cooperator who fails or refuses to pay surcharges without the issuance of a certificate of eviction by HPD following an administrative hearing by an HPD designated hearing officer in accordance with section 3-18 of this chapter.

(5) Housing companies or their managing agents shall submit a copy of the surcharge information tabulation sheets, and all changes thereto, together with copies of the income affidavits for HPD review and evaluation. Surcharge records shall be kept available by the housing company or its managing agent for inspection by HPD.

(6) Tenant/cooperators and other occupants shall be required by HPD to furnish certified copies of their IRS and New York State income tax returns. The cost for the certified report is to be borne by the tenant/cooperator.

§ 3. Subdivision (a) and subdivision (d) of section 3-18 of title 28 of the Rules of the City of New York are amended to read as follows:

(a) Preliminary notice of grounds of eviction, administrative hearing and certificate of eviction. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, no eviction proceeding based upon a holdover or a breach of the terms of the lease or occupancy agreement shall be initiated by a housing company against a residential tenant/cooperator without the issuance of a certificate of eviction by HPD following an administrative hearing by an HPD designated hearing officer. The hearing officer's decision shall be final without recourse to an administrative appeal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, such hearing and certificate of eviction shall not be required for any eviction proceeding based upon non-payment of rent/carrying charges[, surcharges]or any sum which constitutes rent or additional rent pursuant to the applicable lease or occupancy agreement. Furthermore, at HPD's sole discretion, such hearing and certificate of eviction may be waived in accordance with subdivision (e) of this section.

To set an eviction hearing the housing company shall notify HPD in writing of the facts which it contends justify eviction, together with an affidavit stating that a preliminary notice of grounds for eviction has been served upon the tenant/cooperator as follows:

(1) The notice shall be sent to the tenant/cooperator by regular first class mail, and by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested; and

(2) A copy of the notice shall also be served by personal delivery to the tenant/cooperator; or by delivery to a person of suitable age and discretion occupying the apartment in question; or if admittance cannot be obtained and such person cannot be found, by affixing a copy upon the door or placing a copy under the door of the apartment.

(3) The notice may be served simultaneously with any notice to cure which may be required by the tenant/cooperator's lease/occupancy agreement, and shall advise the tenant/cooperator of the following:

(i) The specific charges against him or her;

(ii) that he or she has the opportunity to appear before an HPD hearing officer to deny or explain the charges against him or her;

(iii) that he or she may retain counsel to represent him or her at a hearing;

(iv) that the findings of the HPD hearing officer, should a hearing take place, may be determinative as to the factual issues.

(d) Summary proceedings. The above procedures do not apply to summary proceedings for non-payment of rent, carrying charges[, surcharges] and any other monetary obligations of the tenant/cooperator to the housing company pursuant to his or her lease or occupancy agreement or any other agreement between the tenant/cooperator and the housing company with respect to ancillary services, except as specified in subdivision (a) of this section.

§ 4. Subdivision (c) of section 3-21 of title 28 of the Rules of the City if New York is amended to read as follows:

(c) Surcharge billing, collection and remittance. Refinanced housing companies are obligated to bill and collect surcharges. HPD will continue to supervise the billing and collection of surcharges as required by the Private Housing Finance Law and § 3-03 of this chapter. All [leases and occupancy agreements must contain appropriate language regarding the obligations of tenant/cooperators to submit income affidavits and to pay surcharges. Similarly, all] agreements with managing agents must include a provision that it is the responsibility of the managing agent to bill and collect surcharges. Refinanced housing companies are obligated to recognize hardship cases as set forth in § 3-03 of these rules.

Statement of Basis and Purpose. The first proposed amendment clarifies the timing of the co-residency requirement for succession to a Mitchell-Lama apartment. The other proposed amendments to the Mitchell-Lama rules primarily address the issue of surcharges. Courts do not allow housing companies to bring summary dispossess proceedings against tenant/cooperators who have failed to pay their surcharges. This is because the housing companies do not list surcharges as a component of rent on their leases and occupancy agreements. To conform our rules to the case law, the proposed amendments require housing companies to obtain a certificate of eviction following an administrative hearing by an HPD designated hearing officer pursuant to 28 RCNY § 3-18. The last proposed amendment conforms HPD's Mitchell-Lama rules to the federal government's rules regarding surcharges.

CITY PLANNING

■ NOTICE

OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The City of New York announces the public comment for a substantial amendment to the 2006 Consolidated Plan. The amendment incorporates a HUD Economic Development Initiative (EDI) grant and a Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program into its approved 2006 Consolidated Plan.

The public comment period will begin on April 7, 2006 and extend thirty (30) days to May 8, 2006.

The City of New York expects to use a $2 million EDI grant to support a $3 million Section 108 loan to enable The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. to acquire and construct a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Foundation's "Cultural Facility Project" will comprise a black box performance space, dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor and will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc., allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios. In addition to providing services to the community, the Project will retain or create approximately 304 jobs.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million.

The purpose of EDI grant funds is to minimize the potential loss of future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) allocations by strengthening the economic feasibility of the projects financed with Section 108 funds, by directly enhancing the security of the guaranteed loan or by using a combination of these or other risk mitigation techniques. The public entity receiving Section 108 funds must pledge that its CDBG funds will be used in the event other financial resources are insufficient to repay a Section 108 debt obligation.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766.

Written comments concerning the amendment to the Consolidated Plan should be sent by close of business, May 8, 2006 to: Charles V. Sorrentino, Consolidated Plan Coordinator, Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street 4N, New York, N.Y. 10007 (Fax 212-720-3495).

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:
Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.
If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

CITY PLANNING

■ NOTICE

OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The City of New York announces the public comment for a substantial amendment to the 2006 Consolidated Plan. The amendment incorporates a HUD Economic Development Initiative (EDI) grant and a Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program into its approved 2006 Consolidated Plan.

The public comment period will begin on April 7, 2006 and extend thirty (30) days to May 8, 2006.

The City of New York expects to use a $2 million EDI grant to support a $3 million Section 108 loan to enable The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. to acquire and construct a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Foundation's "Cultural Facility Project" will comprise a black box performance space, dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor and will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc., allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios. In addition to providing services to the community, the Project will retain or create approximately 304 jobs.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million.

The purpose of EDI grant funds is to minimize the potential loss of future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) allocations by strengthening the economic feasibility of the projects financed with Section 108 funds, by directly enhancing the security of the guaranteed loan or by using a combination of these or other risk mitigation techniques. The public entity receiving Section 108 funds must pledge that its CDBG funds will be used in the event other financial resources are insufficient to repay a Section 108 debt obligation.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Lisa Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766.

Written comments concerning the amendment to the Consolidated Plan should be sent by close of business, May 8, 2006 to: Charles V. Sorrentino, Consolidated Plan Coordinator, Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street 4N, New York, N.Y. 10007 (Fax 212-720-3495).

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:

Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITTIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

PROCUREMENT POLICY BOARD RULES

The Rules may also be accessed on the City Website, http://NYC.GOV.Selltonyc

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. EDUCATION

DIVISION OF CONTRACTS AND PURCHASING

PROVIDING OF PARENT COORDINATORS – Negotiated Acquisition – PIN# 757040 – Department of Education to enter into negotiated acquisitions to contract with vendors to provide parent coordinators. The vendors are Forest Hills Community House, Children's Aid Society, Citizen's Advice Bureau, New York City Outward Bound, Cypress Hills Local Development Corporation, Center for Alternative Sentencing and Employment Services, Good Shepherd Services. Parental involvement is a core tenet of the Mayor and the Chancellor's Children First Reform Agenda. As part of Children's First, the Chancellor has pledged that each school will have a Parent Coordinator. The Parent Coordinator serves as the primary access point to parents at the school level. In the interest of learning from the successes of the Community Based Organizations currently working to provide services in schools similar to the Parent Coodinator role, the Office of Parent Engagement (OPE) has established a pilot program in which these services are provided through contracts with those organizations in place of schools directly hiring a new Parent Coordinator for their staff. These CBOs have been delivering services to 9 schools for the last two years. The success of these services relies in large part on strong knowledge of and relationships with each school's community. In addition, many CBOs provide these services as part of a larger program for delivering support for students and their families across a range of needs, thereby multiplying the power of the parent engagement services provided. Hiring a new person could disrupt and potentially dilute the effectiveness of the existing services being provided to parents and their children. The maximum value of the contract is $41,037 per school, which is equal to the salary for a Parent Coordinator employed by the DOE, including fringe costs. These contracts will run from 8/15/05 - 8/14/06, for a total estimated amount of $375,327.

PROVIDING OF PARENT COORDINATORS – Negotiated Acquisition – PIN# 757040 – Department of Education to enter into negotiated acquisitions to contract with vendors to provide parent coordinators. The vendors are Forest Hills Community House, Children's Aid Society, Citizen's Advice Bureau, New York City Outward Bound, Cypress Hills Local Development Corporation, Center for Alternative Sentencing and Employment Services, Good Shepherd Services. Parental involvement is a core tenet of the Mayor and the Chancellor's Children First Reform Agenda. As part of Children's First, the Chancellor has pledged that each school will have a Parent Coordinator. The Parent Coordinator serves as the primary access point to parents at the school level. In the interest of learning from the successes of the Community Based Organizations currently working to provide services in schools similar to the Parent Coodinator role, the Office of Parent Engagement (OPE) has established a pilot program in which these services are provided through contracts with those organizations in place of schools directly hiring a new Parent Coordinator for their staff. These CBOs have been delivering services to 9 schools for the last two years. The success of these services relies in large part on strong knowledge of and relationships with each school's community. In addition, many CBOs provide these services as part of a larger program for delivering support for students and their families across a range of needs, thereby multiplying the power of the parent engagement services provided. Hiring a new person could disrupt and potentially dilute the effectiveness of the existing services being provided to parents and their children. The maximum value of the contract is $41,037 per school, which is equal to the salary for a Parent Coordinator employed by the DOE, including fringe costs. These contracts will run from 8/15/05 - 8/14/06, for a total estimated amount of $375,327.

CITY PLANNING

■ NOTICE

OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The City of New York announces the public comment for a substantial amendment to the 2006 Consolidated Plan. The amendment incorporates a HUD Economic Development Initiative (EDI) grant and a Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program into its approved 2006 Consolidated Plan.

The public comment period will begin on April 7, 2006 and extend thirty (30) days to May 8, 2006.

The City of New York expects to use a $2 million EDI grant to support a $3 million Section 108 loan to enable The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. to acquire and construct a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Foundation's "Cultural Facility Project" will comprise a black box performance space, dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor and will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc., allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios. In addition to providing services to the community, the Project will retain or create approximately 304 jobs.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million.

The purpose of EDI grant funds is to minimize the potential loss of future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) allocations by strengthening the economic feasibility of the projects financed with Section 108 funds, by directly enhancing the security of the guaranteed loan or by using a combination of these or other risk mitigation techniques. The public entity receiving Section 108 funds must pledge that its CDBG funds will be used in the event other financial resources are insufficient to repay a Section 108 debt obligation.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766.

Written comments concerning the amendment to the Consolidated Plan should be sent by close of business, May 8, 2006 to: Charles V. Sorrentino, Consolidated Plan Coordinator, Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street 4N, New York, N.Y. 10007 (Fax 212-720-3495).

LANDMARKS PRESERVATION COMMISSION

■ NOTICE

BINDING REPORT

ISSUE DATE:	DOCKET #:	SRB #:
03/28/06	066349	SRB 06-6901

684 6TH AVENUE HISTORIC DISTRICT LADIES' MILE	MANHATTAN	823 / 83

To the Mayor, the Council, and the Manhattan Borough Commissioner, Department of Transportation.

This report is issued pursuant to Sections 3020 and 854 (h) of the New York City Charter and Section 25-318 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York, which require a report from the Landmarks Preservation Commission for certain plans for the construction, reconstruction, alteration, or demolition of any improvement or proposed improvement which is owned by the City or is to be constructed upon property owned by the City and is or is to be located on a landmark site or in a historic district or which contains an interior landmark.

The Landmarks Preservation Commission has reviewed a proposal for concrete sidewalk replacement at the subject premises. The work consists of replacing the existing concrete sidewalk with new concrete, tinted and scored to align with adjacent sidewalks; as described in the application form, site plan, Department of Buildings Property Profile, and existing condition photographs, prepared by ABCO Facility Maintenance, and submitted as components of the application.

With regard to this proposal, the Commission finds that the concrete sidewalk to be removed is deteriorated and warrants replacement; that the new concrete sidewalk, tinted and scored to align with adjacent sidewalks, will be harmonious with the concrete sidewalks located elsewhere in the historic district; that the work will help to maintain a consistent sidewalk treatment in the district. Based on these findings, the proposed work is determined to be appropriate to the building and the Ladies' Mile Historic District. The work, therefore, is approved.

This report is issued on the basis of the building and site conditions described in the application and disclosed during the review process. By accepting this permit, the applicant agrees to notify the Commission if the actual building or site conditions vary or if original or historic building fabric is discovered. The Commission reserves the right to amend or revoke this permit, upon written notice to the applicant, in the event that the actual building or site conditions are materially different from those described in the application or disclosed during the review process.

All approved drawings are marked approved by the Commission with a perforated seal indicating the date of approval. The work is limited to what is contained in the perforated documents. Other work or amendments to this filing must be reviewed and approved separately. This report constitutes the permit; a copy must be prominently displayed at the site while work is in progress. Please direct inquiries to Meisha Hunter.

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:

Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

PROCUREMENT POLICY BOARD RULES

The Rules may also be accessed on the City Website, http://NYC.GOV.Selltonyc

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. CITY PLANNING

■ NOTICE

OFFICE OF MANAGEMENT AND BUDGET
DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED SUBSTANTIAL AMENDMENT TO THE 2006 CONSOLIDATED PLAN

The City of New York announces the public comment for a substantial amendment to the 2006 Consolidated Plan. The amendment incorporates a HUD Economic Development Initiative (EDI) grant and a Section 108 Loan Guarantee Program into its approved 2006 Consolidated Plan.

The public comment period will begin on April 7, 2006 and extend thirty (30) days to May 8, 2006.

The City of New York expects to use a $2 million EDI grant to support a $3 million Section 108 loan to enable The Foundation for Dance Promotion Inc. to acquire and construct a 32,000 square foot, four-story condominium unit above a Grid Properties, Inc. retail development located at 261 W. 125th Street in Manhattan. The Foundation's "Cultural Facility Project" will comprise a black box performance space, dance and theater rehearsal studios for the profit and not-for-profit arts and entertainment community and rental and administrative offices for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc. The Project will serve as a cultural anchor to the redevelopment of the 125th Street corridor and will also create a permanent home for the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company, Inc., allowing it to expand its operations, and provide classes and services for adults and children in the Harlem community in its rehearsal studios. In addition to providing services to the community, the Project will retain or create approximately 304 jobs.

The proposed Cultural Facility Project has a total development cost of approximately $34.5 million.

The purpose of EDI grant funds is to minimize the potential loss of future Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) allocations by strengthening the economic feasibility of the projects financed with Section 108 funds, by directly enhancing the security of the guaranteed loan or by using a combination of these or other risk mitigation techniques. The public entity receiving Section 108 funds must pledge that its CDBG funds will be used in the event other financial resources are insufficient to repay a Section 108 debt obligation.

To obtain a copy of the Foundation for Dance Promotion Cultural Facility Project application, call Liza Kent of the New York City Economic Development Corporation (EDC) at (212) 312-3766.

Written comments concerning the amendment to the Consolidated Plan should be sent by close of business, May 8, 2006 to: Charles V. Sorrentino, Consolidated Plan Coordinator, Department of City Planning, 22 Reade Street 4N, New York, N.Y. 10007 (Fax 212-720-3495).

READER'S GUIDE

The City Record (CR) is, published each business day and includes notices of proposed New York City procurement actions, contract awards, and other procurement-related information. Solicitation notices for most procurements valued at or above $100,000 for information technology and for construction and construction related services, above $50,000 for other services, and above $25,000 for other goods are published for at least one day. Other types of procurements, such as sole source, require notice in the City Record for five consecutive days. Unless otherwise specified, the agencies and offices listed are open for business Mondays thru Fridays from 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. except legal holidays.

NOTICE TO ALL NEW YORK CITY CONTRACTORS

The New York State Constitution ensures that all laborers, workers or mechanics employed by a contractor or subcontractor doing public work are to be paid the same wage rate that prevails in the trade where the public work is being done. Additionally, New York State Labor Law §§ 220 and 230 provide that a contractor or subcontractor doing public work in construction or building service must pay its employees no less than the prevailing wage. Section 6-109 (the Living Wage Law) of the New York City Administrative Code also provides for a "living wage", as well as prevailing wage, to be paid to workers employed by City contractors in certain occupations. The Comptroller of the City of New York is mandated to enforce prevailing wage. Contact the NYC Comptrollers Office at www.comptroller.nyc.gov, click on Labor Law Schedules to view rates.

New York City's "Burma Law" (Local Law No. 33 of 1997) No Longer to be Enforced. In light of the United States Supreme Court's decision in Crosby v. National Foreign Trade Council, 530 U.S. 363 (2000), the City has determined that New York City's Local Law No. 33 of 1997 (codified in Administrative Code Section 6-115 and Charter Section 1524), which restricts City business with banks and companies doing business in Burma, is unconstitutional. This is to advise, therefore, that the language relating to Burma contained in existing New York City contracts may not be enforced.

CONSTRUCTION/CONSTRUCTION SERVICES OR CONSTRUCTION RELATED SERVICES

The City of New York is committed to achieving excellence in the design and construction of its capital program, and building on the tradition of innovation in architecture and engineering that has contributed to the City's prestige as a global destination.

VENDOR ENROLLMENT APPLICATION

New York City procures approximately $7 billion worth of goods, services, construction and construction-related services every year. The NYC Procurement Policy Board Rules require that agencies primarily solicit from established mailing lists called bidder/proposer lists. To register for these lists--free of charge-, prospective suppliers should fill out and submit the NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

- Online at NYC.gov/selltonyc
- To request a hardcopy application, call the Vendor Enrollment Center at (212) 857-1680.

Attention Existing Suppliers:

Even if you already do business with NYC agencies, be sure to fill out an application. We are switching over to citywide, centralized Bidders Lists instead of the agency-specific lists previously used to issue notices about upcoming contract opportunities. To continue receiving notices of New York City contract opportunities, you must fill out and submit a NYC-FMS Vendor Enrollment application.

If you are uncertain whether you have already submitted an application, call us at (212) 857-1680.

SELLING TO GOVERNMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

New and experienced vendors are encouraged to register for a free training course on how to do business with New York City. "Selling to Government" workshops are conducted by the Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, New York, NY 10038. Morning and afternoon sessions are convened on the first Tuesday of each month. For more information, and to register, call (212) 618-8845.

PRE-QUALIFIED LIST

New York City procurement policy permits agencies to develop and solicit from pre-qualified lists of vendors, under prescribed circumstance. When it is decided by an agency to develop a pre-qualified list, criteria for pre-qualification must be clearly explained in the solicitation and notice of the opportunity to pre-qualify for that solicitation must be published in at least five issues of the CR.

Information and qualification questionnaires for inclusion on such list may be obtained directly from the Agency Chief Contracting Officer at each agency, (see Vendor Information Manual). A completed qualification Questionnaire may be submitted to the Chief Contracting Officer at any time, unless otherwise indicated and action (approval or denial) shall be taken by the agency within 90 days from the date of submission. Any denial or revocation of pre-qualified status can be appealed to the Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings, (OATH), Section 3-11 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules describes the criteria for the general use of pre-qualified lists.

NON-MAYORAL ENTITIES

The following agencies are not subject to Procurement Policy Board rules and do not follow all of the above procedures: City University, Department of Education, Metropolitan Transportation Authority, Health & Hospitals Corporation, Housing Authority. Suppliers interested in applying for inclusion on bidders list should contact these entities directly (see Vendor Information Manual) at the addresses given.

PUBLIC ACCESS CENTER

The Public Access Center is available to suppliers and the public as a central source for supplier-related information through on-line computer access. The Center is located at 253 Broadway, 9th floor, in lower Manhattan, and is open Monday through Friday from 10:00 A.M to 3:00 P.M. For information, contact the Mayor's Office of Contract Services at (212) 788-0010.

ATTENTION: NEW YORK CITY MINORITY AND WOMEN OWNED BUSINESS ENTERPRISES

Join the growing number of Minority and Women Owned Business Enterprises (M/WBEs) that are competing for New York City's business. In order to become certified for the program, your company must substantiate that it: (1) is at least fifty-one percent (51%) owned, operated and controlled by a minority or woman and (2) is either located in New York City or has a significant tie to New York City's business community. To obtain a copy of the certification application and to learn more about the program, contact the New York City Department of Small Business Services, 110 William Street, 2nd Floor, New York, New York 10038 (212) 513-6311.

PROMPT PAYMENT

It is the policy of the City of New York to pay its bills promptly. The Procurement Policy Board Rules generally require that the City pay its bills within 30 days after the receipt of a proper invoice. The City now pays interest on all late invoices. The grace period that formerly existed was eliminated on July 1, 2000. However, there are certain types of payments that are not eligible for interest. These are listed in Section 4-06 of the Procurement Policy Board Rules. The Comptroller and OMB determine the interest rate on late payments twice a year, in January and in July.

The Rules may also be accessed on the City Website, http://NYC.GOV.Selltonyc

HOW TO READ CR PROCUREMENT NOTICES

Procurement Notices in the CR are arranged by alphabetically listed Agencies, and within Agency, by Division if any. The notices for each Agency (or Division) are further divided into three subsections: Solicitations, Awards; and Lists & Miscellaneous notices. Each of these subsections separately lists notices pertaining to Goods, Services, or Construction.

Notices of Public Hearings on Contract Awards appear at the end of the Procurement Section. At the end of each Agency (or Division) listing is a paragraph giving the specific address to contact to secure, examine and/or to submit bid or proposal documents, forms, plans, specifications, and other information, as well as where bids will be publicly opened and read. This address should be used for the purpose specified UNLESS a different one is given in the individual notice. In that event, the directions in the individual notice should be followed. The following is a SAMPLE notice and an explanation of the notice format used by the CR.

INVOCATION

The Invocation was delivered by Father Walter, St. Joseph's Church, 5 Monroe Street, New York, New York.

God of wisdom, God of creation, God of Humankind,

We come to you today to ask you the gift of intelligence and cooperation.

We need your light to discover the ways in which you want us to live as brothers and sisters in this city. Look today with kindness at each member of this council and to all the good people who live and work in New York. So many people, Lord, look at our city to find a place of work, of acceptance and harmony. Hospitality and cooperation are at the basis of the common good of our society and in particular of our city. We ask you to look with favor at this CITY COUNCIL so that through their guidance and deliberations all human beings in this city, citizens, immigrants and tourists, may find dignity, security and peace.

God, Creator, maker of all, you adorn your creation with splendor and beauty, and fashion human lives in your image and likeness. Awaken in every heart reverence for the work of your hands, and renew among your people a readiness to nurture and sustain your precious gift of life. God of love, God of peace make of our city a human family, a place where all may be able to achieve their goals and fulfill the desires of their hearts in respect of and cooperation with all men and women of good will.

Bless each one of us, Lord, bless the council and bless our city. AMEN.

Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving and adopting a Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the sale of tax liens.

The Committee on Finance to which was referred on March 1, 2006 the annexed proposed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

Today the Committee on Finance will considered Preconsidered Int. No. 187, a proposed local law which would extend the Commissioner of the Department of Finance's authority to sell tax liens until August 31, 2006.

BACKGROUND

In the Spring of 1996, the Council adopted Local Law No. 26 (City Council Int. No. 677-A) which restructured the New York City's antiquated procedures for selling its tax liens—legal claims against properties with a prior position to mortgages and many other types of liens arising from unpaid property taxes, water and sewer rents, and other lienable City charges. In proposing this legislation, the Administration believed that potential investors would consider tax liens a very attractive investment because they were secured, they tended to yield significant rates of interest, and would generally be paid off in full, because property owners would not want to lose the equity accumulated in their properties, and mortgagees would not want to lose their property interests in a foreclosure action. Thus, by selling tax liens, the City would realize cash up front, while leaving the actual collection of the outstanding charges to investors.

