

LOWER EAST SIDE REZONING

DCP/07DCP078M

Borough of Manhattan, New York

Phase IA Archaeological Assessment Report

Part II - Lot Histories - Catalogue

Prepared for: AKRF

Prepared by: Celia J. Bergoffen, Ph.D., R.P.A.

Date: April 16, 2008

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PART I

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND & LOT HISTORIES

I. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

A. Description of the Project Area and Planned Development.....1

B. Methodology4

Table I – Determinations of Archaeological Sensitivity6

II. HISTORICAL GEOGRAPHY OF THE PROJECT AREA IN THE 18th CENTURY...13

III. THE LOWER EAST SIDE IN THE 19TH TO EARLY 20TH c.

A. Overview of Development History.....16

B. Water and Sewage Disposal.....20

C. Jewish Ritual Baths – Mikvahs.....23

D. Historic Cemeteries.....28

IV. LOT HISTORIES – EVALUATION OF ARCHAEOLOGICAL SENSITIVITY.....31

V. BIBLIOGRAPHY.....141

PART II

LOT HISTORIES – CATALOGUE

SUMMARY OF DATA BY BLOCK AND LOT

PART III

PLATES

LIST OF PLATES.....i-xvii

BLOCK 344, lots 149, 150, 151, 157

Bounded by Stanton Street (N) Attorney Street (E), Rivington Street (S) and Clinton Street (W)

Perris 1859, pl. 32

Perris 1868, pl. 32

Perris 1877, pl. 32

Bromley 1891, pl. 7

Sanborn 1903 and 1944, pl. 5

Hyde 1913, pl. 21

Lot 149

Site No.: E-31

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 173 Stanton Street

First tax ass.: William Post, Shop, 1841 (missing)/1842

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, frame and brick buildings extending to the rear lot line, vacant strip along the east lot line

Perris 1868: Same, "Slaughter House", one story brick building on the front of the lot, three one story frame buildings extending south of it to the south lot line, vacant strip along the east lot line

Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard

Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, one story sheds in the southwest and southeast corners of the lot

Bromley 1891: Same (no labels)

Hyde 1913: Same

Sanborn 1944: Same

Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 150

Site No.: E-32

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 175 Stanton Street

First tax ass.: William Post, Shop, 1841 (missing)/1842

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot with rear extensions on the west and east lot lines; frame building at the rear of the lot, yard in between

Perris 1859: Same as Perris 1868, "Slaughter House"

Perris 1868: Three and two story frame building on the front of the lot, rear vacant

Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant

Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, one story sheds in the and southeast corners of the lot

Hyde 1913: Same

Sanborn 1944: Same, "Prtg", shed in southeast corner only

Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 151

Site No.: E-33

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 177 Stanton Street

First tax ass.: J. William Post, Shop, 1841 (missing)/1842

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Narrow frame building on the east lot line leaving the front west half of the lot vacant; rear wings extending along the east lot line, rear of the lot vacant

Perris 1859: Same, "Slaughter House", separately noted from 175 Stanton Street

Perris 1868: "Slaughter House", front building replaced by a wider, shorter structure set back from the north lot line; small brick building in the northeast corner of the lot, one story frame building on the rear of the lot

Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant

Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, one story sheds in the southeast and southwest corners of the lot

Hyde 1913: Same

Sanborn 1944: Same with a long, one story rear addition half the lot width, along on the west lot line

Sanborn 2005: Same front building, one story addition and a shed cover the rear of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 157

Site No.: 61

Lot Size: 18.9 X 74.11 ft.

Current use: Vacant

Addresses: 139 Attorney Street

First tax ass.: Untraceable

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear half vacant

Perris 1868: Same, three stories

Perris 1877: Same

Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, one story sheds in the southwest corner of the lot

Hyde 1913: Same, no sheds

Sanborn 1944: Front of the lot vacant, small one story building near the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

BLOCK 345, lots 24, 25

Bounded by East Houston Street (N) Ridge Street (E), Stanton Street (S) and Attorney Street (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 32
Perris 1868, pl. 32
Perris 1877, pl. 32
Bromley 1891, pl. 7
Sanborn 1903, 1944, pl. 2
Hyde 