During the hearings that were held on Local Law 26, the Administration testified that tax lien sales are an enforcement mechanism used by many cities in the United States. These lien sales increase tax collections (thereby lowering the delinquency rate) and generate cash. At that time the Administration stated that each percentage point increase in the tax collection rate would be worth approximately $80 million to the City of New York. Additionally, the purchase of tax liens provides immediate budgetary relief to cities by generating additional cash for operations. At that time, the Administration claimed that the annual real property tax delinquency rate had increased by 150%. According to the Administration, this increase represented an additional $240 million per year in uncollected receivables and had resulted because of the real estate recession and the City's reluctance to enforce its remedies pursuant to its in rem program. Delinquent property owners had become confident that the City would not aggressively pursue its enforcement remedies against them. According to the Administration, the City's main enforcement weapon in the area of tax collections had been the in rem program. The Administration stated that the City's projected cost to manage the in rem portfolio for the next 19 years (from 1996) would be approximately $10.6 billion. The City's in rem program, according to a report prepared by the consulting firm of Arthur Anderson, contained serious weaknesses. Although each in rem property owner only owed an average of $36,000 in back taxes when the City took title, each in rem property was costing the City an average of $2.2 million to acquire, manage and prepare for sale. In addition to this extremely high cost, the in rem program removed properties from the City's tax rolls for an average period of 19 years. The program also removed properties from the City's list of tax delinquency properties, artificially inflating the tax collection rate. These trends led to an increased inventory of property tax receivables in the City - receivables that have a very substantial value. Like almost all receivables, as property tax receivables age, it becomes more difficult to collect them from property owners and their value consequently decreases. According to the Administration, New York City had become an involuntary lender to delinquent taxpayers, and due to the in rem program, had become the largest landowner in the City.

Thus, Local Law No. 26 was designed to increase the property tax collection rate, develop confidence in New York City's overall property taxation system and hopefully relieve upward pressure on property tax rates.

LOCAL LAW NO. 26 – ORIGINAL TAX LIEN SALE PROGRAM

Under Local Law No. 26, "a tax lien or tax liens on a property or any component of the amount thereof may be sold by the city when such tax lien or tax liens shall have remained unpaid in whole or in part for one year, provided, however, that a tax lien or tax liens on any class 1 property or on class 2 property that is a residential condominium or residential cooperative, as such classes of property are defined in subdivision 1 of section 1802 of the real property law, may be sold by the city only when the real property tax component of such tax lien or tax liens shall have remained unpaid in whole or in part for three years...." Additionally, Local Law No. 26 did not permit the City to sell any tax lien or tax liens that did not contain a real property tax component. For example, tax liens on any property that were comprised solely of unpaid water and sewer charges and/or non-property tax lienable charges could not be sold by the City. For purposes of tax lien sales, liens on delinquent assessments or charges for properties located within Business Improvement Districts are defined as non-property tax lienable charges.

Local Law No. 26 also provides the Commissioner of the Department of Finance (the "Commissioner") with the authority to determine the pool of tax liens that will be sold. According to the Administration, selection of the pool is based on factors such as the financial goals of the City, housing policy and marketability. In addition, the Commissioner has the authority to sell tax liens "either individually, in combinations, or in the aggregate..." and to establish the terms and conditions of any tax lien sale.

Under Local Law No. 26, tax liens can be sold through a competitive sale. This type of sale includes an auction process whereby potential purchasers bid on individual liens or pools of liens on a date set by the Commissioner. The Commissioner has the authority to establish criteria for the eligibility of bidders and can reject any or all bids, or accept any combination of bids. In addition to a competitive sale, tax liens can also be sold through a negotiated sale. Under this type of sale, one purchaser is selected through a competitive Request For Proposal process whereby statements of interest are submitted to the Commissioner by several potential purchasers.

To protect purchasers who have purchased a tax lien that is found to be "invalid, void or defective in whole or in part, or not to conform to any representation or warranty" made by the Commissioner with respect to the tax lien sale, Local Law No. 26 provides the Commissioner with the authority to substitute such tax lien with another tax lien that "has a value equivalent to the value of the tax lien or portion thereof found to be invalid, void, defective, or not to so conform, or may refund such value of the tax lien found to be invalid, void, defective, or not to so conform, or may use a combination of substitution and refund."

To ensure fair treatment to property owners, Local Law No. 26 contains notice requirements and requirements concerning the advertising of lien sales. The advertisements are required to include "a description by block and lot or by such other identification as the commissioner of finance may deem appropriate, of the property upon which the tax lien exists that may be included in the sale." Property owners and other interested parties registered with the City must be notified by first class mail of the City's intention to sell a tax lien. After the sale and within 90 days of the delivery of the tax lien certificate, the Commissioner is required to notify the property owner and other interested parties by first class mail that the tax lien has been sold. The Commissioner is also required to provide the property owner and other interested parties with, among other things, the identity of the tax lien purchaser and the terms and conditions of the tax lien certificate, and is required to designate an employee of the Department of Finance to respond to inquiries from owners of property for which a tax lien has been sold.

Local Law No. 26 provides that the aggregate amount of each tax lien sold "shall be due and payable one year from the date of sale." The purchaser of such tax lien will continue to be entitled to receive interest from the date of sale and semi-annually, but if the aggregate amount of such tax lien is partially paid, the purchaser will only be entitled to collect interest on the unpaid balance of the sold tax lien until such lien is satisfied. Additionally, the legislation provides the purchaser with the right to "receive and retain a surcharge equal to five percent..." of the tax lien.

If the property owner fails to pay his or her tax lien within a year from the date of sale, the purchaser of such tax lien has the right to file a foreclosure action in the State Supreme Court. Tax lien purchasers may also commence a foreclosure action if the property owner fails to pay, within thirty days, the semi-annual interest due on the tax lien from the date of sale.

Additionally, Local Law No. 26 allows a tax lien purchaser to file a foreclosure action if the property owner fails to pay any taxes or assessments due after the date of sale. The tax lien purchaser is allowed to commence the action six months after the due date of such taxes or assessments. At his or her option, the tax lien purchaser also has the right to satisfy such subsequent tax liens and by virtue of such satisfaction, "be deemed to be in the same position as if he or she were a purchaser of a tax lien certificate for such subsequent tax lien." Under this scenario, the tax lien purchaser is not entitled to a five percent surcharge.

Local Law No. 26 also requires the Commissioner to submit an annual report to the City Council regarding the sale or sales of tax liens during the preceding year. This reporting requirement was strengthened by Local Law 98 of 1997 (see below).

LOCAL LAW 37 OF 1996

Subsequent to the adoption of Local Law 26, in May of 1996 the Council' s Committee on Housing and Buildings adopted Int. No. 679-A, which became Local Law 37 of 1996. This local law, among other things, defined those properties which would be considered "distressed properties" and therefore ineligible for inclusion in any tax lien sale. Distressed properties are defined as any parcel of class one or class two real property subject to a tax lien or liens with a lien to value ratio of at least fifteen percent and which has either: (1) an average of five or more hazardous or immediately hazardous violations of record of the housing maintenance code per dwelling unit; or (2) is subject to a lien or liens for expenses incurred by HPD for the repair or elimination of any dangerous or unlawful conditions pursuant to §27-2144 of the Building Code in an amount of at least $1000.

The local law provides that distressed properties be subject to either in rem foreclosure actions by the City or, if the DOF commissioner does not commence such an action, that HPD evaluate each property and take action it deems appropriate with regard to placing the properties into City programs designed to encourage the rehabilitation and preservation of housing. There is also a similar provision which requires distressed properties which become the subject of in rem foreclosure actions which are then discontinued to be similarly evaluated by HPD and requires HPD to take actions it deems appropriate with regard to those properties. However, those provisions of Local Law 37 relating to the evaluation of, and taking of appropriate action with regard to, distressed properties did not become effective until one year after the effective date of the law (May 1997).

While prior to Local Law 37, the City's only option at the end of a foreclosure action in which the property was not redeemed was to take title to and possession of the property, Local Law 37 provides that class one and class two properties may be transferred upon final judgment to a third party designated and deemed qualified by HPD. [1] Local Law 37 provides for Council disapproval of any third party conveyance of a parcel of class one or class two property. To disapprove such a transfer, the Council must adopt a local law within forty-five days of receiving notice from DOF of the proposed transfer.

Prior to the enactment of Local Law 37, whenever the City instituted an in rem foreclosure action, it was required to include all properties located in a borough with outstanding tax liens subject to foreclosure. Local Law 37 gives the City greater flexibility with regard to commencing these proceedings. The City may commence foreclosure proceedings based upon the tax class of properties, a specific geographic area, or combination of tax class and area.

To make the foreclosure procedures consistent with the tax lien sale procedures, Local Law 37 amended the in rem foreclosure provisions, which at that time provided that DOF could maintain in rem actions on property whenever a tax lien or tax liens had been due and unpaid for a period of one year from the date on which the assessment became a lien, except for parcels with one or two dwelling units for which the tax lien had to remain unpaid for at least three years. The Local Law added three family dwellings, residential cooperatives, and multiple dwellings owned by companies organized pursuant to article XI of the state private housing finance law (where HPD consented) to the types of dwellings on parcels that would require a tax lien to remain unpaid for three years before an in rem foreclosure action could be commenced.

The Local Law maintained (with some modification) provisions allowing the DOF Commissioner to remove properties from the foreclosure process after the preparation and filing of the lists of delinquent taxes but before commencement of the foreclosure action (§11-405), during the pendancy of the foreclosure action (§11-409), as well as after the judgement has been entered where either the outstanding charges and interest (and any applicable penalty) have been paid or an installment agreement has been entered into (§11-409). Owners, mortgagees and other interested parties have a right to redeem their properties during the first four months after entry of judgment. Although discretionary releases which must be approved by the In Rem Foreclosure Release Board, would still be available if the City were taking possession of a property, Local Law 37 eliminated these discretionary releases in the cases of third party transfers. Local Law 37 also made some changes in these provisions designed to streamline requirements and correct inequities among property owners entering into installment agreements for the payments of outstanding charges. For example, property owners of certain types of residential properties had been allowed to enter into installment agreements providing for payouts over a period of twelve years while others were limited to eight years. Local Law 37 limited all of these installment agreements to eight years and reduced the installment agreements for commercial and utility property to five years.

AMENDMENTS TO LOCAL LAW 26

In December of 1997 this Committee adopted Int. No. 1080-A, which became Local Law 98 of 1997. This legislation extended Local Law 26, which was to sunset on December 31, 1997, for an additional two years and further amended the laws regarding the sale of tax liens. The local law authorized the City to sell "subsequent tax lien[s]" on non-residential property regardless of the length of the delinquency of the subsequent tax lien, and on residential property where the real property tax component of the lien has been delinquent for one year. A subsequent tax lien is a tax lien that arises after the date of sale of any tax lien on a property and which is still unpaid as of the date of publication of the first notice of the sale of the subsequent tax lien. As in the case of tax liens, subsequent tax liens also were required to have a real property tax component – i.e. they could not consist of solely water/sewage charges or assessments owed to a Business Improvement District.

Recognizing that the 1996 and 1997 tax lien sales had been securitized transactions in which a single purpose Trust had been created to issue bonds collateralized by the tax liens, Local Law 98 revised the notice requirements for negotiated sales "to a trust or other entity created by the city or in which the city has an ownership or residual interest." This revision, among other things, eliminated the requirement that the notice provide a request for statements of interest, because in these cases underwriters are selected through a competitive RFP process.

Local Law 98 also provided an exception for inclusion in a tax lien sale for liens on property owned by a company organized pursuant to article XI of the State Private Housing Finance Law with the consent and approval of the Department of Housing Preservation and Development. Liens on these companies' properties intended to provide housing for families and persons of low income that are sold pursuant to the tax lien law would be deemed defective and thus excluded from any tax lien sale conducted by the City. Additionally, Local Law 98 required the Commissioner to "designate an employee of the department to respond to inquiries from owners sixty-five years of age or older of property for which a tax lien has been sold or noticed for sale."

The reporting requirement was strengthened to provide that upon request of the Council, the Commissioner's annual report of tax lien sale activity would be arranged by community board, and that the Commissioner would provide any additional information on tax lien sales that the Council requested. Finally, the Local Law also amended the notice requirements in the case of postponed sales, clarified that any purchaser of tax liens would "stand in the same position as the city" had the tax liens not been sold, and authorized the Corporation Counsel to represent tax lien purchasers in any action in which it believed such representation to be in the City's best interest.

As stated, Local Law 98 extended the tax lien sale program for an additional two years. In 1999 and 2000, the Committee adopted three additional extensions which together extended the tax lien program through and including October 31, 2001. In June of 2001, the Committee adopted Int. No. 928-A, which became Local Law No. 36 of 2001, and extended the program until October 31, 2003 and made some significant changes to the tax lien sale program. And once again, in April of 2004, the Committee adopted Int. No. 302, which became Local Law No. 4 of 2004, and extended the program until March 1, 2006.

LOCAL LAW 36 OF 2001:

The first change made by Local Law 36 was designed to close what was viewed by many as a loophole in the original tax lien legislation. Because there was concern that any tax lien eligible to be sold contain a real property tax component, the sale of tax liens without such a component (e.g. the sale of tax liens containing only water or sewer charges) was prohibited. However, according to the Giuliani Administration, the flat prohibition of the sale of tax liens without a real property tax component, resulted in a situation in which people who received notice that a tax lien on their property was to be sold paid only the real property tax component of the lien without paying the water or sewer or other lienable charges. They were thus able to avoid the sale of their tax liens without paying all of the components constituting the liens. To end this incentive to pay only a portion of the delinquencies, the local law amended the language prohibiting the sale of any tax lien which does not include a real property tax component, to only prohibit those sales of tax liens which do not include "a real property tax component as of the date of the first publication... of the notice of sale." This amendment only applied to class 2 properties other than residential cooperatives or condominiums and class three properties. Thus, if a class 2 or class 3 property owner pays off the real property tax portion of a lien after the date of publication, the liens for unpaid water, sewer or other charges are now still eligible for sale.

The second change created an exception from the general rule -- that tax liens may not be sold unless they contain a real property tax component -- for all sales of tax liens relating to class 4 properties (commercial properties). Under the original program, no tax lien could be sold unless it contained a real property tax component. Even the closing of the loophole, discussed above, requires that to be initially noticed, a tax lien (relating to non-cooperative or condominium class two properties or class three properties) must contain a real property tax component. However, in the case of class four properties (commercial properties), Local Law 36 provides for the sale of tax liens that do not have a real property tax component but that have a water or sewer component. It would also close any "loophole" which might allow a commercial property owner to leave some charges unpaid, by providing that if the owner paid off, for example, the water and sewer component but not some other lienable charge, that other lienable charge could be sold. All that would be required is that the tax liens include "a real property tax component or sewer rents component or sewer surcharges component or water rents component as of the date of first publication...." (emphasis added) These two changes concerning what types of liens may be sold apply to the sale of tax liens as well as to the sale of subsequent tax liens. [2] for the Lower Ma———————————

[1] Under §11-412.1(b)(2), added by Local Law 37, a qualified third party must display residential management experience and ability to work with government and community organizations. In addition, the Commissioner of HPD must take into account whether the third party is a responsible legal tenant, not-for-profit organization or a neighborhood-based-for-profit individual or organization.

[2] Local Law 36 also amended the provisions of the Administrative Code which provide that unpaid rent stabilization fees constitute liens on class two properties to which they apply. These fees were imposed on owners of rent stabilized class two properties beginning in 1984 and were designed to defray the costs of administering the City's rent stabilization system. In recent years, the State Legislature made these fees (when unpaid) lienable charges. Efforts to collect these fees gave rise to concerns over the accuracy of back-billed amounts, as well as complaints by landlords that they purchased properties without the knowledge that these unpaid charges existed, and that since their purchases, liens were arising on their properties stemming from charges for which they were not responsible.

To address these concerns, Local Law 36 forced owners of class 2 properties that are not residential cooperatives or condominiums to pay off all lienable charges in order to avoid a tax lien sale, once an initial notice of sale is published which includes a real property tax component.

Because these lienable charges could include the rent stabilization charges, the law amended the Administrative Code to ensure that no lien for these charges could be enforced against "an owner or mortgagee of such premises who acquired in good faith an interest therein subsequent to the period for which the fee was imposed but prior to the creation of any such lien." This amendment was coupled with several unconsolidated rovisions which give the owners of buildings containing rent stabilized apartments

Finally, Local Law 36 enacted a series of smaller administrative changes to the tax lien sale program that removed DOF from certain steps of the administrative process of canceling and discharging tax liens which have been satisfied.

OVERVIEW OF LIEN SALES

The tax lien sales under the new procedures have all been securitized transactions in which a single purpose Trust is established. This Trust issues bonds to institutional investors collateralized by the delinquent tax liens and surcharge liens. The money raised by the issuance of the bonds (as well as a subordinated note issued by the Trust) is then used to acquire a portfolio of tax liens which include City of New York liens (property tax liens), Water Board liens and Business Improvement District liens. The City, the Water Board and the Business Improvement Districts retain a residual interest in the Trust. The Trust hires one or more servicers to work with delinquent property taxpayers to help them pay off their tax liens. Proceeds received by the servicers are first used to pay off the senior notes held by the institutional investors. After these have been paid off, the City, Water Board and BIDs begin to have their subordinate note paid down.

According to the Administration, the 12 lien sales conducted since the inception of the program in 1996, have raised about $2 billion in new revenues for the City. This number includes approximately $1.2 billion generated from the sale of bonds by the Trusts and over $800 million in voluntary payments made during the periods when notices of the lien sales were given to delinquent taxpayers. No class one properties were included in the first sale in 1996. Since that sale, of the nine subsequent sales through 2005 (other than the high lien to value and residual note sales, 1998-2 and 1999-R, respectively) the percentage of total properties that had liens sold which were class one properties is shown in the table below. Class one properties make up 26.2 percent of all liens sold during that period, but represent only 12 percent of the value of the liens, while class four commercial properties represent 46.3 percent of the liens sold and more than 62 percent of the value. Most of the class one liens are located in Brooklyn and Queens, 37.4 percent and 32.8 percent, respectively.

40.4%	28.7%	34.2%	23.6%	37.4%	8.4%	35.4%	28.5%	26.4%

Of the approximately 3,018 class one liens in lien sales conducted from 2002 through 2005, 21 percent or 642 foreclosure actions have been filed. However, only 20 class one properties, representing less than one percent of all class one liens and 0.2 percent of all liens sold, have been auctioned during that period. Often owners will redeem their property before the foreclosure action results in a sale of the property. In fact, according to the 2006 Preliminary Mayor's Management Report, the percentage of auctions resulting from tax lien sales on residential properties has historically been less than one percent of all liens sold.

The first tax lien sale after the enactment of Local Law 26, in June of 1996 was the largest single sale generating approximately $215 million from the sale of the bonds (only liens on commercial and class two apartment rentals were including in the first sale). In addition, the types of sales are changing. In 1998 and 1999 there were two sales which included liens on properties with a high lien to value ratio (in which the liens represented approximately 50 percent or more of the value of the property). For the first time in 1999, liens collateralizing the residual note held by the City, which prior to this had not been sold to investors, were sold as part of one of the 1999 sales. Recollateralizations of the residual notes from prior lien sales have occurred regularly in the sales conducted since that time. The most recent lien sale concluded in July 2005 consisted of liens sold for the first-time, and recollateralizations of the 2000 and 2001 residual notes. The August 2005 sale consisted of subsequent liens. The following chart of the 12 lien sales, based on the NYCTL Trusts-Status Report developed for the Administration, shows for each sale the amount of the lien collateral, the total number of liens, and the bond amount or the money the City receives upfront.

Property Tax Delinquency Rate

One goal of the tax lien sale program was to increase property tax collections and thereby lower the delinquency rate. According to the 1999 Mayor's Management Report, the real property tax delinquency rate was almost 5 percent in the early to mid-1990s, before implementation of the tax lien sale program. Currently, the Fiscal 2006 delinquency rate is less than 3 percent. Recently, declines in the delinquency rate are probably more attributable to improvements in the local economy than to the sale of tax liens, although it is difficult to determine the extent of each of these effects on the decline. The following table shows the property tax delinquency rates from 1995 (the year before the enactment of Local Law 26) through 2005 from data provided by the Mayor's Office of Management and Budget.

PRECONSIDERED INT. NO. 187

Preconsidered Int. No. 187, is a proposed local law that would extend the authority of the Commissioner of Finance to sell tax liens through and including August 31, 2006.

The proposed local law would be effective immediately, although it would be deemed to be retroactive to, and in full force and effect as of, March 2, 2006.

FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT:

	Effective FY06	FY Succeeding Effective FY07	Full Fiscal Impact FY06
Revenues	$40,000,000	$18,000,000	$40,000,000
Expenditures	$0	$0	$0
Net	$40,000,000	$18,000,000	$40,000,000

IMPACT ON REVENUES: Since 1996, New York City has conducted annual sales of delinquent property tax and property tax related liens, and water and sewer charges. In order for the Administration to be able to conduct its regular spring sale of liens for Fiscal 2006, the legislation extending the City's ability to conduct liens sales must be enacted. The Administration anticipates raising about $40 million in lien sale proceeds from the sale this spring. In Fiscal 2007, the Administration estimates raising nearly $18 million in lien sale proceeds from the sale of subsequent liens on current unpaid property taxes and water and sewer charges. The subsequent lien sales are usually conducted during the summer. For Fiscal 2007, the Administration estimates receiving in total about $54 million in lien sale proceeds.

*Because the six-month extension of the tax lien legislation affects the latter part of Fiscal 2006 and the first two months of Fiscal 2007, there is no full year fiscal impact.

IMPACT ON EXPENDITURES: The impact on expenditures is anticipated to be minimal.

who owe such fees to the City, an opportunity to pay the back fees, from 1984 to 1998 without interest. In addition, for owners who had timely paid fees from 1993 to 1998, any fees assessed prior to 1993 were deemed paid.

Report for Res. No. 92-A Report of the Committee on Finance in favor of approving as amended, a Resolution concerning the establishment of the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction Business Improvement District in the Borough of Brooklyn an setting the date, time and place for the public hearing to hear all persons interested in the establishment of such district.

The Committee on Finance to which was referred on February 15, 2006 (Minutes, page 484) the annexed amended resolution respectfully

REPORTS:

ANALYSIS:

Proposed Reso. 92-A is required by the existing law, Chapter 4 of Title 25 of the New York City Administrative Code, as amended by Local Law 82 of 1990, which authorized the City Council to establish Business Improvement Districts (BIDs).

The main purpose of Proposed Reso. 92-A is to set the public hearing date, time and place for the review of the local law, which would establish the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction Business Improvement District.

The hearing on the local law and the BID plan, will be held on March 22, 2006 in the City Council Committee Room, 2nd Floor, City Hall at 10:30 a.m., before the Committee on Finance.

Proposed Reso. 92-A also directs that all notices required under the BID law be properly given by the Department of Small Business Services and the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction BID Steering Committee, respectively.

BIDs, which are specifically established areas, use the City's property tax collection mechanism to approve a special tax assessment with which to fund additional services that would enhance the area and improve local business. The additional services are normally in the areas of security, sanitation, physical/capital improvements (lighting, landscaping, sidewalks, etc.), seasonal activities (Christmas lighting) and related business services (marketing and advertising). The BID demarcates the areas in which services will be enhanced and also establishes the mechanism for the assessment needed to generate the required budget.

Accordingly, Your Committee recommends its adoption, as amended.

I. Introduction, Purpose

The Flatbush-Nostrand Junction is one of Brooklyn's primary commercial areas outside of downtown. For decades it has been an important hub for commerce, transportation and entertainment. Because it is the "junction" of two major north/south thoroughfares, it is truly the "gateway' to the southern half of Brooklyn. It is the primary local shopping area for thousands of residents of surrounding private homes and apartment buildings. It is increasingly a "destination" shopping area for residents from more distant residential areas. It is an important transfer point from two subway lines and a number of bus lines, and increasingly, private "dollar" van services. Located just outside the main gate of Brooklyn College, the Junction area also serves thousands of College students, faculty and staff.

The Junction Commercial District has not been achieving its full potential. Its merchants have not been well organized. There is no entity that advocates for more effective delivery of municipal services. There is no coordinated marketing effort to help increase revenue for local businesses. The Junction lacks a "brand" or an "identity" that users of the area identify with or relate to.

In commercial areas around New York City, property owners, business owners, community leaders and residents have joined together to form business improvement districts (BIDs) to accomplish many of the goals described above. Such a group of stakeholders has been created at the Junction, and this group now proposes to form a BID. The pages that follow describe in detail the goals of the Junction BID, and describe in detail its plans to start and operate a District Management Association that will provide a set of services not uncommon to BIDs around the city.

II. Map of the District

The Flatbush-Nostrand Junction Business Improvement District is located within Brooklyn Community District #14, in the Flatbush Section of Brooklyn. Specifically, the area includes the following properties:

Both sides of Flatbush Avenue, from Farragut Road on the north to the Long Island Railroad cut on the south. Nostrand Avenue, from Glenwood Road on the north to the Long Island Railroad cut on the south. Hillel Place, between Flatbush Avenue and Campus Road. Glenwood Road, from just west of Flatbush Avenue to Nostrand Avenue.

The district boundaries are outlined on a map (the "District Map") attached as Exhibit 1. A list of the specific properties, by address and by block and tax lot is attached as Exhibit 3.

The Mayor of the City of New York, by authorizing letter August 23, 2005, a copy which is annexed hereto as Exhibit 2, has provided for the preparation of this District Plan pursuant to authority granted by Local Law 96 of 1989 (the "Law") for the District.

III. District Profile: Present Uses of District Property

A. Area Profile

The Junction commercial area is a bustling commercial area, adjacent to several residential neighborhoods, and several schools, including Brooklyn College, Midwood High School, and a number of elementary and private schools. It is adjacent to the Brooklyn Center for the Performing Arts, one of the major performance spaces in the borough.

Transportation Hub
The "junction" of Flatbush and Nostrand Avenues are a major transfer point between subways and busses. The #2 and #5 trains terminate in a handicap-accessible subway station below the street. The privately operated "Green Bus Lines" have a number of lines that terminate at the Junction, largely used by residents of Flatlands, Canarsie and Sheepshead Bay. There are MTA-bus lines that pass through the Junction area in all directions. There are also a great number of private "dollar" vans that carry passengers along routes not served or underserved by MTA busses.

Buildings
There are 145 properties within the proposed BID boundaries. Most are mixed-use buildings that have a commercial storefront on the ground floor and residential units above. In some cases, second floors are used as office space, particularly closer to the actual crossing of Flatbush and Nostrand Avenues. There are also many single-story commercial properties. There are very few residential-only buildings in the area. There are several commercial properties occupied by nonprofit organizations, religious institutions or educational institutions that will not be required to contribute to the BID. There are some larger commercial buildings, of varying ages and architectural styles, several of which are occupied by banks.

Capital Improvements
In an effort to enhance the Junction area and create more visual coherence, the New York City Council has allocated $4.5 million to design and construct a "streetscape' at the Junction. The boundaries of the project are consistent with the boundaries of the proposed BID. The NYC Economic Development Corporation (EDC) is administering the project, and has hired a firm that has completed design plans. The formation of a BID is a prerequisite for the project moving forward – EDC requires that an entity such as a BID or local development corporation agree to sign a "maintenance agreement" with NYC Department of Transportation (DOT) prior to awarding of a construction contract for the project.

B. Commercial Profile

The commercial portion of the district is comprised of a variety of retail establishments, offices and other commercial establishments. Most are mixed-use buildings that have a commercial storefront on the ground floor and residential units above. In some cases, second floors are used as office space, particularly closer to the actual crossing of Flatbush and Nostrand Avenues. In addition, there are some larger commercial buildings, of varying ages and architectural styles, several of which are occupied by banks.

There are a total of 209 occupied retail establishments. The following represents them:

-Food Stores	8%
-Convenience and Drug Stores	4%
-GAFO (General Merchandise, Apparel/Accessories, Furniture, Other Comparison Goods)	30%
-Service	46%
-Restaurants	12%

Additionally, commercial office tenants occupy a small number of upper floor spaces throughout the district. There is a 6% vacancy rate among stores in the area, as of March 2005.

C. Residential Profile

The district is primarily composed of two- to three story walk-ups with ground floor commercial uses and residential uses above. Other building types in the district are single- story structures and bank structures, which have no residential uses. In total, there are 212 residential units in the 145 properties in the district.

D. Not-for-profit and Public Uses

The BID area encompasses the campus of Brooklyn College. It also includes a number of religious institutions, nonprofit organization, and a few government agencies, such as military recruiting offices. The exempt institutions will be treated as a separate class of properties, and will not be required to pay BID assessments. Brooklyn College has expressed interested in being an active part of the BID, despite having no requirement to contribute financially. The College has offered to contribute certain "in-kind" services, in lieu of this financial contribution.

E. Zoning

The Business Improvement District is zoned almost equally C4-3 and C2-3 with areas of C8-4 along the southern edge and R6 along the northern edge of the District.

IV. Proposed Services

A. Description of Services

The services to be provided pursuant to this plan (the "Services") may include any services required for the enjoyment and protection of the public, and the promotion and enhancement of the District. The Services shall not take the place of, but supplement those services provided by the City on a citywide basis. The Services shall be performed under the direction of the Director of the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction District Management Association (hereafter "DMA").

Street Maintenance
The BID Maintenance Program services proposed for the District services may include, but not be limited to sidewalk and curb sweeping and the emptying and bagging of litter baskets. It is anticipated that such services will be performed six days per week throughout the year. The District Management Association will enter into a contract with an organization or business to perform such sanitation services. The Program will include such equipment as is required to deliver the services, and may include such other maintenance services are required from time to time to achieve a clean and safe environment. The Program will complement but will not replace City Sanitation services.

Graffiti Removal
The visual appeal of a commercial strip is hampered by the presence of graffiti. The BID-operating budget will include funds for removing graffiti from store gates and other surfaces on an ongoing basis. There will be a contract for an initial "sweep" of all store gates and surfaces, then a separate ongoing maintenance contract.

Security
The security services proposed for the District may include, but not be limited to services that will assist the present police force in the area and provide a security program that meets the needs of the merchants, property owners and residents of the district. It may include special publications such as store directories, newsletters, calendars, display advertisements, sale days, announcements of new stores or special promotional inserts, and special events.

Holiday Lighting
Holiday and seasonal decorations may include, but will not be limited to, the installation of decorative lighting and banners within the district during the holiday season, and throughout the year, and the payment of the energy costs for the operation of such lights, if necessary.

Retail Marketing, Business Recruitment and Technical Assistance
Retail marketing, business recruitment and technical assistance may include, but not be limited to, the active recruitment of new businesses to the District, providing assistance to business and property owners regarding building and storefront improvements, merchandising, and overall business operations. Additionally, it may include engaging in site-specific development plans and planning studies.

Administration

Administration costs may also include office-related expenses such as rent, telephone, insurance, supplies, etc.

Subject to any approvals and controls that may be required by a City agency having jurisdiction thereof, and in addition to the approval of the Board of Directors of the DMA, in subsequent years the District may provide such additional services as are permitted by law.

2. All services need not be performed every Contract year.

In the event that in any given Contract Year the sources of funding do not in the aggregate produce revenues equal to the Total Annual Budget Amount for such Contract Year, the DMA may, subject to the Contract, forego some or all of the non-debt service expenditures as are provided for in the Budget in question in order to have revenues sufficient to pay the debt service provided for in such Budget.

In the event the DMA needs to reallocate its non-debt service expenditures for the Contract Year in question, and provided further, that any debt service has been provided for, the DMA may revise the itemization within any Budget to accomplish such goal.

VIII. Benefited Properties

The development of the District will benefit all properties devoted in whole or in part to the commercial uses within the district. Annexed hereto as Exhibit 3, is a list of the individual whole tax lots (by block and lot address) to be benefited in the District. Properties that are exempt by law from real property taxation and which are not devoted in whole or in part to commercial uses will not benefit from the establishment of the District and will not be assessed although they will fall within the boundaries of the District.

A. User Rights: General

The DMA may undertake or permit commercial activities or other private uses of the streets or other parts of the District in which the City has any real property interest (the "User Rights"), provided, however, that the User Rights to be so undertaken or permitted by the DMA shall have been: (i) set forth in this Plan or authorized for licensing or granting by the City Council, and/or (ii) licensed or granted to the DMA by the City, pursuant to the Contract and/or (iii) authorized by the appropriate City Agency having jurisdiction thereof. Once so granted or licensed, the User Right(s) in question shall be undertaken or permitted by the DMA in such a manner as to conform to the requirements, if any, set forth in the Plan, or the aforesaid Local Law with respect to User Right(s), and conform to the requirements authorized by the appropriate City Agency having jurisdiction thereof. Such requirement may include but shall not be limited to: (i) requirements as to what consideration the DMA shall pay to the City for the grant and/or license in question; (ii) requirements as to whether and how the DMA may permit other persons to undertake the User Right(s) in question pursuant to a sub-grant or sub-license; (iii) requirements as to what charges the DMA may impose upon other persons as consideration for such sub-grant or sub-license; and (iv) requirements as the general regulation of the User Right(s) by whomsoever undertaken.

B. User Rights: Proposed

Subject to the approval and control of the appropriate City Agency and/or subject to any requirements set forth by the City, the DMA may undertake or permit the following User Rights, subject to the requirements set forth in Section X, such as information and promotion kiosks, newsstands, and news boxes.

XI. Regulations

The rules and regulations proposed governing the operation of the District and the provision of Services and Improvements by the DMA ("the Regulations") are set forth herein below.

1. The DMA shall obligate itself to provide the Services and Improvements in a Contract or Contracts into which both the DMA and the City shall enter (collectively, the "Contract") for a specified term (each year of the Contract term to be defined as a "Contract Year"). The City shall, pursuant to the terms, conditions and requirements of the Contract, levy, collect, and disburse to the DMA the assessments. Such disbursements shall be made in accordance with the general procedures for the payment of other City expenditures.

2. The DMA shall comply with all terms, conditions, and requirements (i) elsewhere set forth in this Plan, and (ii) to be set forth in the Contract and in any other Contracts into which both the DMA and the City may enter, and (iii) shall comply with all terms, conditions and requirements set forth by the appropriate City Agency which is required to give its approval.

3. The DMA shall let and sub-contracts that it intends to enter into in connection with providing the Services and/or the Improvements.

CITY PLANNING COMMISSION

November 16, 2005 Calendar No. 11 N 060107 BDK

IN THE MATTER of an application submitted by the Department of Small Business Services, on behalf of the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction Business Improvement District pursuant to Section 25-405 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York, as amended, concerning the formation of the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction Business Improvement District, Borough of Brooklyn, Community District 14.

On August 23, 2005, the Mayor authorized the preparation of a district plan for the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction Business Improvement District (BID). On August 29, 2005, on behalf of the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction District Management Association (DMA), the Department of Small Business Services (DSBS) submitted the district plan for the BID, located in Community District 14, in the Borough of Brooklyn.

Background

The proposed BID is located in the area generally known as Flatbush, in the Borough of Brooklyn. The BID's boundaries extend along Flatbush Avenue, from Farragut Road on the north to the Long Island Railroad cut on the south; along Nostrand Avenue, from Glenwood Avenue on the north to the Long Island Railroad cut on the south; on Hillel Place, between Flatbush Avenue and Campus Road; on Glenwood Road, between Kenilworth Place and Flatbush Avenue; and on Glenwood Road, between Flatbush Avenue and Nostrand Avenue.

There are 149 properties in the BID, represented by 126 property owners. There are 235 businesses which include one non-profit, eight wholly residential properties, four government-owned properties, one church and a number of mixed-use properties with 184 residential units above commercial storefronts. The buildings are typically three-story structures and are occupied by a predominance of general merchandise, apparel and furniture stores, and local neighborhood support services.

The services of the BID will primarily focus on sanitation and security. The sanitation program may include but not be limited to sidewalk and curb sweeping and the emptying and bagging of litter baskets. The BID proposes to employ a sanitation crew to perform related services six days per week throughout the year. Graffiti removal services for all store gates and other surfaces will also be included under the budget of the sanitation program. The security program will supplement the existing police force and will address the needs of the merchants, property owners and residents of the area.

The budget for the first year of the BID is $200,000. The budget will allocate $50,000 to sanitation/graffiti removal, $64,500 to security, $10,000 to marketing/technical assistance, $13,000 to holiday decorations, $57,500 to administration, and $5,000 towards the contingency plan.

The BID assessment method is based upon a combination of assessed value and front footage. The rate per linear front foot is $21 and the rate per dollar of assessed value for a commercial property is .005. The total assessed value of all properties in the BID is $77.9 million dollars. The total frontage for all Class A properties is 4,781 feet. Wholly residential and vacant properties will be assessed at one dollar per year. All commercial properties in development covering a single city block will be assessed at $3,000 per year during the development phase. Following the completion of the development phase the properties shall be assessed in the same manner as commercial properties. All city-owned and non-profit properties devoted to public or non-profit use shall be exempt from assessment.

Outreach to property owners, merchants and residents was done by the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction BID Steering Committee. All property owners were informed of the BID assessment and services. The outreach for the BID was documented and submitted to the Department of City Planning.

ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW

The district plan was reviewed pursuant to the New York State Environmental Quality Review Act (SEQRA) and the SEQRA regulations set forth in Volume 6 of the New York State Code of Rules and Regulations, Section 617.00 et seq., and the New York City Environmental Quality Review (CEQR) Rules of Procedure of 1991 and Executive Order No. 91 of 1977. The designated CEQR number is 06SBS001K. The lead agency is the Department of Small Business Services. After a study of the potential environmental impact of the proposed action, a negative declaration was issued on July 29, 2005.

LAND USE REVIEW

On August 29, 2005 the Department of Small Business Services (DSBS) submitted the district plan for the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction Business Improvement District (BID) to the Department of City Planning. The plan was then transmitted for review to the Office of the Mayor, Office of the Brooklyn Borough President, City Council Speaker, City Council Member of Community District 45 and Brooklyn Community Board 14.

Community Board Public Hearing

On October 11, 2005 Community Board 14 adopted a resolution recommending the approval of this application (N 060107 BDK) by a vote of 31 in favor, 0 opposed and 0 abstentions.

City Planning Commission Public Hearing

On September 26, 2005 (Calendar No. 4) the Commission scheduled October 19, 2005 for a public hearing on the district plan. On October 19, 2005 (Calendar No. 39), the hearing was duly held. There were four speakers in favor of the proposal and none in opposition.

The first speaker, the executive director of the Flatbush

Development Corp. and also a member of the BID's steering committee, spoke about the issues that had facilitated their efforts in planning the proposed BID. Those issues included concerns regarding sanitation, security, traffic and parking and much needed capital improvements.

The City Councilmember of District 45 spoke in favor of the proposed BID. He stated that under his efforts and in collaboration with the Economic Development Corp., 4.5 million dollars had been allocated to a streetscape improvement project for the area within the proposed BID.

A property owner gave a history of the area and pointed out the sanitation and graffiti issues that the area had contended with over the years. She spoke of her vision of the area that would, if the proposed BID is approved and established, give the property and business owners a commercial viability.

A business owner spoke about the proposed services that the BID would provide. She broke down the budget in terms of the costs for the services and mentioned that Brooklyn College, which is exempt from the assessment, would provide in-kind services, such as office space and storage. She also spoke about the goals of the BID to create a cleaner, safer environment that would attract businesses and help them to thrive.

There were no other speakers and the hearing was closed.

CONSIDERATION

The Commission believes that the proposal to create the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction Business Improvement District is appropriate.

The Commission has carefully reviewed the documents that the proposed BID sponsor submitted regarding notification of constituents about the pending BID. It believes that these outreach efforts for the BID were adequate and satisfactory.

BIDs are important to the City because they help retain and attract businesses to the District and promote healthy economic development for the City.

RESOLUTION

The Commission supports the proposed plan and has adopted the following resolution:

RESOLVED, that the City Planning Commission certifies its unqualified approval of the proposed district plan for the Flatbush-Nostrand Junction Business Improvement District.

The above resolution duly adopted by the City Planning Commission on November 16, 2005 (Calendar No.11) is filed with the City Council and the City Clerk pursuant to Section 25-405 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York.

Reports of the Committee on Health

Report for Int. No. 758-A (2004-2005 session)

Report of the Committee on Health in favor of approving and adopting as amended, notwithstanding the objection of the Mayor, a Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the Health Care Security Act.

The Committee on Health to which was referred on November 30, 2005 (Minutes, page 5754) and originally adopted by the Council on December 21, 2005 (Minutes, page 6114) the annexed amended proposed local law respectfully

REPORTS:

On March 1, 2006, the Health Committee, chaired by Council Member Joel Rivera, will hold a hearing on Int. No. 758-A, which would amend section 22-506 of chapter 5 of Title 22 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York, also known as the "Health Care Security Act" (HCSA). At that time, the Committee will override the Mayor's veto of this legislation (Mayor's Message No. 11). Previous hearings on this legislation were held on December 13, 2005 and December 21, 2005, at which time the Committee, and subsequently the full Council, passed Int. No. 758-A.

The HCSA was enacted as Local Law 89 of 2005 on October 11, 2005, pursuant to a Council override of a Mayoral veto. Hearings on the HCSA were held on December 10, 2004, June 9, 2005, August 17, 2005 and October 11, 2005.

BACKGROUND

The HCSA was enacted to require that grocery employers provide financial assistance for their employees' health care costs, marking the first step in an effort toward reducing the number of working New Yorkers who do not receive health care coverage. The HCSA requires certain employers in the grocery industry to make required health care expenditures on behalf of their employees each fiscal year from July 1 through June 31, beginning on July 1 of 2006. Such expenditures are based on the prevailing rate in the grocery industry, an industry in which a majority of employers already contribute to their employees' health care costs. Under Local Law 89 of 2005, the Mayor must appoint an administering agency to annually determine the prevailing health care expenditure rate. This determined rate is to be published by the administering agency by March 1 of each year, and shall take effect on July 1 of the fiscal year. Grocery employers covered by the legislation must annually determine their required health care expenditure by multiplying the prevailing health care expenditure rate as determined by the administering agency by the total number of hours worked during the fiscal year by their employees.

INT. NO. 758-A

Section 1 of Int. No. 758-A would amend subdivision b of section 22-506 of chapter 5 of Title 22 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York, entitled "Definitions." Paragraphs (1) through (14) would be renumbered as paragraphs (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (10), (12), (13), (14), (15), (16) and (17), respectively. New paragraphs (1), (9) and (11) would be added to read as follows:

(1) "Active retail floor space" means the floor space in any store operated by a grocery employer that is utilized for the display and sale of food; provided that such term shall not include any storage space, loading dock, food preparation space or eating area designated for the consumption of prepared food.

(9) "Family member of a covered employer" means the spouse or domestic partner as defined in section 3-240 of the administrative code of a covered employer and each child, parent, sister or brother of such employer.

(11) "Food" means nourishment for human consumption.

Renumbered paragraphs (6), (12) and (13) would be amended to read as follows:

(6) "Employee" means any person who is not a family member of a covered employer and who works at any location in the city on a full-time, part-time or seasonal basis for any grocery employer; provided that such term shall not include persons who are managerial, supervisory or confidential employees; and provided further that such term shall not include persons who are hired to work exclusively for the holiday period from November 1 through December 31.

(12) "Grocery employer" means any entity operating one or more retail stores in the city that (i) primarily sell food for off-site consumption, where such entity employs fifty or more employees at any one such store, provided that such entity shall be deemed to employ the highest number of employees that such entity employed at any time during the preceding fiscal year or (ii) contain 12,500 square feet or more of active retail floor space for the sale of food for off-site consumption, such as a "big box" retail store or warehouse club; provided that such term shall not include any retail store for which pharmacy sales comprise fifty percent or more of store sales.

(13) "Health care expenditure" means any amount paid by a covered employer to its employees or to another party on behalf of its employees and/or the families of its employees for the purpose of providing health care services or reimbursing the cost of such services for its employees and/or the families of its employees, including, but not limited to, (i) contributions by such employer to a health savings account as defined under section 223 of the United States internal revenue code or to any other account having substantially the same purpose or effect without regard to whether such contributions qualify for a tax deduction or are excludable from employee income; (ii) reimbursement by such employer to its employees and/or the families of its employees for incurred health care expenses where such recipients had no entitlement to have expenses reimbursed under any plan, fund or program maintained by such employer; or (iii) contributions by such employer to any New York city health and hospitals corporation facility or federally qualified health center that is located in a borough where such employer operates a store or where the majority of such employer's employees reside, provided that such contributions shall not be designated for a particular individual or group of individuals, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary; provided, however, that such term shall not include any payment made directly or indirectly for workers' compensation, Medicare benefits or any other health care costs, taxes or assessments that such employer is required to pay pursuant to any federal, state or local law other than this section, or any amount deducted from an employee's wages and not reimbursed by such employer.

Section 2 of Int. No. 758-A would amend paragraphs (1), (3) and (4) of subdivision c of section 22-506 of chapter 5 of Title 22 of the Administrative Code. The amendment to paragraph (1) would clarify that employers would be required to make health care expenditures each fiscal year, beginning on July 1, 2006. The amendment to paragraph (1) would also allow employers to make such expenditures for the fiscal year within thirty days after the close of the fiscal year for which such expenditures are required to be made, provided that no health care expenditures may be credited toward more than one fiscal year.

Paragraph (3) of subdivision c would be amended to add language providing that a covered employer may use any reasonable methodology to determine (i) the number of hours worked during the fiscal year by its employees; (ii) such employer's required health care expenditure for the fiscal year; and (iii) whether the health care expenditure made by such employer during the fiscal year is at least equal to such employer's required health care expenditure for such year. Pursuant to amended paragraph (3), each covered employer would be required to file a concise statement describing such methodology with the administering agency, or if no such agency has been designated, with the city clerk, by April 1 of each year for the following fiscal year.

Subparagraph (i) of Paragraph (4) of subdivision c would be amended to note that the work log required to be maintained by each covered employer pursuant to the HCSA shall include, for each employee, such employee's name, trade or occupation, and the dates and hours or time periods worked by such employee, provided, however, that covered employers shall not be required to maintain such records in any particular form.

Section 3 of Int. No. 758-A would amend paragraph (4) of subdivision f of section 22-506 of chapter 5 of Title 22 of the Administrative Code. Pursuant to amended paragraph (4), in addition to any joint-labor management committee established pursuant to the federal Labor Management Cooperation Act of 1978 operating in the covered industry, any employee of a covered employer may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction against a covered employer that fails to make health care expenditures during the fiscal year at least equal to the required health care expenditure for such employer in violation of this section. Upon a determination of any such violation, the court may award any appropriate equitable relief to secure compliance with the legislation and shall award reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in maintaining the action to any complaining party who prevails in any such enforcement action.

Section 4 of Int. No. 758-A would contain a severability clause.

Section 5 of Int. No. 758-A would provide that this local law would take effect immediately or on the date that local law 89 of 2005 takes effect, whichever is later.

By Council Members Katz and Avella

Whereas, the City Planning Commission filed with the Council on January 30, 2006 its decision dated January 25, 2006 (the "Decision"), on the application submitted by the Department of City Planning, pursuant to Section 201 of the New York City Charter, for an amendment to the text of the Zoning Resolution (Application No. N 060170 ZRK) (the "Application");

Whereas, the Application is related to ULURP Application Number C 060171 ZMK (L.U. No. 27), an amendment of the Zoning Map, Section Nos. 12c, 12d, 13a and 13b to rezone approximately 19 blocks to MX-8, M1-2/R6A and M1-2/R6B;

Whereas, the Decision is subject to review and action by the Council pursuant to Section 197-d(b)(1) of the City Charter;

Whereas, upon due notice, the Council held a public hearing on the Decision and Application on February 27, 2006;

Whereas, the Council has considered the land use implications and other policy issues relating to the Decision and Application; and

Whereas, the Council has considered the relevant environmental issues (CEQR No. 04DCP003K);

A Notice of Minor Modification was issued on October 31, 2005, which determined that the zoning text and map changes set forth in Applications N060170ZRK and 060171ZMK would not result in any new or additional significant adverse impacts not already set forth in the Final Environmental Impact Statement (FEIS) for the Greenpoint-Williamsburg Rezoning. The Notice of Completion for the Greenpoint-Williamsburg Rezoning FEIS was issued on March 4, 2005.

To avoid the potential for air quality impacts associated with boiler emissions, the proposed zoning map amendment includes (E) designations.

Resolved:

The Council finds that the action described herein will have no significant effect on the environment;

Pursuant to Sections 197-d and 200 of the City Charter and on the basis of the Decision and Application the Council approves the Decision; and

The Zoning Resolution of the City of New York, effective as of December 15, 1961, and as subsequently amended, is further amended as follows:

Topic I: New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission - (Candidate for re-appointment upon advice and consent review by the Council)

- Elliot Gene Sander [M-61]

The New York City Taxi and Limousine Commission ("TLC") was created pursuant to Local Law 12 of 1971. Section 2300 of Chapter 65 of the New York City Charter ("Charter") states that there shall be a TLC, the purposes of which shall be, inter alia, the "continuance, further development and improvement of taxi and limousine service in the City. It shall be the further purpose of the [TLC], consonant with the promotion and protection of the public comfort and convenience, to adopt and establish an overall public transportation policy governing taxi, coach, limousine and wheelchair accessible van services as it relates to the overall public transportation network of the City." The TLC consists of nine members appointed by the Mayor, all with the advice and consent of the New York City Council. Five of said members, one resident from each of the five boroughs of the City, are recommended for appointment by a majority vote of the Council Members of the respective borough. TLC members are appointed for terms of seven years, and can serve until the appointment and qualification of a successor. Vacancies, other than those that occur at the expiration of a term, shall be filled for the unexpired term. The Mayor may remove any such member for cause, upon stated charges.

The Mayor designates one member of the TLC to act as the Chairperson and Chief Executive Officer. The Chairperson shall have charge of the organization of his/her office and have authority to employ, assign and superintend the duties of such officers and employees as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of Chapter 65 of the Charter. The Charter provides that the Chairperson shall devote his/her full time to this position and, as such, receive compensation as set by the Mayor. The Chair currently receives $166,884 annually. Other members of the TLC are not entitled to compensation.

Pursuant to the Charter, all proceedings of the TLC and all documents and records in its possession shall be public records and the TLC shall make an annual report to the City Council on or before the second Monday of January in each year.

Upon re-appointment by the Mayor with the advice and consent of the Council, Mr. Sander, a resident of Queens, will be eligible to serve on the TLC for the remainder of a seven-year term that expires on January 31, 2012. Mr. Sander has been serving in a holdover capacity since February 1, 2005. Copies of Mr. Sander's resume and the proposed Committee report/resolution are annexed to this briefing paper.

Int. No. 162

By Council Members Barron, Arroyo, Baez, Clarke, Dickens, Foster, Gonzalez, James, Mark-Viverito, Martinez, McMahon, Sanders and Vann.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to expanding the criteria used to determine when to launch an immediate investigation into the whereabouts of a missing person to include a person 25 years-of-age and under, and whether an absence is inconsistent with a person's usual patterns, habits and schedule as known by friends, acquaintances or family.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Legislative Intent and Findings

The City Council hereby finds and declares that the criteria used to determine when to commence an immediate investigation into the whereabouts of missing persons must be expanded. The circumstances surrounding the tragic and untimely death of Ms. Romona Moore, a 21-year old, bright and ambitious Hunter College student from Canarsie, demonstrate the necessity for this reform.

Current police practice in the City of New York requires an immediate investigation of a person reported missing who is (a) under 16 years of age; (b) 65 years of age or older; (c) mentally or physically impaired to the extent hospitalization is required; (d) senile, retarded or disabled and not capable of self-care or clear communication; (e) a possible victim of drowning; (f) absent in a "unique/unusual" case; or (g) absent under circumstances indicating unaccountable or involuntary disappearance. If a person does not fit into one of these enumerated categories, an immediate investigation is not required. The New York City Police Department's (NYPD) Missing Persons Squad is to be notified regarding the progress of the missing persons search within a reasonable time, which the NYPD defines as within four hours but no later than the end of the tour, but the case itself is not referred to this special unit until seven days have elapsed.

The deficiencies in these immediate investigation criteria are reflected in Romona Moore's case. Ms. Moore did not fit within any of the categories of persons enumerated in the NYPD's Patrol Guide, and thus an investigation did not commence until three days after the filing of a missing person's report by her family. Despite the insistence of her family that her case was unusual and unique because her habits and patterns were well known to them, the police did not immediately commence a search. This failure to search had tragic consequences; the young woman's body was found only a few blocks from her home just one week after her she was reported missing. Information vital to Ms. Moore's disappearance may have been recovered and she may be alive today if such an investigation was launched upon notice of her disappearance.

Law enforcement officials acknowledge that the first 24 to 72 hours is crucial in locating a person who is missing; after that time, the prospects of recovering a person becomes dim. To ensure that the tragedy that befell Romona Moore does not occur again, this Council finds that the age requiring an immediate missing persons investigation be increased to 25, that the NYPD consider whether an absence is inconsistent with a person's usual patterns, habits and schedule as known by family, friends and acquaintances, and that the case be referred to the NYPD's Missing Person's Squad after three days.

§2. Chapter 1 of title 14 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 14-152, to read as follows:

§14-152. Missing Persons Investigations

a. This provision shall be known and may be cited as Romona Moore's Law.

b. The New York City Police Department shall immediately investigate and/or search, without any waiting period whatsoever, for persons who are New York City residents, reported to be missing, and who are:

i. under 26 years of age; or

ii. mentally/physically impaired to the extent that hospitalization may be required; or

iii. senile, retarded or disabled and not capable of self-care or clear communication; or

iv. 65 years of age or older; or

v. missing under circumstances which constitute a unique/unusual case; or

vi. missing under circumstances indicating unaccountable or involuntary disappearance; or

vii. a possible drowning victim.

In determining whether a person is missing under circumstances indicating unaccountable or involuntary disappearance, or in a unique or unusual case, the police department shall, in addition to other factors, consider whether such an absence is inconsistent with a person's usual patterns, habits and schedule as known by friends, acquaintances or family.

c. An immediate investigation or search is not required for persons wanted for crimes, or persons wanted on warrants, or persons eighteen years of age or older, who have left home voluntarily because of domestic, financial or similar reasons.

d. Upon receiving a missing persons report, the bureau within the New York City Police Department that receives the report shall immediately notify the New York City Police Department's Missing Persons Squad. In addition, if the person is still missing after 72 hours, the bureau that received the report shall refer the case to the New York City Police Department's Missing Persons Squad.

§3. This local law shall take effect 30 days after its enactment.

Res. No. 130

Resolution urging the establishment of a Commission on Queen Mother Moore Reparations for Descendants of Africans of New York City.

By Council Members Barron, Clarke, Dickens, Foster and Sanders.

Whereas, In 1625 the Dutch established the village of New Amsterdam on Manhattan Island and began the wholesale kidnapping and enslavement of African people from the Caribbean and Africa; and

Whereas, African laborers in 1639 worked daily in Manhattan Islands' Northern Forest (Upper East Side and Harlem) clearing timber and cutting lumber at the Colony's Sawmill (74th Street and Second Avenue); and

Whereas, These Africans also built farms beyond New Amsterdam, in Staten Island, Brooklyn and Queens; and

Whereas, In 1664 the English won control of New Amsterdam and renamed it New York after the Duke of York, and continued the wholesale thievery of African people from the Caribbean and Africa; and

Whereas, These Africans were forced to provide "Free Labor" to New York City under British rule that was even more aggressive and cruel in its participation in the so-called Transatlantic slave trade, one of the greatest crimes committed against humanity; and

Whereas, These Africans during New York City's colonial period of enslavement, cleared land, built houses, paved roads, built forts and bridges, planted and harvested crops; and

Whereas, The enslavement of Africans continued in New York City after the colonial period when the United States ratified its constitution in 1789 and became the United States of America, until New York City abolished slavery in the 1840's; and

Whereas, In short, Africans built New York City's infrastructure and economy and were never paid; and

Whereas, Not only were these Africans never paid, they were subjected to the worse kind of rape, torture, brutality and murder the human mind can conjure up; and

Whereas, Evidence of this cruelty can be validated by the over 20,000 African ancestral remains located in downtown Manhattan, particularly 427 of those African ancestral remains that have been excavated from the African Burial Ground located on Duane and Reade Streets; and

Whereas, These Africans are now represented by over 2.1 million people of African ancestry in New York City; and

Whereas, Queen Mother Moore, born Audley F. Moore on July 27th, 1898, and passed on to be with the ancestors on May 2nd, 1997, spent seventy-seven years of her life fighting for Human Rights, Civil Rights, Liberation, Black Nationalism and Reparations for African People; and

Whereas, Queen Mother Moore spent decades of her struggle fighting in Harlem, New York City; and

Whereas, In the early 1960's, Queen Mother Moore formed "The Reparations Committee of Descendants of United States Slaves" to demand Reparations for Africans in America from the U.S. Government; she canvassed the country to get over a million signatures to petition the government and was successful in presenting the signatures to President John F. Kennedy; and

Whereas, Queen Mother Moore continued the struggle of I.H. Dickerson and Callie House, who engaged in one of the earliest calls for Reparations when they established the "Ex-Slaves Pension Movement" from 1890 to 1920; and

Whereas, Queen Mother Moore joined many other Africans in America in the fight for Reparations, such as Marcus Mosiah Garvey, Malcolm X., Martin Luther King Jr., The Republic of New Africa, The National Coalition of Blacks for Reparations in America (N'COBRA), The December 12th Movement, The Black Radical Congress, The Patrice Lumumba Coalition, United African Movement, National Action Network, The Black United Front, The Unity Party and countless others; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That a "Queen Mother Moore" Reparations for Descendants of Africans of New York City Commission be established; and further

Resolved, That this Queen Mother Moore Reparations Commission be created by individuals and organizations of the New African Community of New York City in conjunction with the Black and Latino Caucus of the City Council; and further

Resolved, That the Queen Mother Moore Reparations Commission be funded by the City of New York for the duration of time deemed necessary by the Commission to hold hearings, conduct research and recommend compensation to the New African Descendant Community of New York City for the debt owed for the enslavement of their African Ancestors during the colonial and post-colonial periods in New York City.

Res. No. 131

Resolution urging the New York State Board of Elections to promptly certify Precinct Based/Optical Scan voting systems for procurement by the local Boards of Elections and urging the New York City Board of Elections to select a Precinct Based/Optical Scan system as the new voting technology for the City of New York.

By Council Members Barron, Arroyo, Baez, Clarke, Foster, Sanders, Stewart and Jackson.

Whereas, Honest, observable, and easily-verified public elections constitute the foundation of representative democracy; and

Whereas, Public confidence in the outcome of elections depends on voting technology that is reliable, secure, and easy to use; and

Whereas, The federal Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA) was intended as a response to the concerns that surrounded the outcome of the Presidential Election of 2000; and

Whereas, HAVA requires states to modernize elections and undertake measures to increase voter participation; and

Whereas, New York State enacted the Election Reform and Modernization Act (ERMA) in order to comply with HAVA; and

Whereas, ERMA requires local Boards of Elections to select new voting technology to replace the mechanical lever machines which are currently used throughout the state; and

Whereas, Under ERMA, local boards may select either a Precinct Based/Optical Scan (PB/OS) voting system or a Direct Recording Electronic (DRE) voting system; and

Whereas, Under ERMA, the New York State Board of Elections has the responsibility for certification of the various models that will be available to the local boards; and

Whereas, The deadline for HAVA compliance is the first federal election of 2006, which is the September 2006 primary; and

Whereas, The New York City Board of Elections must work diligently to select and begin planning immediately to make a transition to the use of a new voting technology; and

Whereas, Voter and public confidence would be strengthened by the use of paper ballots which are easier to use because they are manually marked directly by voters in pen; and

Whereas, The additional advantages to paper ballots are that they can be used by disabled voters through accessible ballot-marking devices and can also be easily used by those for whom English is not their primary language; and

Whereas, Paper ballots avoid issues with fraud detection, prevention, correct errors and tampering because they can be securely stored and handled, which enables election observers to meaningfully witness election procedures and vote-counting; and

Whereas, Paper ballots facilitate easy and observable recounts; and

Whereas, Optical scanners in the polling site would detect errors in ballot-marking such as overvotes, undervotes, and stray marks, and enable voters to correct such errors before their ballot is cast; and

Whereas, Optical scanners have proven their reliability by being successfully used in elections nationwide for over thirty years, and are currently used by thirty-five percent of American voters in forty-six percent of American jurisdictions; and

Whereas, Optical scanners have been successfully programmed, operated, and maintained by public employees in New York State in agencies such as the Division of the Lottery, the New York State Education Department and the Department of Motor Vehicles, as well as by our county Boards of Elections in all boroughs of the City of New York for use in counting absentee ballots; and

Whereas, Public employees should perform all work related to the conduct of elections; and

Whereas, Optical scanners can easily be programmed by bipartisan, technical staff at the New York City Board of Elections without the need for ongoing involvement of vendors; and

Whereas, DRE voting systems do not lend themselves to complete public control as vendors typically retain an interest in the hardware, software, or source-code of such technologies; and

Whereas, PB/OS systems will be significantly less expensive than DRE systems; and

Whereas, The difference in cost between the PB/OS and DRE systems relates to: (1) how many units would be required and initial purchase costs; (2) transition costs of altering storage facilities; (3) revision of training materials and procedures and training of voters and poll-workers; (4) continuing costs of storage, transportation, logic and accuracy testing; (5) dealing with the types of lawsuits that electronic voting has engendered in other jurisdictions; and (6) replacement costs; and

Whereas, It should be noted that optical scanner equipment is less delicate than electronic voting equipment and has a longer lifespan; and

Whereas, PB/OS systems can provide the advantages of quick election-day results and accessibility without the risks associated with electronic voting; and

Whereas, Voter and public confidence would be lowered by the use of electronic ballots which are recorded in a way that no voter or observer can actually witness; and

Whereas, DRE voting systems make errors and tampering difficult to detect, prevent, or correct; and

Whereas, Computer security with DRE systems is notoriously difficult to achieve; and

Whereas, The use of wireless communications capability would open an electronic ballot box to tampering by anyone in the world; and

Whereas, Other jurisdictions have experienced severe problems with electronic voting systems which have depressed voter confidence and prompted lawsuits by candidates and voters as a result of the many irregularities experienced with such systems; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York urges the New York State Board of Elections to promptly certify Precinct Based/Optical Scan voting systems for procurement by the local Boards of Elections and urges the New York City Board of Elections to select a Precinct Based/Optical Scan system as the new voting technology for the City of New York.

Res. No. 132

Resolution calling upon the City Council to declare its support for plaintiffs Deadria Farmer-Paellmann, Mary Lacey Madison, Andrea Carrington and all others similarly situated, in their efforts to seek restitution in a federal class action suit brought against the corporations that are alleged to have participated in and directly profited from the abhorrent institution of slavery.

By Council Members Barron, Clarke, Foster, James and Sanders.

Whereas, Over eight million Africans and their descendants were enslaved in the United States from 1619 to 1865; and

Whereas, By the end of the Trans-Atlantic slave trade, somewhere between eight and twelve million Africans had arrived in the New World to be sold off as slaves; and

Whereas, Historians estimate that one slave perished for every individual who survived capture and transport to the New World, meaning that as many as twelve million perished in addition to those who lived only to lead the dreaded life of a slave; and

Whereas, Not only did slavery result in the extinguishing of millions of Africans, but eviscerated whole cultures, languages, and religions, and wrenched from its victims and descendants their history, memories and families; and

Whereas, In addition to the South, many enslaved Africans arrived in the Dutch colonial city of New Amsterdam that later became New York City, where such slaves were integral in building many structures, such as Trinity Church, the City streets and the wall from which Wall Street takes its name and which protected the colony from military strikes; and

Whereas, These slaves lived cheek to jowl, in attics, hallways, and beneath porches, and in death they were banished to the Negro Burial Ground one mile outside the City, which holds between ten and twenty thousand bodies; and

Whereas, About forty percent of these buried bodies were children who died from malnutrition, and most of the adult bodies showed signs of death by hard labor; and

Whereas, Slavery was outlawed in 1865, yet continued on a smaller scale de facto until as recently as the 1950's; and

Whereas, Even for those who were "freed," their lives remained locked in quasi-servitude due to legal, economic, and psychic restraints that effectively blocked their economic, political and social advancement; and

Whereas, Slavery fueled the prosperity of the young nation by providing as much as forty million dollars in unpaid labor, which some estimate to have appreciated to a current value of more than one trillion dollars; and

Whereas, A class action suit has been brought in the United States District Court, for the Eastern District of New York by descendants of slaves, seeking restitution for the atrocities of slavery and the cruel aftermath it has engendered; and

Whereas, The Plaintiffs in this brave and noble class action are represented by Deadria Farmer-Paellmann, Mary Lacey Madison and Andrea Carrington; and

Whereas, The Defendants in the action are corporate entities that have allegedly used and/or profited from slave labor and have retained the benefits and use of those profits and products derived from that slave labor; and

Whereas, Defendant corporations allegedly knew that the plaintiff class was subject to physical and mental abuse and inhumane treatment; and

Whereas, FleetBoston, a named defendant in the lawsuit, is alleged to have financed some of the business of slave trading; and

Whereas, CSX, another named defendant, is alleged to have operated numerous railroad lines that were constructed or run by slave labor; and

Whereas, AETNA Inc., also named in the lawsuit, is alleged to have insured slave owners against the loss of their human chattel; and

Whereas, There are alleged to be many other corporations that have participated in and profited from slavery; and

Whereas, The United Nations has pronounced the Trans-Atlantic slave trade to be a crime against humanity; and

Whereas, A crime has been committed, a people have been injured by this crime, and compensation for these injuries are due; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the City Council declares its support for plaintiffs Deadria Farmer-Paellmann, Mary Lacey Madison, Andrea Carrington and all others similarly situated, in their efforts to seek restitution in a federal class action suit brought against the corporations that are alleged to have participated in and directly profited from the abhorrent institution of slavery.

Res. No. 133

Resolution supporting the concept of the Underground Railroad Curriculum, a culturally relevant and inspiring educational tool that educates students about the contributions, accomplishments and struggles of African Americans.

By Council Members Barron, Clarke, Foster, James, Mark-Viverito and Martinez.

Whereas, It is the duty of the New York City Department of Education to educate and inspire students of all ancestries; and

Whereas, According to the New York City Department of Education, African American students constitute over one third of the students in the New York City public school system; and

Whereas, According to Black New Yorkers for Educational Excellence, there is no curriculum in place in New York City schools that teaches black history in a systematic manner; and

Whereas, The lack of adequate incorporation of black history in the New York City school curriculum overlooks a crucial aspect of the history of the United States and minimizes the accomplishments, contributions and struggles of African Americans; and

Whereas, Neglecting black history in our schools is a disservice to all New York City students, but above all, is damaging to the well being of African American students and their communal and individual self-awareness; and

Whereas, There is a need for New York City schools to emphasize the significance of black history, most notably the African American battle to overcome racial inequality that spawned the American Civil Rights movement, one of the most significant social and political advancements of US history; and

Whereas, The Underground Railroad Curriculum seeks to establish equity with respect to the current cultural imbalance in the education of New York City students; and

Whereas, The New York State Legislature and the United States Congress have both mandated the incorporation of the Underground Railroad Curriculum for students; and

Whereas, Implementation of the Underground Railroad Curriculum will foster and promote a more culturally sensitive learning environment for students, and bestow upon the African American community much needed recognition of the importance of black history by New York City's educational institutions; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York supports the concept of the Underground Railroad Curriculum, a culturally relevant and inspiring educational tool that educates students about the contributions, accomplishments and struggles of African Americans.

A Local Law to amend the charter of the city of New York, in relation to requiring all city agencies to respond to Freedom of Information requests according to a prescribed timetable.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Chapter 47 of the charter of the city of New York is hereby amended by adding a new section 1058-a, to read as follows:

§1058-a. Responding to freedom of information requests. 1. All city agencies, within five business days, shall grant or deny all requests for information pursuant to the freedom of information law.

2. If circumstances exist making such agency unable, by the exercise of due diligence, and acting in good faith, to grant or deny a request for information within such five day period pursuant to subdivision one of this section, such agency shall, within such five day period, acknowledge receipt of the request in writing to the requesting party, stating the approximate date, not to exceed ten business days from the date of the acknowledgement, by which a determination with respect to the request shall be made. If the agency does not make a determination with respect to the request within ten business days from the date of such acknowledgement, the request may be deemed denied.

3. (a) Any person denied a request under this section may bring an appeal to the person or body designated in such agency to hear appeals, which shall within ten business days of the receipt of such appeal fully explain in writing to the person requesting the information the reasons for further denial, or provide access to the information sought. In addition, each agency shall immediately forward to the commission on public information and communication a copy of such appeal when received by the agency and the ensuing determination thereon.

(b) Any person denied access to information in an appeal determination under paragraph (a) of this subdivision may bring an appeal to the office of administrative trials and hearings.

(c) Any person denied access to information in an appeal determination under paragraph (b) of this subdivision may institute an action in any court of appropriate jurisdiction.

§2. This local law shall take effect 30 days after enactment.

Res. No. 134

Resolution calling upon the New York City Department of Education to hold open for public use, outside of school hours, playgrounds located on school property.

By Council Members Brewer, Addabbo Jr., Clarke, Gerson, Gonzalez, James, Koppell, Martinez, McMahon, Sanders, Seabrook, Stewart, Weprin, Felder and Foster.

Whereas, According to statistics compiled by the New York City Department of Education and others, approximately 1.6 million children attend primary or secondary school in New York City; and

Whereas, Most neighborhoods in New York City, especially those that are densely populated, lack sufficient open space for recreation and, in particular, lack sufficient open space suitable for recreation for children, such as playgrounds; and

Whereas, The New York City Department of Education operates approximately 1300 public school buildings, of which approximately 800 are elementary schools; and

Whereas, Under New York State law, all public elementary schools are required to have outdoor recreational space attached to, or associated with such schools; and

Whereas, The New York City Parks Department operates approximately 1000 playgrounds citywide, some of which are attached to public schools; and

Whereas, At least several hundred public schools have playground equipment located on school property or that is otherwise controlled by the Department of Education; and

Whereas, Not all playgrounds operated by the Department of Education are open and available for public use outside of school hours, and such playgrounds remain empty and unused during such periods; and

Whereas, A study published in the Journal of the American Medical Association in 2003 found that adolescents who had low fitness levels were three to six times more likely to develop conditions such as diabetes and high blood pressure than were adolescents with high fitness levels; and

Whereas, Additionally, according to the United States Department of Health and Human Services, nearly 15% of all children – almost 9 million young Americans – are overweight; and

Whereas, The health and recreational needs of City children would better be served if such playgrounds operated by the Department of Education were open and available for public use outside of school hours; and

Whereas, Many children in New York City attend schools distant from their homes; and

Whereas, Allowing Department of Education playgrounds to be shared and used by community members as well as school children would serve to encourage a relationship between both groups, which are often dissociated from each other; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York City Department of Education to hold open for public use, outside of school hours, playgrounds located on school property.

Res. No. 135

Resolution denouncing President Bush's support for the approval of Dubai Ports World to acquire six major American ports, including a key terminal in New York Harbor.

By Council Members Brewer, Gerson, Koppell, Weprin, Vallone Jr., Gennaro, Addabbo Jr., Clarke, Dickens, Fidler, Gentile, Katz, Mark-Viverito, Martinez, Nelson, Recchia, Sanders, White and Felder.

Whereas, Dubai Ports World, a company controlled by the government of the United Arab Emirates (UAE), is scheduled to assume a 30-year lease and manage port operations of a major terminal in the Port of New York and New Jersey, as well as acquire terminals in Baltimore, Miami, New Orleans and Philadelphia in March 2006; and

Whereas, The United Arab Emirates was deemed by the 9/11 Commission to be "a persistent counterterrorism problem"; according to the 9/11 Commission, the UAE was a critical travel and financial outlet for terrorists, and despite pressure from the United States, the UAE did not break off its ties and enforce sanctions on terrorist networks prior to 9/11; further, the 9/11 Commission's inquiry found that "the vast majority of the money funding the September 11 attacks flowed through the UAE"; and

Whereas, Except for cargo screening functions performed by the US Department of Homeland Security (DHS), the port operator is responsible for securing all cargo entering and exiting the port, maintaining the port facility itself, and hiring port security personnel; yet, only 5 percent of containers entering US ports are inspected by DHS, while the rest are monitored by the port operator; and

Whereas, Ports have long been considered vulnerable terrorist targets, and shipping containers provide a means of smuggling dangerous weapons into the country; all points of entry into the United States must be monitored with the utmost diligence to ensure the safety of all Americans; and

Whereas, The Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS), chaired by US Treasury Secretary John Snow, is charged with the complex task of supporting US investment policy by reviewing foreign acquisitions of US companies to protect national security while preserving the integrity of an open investment policy; however, its approval of Dubai Ports World to assume ownership and manage operations of seaports in six American cities is alarming, given that the UAE has been an outlet for terrorist operations; and

Whereas, This decision by CFIUS, approved by President Bush, has led to strong bi-partisan resistance, uniting Democratic and Republican leaders throughout the nation; Senator Charles Schumer of New York and Representative Peter King of

New York are introducing emergency legislation to suspend the acquisition of ports by Dubai Ports World; Senator Hillary Clinton of New York and Senator Robert Menendez of New Jersey are introducing legislation to prohibit companies owned or operated by foreign governments from purchasing port operations in the United States; and

Whereas, Senate Majority Leader Bill Frist of Tennessee and House Speaker Dennis Hastert of Illinois have both asked for a delay of the Dubai Ports World takeover of American ports; in addition, Governor Pataki of New York and Governor Robert Ehrlich Jr. of Maryland, both Republican leaders, have voiced their strong disapproval of contracting ports in their states to Dubai Ports World; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York denounces President Bush's support for the approval of Dubai Ports World to acquire six major American ports, including a key terminal in New York Harbor.

Res. No. 136

Resolution calling on the New York Congressional Delegation and all other members of Congress to oppose several bills that have been introduced into the 109th Congress of the United States —Senate Bills S. 1349 and S. 1504 and House of Representatives Bill H.R. 3146—along with the draft bill of the House of Representatives Energy and Commerce Committee (referred to as "Bits II") which would amend the Communications Act of 1934 to restrict, if not eliminate, local franchising and severely undermine community programming and the implementation of universal, affordable broadband access.

By Council Members Brewer, Katz, James, Martinez and Foster.

Whereas, public, educational, and governmental ("PEG") access provides thousands of hours of local programs each week to New York City residents, such as City Council meetings and hearings, community and neighborhood events and forums, foreign language programming health care information, school sports, services for houses of worship, and legislative updates and public access channels in all five boroughs allow New York City residents to exercise their First Amendment Rights and to create opportunities for non-commercial communication, education, artistic expression on an open and equitable basis; and

Whereas, local cable franchising allows municipalities around the country to exercise local authority and receive franchise fees for the use of public rights-of-way in order to meet the specific public access, community programming, consumer protection, public safety, and technology needs of residents and businesses; and

Whereas, the City Council of New York contends that the City's future economic success depends on universal, affordable broadband access and that the only way to achieve this objective is if New York City has the authority to regulate at the local level to help increase and improve broadband services for underserved residents; and

Whereas, existing law enables New York City (through local franchise agreements with cable television companies) to offer City residents vibrant and diverse local programming, Public Access channels in all five boroughs, and the City run Educational and Governmental channels; and

Whereas, existing law supports the objectives of localism and universal service by providing states and municipalities sufficient rights to manage local build out of services and determine local public access needs; and

Whereas, these bills could prevent New York City and other municipalities around the nation from requiring Multi Channel Video Providers (including cable or telecommunications companies) and advanced Internet communications service providers from having to obtain a franchise from the City for the use of City rights-of-way, thus impeding each municipality's ability to (i) control the use of its own resources, and (ii) determine what is required to meet local access needs; and

Whereas, these bills could nationalize franchising, which would remove local protection for consumers and would transfer effective local enforcement to the federal bureaucracy or the courts; and

Whereas, these bills may eliminate any build-out requirements for any video service provider, allowing providers to "red-line" and discriminate based on the wealth of the local neighborhoods they choose to serve; and

Whereas, these bills could substantially reduce the city's compensation for use of its rights of way by private companies and also reduce financial and operational support for PEG access; and

Whereas, although these bills contain some provisions that require companies to dedicate channel capacity to PEG access, they could lower the number of required PEG access channels and limit or eliminate support for public infrastructure like the I-Net (Institutional Network), which supports public safety, schools, emergency services and municipal communications; and

Whereas, although these bills contain some provisions that require PEG access, a Federal one-size-fits-all approach to public access does not serve the public interest in New York City because it does not take into account the local needs and circumstances that are unique to the City; and

Whereas, passage of these bills paves the way for the cable and telecommunications companies that have existing local franchise agreements with municipalities to lobby Congress to amend Federal law to exempt them from local franchise obligations; and

Whereas, these bills are unnecessary; because under existing law, telephone companies may enter the video market as common carriers, as open video service providers, or under the same franchising framework as cable companies; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the City Council of New York opposes, and urges the New York Congressional Delegation and all other members of Congress to oppose, Senate bills S. 1349 and S. 1504 and House bill H.R. 3146, as well as Bits II and any other similar legislative proposals.

13. List the location, size, general nature, acquisition date, market value and percentage of ownership of any real property in which any vested or contingent interest of one thousand dollars or more was held by the person reporting or his or her spouse or domestic partner during the preceding calendar year. Debts to be listed include real estate mortgages and other secured and unsecured loans. If any reportable liability has been guaranteed by any third person, list the name of such guarantor. Do not list liabilities incurred by, or guarantees made by, the person reporting or his or her spouse or domestic partner or by any proprietorship, partnership or corporation in which such person has an interest, when incurred or made in the ordinary course of trade, business or professional practice of such person. Include the name of the creditor and any collateral pledged by such individual to secure payment of any such liability. Do not list any liability to a relative[, as defined in subparagraph (d) of paragraph eight of this subdivision,] or any obligation to pay maintenance in connection with a matrimonial action, alimony or child support payments. Int. No. 166

By Council Members Dilan, Fidler, Seabrook and Stewart.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to educational requirements for appointment to the New York City Police Department.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Declaration of Legislative Intent and Findings.

The New York City Police Department ("NYPD") currently requires entering officers to have completed 60 credits of college education or two years of military service before appointment to the force. Although the 60 credit educational requirement strives to accomplish the commendable goal of making the NYPD more professional, it also effectively restricts the pool of quality recruits to the Department, many of whom are New York City residents.

To accommodate both the goal of making the NYPD more professional and to encourage potentially successful candidates who do not have two years military experience or 60 college credits to join the force, the Council believes that restructuring the admission requirement to allow for the completion of 60 college credits within the first five years of appointment would encourage a number of New York City residents to apply for a position with the NYPD.

The Council further believes that this restructuring will allow a greater number of applicants to become members of the force as well as set the foundation for having more City residents among the supervisory ranks. The Council also believes that the recruitment of City residents would enhance the diversity of the NYPD, create the potential for better police-community relations and increase the stake that officers have in policing this City.

§2. Section 14-109 of the administrative code of the city of New York is hereby amended to add a new subdivision (c) to read as follows:

§14-109 Qualifications of members of force; publishing names and residence of applicants and appointees; probation

c. A person shall be appointed or reappointed to membership in the police force who is a resident of the city of New York at the time of appointment or reappointment, and who has been a resident of the city of New York for three consecutive years prior to the time of appointment or reappointment, and who does not meet the educational requirement of having obtained sixty college credits. Such person, in order to continue to hold membership in the police force, must obtain the sixty college credits by the end of the fifth year as a member of the police force, and such person must remain a resident of the city of New York during the first five years as a member of the police force. Nothing herein shall prevent the commissioner from exercising discretion to waive the sixty college credit requirement for certain officers.

§3. This local law shall take effect 120 days after it is enacted into law.

Res. No. 137

Resolution calling upon the Governor to discontinue the State of New York's delay of the collection of the sales and excise tax on the sale of cigarettes made to non-Native Americans on Native American reservations.

By Council Members Fidler, Gennaro, Brewer, Koppell and Weprin.

Whereas, Pursuant to Articles 20 and 28 of the Tax Law, the State of New York imposes both a cigarette excise tax equal to $1.50 per pack of cigarettes and a 4% sales tax on the sale of cigarettes; and

Whereas, The issue of whether states have the authority to require the collection of such taxes on cigarette purchases made by non-Native Americans on Native American reservations has been the subject of numerous court cases including the 1994 Supreme Court decision, Department of Taxation and Finance of New York et al v. Milhelm Attea & Bros., Inc, et al., which unanimously held that non-Native Americans purchasing cigarettes on New York reservations are subject to tax; and

Whereas, In spite of the legal requirement to collect taxes from non-Native American consumers, many New York Indian tribes have refused to comply, citing that they are exempt from charging the taxes because of their sovereign status; and

Whereas, The sale of these so-called tax-free cigarettes has proved to be an extremely lucrative business for those Native Americans engaging in the sale of cigarettes, in that a carton of cigarettes bought on-line or in person from a reservation can cost less than $25 a carton compared to the $65 charge in New York City; and

Whereas, According to a recent Business Review article, the State is currently losing $450 million a year by not mandating the collection of these taxes on such sales; and

Whereas, As part of the adopted 2005-2006 State Budget, the State directed the Department of Taxation and Finance to enforce the collection of these taxes, beginning in March 2006; and

Whereas, In January 2006, as part of the 2006-2007 Executive Budget (Assembly Bill 9560/Senate Bill 6460), Governor Pataki proposed to increase the current cigarette excise from $1.50 to $2.50 per pack while at the same time proposed delaying enforcement of the collection of taxes on the cigarette sales made on reservations until March 2007; and

Whereas, Despite statutory authority and case law setting forth a legal obligation to pay, Governor Pataki, who supported the collection of the excise in 1997, now prefers to gain tax compliance by proposing to negotiate separate tax arrangements with Native American tribes; and

Whereas, Some Native American tribes, the Seneca tribe in particular, have made it abundantly clear that they will never agree to any such negotiation and have gone so far to saying they will never collect a cigarette excise tax on cigarettes sold on their reservation regardless of any legal obligation; and

Whereas, While at the same time Governor Pataki is proposing an increase in the cigarette tax excise from $1.50 to $2.50— consequently increasing the potential for profitability in cigarette tax evasion-- he is delaying the enforcement of a current law that requires taxpayers to pay the cigarette excise on sales they are already obligated to pay; now therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the Governor to discontinue the State of New York's delay of the collection of the sales and excise tax on the sale of cigarettes made to non-Native Americans on Native American reservations.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to abating rats as a requirement for the issuance of a permit for new construction or a building alteration.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Subchapter 1 of chapter 1 of article 11 of title 27 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 27-160.1 to read as follows:

§27-160.1 Rat abatement. No new building permit shall be issued unless the applicant has conducted appropriate trapping or baiting of rats at the site for which the permit is sought, and submits, with the application, a certification that such trapping or baiting has been performed.

§2. Subchapter 1 of chapter 1 of article 12 of title 27 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 27-162.1 to read as follows:

§27-162.1 Rat abatement. No building alteration permit shall be issued unless the applicant has conducted appropriate trapping or baiting of rats at the site for which the permit is sought, and submits, with the application, a certification that such trapping or baiting has been performed.

§3. This local law shall take effect thirty days after it shall become law, except that the commissioner of buildings shall take all actions as are necessary for its implementation prior to such effective date.

Res. No. 138

Resolution calling upon the appropriate committee of the Council of the City of New York to hold a hearing on implementing the recommendations of "Separate and Unequal: Medical Apartheid in New York City," a report by Bronx Health Reach, with the goal of eliminating racial health disparities.

By Council Members Foster, Clarke, Mark-Viverito, Martinez, Sanders and White.

Whereas, Bronx Health Reach, a coalition composed of 40 community and faith-based organizations dedicated to understanding and eliminating racial and ethnic disparities in health outcomes in the Southwest Bronx, issued a report on October, 17, 2005, entitled "Separate and Unequal: Medical Apartheid in New York City" (the "Report"), which made several recommendations to eliminate racial health disparities; and

Whereas, The Report found that Black and Latino New Yorkers are more than twice as likely as White New Yorkers to be uninsured, or to receive Medicaid or other public insurance; and

Whereas, The Report also found that due to a lack of quality health insurance, people of color disproportionately face more barriers to accessing high quality care, and are often sent to different healthcare institutions or segregated into different care systems within the same institution, all of which lead to disparities in health outcomes; and

Whereas, In response to these findings, the Report recommends structuring Medicaid fee schedules to create equal access to quality care by allowing care provided in faculty practices to be reimbursed by Medicaid at the same rate as Medicaid reimburses the clinics located in the same hospital, which would promote a single model of care for all patients and remove financial incentives for two-tiered systems; and

Whereas, The Report also calls for the creation of enforcement mechanisms that include significant penalties to ensure that discrimination in care based on source of payment, as regulated by New York State's Patient Bill of Rights, is not tolerated; and

Whereas, The Report recommends that race and ethnicity information be added to the data already collected in health facilities statewide to identify disparities in health care utilization and outcomes; and

Whereas, The Report also calls for greater accountability requirements with respect to collection of indigent care funds, which are allocated by the state and federal government to reimburse hospitals for care they provide to patients who cannot pay for health care services, in order to ensure that subsidies to hospitals reflect the amount of charitable care they provide; and

Whereas, According to Bronx Health Reach, pervasive segregation of care, based on the link between race, ethnicity and insurance status, resulting in the systemic separation of people into different systems of care, has created a "Medical Apartheid," which must end; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the appropriate committee of the Council of the City of New York hold a hearing on implementing the recommendations of "Separate and Unequal: Medical Apartheid in New York City," a report by Bronx Health Reach, with the goal of eliminating racial health disparities.

Resolution commending the Department of Sanitation for launching "Operation N.I.C.E." (Neighborhood Intensive Clean-Up Effort) and calling for a hearing on the results of its citywide implementation.

By Council Members Foster, Dickens, Gentile, James, Mark-Viverito, Nelson, Palma, Seabrook and White.

Whereas, Mayor Michael Bloomberg in his "State of the City" address on January 11, 2005, announced the launching of "Operation N.I.C.E." (Neighborhood Intensive Clean-Up Effort), a "block-by-block strategy for identifying and cleaning litter-filled vacant lots and other problem areas;" and

Whereas, In some neighborhoods of New York City there are major sanitation, health and environmental crises as a result of an overwhelming amount of debris-filled vacant lots, streets, sidewalks and step streets, made worse by a dearth of litter baskets; and

Whereas, Operation N.I.C.E. began in January of 2004 as a pilot program, and the Mayor announced that it has been expanded city-wide; and

Whereas, The Mayor announced that Operation N.I.C.E. has raised the average cleanliness score of the targeted districts in the pilot program by more than 15 points and resulted in the cleaning of 1,322 vacant lots; and

Whereas, The addition resources of Operation N.I.C.E. are necessary to help make New York City clean, healthy, and environmentally attractive; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York commends the Department of Sanitation for launching "Operation N.I.C.E." (Neighborhood Intensive Clean-Up Effort) and calls for a hearing on the results of its citywide implementation.

By Council Members Gennaro, Addabbo Jr., Fidler, Gentile, James, Koppell, Mark-Viverito, Martinez, Nelson, Recchia, Sanders, Weprin and Foster.

Whereas, Approximately 1.1 million schoolchildren attend public school within the City of New York; and

Whereas, These schoolchildren are required by State law to receive instruction in science throughout their education, including two credits of science in grades seven and eight, and two credits of science during their high school years; and

Whereas, Furthermore, all such schoolchildren must pass a Regents examination in science in order to graduate with a high school diploma; and

Whereas, "Environmental science" – meaning the branch of biology concerned with the relations between organisms and their environment – has become increasingly important to society as the human population and its demands on the Earth's resources have grown, and continue to grow; and

Whereas, In order for New York City schoolchildren to develop into productive citizens, they must develop an understanding of the principles of environmental science, so that they can incorporate those principles into their adult lives; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the City Council calls upon the New York City Department of Education to include instruction in environmental science at all appropriate grade levels of the New York City public school system.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the use of ultra low sulfur diesel fuel and the best available technology for reducing the emission of pollutants by diesel fuel-powered ferries owned by, operated by or on behalf of, or leased by the city.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Title 19 of the administrative code of the city of New York is hereby amended by adding a new section 19-306 to read as follows:

§19-306 Use of ultra low sulfur diesel fuel and best available technology by city ferries. a. For purposes of this section only, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

b. As of July 1, 2006, every diesel fuel-powered ferry owned by, operated by or on behalf of, or leased by the city shall be powered by ultra low sulfur diesel fuel.

c. Diesel fuel-powered ferries owned by, operated by or on behalf of, or leased by the city shall utilize the best available technology for reducing the emission of pollutants in accordance with the following schedule:

(1) two such ferries shall utilize such technology by July 1, 2006;

(2) three such ferries shall utilize such technology by January 1, 2007;

d. (1) Any diesel fuel-powered ferry that is purchased, newly operated by or on behalf of, or newly leased by the city after the effective date of this section shall exceed the United States environmental protection agency's Tier II 2007 air quality standards for marine engines by at least eighty-five percent.

(2) Any diesel fuel-powered ferry owned by, operated by or on behalf of, or leased by the city that exceeds the United States environmental protection agency's Tier II 2007 air quality standards for marine engines by at least eighty-five percent shall be exempt from the requirements of subdivision c of this section.

e. (1) The commissioner shall make determinations, subject to the written approval of the commissioner of environmental protection, and shall publish a list of such determinations, as to the best available technology to be used for each type of ferry to which this section applies for the purposes of subdivision c of this section. Each such determination, which shall be reviewed and revised, as needed, but in no event less often than once every six months, shall be primarily based upon the reduction in emissions of particulate matter and secondarily based upon the reduction in emissions of nitrogen oxides associated with the use of such technology and shall in no event result in an increase in the emissions of either such pollutant.

(2) The city shall not be required to replace best available technology for reducing the emission of pollutants or other authorized technology utilized for a diesel fuel-powered ferry in accordance with the provisions of this section within three years of having first utilized such technology for such ferry.

f. This section shall not apply:

(1) where federal or state funding precludes the city from imposing the requirements of this section; or

(2) to purchases that are emergency procurements pursuant to section three hundred fifteen of the charter.

g. The commissioner shall issue a written determination that permits the use of diesel fuel that has a sulfur content of no more than thirty parts per million to fulfill the requirements of subdivision b of this section if ultra low sulfur diesel fuel is not available to meet the needs of the city to comply with that subdivision. Such determination shall expire after six months and shall be renewed in writing every six months if ultra low sulfur diesel fuel is not available to meet the needs of the city, but in no event shall such a determination be in effect after September 1, 2006.

h. Subdivision b of this section shall not apply where the city makes a written finding, which is approved in writing by the commissioner, that a sufficient quantity of ultra low sulfur diesel fuel, or diesel fuel that has a sulfur content of no more than thirty parts per million where a determination is in effect pursuant to subdivision g of this section, is not available to meet the requirements of subdivision b of this section, provided that the city, to the extent practicable, shall use whatever quantity of ultra low sulfur diesel fuel or diesel fuel that has a sulfur content of no more than thirty parts per million is available. Any finding made pursuant to this subdivision shall expire after two months, at which time the requirements of subdivision b of this section shall be in full force and effect unless the city renews the finding in writing and such renewal is approved in writing by the commissioner.

i. Subdivision c of this section shall not apply to a diesel fuel-powered ferry where the city makes a written finding, which is approved in writing by the commissioner and the commissioner of environmental protection, that the best available technology for reducing the emission of pollutants as required by that subdivision is unavailable for such ferry, in which case the city shall use whatever technology for reducing the emission of pollutants, if any, is available and appropriate for such ferry.

j. In determining which technology to use for the purposes of subdivision i of this section, the city shall primarily consider the reduction in emissions of particulate matter and secondarily consider the reduction in emissions of nitrogen oxides associated with the use of such technology, which shall in no event result in an increase in the emissions of either such pollutant.

k. Any finding made pursuant to subdivision i of this section shall expire after six months, at which time the requirements of subdivision c of this section shall be in full force and effect unless the city renews the finding, in writing, and the commissioner and commissioner of environmental protection approve such finding, in writing.

l. (1) On or before October 1, 2007, and every succeeding October 1, the mayor shall submit to the comptroller and the speaker of the council a report regarding the use of ultra low sulfur diesel fuel and the best available technology for reducing the emission of pollutants and such other authorized technology in accordance with this section for diesel fuel-powered ferries owned by, operated by or on behalf of, or leased by the city during the immediately preceding fiscal year. The information contained in this report shall also be included in the mayor's preliminary management report and the mayor's management report for the relevant fiscal year and shall include, but not be limited to: (i) the total number of diesel fuel-powered ferries owned by, operated by or on behalf of, or leased by the city; (ii) the number of such diesel-fuel powered ferries that were powered by ultra low sulfur diesel fuel; (iii) the number of such diesel-fuel powered ferries that utilized the best available technology for reducing the emission of pollutants, including a breakdown by the type of technology used for each ferry model; (iv) the number of such diesel fuel-powered ferries that utilized other authorized technology in accordance with this section, including a breakdown by the type of technology used for each ferry model; (v) the number of ferries purchased, newly operated by or on behalf of, or newly leased by the city after the effective date of this section and whether or not such ferries are eighty-five percent cleaner than the United States environmental protection agency's Tier II 2007 air quality standards for marine engines; (vi) all findings, and renewals of such findings, issued pursuant to subdivision h of this section, which, for each finding and renewal, shall include, but not be limited to, the quantity of diesel fuel needed to power diesel fuel-powered ferries owned by, operated by or on behalf of, or leased by the city; specific information concerning the availability of ultra low sulfur diesel fuel or diesel fuel that has a sulfur content of no more than thirty parts per million where a determination is in effect pursuant to subdivision g of this section; and detailed information concerning efforts by the city to obtain ultra low sulfur diesel fuel or diesel fuel that has a sulfur content of no more than thirty parts per million where a determination is in effect pursuant to subdivision g of this section; and (vii) all findings and renewals of such findings issued pursuant to subdivision i of this section, which shall include, but not be limited to, all specific information submitted by the city upon which such findings and renewals are based and the type of other authorized technology, if any, utilized in accordance with this section in relation to each finding and renewal, instead of the best available technology for reducing the emission of pollutants.

(2) Where a determination is in effect pursuant to subdivision g of this section, information regarding diesel fuel that has a sulfur content of no more than thirty parts per million shall be reported wherever information is requested for ultra low sulfur diesel fuel pursuant to paragraph one of this subdivision.

§2. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or other portion of this local law is, for any reason, declared unconstitutional or invalid, in whole or in part, by any court of competent jurisdiction such portion shall be deemed severable, and such unconstitutionality or invalidity shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this law, which remaining portions shall continue in full force and effect.

§3. This local law shall take effect ninety days after its enactment, except that the commissioner of transportation shall take all actions necessary, including the promulgation of rules, to implement this local law on or before such effective date.

d. (1) The commissioner shall make determinations, subject to the written approval of the commissioner of environmental protection, and shall publish a list of such determinations, as to the best available technology to be used for each type of private ferry to which this section applies for the purposes of subdivision c of this section. Each such determination, which shall be reviewed and revised, as needed, but in no event less often than once every six months, shall be primarily based upon the reduction in emissions of particulate matter and secondarily based upon the reduction in emissions of nitrogen oxides associated with the use of such technology and shall in no event result in an increase in the emissions of either such pollutant.

(2) No private ferry operator shall be required to replace best available technology for reducing the emission of pollutants or other authorized technology utilized for a diesel fuel-powered private ferry in accordance with the provisions of this section within three years of having first utilized such technology for such ferry.

e. This section shall not apply where federal or state funding precludes the city from imposing the requirements of this section.

f. i. In determining which technology to use for the purposes of subdivision h of this section, a private ferry operator shall primarily consider the reduction in emissions of particulate matter and secondarily consider the reduction in emissions of nitrogen oxides associated with the use of such technology, which shall in no event result in an increase in the emissions of either such pollutant.

j. Any finding made pursuant to subdivision h of this section shall expire after six months, at which time the requirement included in an agreement, contract, authorization or permit pursuant to subdivision c of this section shall be in full force and effect unless the private ferry operator renews the finding, in writing, and the commissioner and commissioner of environmental protection approve such finding, in writing.

To provide, to the maximum extent practicable, that space will be available for continued use as manufacturing or industrial space in those areas designated by city and/or state agencies as priority locations for such uses;

To retain adequate wage- and job-producing industries in areas in close proximity to new commercial and residential development;

To provide a reasonable level of certainty to property owners, developers and areas residents in regard to what uses are permitted;

To help attract significant clusters of manufacturing, industrial, warehousing, wholesaling and distribution activities that will complement and enhance presently existing areas; and

To promote the stability of the city's manufacturing and industrial sector and to maintain as diverse its economic base by promoting certain areas as especially appropriate for manufacturing and industrial purposes thus conserving the value of land and protecting the city's tax revenue.

Int. No. 174

By Council Members Koppell, James, Seabrook, Vann, White and Foster.

A Local Law to amend the charter of the city of New York, in relation to the establishment of an independent police investigation and audit board.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows

Section 1. Legislative Findings of Fact and Declaration of Policy. The Council hereby finds that it is essential to the safety and well-being of the residents of the City of New York that members of the New York City Police Department be held to the highest standard of conduct and integrity in the performance of their professional responsibilities. As a society, we confer upon police officers the power to make arrests and, where necessary, use force, in order to protect public order, prevent crime and apprehend criminals. If the trust and confidence of the public is to be maintained, members of the police force must conduct themselves honestly, in a manner commensurate with the high degree of trust placed in them.

The Council finds that the vast majority of police officers discharge their duties honestly and with integrity. A relatively small number of police officers, however, have been found to engage in serious criminal activities, particularly in connection with the illegal drug trade. This was the finding of the Commission to Investigate Allegations of Police Corruption and the Anti-Corruption Procedures of the Police Department, better known as the "Mollen Commission." In July 1994, after an extensive investigation lasting almost two years, the Mollen Commission issued its final report. Among its key findings, the Commission concluded that the Police Department's internal anti-corruption systems had been allowed to deteriorate to the point where they "minimized, ignored and at times concealed corruption, rather than root it out." The Commission concluded that the Department must retain primary responsibility for policing itself and maintaining integrity within its ranks. To that end, the Commission recommended a "dual track approach" calling for reform of the Department's internal anti-corruption structure and the creation of an independent police monitor to ensure that the structure is working effectively.

The Council finds, as did the Mollen Commission, that once the glare of publicity has dimmed, the Police Department's commitment to zealously root out corruption will eventually diminish unless an independent entity continues to closely monitor the Department's anti-corruption efforts as well as independently investigate allegations of illegal activities. The purpose of this legislation is to create such an independent mechanism based upon the model proposed by the Mollen Commission.

The Independent Police Investigation and Audit Board created herein will have both the power to audit and examine the Police Department's own anti-corruption efforts and the ability to conduct independent corruption investigations backed by the power to issue subpoenas. In addition, the board shall issue an annual report to the mayor and the city council summarizing its activities, and shall include information on the number of investigations conducted and indictments rendered. It is, however, the Council's intention that the Police Department continue to have the primary responsibility for detecting and preventing internal corruption. The Council is also aware of the vital role played by other offices, such as the City's District Attorneys, in exposing and prosecuting acts of official corruption. The Council recognizes the need for cooperation and coordination among the responsible agencies in order to avoid duplication of efforts and interference with ongoing investigations and other legitimate law enforcement activities. For these reasons, the legislation requires the Board to enter into protocols with the Police Commissioner, the District Attorneys and the Civilian Complaint Review Board in order to create a structure in which such cooperation and coordination will be facilitated.

INDEPENDENT POLICE INVESTIGATION AND AUDIT BOARD

§450. Independent police investigation and audit board; membership. a. There shall be an independent police investigation and audit board, which shall consist of five members of the public who shall be residents of the city of New York. c. In the event of a vacancy on the board during the term of office of a member by reason of removal, death, resignation, or otherwise, a successor shall be chosen in the same manner as the original appointment. A member appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve for the balance of the unexpired term.

§451. Powers and duties of the board. a. The board shall have the power to:

1. perform assessments and audits of the police department's internal systems for detecting, investigating and preventing corruption among uniformed and civilian members of the police department, and make recommendations for the improvement of those systems;

3. undertake independent investigations of possible corruption within the police department; and

4. undertake investigations of possible corruption within the police department at the request of the mayor or the police commissioner.

b. If during the course of any assessment, audit or investigation undertaken pursuant to subdivision a of this section, the board forms a reasonable belief that criminal activity or other wrongdoing has occurred or is occurring, the board shall, as soon as practicable, report the facts that support such belief to the police commissioner and the appropriate prosecuting attorney.

§452. Subpoenas. The board, by majority vote of its members, may compel the attendance of witnesses and require the production of such records and other materials as are necessary for the investigation of any matter within its jurisdiction pursuant to this chapter. §455. Cooperation of the police department. a. It shall be the duty of the police department to provide such assistance as the board may reasonably request, to cooperate fully with investigations by the board, and to provide to the board upon request records and other materials which are necessary for the investigation of any matter within its jurisdiction pursuant to this chapter, except such records or materials that cannot be disclosed by law.

b. The police commissioner shall ensure that officers and employees of the police department appear before and respond to inquiries of the board in connection with the investigation of any matter within the board's jurisdiction pursuant to this chapter, provided that such inquiries are conducted in accordance with department procedures for interrogation of members.

§456. Authority of the police commissioner to investigate corruption to remain unimpaired; law enforcement agencies. The provisions of this chapter shall not be construed to limit or impair the authority of the police commissioner to investigate corruption within the department, or to discipline members of the department. Nor shall the provisions of this chapter be construed to prevent or hinder the investigation or prosecution of members of the department for violations of law or rules and regulations of the department by any court of competent jurisdiction, a grand jury, district attorney, or other authorized officer, agency or body.

§457. Protocols. a. Police Department. Within ninety days after the appointment of the last member of the board pursuant to section four hundred and fifty, the board and the police commissioner shall establish a protocol pursuant to which information shall be exchanged and cooperation between the board and the department facilitated in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Such protocol shall also provide for means of avoiding and resolving potential disputes arising out of investigations independently undertaken by both the board and the department.

b. District Attorneys. Within ninety days after the appointment of the last member of the board pursuant to section four hundred and fifty, the board shall enter into a protocol with each of the city's district attorneys pursuant to which information shall be exchanged, cooperation between the board and the district attorneys facilitated, and potential disputes arising out of investigations independently undertaken by the board and a district attorney's office shall be avoided and resolved. Any investigation undertaken by the board pursuant to paragraphs three or four of subdivision a of section four hundred and fifty-one shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the applicable protocol, if any, entered into pursuant to this subdivision. Provided, however, that the lack of a protocol pursuant to this subdivision shall not prohibit the board from undertaking any investigation authorized by this chapter.

§3. This local law shall take effect immediately after it shall be approved by the voters of the city at the next general election held after its enactment.

Res. No. 142

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to amend the Returnable Beverage Container Law, commonly know as the "Bottle Deposit Law" or "Bottle Bill," through the passage of Senate bill S.1290-C and Assembly bill A.2517-C to expand the scope of the law to include non-carbonated beverage containers and to return unclaimed deposits to municipalities.

By Council Members Koppell, Gentile, Mark-Viverito, Sanders Jr., Weprin and Foster

Whereas, In July 1983, the New York State Legislature enacted the Returnable Beverage Container Law, also know as the "Bottle Deposit Bill" or "Bottle Bill" to require a minimum 5-cent deposit on many bottles and cans; and

Whereas, The "Bottle Bill" has been successful in removing litter from the streets and has reduced the amount of solid waste disposed of, while fostering the recycling and reuse of the containers on which it required a deposit; and

Whereas, As a result of this bill, 78,000 tons of containers per year are eliminated from the City of New York's waste stream, saving the City a minimum of $4,212,000 in export costs; and

Whereas, In the twenty-three years since the passage of the "Bottle Bill" the types of beverages being consumed in recyclable containers has increased and changed dramatically; and

Whereas, Many of the beverages consumed in individual containers today were not envisioned in 1983, including beverages such as iced tea, bottled water, sports drinks and fruit juices which were virtually not sold in individual plastic or glass containers, while now they are as common as carbonated beverages; and

Whereas, There is no rational justification for not including these containers in the definition of beverages under the law requiring a deposit, and Senate bill S.1290-C and Assembly bill A.2517-C seek to remedy this by expanding the definition of "recyclable container" to include all containers for non-carbonated beverages, with the exception of liquor, wine and milk; and

Whereas, The Returnable Beverage Container Law is now recognized as the single most effective law in our state's history at diminishing litter and encouraging recycling, and individuals should now be subject to this law irrespective of whether they consumed a carbonated soft drink, bottled water, a fruit juice or sports drink; and

Whereas, Senate bill S.1290-C and Assembly bill A.2517-C would require all unclaimed deposits to be remitted to the New York Department of Taxation and Finance to be deposited in a Solid Waste Account of the Environmental Protection Fund and would be returned to localities for use in municipal recycling and waste reduction projects; and

Whereas, The uncollected deposits from the 5-cent deposit retained by the bottle distributors, currently amount to $107 million per year for New York City alone under the current bottle bill and would increase to $150 million per year under the expanded bottle bill; and

Whereas, These amounts, representing citizen funds, should be returned to the municipalities that must pay to collect and dispose of the uncollected bottles and cans, and be used to bolster recycling programs and ensure that they are effective; and

Whereas, Senate bill S.1290-C and Assembly bill A.2517-C, by placing a deposit on non-carbonated beverage containers, would create a positive economic incentive for consumers to properly dispose of many additional beverage containers and put the burden of recycling used beverage containers on their manufacturers; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, The Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to amend the Returnable Beverage Container Law, commonly know as the "Bottle Deposit Law" or "Bottle Bill," through the passage of Senate bill S.1290-C and Assembly bill A.2517-C to expand the scope of the law to include non-carbonated beverage containers and to return unclaimed deposits to municipalities.

§26-127.2 Violations of the zoning resolution in residential districts; illegal alterations or conversions; public nuisance; order of closure. a. b. If a building or part thereof in which such a nuisance occurs is not occupied primarily as a residence or if the aforementioned unpaid fines and civil penalties remain unpaid for thirty days or more from the date set for correction in the notice of violation or from the date that a final determination is made either before the environmental control board or another administrative tribunal even if the building is occupied primarily as a residence, the commissioner may, in addition to or as an alternative to any other remedy under any other provision of law, after notice and the opportunity for a hearing in accordance with this section, order the closing of such building or part thereof to the extent necessary to abate the nuisance.

Such order shall not bar legally required ingress or egress for residential occupancy of parts of the building, which are not subject to the order of closure.

f. A closure ordered by the commissioner pursuant to this section shall not constitute an act of possession, ownership, or control by the city over the closed premises.

g. An order of closure shall be posted at the building or part thereof, which is the subject of such order, and shall be mailed to the record owner of such premises, and any record mortgagee at the address for such person set forth in the recorded instrument, and to the person designated as owner or agent of the building or designated to receive real property tax or water bills for the building at the address for such person contained in one of the files compiled by the department of finance for the purpose of the assessment or collection of real property taxes and water charges or in the file compiled by the department of finance from real property transfer forms filed with the city register upon the sale or transfer of real property. h. On the tenth business day after the posting of such order and upon the written directive of the commissioner, police officers and authorized employees of the department shall act upon and enforce such order by sealing, padlocking, or otherwise preventing access to the premises in a manner that will not bar legally required ingress or egress for residential occupancy of parts of the building that are not subject to the closure order.

i. If at any time after the issuance of such order, the owner, mortgagee, or other person having an interest in the property provides assurance, in a form satisfactory to the commissioner, that the commercial or manufacturing use of the premises has been discontinued and will not reoccur, or such owner, mortgagee, or other person establishes that the premises may be lawfully occupied for such manufacturing or commercial use, or the owner, mortgagee, or other person having an interest in the property provides assurance, in a form satisfactory to the commissioner, that the illegal alteration or conversion of the property has been discontinued and the property has been restored to compliance with all applicable provisions of law, the commissioner shall rescind the closure order. If such order is rescinded, the commissioner shall, upon request of such owner, mortgagee, or other person, provide a copy of such [recission] rescission order, which may be filed with the county clerk or register of the county in which such premises are located.

Such amendments shall be submitted to the commissioner, the city chief procurement officer and the speaker of the council at least thirty days prior to implementation.

h. Achieving agency participation goals. (1) Each agency head shall be directly accountable for the goals set forth in his or her agency's utilization plan.

(2) Each agency shall make all reasonable efforts to meet the participation goals established in its agency utilization plan. Agencies shall, at a minimum, use the following methods to achieve participation goals:

(i) Agencies shall engage in outreach activities to encourage MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs to compete for all facets of their procurement activities, including contracts awarded by negotiated acquisition, emergency and sole source contracts, and each agency shall seek to utilize MBEs, WBEs and/or [WBEs] DBEs for all types of goods, services and construction they procure.

(ii) Agencies shall encourage eligible businesses to apply for certification as MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs and inclusion in the directories of MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs. Agencies shall also encourage MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs to have their names included on their bidders lists, seek pre-qualification where applicable, and compete for city business as contractors and subcontractors. Agencies are encouraged to advertise procurement opportunities in general circulation media, trade and professional association publications and small business media, and publications of minority and women's business organizations, and send written notice of specific procurement opportunities to minority and women's business organizations.

(iii) All agency solicitations for bids or proposals shall include information referring potential bidders or proposers to the directories of MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs prepared by the division.

(iv) In planning procurements, agencies shall consider the effect of the scope, specifications and size of a contract on opportunities for participation by MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs.

(v) For construction contracts, agencies shall consider whether to enter into separate prime contracts for construction support services including, but not limited to, trucking, landscaping, demolition, site clearing, surveying and site security.

(vi) Prior to soliciting bids or proposals for contracts valued at over ten million dollars, an agency shall submit the bid or proposal to the city chief procurement officer for a determination whether it is practicable to divide the proposed contract into smaller contracts and whether doing so will enhance competition for such contracts among MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs and other potential bidders or proposers. If the city chief procurement officer determines that it is both practicable and advantageous in light of cost and other relevant factors to divide such contracts into smaller contracts, then he or she shall direct the agency to do so.

(vii) Agencies shall examine their internal procurement policies, procedures and practices and, where practicable, address those elements, if any, that may negatively affect participation of MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs in city procurement.

(viii) Agency M/WBE officers shall, in accordance with guidelines established by the city chief procurement officer, establish a process for quarterly meetings with MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs to discuss what the agency looks for in evaluating bids and proposals.

(ix) Agencies shall encourage prime contractors to enter joint venture agreements with MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs .

i. Participation goals for construction and professional services contracts. (1) Prior to issuing the solicitation of bids or proposals for individual construction and professional services contracts, agencies shall establish a target subcontracting percentage for the contract and participation goals for MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs. The "target subcontracting percentage" for the contract shall represent the percentage of the total contract which the agency anticipates a typical prime contractor in the relevant industry would in the normal course of business award to one or more subcontractors for amounts under one million dollars. The participation goals established for a contract shall represent a percentage of the total dollar value of all subcontracts for amounts under one million dollars pursuant to the award. Such goals may be greater than, less than or the same as the relevant citywide goal or goals established pursuant to subdivision d of this section. In determining the participation goals for a particular contract, an agency shall consider the following factors:

(i) the scope of work;

(ii) the availability of MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs able to perform the particular tasks required in the contract;

(iii) the extent to which the type of work involved in the contract presents subcontracting opportunities for amounts under one million dollars;

(iv) the agency's progress to date toward meeting its annual participation goals through race-neutral, gender-neutral and other means, and the agency's expectations as to the effect such methods will have on participation of MBEs, [and] WBEs and DBEs in the agency's future contracts; and

(v) any other factors the contracting agency deems relevant.

(2) A contracting agency shall not be required to establish participation goals (i) for procurements described in subdivision q of this section; or

(ii) when the agency has already attained the relevant goal in its annual utilization plan, or expects that it will attain such goal without the use of such participation goals.

(3) For each contract in which a contracting agency has established participation goals, such agency shall state in the solicitation for such contract that bidders and/or proposers shall be required to agree as a material term of the contract that, with respect to the total amount of the contract to be awarded to one or more subcontractors pursuant to subcontracts for amounts under one million dollars, the contractor shall be subject to participation goals unless such goals are modified by the agency in accordance with this section.

(4) For each contract in which participation goals are established, the agency shall include in its solicitation and/or bidding materials, a referral to the directories prepared by the division pursuant to this section.

(5) For each contract for which participation goals are established the contractor shall be required to submit with its bid or proposal, a utilization plan indicating the percentage of the work it intends to subcontract, and the percentage of work it intends to award to subcontractors for amounts under one million dollars, and, in cases where the contractor intends to award subcontracts for amounts under one million dollars, a description of the type and dollar value of work designated for participation by MBEs, [and/or] WBEs and/or DBEs, and the time frames in which such work is scheduled to begin and end. When the utilization plan indicates that the bidder or proposer does not intend to award the target subcontracting percentage, the bid or proposal shall not be deemed responsive unless the agency has granted a pre-award waiver pursuant to paragraph 11 of this subdivision.

(6) For each contract for which a utilization plan has been submitted, the contracting agency shall require that within thirty days of the issuance of notice to proceed, the contractor submit a list of persons to which it intends to award subcontracts within the next twelve months. In the event that a contracting agency disapproves a contractor's selection of a subcontractor or subcontractors, the contracting agency shall allow such contractor a reasonable time to propose alternate subcontractors.

(7) For each contract for which a utilization plan has been submitted, the contractor shall, with each voucher for payment, and/or periodically as the agency may require, submit statements, certified under penalty of perjury, which shall include, but not be limited to, the total amount paid to subcontractors (including subcontractors that are not MBEs, [or] WBEs or DBEs); the names, addresses and contact numbers of each MBE, [or] WBE or DBE hired as a subcontractor pursuant to such plan as well as the dates and amounts paid to each MBE, [or] WBE or DBE. The contractor shall also submit, along with its voucher for final payment, the total amount paid to subcontractors (including subcontractors that are not MBEs, [or] WBEs or DBEs); and a final list, certified under penalty of perjury, which shall include the name, address and contact information of each subcontractor that is an MBE, WBE or [WBE] DBE hired pursuant to such plan, the work performed by, and the dates and amounts paid to each.

(8) If payments made to, or work performed by, MBEs, [or] WBEs or DBEs are less than the amount specified in the contractor's utilization plan, the agency shall take appropriate action in accordance with subdivision o of this section, unless the contractor has obtained a modification of its utilization plan pursuant to paragraph 12 of this subdivision.

(9) When advertising a solicitation for bids or proposals for a contract for which a participation goal has been established, agencies shall include in the advertisement a general statement that the contract will be subject to participation goals for MBEs, WBEs and/or [WBEs] DBEs.

(10) In the event that a contractor with a contract that includes a utilization plan submits a request for a change order the value of which exceeds ten percent of such contract, the agency shall establish participation goals as if for a new contract for the work to be performed pursuant to such change order.

(11) Pre-award waiver. (i) Subject to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, the contracting agency may grant a full or partial waiver of the target subcontracting percentage to a bidder or proposer who demonstrates that it has legitimate business reasons for proposing the level of subcontracting in its utilization plan. The contracting agency shall make its determination in light of factors which shall include, but not be limited to, whether the bidder or proposer has the capacity and the bona fide intention to perform the contract without any subcontracting, or to perform the contract without awarding the amount of subcontracts for under one million dollars represented by the target subcontracting percentage. In making such determination, the agency may consider whether the utilization plan is consistent with past subcontracting practices of the bidder or proposer, and whether the bidder or proposer has made good faith efforts to identify portions of the contract that it intends to subcontract. Within thirty days of the registration of a contract, the city chief contracting officer shall notify the council of any such waiver granted with respect to the contract.

(ii) The agency M/WBE officer shall provide written notice of requests for a full or partial waiver of the target subcontracting percentage to the division and the city chief procurement officer and shall not approve any such request without the approval of the city chief procurement officer, provided that the city chief procurement officer, upon adequate assurances of an agency's ability to administer its utilization plan in accordance with the provisions of this section, may determine that further approval from the city chief procurement officer is not required with respect to such requests for an agency's contracts or particular categories of an agency's contracts. The city chief procurement officer shall notify the speaker of the council in writing within [seven] thirty days of the [approval] registration of a contract for which a request for a full or partial waiver of a target subcontracting percentage was granted, provided that where an agency has been authorized to grant waivers without approval of the chief procurement officer, such notice shall be provided to the speaker of the council by the agency. Such notification shall include, but not be limited to, the name of contractor, the original target subcontracting percentage, the waiver request, including all documentation, and an explanation for the approval of such request.

(12) Modification of utilization plans. (i) A contractor may request modification of its utilization plan after the award of a contract. Subject to subparagraph (ii) of this paragraph, an agency may grant such request if it determines that such contractor has established, with appropriate documentary and other evidence, that it made all reasonable, good faith efforts to meet the goals set by the agency for the contract. In making such determination, the agency shall consider evidence of the following efforts, as applicable, along with any other relevant factors:

(A) The contractor advertised opportunities to participate in the contract, where appropriate, in general circulation media, trade and professional association publications and small business media, and publications of minority and women's business organizations;

(B) The contractor provided notice of specific opportunities to participate in the contract, in a timely manner, to minority and women's business organizations;

(C) The contractor sent written notices, by certified mail or facsimile, in a timely manner, to advise MBEs, [or] WBEs or DBEs that their interest in the contract was solicited;

(D) The contractor made efforts to identify portions of the work that could be substituted for portions originally designated for participation by MBEs, WBEs and/or [WBEs] DBEs in the contractor utilization plan, and for which the contractor claims an inability to retain MBEs, WBEs or [WBEs]DBEs;

(E) The contractor held meetings with MBEs, WBEs and/or [WBEs]DBEs prior to the date their bids or proposals were due, for the purpose of explaining in detail the scope and requirements of the work for which their bids or proposals were solicited;

(F) The contractor made efforts to negotiate with MBEs, WBEs and/or [WBEs]DBEs as relevant to perform specific subcontracts, or act as suppliers or service providers;

(G) Timely written requests for assistance made by the contractor to the agency M/WBE liaison officer and to the division;

(H) Description of how recommendations made by the division and the contracting agency were acted upon and an explanation of why action upon such recommendations did not lead to the desired level of participation of MBEs, WBEs and/or [WBEs]DBEs.

(ii) The agency M/WBE officer shall provide written notice of requests for such modifications to the division and the city chief procurement officer and shall not approve any such request for modification without the approval of the city chief procurement officer, provided that the city chief procurement officer, upon adequate assurances of an agency's ability to administer its utilization plan in accordance with the provisions of this section, may determine that further approval from the city chief procurement officer is not required with respect to such requests for an agency's contracts or particular categories of an agency's contracts. The city chief procurement officer, shall notify the speaker of the council in writing within seven days of the approval of a request for modification of a utilization plan, provided that where an agency has been authorized to grant modifications without approval of the chief procurement officer, such notice shall be provided to the speaker of the council by the agency. Such notification shall include, but not be limited to, the name of the contractor, the original utilization plan, the modification request, including all documentation, and an explanation for the approval of such request.

(iii) The agency M/WBE officer shall provide written notice to the contractor of its determination that shall include the reasons for such determination.

Referred to the Committee on Contracts.

Int. No. 181

By Council Members Sanders, Baez, Dickens, Mark-Viverito, Martinez, Monserrate, Palma, Vann, Weprin and Foster.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the provision of equipment at public hospitals for persons who weigh four hundred pounds or more.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. According to the National Institute of Diabetes and Digestive and Kidney Diseases, nearly two-thirds of U.S. adults are overweight, and one-third are obese. In addition, according to the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, more than half (53%) of New York City adults – 2.8 million people – are overweight or obese. Eighteen percent of the City's adult populations, 980,000 people, are obese. Overweight and obesity are known risk factors for numerous illnesses, including diabetes, heart disease, stroke, hypertension, gallbladder disease, osteoarthritis, breathing problems and some forms of cancer. As a result, overweight people have greater health care needs than the general population.

New York City hospitals, however, may not be sufficiently prepared to assist obese New Yorkers. Accordingly, the Council declares that it reasonable and necessary to require public hospitals under the jurisdiction of the New York City Health and Hospitals Corporation to have equipment available to provide medical care to obese persons.

§17-191 Medical equipment for people who weigh four hundred pounds or more. The New York city health and hospitals corporation shall ensure that at least one hospital under its jurisdiction in each borough is equipped with a stretcher, wheelchair and bed capable of being utilized by a person weighing at least four hundred pounds.

§3. This local law shall take effect on September 1, 2006.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to making it a crime to operate a motor vehicle or construction vehicle while intoxicated or impaired by drugs at a construction site or to enter upon a construction site under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Legislative Intent and Findings. In a first time report examining alcohol and drug abuse among workers in the United States, the federal Department of Health and Human Services in 1996 found that the highest rates of drug and alcohol use were reported among workers in the construction industry. The prevalence of drug and alcohol use among construction workers is disturbing because public and worker safety is imperiled at locations where heavy equipment and machinery are used.

The Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) regulates many aspects of workplace safety, yet it has not established a specific standard regarding workplace alcohol and drug use, or programs regarding alcohol and drug use. Under the federal Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988, any individual or company that receives a contract or grant from the federal government must agree, among other things, to publish and to provide a policy statement to all employees informing them about illegal drug use and to establish a drug free awareness program. These provisions, however, do not apply to contractors or individuals who do not receive federal funds for their projects.

New York State law provides that an employee may be disqualified from receiving unemployment benefits for testing positive on a drug test or for using alcohol or drugs in violation of work rules, and worker compensation benefits may be denied to an employee whose injury is occasioned solely by the employee's intoxication from alcohol or a controlled substance.

Under the state's Vehicle and Traffic Law, operation of a motor vehicle or other heavy equipment and machinery in an intoxicated condition while on a construction site does not appear to be covered by the state's Driving While Intoxicated (DWI) laws. Under its terms, the state's DWI law applies "upon public highways, private roads open to motor vehicle traffic and any other parking lot." A parking lot means "any area or areas of private property, including a driveway, near or contiguous to and provided in connection with premises and used as a means of access to and egress from a public highway to such premises and having a capacity for the parking of four or more motor vehicles." These definitions do not appear to encompass a construction site, which is usually a privately owned area, not a highway, and not open to the public.

Despite the danger of alcohol and drug use while at a construction site, there is no federal, state or local law that makes it a crime to operate a motor vehicle or other construction vehicle at a construction site while intoxicated or impaired by drugs. Just as the State Legislature has made a determination that the placing of a key into the ignition of a car on a public street while intoxicated is a criminal offense, so too should the operation of any heavy equipment or machinery in an intoxicated condition at a construction site result in criminal penalties, particularly in light of the dangers associated with construction work.

In addition, because of the heightened safety risks associated with a construction site, it should also be illegal for any person to access a construction site in an intoxicated or impaired condition, or to possess or use alcohol at a construction site. The possession or use of controlled substances is already illegal under state law.

§2. Section 27-1009 of article one of subchapter 19 of title 27 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding new paragraphs e through n, to read as follows:

(e) No person may enter upon a construction site under the influence of alcohol or other drug to the degree that he or she may endanger himself or herself or other persons on the construction site. For purposes of this subdivision, "drug" shall have the same meaning as in the vehicle and traffic law.

(f) No person shall possess or use alcohol on a construction site.

(g) No person shall operate any motor vehicle while in an intoxicated condition on a construction site.

(h) No person shall operate any motor vehicle while such person has .04 of one per centum or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood as shown by chemical analysis of such person's blood, breath, urine or saliva, made pursuant to the provisions of the vehicle and traffic law, on a construction site.

(i) No person shall operate a motor vehicle while the person's ability to operate such a motor vehicle is impaired by the use of a drug on a construction site. For purposes of this subdivision, "drug" shall have the same meaning as in the vehicle and traffic law.

(j) No person shall operate a construction vehicle while in an intoxicated condition on a construction site. For purposes of this subdivision, "construction vehicle" shall mean any vehicle or combination of vehicles that is designed and used primarily for activities at a construction site.

(k) No person shall operate a construction vehicle while such person has .04 of one per centum or more by weight of alcohol in the person's blood as shown by chemical analysis of such person's blood, breath, urine or saliva, made pursuant to the provisions of the vehicle and traffic law, on a construction site. For purposes of this subdivision, "construction vehicle" shall mean any vehicle or combination of vehicles that is designed and used primarily for activities at a construction site.

(l) No person shall operate a construction vehicle while the person's ability to operate such a construction vehicle is impaired by the use of a drug on a construction site. For purposes of this subdivision, "construction vehicle" shall mean any vehicle or combination of vehicles that is designed and used primarily for activities at a construction site. For purposes of this subdivision, "drug" shall have the same meaning as in the vehicle and traffic law.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to creating the crime of gang recruitment.

Section 1. Legislative Intent and Findings

The City Council finds and declares that it is the right of every person, regardless of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, or disability to be secure and protected from fear, intimidation and physical harm caused by the activities of violent groups and individuals. The City Council also recognizes the constitutional right of every citizen to harbor and express beliefs on any subject whatsoever, to associate with others who share similar beliefs, to petition lawfully constituted authority for a redress of perceived grievances, and to participate in the electoral process.

The City Council further finds that neighborhoods and schools throughout the city are easily terrorized by street gangs, and that action must be taken to ensure that gangs are thwarted in their efforts to recruit members, or to prevent members from leaving. The Council believes that reasonable laws must be instituted to make it a crime to solicit or recruit or to conspire to solicit or recruit a person as a member of a criminal street gang, or to deter a person from leaving a criminal street gang.

§2. Chapter one of title ten of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 10-164, to read as follows:

§10-164. Gang Recruitment Prohibited

a. Definitions. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

1. Criminal Street Gang. Any ongoing organization, association in fact, or group of three or more persons, whether formally or informally organized, or any sub-group or affiliated group thereof, having as one of its primary activities the commission of one or more criminal acts or illegal acts, which has an identifiable name or identifying sign or symbol, and whose members individually or collectively engage in or have engaged in a pattern of criminal gang activity.

2. Pattern of Criminal Gang Activity. The commission, attempt to commit, conspiring to commit, or solicitation of a predicate gang crime, provided the criminal act was committed by two or more persons who are members of, or belong to, the same criminal street gang.

3. Predicate Gang Crime. Any offense prohibited by Article 220 or 221 of the Penal Law for which the maximum penalty is imprisonment of not less than one year; or any felony crime as defined by state or federal law; or any misdemeanor that has as an element the use or attempted use of physical force against a person.

b. Prohibition 1. A person who solicits, recruits, entices or intimidates a person to join a criminal street gang commits a violation of this section.

2. A person who conspires to solicit, recruit, entice or intimidate another person to join a criminal street gang commits a violation of this section.

3. A person who expressly or impliedly threatens, intimidates or takes other action with the intent to deter any person from leaving a criminal street gang commits a violation of this section.

c. Penalties. Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Any vehicle or property used for the purpose of recruiting or conspiring to recruit a person to join a criminal street gang shall be subject to the provisions of Section 14-140 of the administrative code.

§3. This local law shall take effect immediately.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring certain establishments where weapons violations have taken place to adopt security measures as recommended by the New York City Police Department.

Be it enacted by the Council as follows:

Section 1. Declaration of legislative findings and intent. The Council finds that the presence of guns and other dangerous weapons in certain establishments creates a serious health and safety threat to the public. New York City is renowned for its abundance of dining and nightlife options, and New Yorkers and tourists alike appreciate the variety of restaurant, nightclub and cabaret establishments that are unparalleled anywhere in the world. Accordingly, millions of people patronize these establishments every year. To ensure the health and safety of those individuals who frequent and support these businesses, such establishments are subject to a variety of important health and safety regulations. Although most health and safety hazards associated with such businesses have been minimized, certain risks still exist.

These risks have been tragically illustrated by incidents of gunfire erupting in crowded nightclubs, and by the possession and use of other dangerous weapons in these venues. The threat and potential harm that may result from a patron using a gun or other dangerous weapon in a busy restaurant or club is immeasurable. Ordinary disputes that are normally defused may, instead, turn into bloodshed and mayhem if a patron is in possession of a dangerous weapon, especially a firearm; countless innocent people could be injured or killed. In an effort to minimize these serious risks, the City Council believes that the Police Department should be permitted to make security recommendations for any cabaret, dance hall or catering establishment after an incident involving dangerous weapons possession or use has occurred. Failure to abide by these NYPD recommendations will result in the imposition of penalties and fines.

§2. Chapter 1 of title 10 of the administrative code of the city of New York is hereby amended to add a new section 10-164, to read as follows:

§10-164 Police Department Review of Security Procedures of Public Dance Halls, Cabarets and Catering Establishments.

a. When a violation of any of the provisions of article two hundred sixty five of the penal law occurs at a public dance hall, cabaret or catering establishment, as those terms are defined in § 20-359 of this code, the police department, in conjunction with the department of consumer affairs, may conduct a review of the security measures, procedures and protocols at such public dance hall, cabaret or catering establishment. Such security review may include, but not be limited to, an analysis of the type of security equipment appropriate for the venue. Upon completing its security review, the police department and department of consumer affairs may issue recommendations for improving security at such location, including, but not limited to, the use of magnometers or metal detectors. Within 30 days of receiving such security recommendations, the public dance hall, cabaret or catering establishment shall implement the recommendations as outlined by the police department.

b. Failure to comply with the security recommendations of the police department shall result in a civil penalty of not less than one thousand dollars and no more than two thousand five hundred dollars or suspension of the license to operate such public dance hall, cabaret or catering establishment.

§3. This local law shall take effect 90 days after its enactment into law.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring identifying numbers on the roof of any school bus.

Section 1. Legislative Intent and Findings.

In order to enhance the public safety, and ensure that school buses can be tracked from the air if they are lost or stolen, the City Council finds that operators of school buses should be required to place an identifying number unique to each bus on the roof of the bus. By doing so, law enforcement will be in a better position to locate a school bus from the air, should the need arise.

§2. Section 19-607 of the administrative code of the city of New York is renumbered as section 19-608, to read as follows:

[§19-607] §19-608 Penalty. Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate the provisions of this chapter shall be punished by a fine of five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not to exceed three months or by both such fine and imprisonment.

§3. Chapter six of title 19 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding thereto a new section 19-607 to read as follows:

§19-607. Identifying Numbers. Every omnibus having a seating capacity of more than seven passengers, used to transport pupils, teachers and other persons acting in a supervisory capacity to and from school or school activities, must have an identifying number unique to that vehicle conspicuously lettered on the roof of the omnibus.

A Local Law to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to the regulation of laser pointers.

Section 1. Legislative Findings of Fact and Declaration of Policy.

Laser pointers are commonly used by lecturers to highlight areas on a chart or screen. In the hands of "pranksters," however, they have been also used to flash on movie screens, to annoy people at malls and sporting events, and of greater concern, to flash them in people's eyes. There have also been recent unfortunate events where juveniles have misused laser pointers in a manner leading to injury. Incidents have occurred where laser pointers were aimed at police officers causing them to believe a laser sight of a handgun or rifle had targeted them. Laser pointers have also been used to disrupt classroom activities and have been aimed at drivers of automobiles, which can lead to car accidents.

In 2003, a Queens high school student, possessing a laser pointer on school premises (not for valid instructional, school-related or employment purposes), pointed this laser at his teacher causing her imminent fear that the light from the laser pointer would cause physical harm to her eyes. The student was subsequently charged with a violation of §10-134.2 of the New York City Administrative Code, but the charge was dismissed as jurisdictionally defective.

While a reading of New York City Administrative Code §10-134.2 indicates that the City Council intended to make the possession of a laser pointer on school premises by a person under twenty years old unlawful, unless it is being used in supervised educational instruction, the local law is drafted so as to preclude the Family Court from ever exercising jurisdiction over a child under the age of sixteen who violates the provision of the Code. Pursuant to Administrative Code §10-134.2 (h), a person under twenty who violates §10-134.2(d) by possessing a laser pointer on school premises is guilty of a violation for the first offense and a misdemeanor for any subsequent violations. However, because a person under the age of sixteen can never criminally be prosecuted for committing a violation due to the defense of infancy (Penal Law §30.00 [1]), and because a juvenile cannot be adjudicated delinquent based upon the commission of a violation, there can be no prior violation which would render a second violation of § 10-134.2 (d) a misdemeanor under article 3 of the Family Court Act. This seems to be at odds with one of the primary objectives of the law, which is to keep laser pointers from being possessed by minors. Thus, the City Council finds that the law should be amended to cure this defect.

§2. Subdivision (h) of § 10-134.2 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:

h. Any person who violates subdivision b, c, d or e of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. [Any person who violates subdivision d of this section shall be guilty of a violation for the first offense and a misdemeanor for all subsequent offenses.]

§3. This local law shall take effect sixty days after it shall be enacted.

Res. No. 144

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to amend various sections of the Penal Law to better combat gang violence.

By Council Member Vallone Jr., Fidler, Gennaro, Gentile, Nelson, Palma, Recchia, Weprin, Felder, Gallagher, Lanza and Oddo.

Whereas, Although great progress has been made combating crime in New York City, like most communities nationwide, gang related criminal activity still continues to prosper, thriving on shortcomings in the law that prescribe weak criminal penalties; and

Whereas, Dangerous and ruthless gangs, including the Bloods, Crips, Latin Kings, and a host of others, have established their presence in our schools and communities, bringing increased incidents of robbery, assault, drug dealing, prostitution and murder to our streets and neighborhoods; and

Whereas, While the NYPD and the District Attorney's offices work diligently to bring violent gang criminals to justice, successful prosecution is often hampered by the all too common occurrence of witness intimidation and tampering; these offenses occur when an individual threatens a witness or another with physical injury in an attempt to dissuade said witness from testifying in court; and

Whereas, Brazen gang members, emboldened by the inadequate penalties prescribed for these offenses, will often attempt to intimidate a witness into not testifying; as the law currently stands, both the offenses of Tampering with a Witness in the Third Degree (Penal Law § 215.11) and Intimidation of a Witness in the Third Degree (Penal Law § 215.15) are Class E felonies; if the penalties for witness intimidation and/or tampering were made more severe, we would likely experience a reduction in the frequency of gang members using such scare tactics to deter witnesses from coming forward, and ultimately, witnesses would feel more assured and justice would benefit by no longer being routinely obstructed by fearless criminals; and

Whereas, By risking exposure to only the relatively minor offense of an "E" felony, a defendant can effectively compromise the entire judicial process by threatening a witness and getting him to flee or recant or refuse to testify; when this occurs, all the hard work and energy expended in securing an arrest and preparing a prosecution are wasted, as a criminal walks free in a gross miscarriage of justice; and

Whereas, Further, yet another shortcoming exists in our current law regarding gang violence – Gang Assault First (Penal Law § 120.07) and Second Degree (Penal Law § 120.06), B and C level felonies respectively, both require that the victim of the assault be "seriously injured" for these charges to apply; however, countless vicious gang attacks result in personal injury to the victims that does not rise to the level of serious injury as required by law; and

Whereas, In order to expand the number of victims protected by the law and to ensure that those responsible for violent gang assaults are justly punished, Second Degree Gang Assault (a class C felony) should be expanded to include defendants who, when acting together with two or more individuals present, attack a victim but cause physical injury as defined in the Penal Law; and

Whereas, It is imperative that law enforcement have the tools and resources to effectively prosecute gang criminals, and these include sensible laws and meaningful penalties for offenders; any inadequacies and shortcomings in these areas which prove to be counter-productive to the purpose of the law should be properly remedied so that justice can truly be carried out; and

Whereas, Amending the Penal Law to reflect these changes would enhance the ability of law enforcement to effectively prosecute and bring to justice violent gang criminals, thereby greatly enhancing the safety and quality of life for all New Yorkers; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the city of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to amend various sections of the Penal Law to better combat gang violence.

Referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

Res. No. 145

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to address the legal loopholes that allow dangerous and deadly drivers to drive under the influence of drugs or to drive with a suspended or revoked license.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Fidler, Gennaro, Gentile, Koppell, Nelson, Recchia, Weprin, Felder, Foster, Gallagher and Oddo.

Whereas, Dangerous drivers whose reckless behavior results in serious injuries and fatalities have become a serious concern in the nation, the state and in New York City; and

Whereas, A Public Safety Committee hearing in 2005 focused on Driving While Intoxicated (DWI) laws that allow those who drive while intoxicated to be charged with only a misdemeanor when they injure or kill another person; and

Whereas, One particular problem is that of drug-related DWI offenses; a National Highway Traffic Safety Administration study of fatally injured drivers found that nearly 20% had drugs or a combination of drugs and alcohol in their system at the time of the crash; and

Whereas, If the impairment was due to drug use, charges and penalties are only applicable if that specific drug is listed under New York State's Public Health Law as a controlled substance, thus exempting some offenders from any punishment at all, particularly those who abuse prescription medication; and

Whereas, In order to address the inadequacies of existing law, state lawmakers must ensure that DWI drug offenders are not excused from prosecution by mandating that those who are impaired by any substance, and thus incapable of employing the physical and mental abilities of a reasonable and prudent driver, will be appropriately punished; and

Whereas, Another group of drivers that are especially of concern are repeat-offenders who continue to put others at risk, even with multiple license suspensions and/or revocations on their driving record; and

Whereas, According to the AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety, Driving While Suspended (DWS)/Driving While Revoked (DWR) drivers are 3.7 times more likely to be involved in a fatal crash than are validly licensed drivers while unlicensed drivers are 4.9 times more likely to be involved in a fatal accident; and

Whereas, One tragic story, as discussed by Richmond County District Attorney Daniel Donovan, involves eleven year old Michael Vasquez-Moore, struck by a driver who did not have a valid driver's license and whose license to drive had been suspended 15 times and revoked twice prior to the incident; and

Whereas, Under New York State law, however, this driver could only be charged with a misdemeanor charge of driving without a license; additionally, in this case, the charges were dismissed because the judge could not determine whether or not the defendant was properly notified that her license was suspended by the DMV; and

Whereas, Although it is written in the New York State Department of Motor Vehicles Driving Manual that failure to respond to a traffic infraction may result in a license suspension and that it is illegal to drive with a suspended or revoked license, many drivers are not aware of the consequences and plead ignorance; and

Whereas, In order to further address the inadequacies of existing law, state lawmakers must ensure that drivers are aware that their license will be suspended indefinitely if they do not respond to the traffic violation through a written warning on the ticket itself; and

Whereas, Although the state law does penalize repeat-offenders with car forfeitures for more than 10 non-DWI traffic infractions, these violations must occur on 10 separate occasions, exempting this particular offender from being appropriately punished, thus state lawmakers must reduce the number of incidents in which suspensions and/or revocations are accrued in order to be subject to car forfeitures; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to address the legal loopholes that allow dangerous and deadly drivers to drive under the influence of drugs and to drive with a suspended or revoked license.

Res. No. 146

Resolution calling upon the Legislature of the State of New York to increase the penalty for those who impersonate police officers and for those who illegally sell police uniforms.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Fidler, Gennaro, Gentile, Nelson, Recchia, Stewart, Weprin, Felder, Gallagher and Oddo.

Whereas, In January 2005, James Gottlieb, a bank manager from Franklin Square, Long Island, was pulled over by a man dressed in what resembled a police uniform; in an attempt to commit a robbery, the police impersonator shot and killed Gottlieb; and

Whereas, In nearby Valley Stream a few days later, a pair of fake police officers robbed two businessmen on a busy road in broad daylight; and

Whereas, Terrorist groups have used police uniforms to mask their identities and gain access to their targets (i.e. government buildings and offices) without arousing suspicion; and

Whereas, The current Criminal Impersonation Law (Penal Law §190.25), a class A misdemeanor which subjects a person to up to one year in prison, states that a person is guilty of criminal impersonation in the second degree when he or she pretends to be a public servant, or wears, or displays without authority any uniform, badge, or insignia by which such public servant is lawfully distinguished, and acts with intent to obtain a benefit or to injure or defraud another; and

Whereas, The current Criminal Impersonation Law (Penal Law §190.26) states that a person is guilty of criminal impersonation in the first degree, a class E felony which subjects a person to up to four years in prison, when he or she pretends to be a police officer, or wears without authority, any uniform, badge or other insignia by which such police officer is lawfully distinguished or expresses by his words or actions that he is acting with the approval or authority of any police department and intends to persuade another to submit to such pretended official authority or to act in reliance upon said pretense and in the course of such pretense commits or attempts to commit a felony; and

Whereas, The current Criminal Sale of a Police Uniform Law (Penal Law §190.27) states that a person is guilty of criminal sale of a police uniform, a class A misdemeanor which subjects a person to up to one year in prison, when he or she sells or offers for sale the uniform of any police officer to any person, unless presented with valid identification showing that the purchaser is a member of the police department which has authorized the requested uniform; and

Whereas, With New York on high alert after the 9/11 terrorist attacks, security is being heightened throughout the city and terrorists should be deterred from using replicas of official identification and uniforms to get through security checkpoints or gain access to sensitive locations; and

Whereas, The increasing proliferation of individuals or companies that sell high-quality imitation or toy identification badges and uniforms is a related issue that increases the possibility of such items being used to facilitate future terrorist attacks and further complicates efforts to prevent other criminal acts committed by police imposters; and

Whereas, Under the current Criminal Impersonation Laws, the penalties are not severe enough to deter police impersonators from utilizing police uniforms and imitation badges to commit crimes by preying on innocent victims who rely on the false pretense that the impersonator is vested with official authority; and

Whereas, In order to make these penalties fit the crime, the penalty under Criminal Impersonation in the First Degree (Penal Law § 190.26) should be changed from a class E felony to a class D felony, which subjects a person to up to seven years in prison; the penalty under Criminal Impersonation in the Second Degree (Penal Law § 190.25) should be changed from a class A misdemeanor to a class E felony; and the penalty under Criminal Sale of a Police Uniform (Penal Law § 190.27) should be changed from a class A misdemeanor to a class E felony; and

Whereas, Furthermore, as exists under provisions of the city's Administrative Code, state law should be amended so that the mere possession or use of a police uniform or badge is a crime; the additional requirement under Penal Law § 190.25 that the person also act with the intent to defraud or injure, should be stricken, as the possession of a uniform or badge by someone who is not a police officer is grounds for prosecution; and

Whereas, Terrorists and criminals may illegally acquire official identification and uniforms as an effective way to increase access to high security areas and/or decrease scrutiny in furtherance of committing criminal activities; and

Whereas, Increasing the penalties under the current Criminal Impersonation laws and Unlawful Sale of a Police Uniform statute is a more effective method to safeguard the public from the dangerous consequences that may result when criminals and terrorists impersonate police officers; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the Legislature of the State of New York to increase the penalty for those who impersonate police officers and for those who illegally sell police uniforms.

Res. No. 147

Resolution calling on the New York State Legislature to adopt legislation requiring unlicensed drivers and drivers with a suspended or revoked license to be fingerprinted.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Gennaro, Martinez, Nelson, Gallagher and Oddo.

Whereas, Dangerous and deadly drivers are a growing problem who pose a significant risk to public safety; and

Whereas, Traffic fatality studies indicate that unlicensed drivers, especially those with suspended or revoked licenses, are nearly four times as likely to be involved in traffic accidents as those with valid licenses; and

Whereas, The American Automobile Association Foundation for Traffic Safety also confirms that Driving While Suspended /Driving While Revoked drivers are 3.7 times more likely to be involved in a fatal crash than are validly licensed drivers, while unlicensed drivers are 4.9 times more likely to be involved in a fatal accident; and

Whereas, According to the U.S. Department of Transportation, 10% of drivers involved in fatal crashes in New York possessed an invalid license; of those, 20% had previously been involved in crashes, and 22% had previous speeding convictions; and

Whereas, In 2004, New York City alone saw 23,448 arrests for Aggravated Unlicensed Operation of a Motor Vehicle; and

Whereas, Currently, fingerprints are not required upon the arrest for a violation or certain non-Penal Law misdemeanors; however, in certain instances, exceptions to the law exist for which a prior conviction would lead to increased penalties and in those instances, fingerprinting is required to identify the repeat offenders who fall under the elevated statute; and

Whereas, The B misdemeanor of Aggravated Unlicensed Operation in the Third degree is not included as an exception to the law and does not require fingerprinting, even though a repeat offense constitutes a higher A misdemeanor of Aggravated Unlicensed Operation in the Second Degree; and

Whereas, Although the New York State Legislature increased penalties for repeat offenders and those driving with multiple suspensions, the penalties are basically unenforceable as it is nearly impossible to identify prior convictions and the number of suspensions of individuals convicted of Aggravated Unlicensed Operation of a Motor Vehicle; and

Whereas, Additionally, since the Department of Motor Vehicles identifies drivers by name and address, drivers with common names or minor variations in their names are able to escape the current penalties for driving with multiple suspensions on their license; and

Whereas, The New York State Law Enforcement Council, which is a legislative advocate for New York's law enforcement community, including the district attorneys, states that "as long as New York's laws continue to treat repeat unlicensed driving as a minor offense, so will New York's drivers and unlicensed driving will only increase;" and

Whereas, Recognizing the danger in allowing unlicensed drivers and drivers with suspended or revoked licenses to evade serious punishment, members of the New York State Legislature have introduced legislation that would require the fingerprinting of persons arrested for or charged with Aggravated Unlicensed Operation of a Motor Vehicle; and

Whereas, Given that these proposed measures will prevent countless automobile-related injuries and deaths, it is imperative that the State Legislature ensure that unlicensed drivers and drivers with suspended or revoked licenses are fingerprinted to deter or appropriately punish repeat offenses; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the city of New York calls on the New York State Legislature to adopt legislation requiring unlicensed drivers and drivers with a suspended or revoked license to be fingerprinted.

Res. No. 148

Resolution calling on the New York State Legislature to amend the penal law and the criminal procedure law to make stalking by technological means illegal, and to increase the penalties for such acts.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Fidler, Gennaro, Gentile, Koppell, Martinez, Nelson, Recchia, Sanders, Weprin, Foster, Gallagher and Lanza.

Whereas, The prevalence of electronic stalking throughout the country is growing at a dangerous and alarming rate, continuing to induce terror in victims, and in some cases escalating to face-to-face encounters and physical violence; and

Whereas, Electronic stalking consists of using technological means, such as illegal wiretapping, cell phones, caller identification, the internet, cameras, global positioning systems and any other type of tracking device, to engage in a course of conduct that is likely to cause reasonable fear of material harm to the physical health, safety or property of another person; and

Whereas, For example, in a recent case in Wisconsin, the stalker had placed a global positioning system device between the radiator and the grill of the victim's car, enabling the stalker to track the victim wherever and whenever he wanted; and

Whereas, New York State's Stalking Law was enacted in 1999, and since that time the availability of new and ever more sophisticated technological means which can be used by a stalker to further his or her purpose has greatly increased; and

Whereas, Current New York law on stalking did not foresee the use of technological means to commit stalking crimes and therefore the law needs to be updated to prohibit the use of technology in any form in the furtherance of stalking and to increase the penalty for such use; and

Whereas, Due to the anonymous nature of the Internet, as well as the availability of personal information, and the fact that many Internet Service Providers erase their records every day, electronic stalking is becoming very attractive to would-be offenders, and increasingly difficult to prosecute; and

Whereas, The seriousness of the crime of electronic stalking cannot be overstated given the real threat the stalker represents, the disruption in the life of the victim, the facility with which a stalker can influence third parties to harass or threaten the victim, and the incidence of stalking escalating to face-to-face encounters, physical violence, and homicide; and

Whereas, Several bills are pending in the New York State Legislature to confront this growing problem, including S851 and A1944, which provide that stalking by technological means is prohibited and shall be included in the crimes of stalking in the first, second and third degrees; and

Whereas, Another bill, A7031, addressing a specific type of stalking, makes it a felony to intentionally make an electronic communication that includes personal identifying information when such communication is likely to cause a person to reasonably fear death, serious physical injury or kidnapping; and

Whereas, Common-sense legislation must be adopted that treats electronic stalking with the same intolerance and gravity as offline or conventional stalking; and

Whereas, An amendment to current law is vital to create a much stronger deterrent for potential electronic stalkers, while ensuring that guilty electronic stalkers are incarcerated for a sufficient and appropriate amount of time; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the city of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to amend the penal law and the criminal procedure law to make stalking by technological means illegal, and to increase the penalties for such acts.

Res. No. 149

Resolution denouncing the use of fur by all clothing makers and the inhumane manner in which the animals used for fur are killed.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Nelson, Sanders and Foster.

Whereas, The fur industry is experiencing a resurgence of popularity as evidenced by the proliferation of clothing makers and designers using fur in their product lines; according to the Fur Information Council of America, the number of fashion designers using fur in their ready-to-wear collections rose from 42 in 1985 to over 400 in 2004; and

Whereas, A study by Women's Wear Daily Magazine reported that in April 2004, 74% of 200 high end specialty retailers surveyed across the United States sold fur products with 79% of the remaining stores planning to do so in within the next year; and

Whereas, Economic data also reflects the growth of the fur industry, with a recent report showing worldwide fur sales totaling $11 billion in 2001/02; and

Whereas, Southwick Association of Business, a better business association, reported that 2003 fur sales in the United States reached an all time high of $1.8 billion, up 7.5% from 2002 and up 80% from 1991, with New York City ranking as having the most fur sales in the United States; and

Whereas, Probably one of the greatest impacts on the fur industry has been the emergence of the fur industry in China in the last ten years, which, as a member of the International Fur Trade Federation, not only has become the largest fur exporter in the world but also has the biggest fur trade production and processing base in the world; and

Whereas, According to Chinese Customs statistics, in 2003 the country had a net volume for fur imports and exports of $997.6 million, an increase of 42.5% from the previous year; and

Whereas, The affordability of Chinese fur products has helped proliferate the types of clothing products and accessories made with fur, including sportswear and mass produced ready to wear clothing lines at affordable prices; and

Whereas, Although the fur industry and clothing manufacturers have made fur more trendy, accessible, and affordable, the inhumane manner in which animals are trapped, bred, kept and killed has not changed; and

Whereas, Although many countries, including the United States, have laws regarding animal welfare, China and several other countries do not, thus making the fur industry responsible for the horrific treatment of animals slaughtered for their pelts; and

Whereas, A shocking investigative video depicting fur farmers at work shows them skinning raccoon dogs and foxes alive, after breaking their necks or backs by swinging them by their legs, smashing their heads on the ground, or beating them on the head with a metal or wood stick to stun them; and

Whereas, After being stunned, a knife is used to cut the animal at the rear of their belly only to have their skin ripped off its body until it comes off at the head; and

Whereas, This report and investigative video have documented that the animals are often still alive and conscious while being skinned, only to be tossed on top of piles of carcasses, where they might survive for another 10 to 15 minutes; and

Whereas, While the fur industry, clothing designers and makers have made fur trendy, widely accessible and affordable and a highly lucrative business, they in no way can justify the need for fur, especially at the expense of millions of animals' lives, which can be snuffed out by methods that can only be described as excessively cruel and inhumane; now therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York denounces the use of fur by all clothing makers and the inhumane manner in which the animals used for fur are killed.

Res. No. 150

Resolution urging the New York State Legislature to protect undercover police officers by amending the Criminal Procedure Law to create a presumption that when testifying at trial, an undercover police officer is endangered by his or her identity being made public, and that the court shall take all measures to protect the officer's identity.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Addabbo Jr., Gentile, Koppell, Nelson, Recchia, Sears, Weprin, Foster, Gallagher and Lanza.

Whereas, Undercover police officers and detectives play a vital role in keeping the city safe; and

Whereas, Primarily though their work of infiltrating gangs and pursuing gun and narcotics traffickers, undercover officers have played a crucial role in driving the crime rate to all time lows; and

Whereas, The danger of the work of undercover officers was evident in 2003 when two detectives were killed on Staten Island as part of an undercover investigation of arms dealers; and

Whereas, Due to the important and dangerous work of undercover officers, their identity must be protected, including when they appear in court to testify at trial; and

Whereas, Currently, when an undercover officer testifies at trial, the prosecutor asks the judge to clear the courtroom so that the identity of the officer is not known to the public; and

Whereas, In most instances, this commonsense request is granted; for example, in a 2003 federal cocaine and conspiracy trial, a federal judge sealed the courtroom to protect an undercover detective's identity; the judge in that case went so far as to reprimand the defendant's attorney who tipped off reporters to the ruling, by saying that he "could see opening the court and hearing some time later that this fellow was shot to death"; and

Whereas, Unfortunately, not all judges are as astute when reviewing such requests by prosecutors; in July 2002 a State Supreme Court judge in Manhattan ruled that three undercover narcotics detectives must identify themselves in open court; Police Commissioner Kelly said at the time that "revealing the names of our undercover officers has the potential to put their lives and the lives of their families in immediate danger"; and

Whereas, In 2004, a federal district judge in Brooklyn forced an undercover police detective to reveal her real name despite her testimony at the trial of crack dealers who terrorized a housing development; and

Whereas, These instances of judges putting the lives of officers and detectives at risk calls for a change to state law to create a presumption that officers who work undercover are endangered, and their work compromised, if their identities are revealed; and

Whereas, Bills introduced by Assemblyman Gianaris and Senator Maltese (A3538 and S574) create such a presumption; and

Whereas, Under these bills, there would be a rebuttable presumption that an undercover officer is endangered, and his or her effectiveness compromised, by public disclosure of his or her identity and unless the presumption is rebutted, the court would be required to direct the witness to testify under a pseudonym such as a shield number; the District Attorney could also ask for additional measures to protect the officer's identity; and

Whereas, Such measures are important not only in protecting the lives of officers but in continuing the effectiveness of those who fight crime and keep New York City safe; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the city of New York urges the New York State Legislature to protect undercover police officers by amending the Criminal Procedure Law to create a presumption that when testifying at trial, an undercover police officer is endangered by his or her identity being made public, and that the court shall take all measures to protect the officer's identity.

Res. No. 151

Resolution supporting legislation that makes Driving While Intoxicated with Blood Alcohol Content of .18 or more a felony offense with increased penalties.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Gennaro, Gentile, Nelson, Recchia, Weprin and Foster.

Whereas, Currently, there is a national epidemic of drunk driving as alcohol-related traffic deaths and injuries are on an alarming rise after years of decline; and

Whereas, At a 2004 Public Safety Committee hearing, representatives from the New York City Police Department (NYPD) and the Brooklyn District Attorney's Office testified that increased DWI arrests reflect both greater enforcement and an increased incidence of drunk driving; and

Whereas, Many of the Driving While Intoxicated (DWI) incidents involve extremely high Blood Alcohol Content (BAC) levels and/or repeat offenders; and

Whereas, In New York State, there were approximately 56,869 drivers arrested for DWI in 2000; of those offenders arrested and tested, 47.8% were arrested for driving at BAC levels above .15; and

Whereas, At the 2004 Public Safety Committee hearing, the NYPD testified of those arrested for DWI in New York City in 2003, 3,051 drivers had a BAC level between .10 and .15; 1,293 had a BAC level between .16 and .20; and 550 drivers had a BAC level of more than .20; and

Whereas, Many states, including New York, make it illegal to drive with a BAC level of .08, indicating that an individual driving with a BAC of .08 is incapable of giving the required attention and care to the operation of an automobile; and

Whereas, Impairment due to alcohol consumption rises gradually at lower levels but dramatically at higher levels of BAC; and

Whereas, An individual with a BAC of .18 is far more seriously impaired, has severely diminished judgment, coordination and ability to drive a motor vehicle, with an increased likelihood of an accident and/or injuries and fatalities, and is thus a much greater threat than an individual with a BAC of .08; and

Whereas, Under current law, all DWI arrests, regardless of the BAC level, are considered misdemeanors, punishable by up to 1 year in jail, absent extenuating circumstances such as an accident or prior arrests; and

Whereas, Bills have been introduced in the New York State Legislature that mandate harsher penalties for drunk driving by making a DWI of .18 BAC or more a felony offense with increased penalties; and

Whereas, These legislative amendments would ensure that the most flagrant violators of the State's DWI laws would be required to enter pleas that could result in extensive periods of incarceration and/or heavy fines, serving as a strong deterrent to those who would get behind the wheel of a car after drinking; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the city of New York supports legislation that makes Driving While Intoxicated with Blood Alcohol Content of .18 or more a felony offense with increased penalties.

Res. No. 152

Resolution calling upon the New York State Department of Transportation to broadcast all AMBER Alerts on its Highway Advisory Radio (HAR) and Traveler Information Stations (TIS).

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Fidler, Gennaro, Gentile, Martinez, Nelson, Recchia, Gallagher and Lanza.

Whereas, Most recent reports indicate that there are approximately 797,500 children reported missing nationally with roughly 22,000 missing children reported in New York State; and

Whereas, The America's Missing: Broadcast Emergency Response (AMBER) Alert system was initially created as a legacy to 9-year old Amber Hagerman, who was kidnapped while riding her bicycle in Arlington, Texas; and

Whereas, The AMBER Alert system now serves as a model for many states and as an effective tool resulting in successful recoveries of abducted children; and

Whereas, The New York State AMBER Alert Plan, operational since September 2002, is a voluntary partnership between law enforcement, broadcasters and others to immediately involve the public, especially motorists, in the search for abducted children; and

Whereas, The New York State Police Communications Section (NYSP COMSEC) currently records and broadcasts the audio Emergency Alert System (EAS) message on radio and television programming in the activation area(s); and

Whereas, AMBER Alert information is also disseminated through highway variable message signs, lottery in-store ticket terminals, NYS Thruway Authority service areas, DMV issuing office message boards and appear on New York State AMBER, New York State Police and New York State Department of Criminal Justice Services Missing and Exploited Children Clearinghouse websites; and

Whereas, The State Department of Transportation currently has highway advisory radio and traveler information stations that broadcast information pertaining to traffic hazards, detours, dangerous driving conditions and motor vehicle laws but does not broadcast AMBER Alert information; and

Whereas, Despite numerous approaches to circulate AMBER Alert information, motorists on highways managed by the State Department of Transportation may not receive comprehensive information on abducted children; and

Whereas, Many of the highways within New York City, such as the Long Island Expressway, the Brooklyn-Queens Expressway and Grand Central Parkway, are managed by the State Department of Transportation, leaving city motorists without a dedicated highway advisory radio station to tune into for child abduction notifications; and

Whereas, The New York State Thruway Authority instructs their motorists to tune into the Thruway's nearest Highway Advisory Radio (HAR) station, where AMBER Alert notifications are continually broadcast; and

Whereas, Other State Departments of Transportation, such as that of Rhode Island, Virginia and Maryland, all broadcast AMBER Alert notifications on their respective Highway Advisory Radio frequencies; and

Whereas, The State Department of Transportation, as an AMBER Alert Plan partner, can play a stronger role in recovering abducted children by utilizing their radio frequencies to broadcast all AMBER Alerts; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the city of New York calls upon the New York State Department of Transportation to broadcast all AMBER Alerts on its Highway Advisory Radio (HAR) and Traveler Information System (TIS).

Res. No. 153

Resolution urging federal and state lawmakers to establish regulations that ensure guns and ammunition designed to penetrate body armor and bulletproof vests are not able to circulate within the United States.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Addabbo Jr., Fidler, Gennaro, Gentile, Gerson, James, Koppell, Nelson, Palma, Recchia, Weprin, Foster and Oddo.

Whereas, According to recent news articles, law enforcement members have been cautioned about a new handgun and bullets legally sold to civilians in the United States, that advertises the ability to easily pierce Kevlar body armor, bulletproof vests and helmets; and

Whereas, These news articles also state that police in Connecticut seized one of these handguns during a recent arrest, confirming that criminals have already gained access to dangerous weapons; and

Whereas, Upon testing the Five-SeveN pistol with the ammunition sold legally in the U.S., Connecticut police found that all three bullets penetrated the standard police vest, demonstrating the threat of this weapon to law enforcement members; and

Whereas, Fabrique Nationale (FN) Herstal is the Belgium based company that designed the FN Five-SeveN semi-automatic pistol and ammunition, which boasts of armor piercing capabilities as well as high capacity magazines and increased velocity ammunition, not usually common with handguns; and

Whereas, Although the official FN Herstal website indicates that the gun and the bullets are sold only for military and law enforcement purposes, several online gun distributors have since indicated on their websites that as of September 30, 2004, after the federal assault weapons ban expired, civilians may purchase these light, concealable weapons and bullets whose capabilities are in line with that of a carbine or a rifle; and

Whereas, Although current New York State law prohibits the sale and possession of these weapons, illegal gun trafficking continues to be a problem since most guns and ammunition used in New York crimes are purchased out-of-state; and

Whereas, According to the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, 84% of all guns used in New York City crimes in 2000 were purchased out-of-state and a 2003 study released by Senator Charles Schumer ranked New York first nationally in crimes committed with out-of-state guns with 3,662 crimes committed in 2001 with guns purchased in another state; and

Whereas, The additional threat of FN Five-seveN pistols and their ammunition, coupled with lax gun legislation in other states, greatly hinders the effort to reduce gun-related crimes and keep law-enforcement agents safe in the line of duty in New York City; and

Whereas, Former Presidential Press Secretary Jim Brady stated "President Bush and Congress should urge the gun company to stop selling this gun in America voluntarily, or the President and Congress should take whatever action is necessary to get it out of the American civilian marketplace. Anything else makes no sense. Nobody in America who's not a soldier or a police officer needs to have this handgun;" and

Whereas, New York City Police Commissioner Raymond Kelly and Police Benevolent Association President Patrick Lynch have both called for legislators to ensure that the model FN Five-seveN gun is taken off the market; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the city of New York urges federal and state lawmakers to establish regulations that ensure guns and ammunition designed to penetrate body armor and bulletproof vests are not able to circulate within the United States.

Res. No. 154

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to mandate meaningful sentencing for prostitution recidivists.

By Council Members Vallone Jr. and Gentile.

Whereas, Many communities within the city of New York are negatively impacted by prostitution, most especially by repeat offenders of this crime; and

Whereas, The city overall has experienced an increase in the number of those arrested for prostitution since 1999, and only in 2002, when the majority of police resources were focused on counter-terrorism, was there a decline in this arrest rate; and

Whereas, Certain communities, such as Greenwich Village, have experienced a significant amount of arrests; for example, from January to March of 2003, according to the Manhattan District Attorney's Office, 300 people were arrested for prostitution and 242 were arrested for loitering for solicitation; and

Whereas, Recidivists in Greenwich Village, those classified by 5 or more arrests in 24 months, represented 46 arrests during that period, a number which the Manhattan District Attorney's Office considers to be unusually high given the total number of arrests for prostitution; and

Whereas, To preserve the quality of life of residents, the businesses they own and frequent, and to encourage future economic investment in their communities, appropriate reforms to curb this activity must be implemented; and

Whereas, The police department, though effective in apprehending prostitutes, are limited in their ability to curb future activity due to the current sentencing laws; and

Whereas, First-time offenders who patronize prostitutes are offered a rehabilitation program instead of jail, which has proven to reduce patronizing recidivists, however, no similar program is offered to those arrested for prostitution; and

Whereas, Many prostitutes engage in this criminal activity due to a lack of options such as job training, education, treatment for physical and emotional injuries suffered, and protection from pimps who threaten physical force; and

Whereas, Mandating those arrested for prostitution to attend a life skills rehabilitation program may effectively reduce the rate of recidivist prostitutes; and

Whereas, Rehabilitation, however, may not be the only sentencing option for those who are repeat offenders; and

Whereas, The courts have been reluctant to impose meaningful sentences for recidivists; and

Whereas, Failure to punish repeat offenders with jail time sends the message that the city does not take these crimes seriously; and

Whereas, In order to ensure that quality of life crimes such as prostitution do not proliferate, it is important that all efforts be employed, including meaningful sentencing for prostitution recidivists; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the city of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to mandate meaningful sentencing for prostitution recidivists.

Res. No. 155

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to require a mandatory jail term for individuals convicted of a third misdemeanor within ten years.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Gentile, Martinez and Lanza.

Whereas, Under New York State Criminal Procedure and Penal Law, there is currently no mandatory jail time for a person convicted of a misdemeanor offense; and

Whereas, Operation Spotlight, a program initiated by Mayor Bloomberg that focuses on a small group of low-level criminals who consistently break the law, would be far more effective if chronic misdemeanants were treated more harshly; and

Whereas, Data reveals that approximately 28% of all non-felony offenses prosecuted in New York City are committed by only 6% of the defendants and that 9,700 defendants were arrested on misdemeanor charges at least three times in 2001, the year before Operation Spotlight was implemented; and

Whereas, Most of these chronic misdemeanants have substantial criminal records: 41% are convicted felons, 27% have eleven or more misdemeanor convictions, 41% are charged with drug offenses, 12% are charged with prostitution and sex offenses, and it is expected that 50% will be arrested within six months with over 20% on felony charges; and

Whereas, Under existing law, repeat offenders are often able to engage in decades-long patterns of criminal activity, such as a 40-year-old offender who was arrested 90 times, charged with 109 separate misdemeanors, and convicted of 65 misdemeanors, as well as a 49-year-old offender who was arrested 92 times, charged with 202 separate misdemeanors and convicted of 88; and

Whereas, Misdemeanors include many violent crimes such as assault resulting in injury, domestic abuse, and resisting arrest, as well as other serious offenses such as driving while intoxicated, criminal trespassing, repeated stalking, petit larceny, giving false identity, and drug possession; and

Whereas, In addition, many cases which start as a felony charge are often disposed of as a misdemeanor; and

Whereas, If the problem of chronic misdemeanants is not repaired, a problem that drives away tourism, devalues our neighborhoods, hurts our economy, and tarnishes our city's reputation as the safest large city in the United States, it will indeed breed more serious criminal activity; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the city of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to require a mandatory jail term for individuals convicted of a third misdemeanor within ten years.

Referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

Res. No. 156

Resolution calling upon the New York State Legislature to repeal State Law which currently bans the passage of local dangerous dog legislation that is specific as to breed, so that New York City may ban the ownership or sale of dangerous dogs, including pit bulls, within the City.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Koppell, Martinez, McMahon, Nelson, Sanders, Weprin and Foster.

Whereas, On May 19, 2004, a six-year old Brooklyn girl was savagely attacked by a pit bull as she stood with her mother on a City street near her home, suffering a broken leg and lacerations; and

Whereas, While her injuries were serious, the brutal attack was interrupted by quick-thinking neighbors whose intervention likely spared the young girl from life-threatening harm; and

Whereas, Unfortunately, many recent victims of dangerous dog attacks, particularly small children, have not been so lucky; and

Whereas, This mauling was one of many unprovoked attacks by dangerous dogs upon City residents in recent years, many of which resulted in serious physical injury; and

Whereas, Among the victims of these attacks was Elijah Torres, a three year-old Bronx boy whose mauling and brave recovery inspired the introduction of Elijah's Law, one of a number of State bills introduced in response to the rash of dog attacks; and

Whereas, While various State legislative efforts are being debated, localities such as New York City remain powerless to enact breed specific local dangerous dog legislation to protect their residents from dangerous dog attacks; and

Whereas, Like New York City, many communities nationwide have reported increased incidents of attacks by dangerous dogs, especially attacks on children; however, unlike New York, these cities, including Denver and Cincinnati, have been able to take decisive legislative action to protect their citizens by enacting bans on pit bulls, the breed determined to be most frequently responsible for attacks; and

Whereas, In contrast, New York City is currently unable to enact such legislation; under Section 107 of the New York State Agriculture and Markets Law, municipalities, including New York City, are prohibited from passing any laws which would regulate dangerous dogs in a manner which is specific as to breed; and

Whereas, In most cases of vicious dog attacks, certain specific breeds are consistently implicated, most notably, pit bulls and Rottweilers; and

Whereas, While there may be exceptions, evidence strongly suggests that these breeds have aggressive and violent tendencies which can easily be provoked and, when they are provoked, such dogs have the potential to inflict serious bodily harm to their victims, including death; and

Whereas, In densely populated urban environments like New York City, the potential for owner negligence and disregard for leash laws poses a very high public health and safety hazard, one which can be minimized with the enactment of restrictions on the ownership, possession, or sale of dogs deemed dangerous; and

Whereas, In a city like New York, where the inappropriate actions of one person can have severe consequences for many, and where dogs are often the weapon of choice of drug dealers and gangs seeking to intimidate and terrorize neighborhoods, the potential harm of dangerous dogs to the community warrants effective and meaningful legislative action; and

Whereas, In order to properly protect the health and safety of all individuals living and working in New York City, the City must have the ability to restrict the ownership, possession and sale of breeds of dogs deemed dangerous; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Council of the City of New York calls upon the New York State Legislature to repeal State Law which currently bans the passage of local dangerous dog legislation that is specific as to breed, so that New York City may ban the ownership or sale of dangerous dogs, including pit bulls, within the City.

Res. No. 157

Resolution calling on the New York State Legislature to amend the Penal Law to categorize possession of a loaded firearm as a class C felony.

By Council Members Vallone Jr., Gentile, Martinez, Nelson, Recchia, Weprin and Oddo.

Whereas, Under current state law, possession of a loaded firearm is considered Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Third Degree (Penal Law §265.02) and as such, is a class D felony that carries with it a maximum term of seven years imprisonment; and

Whereas, Also under current state law, possession of a loaded firearm with the intent to use the weapon unlawfully against another person is considered Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Second Degree (Penal Law §265.03), and as such, is a class C felony that carries with it a maximum term of fifteen years imprisonment; and

Whereas, These statutory distinctions do not accurately reflect reality, as a person who carries a loaded firearm outside his or her home or place of business almost always does so with the intention of injuring others; and

Whereas, While New York continues to ensure the safety of its citizens, gun crimes continue to afflict New Yorkers and especially the victims and their grieving families, as guns have taken the lives of 7,000 individuals in New York State since 1999; and

Whereas, Guns are often used to carry out the most serious felonies, including sexual assaults and domestic violence, drug offenses, robbery, burglary and other property-related crimes, and according to the Bureau of Justice Statistics about 70% of all murders, 41% of all robberies, and 19% of all aggravated assaults in 2004 that were reported to the police were committed with a firearm in the United States; and

Whereas, Guns pose a serious risk to police officers, given that in the last six months of 2005, 11 New York City police officers were shot; and

Whereas, Bills have been introduced in the New York State Legislature that make Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Third Degree a class C felony, illustrating that this amendment and stricter gun control mechanisms already garner support from members of the State Legislature; and
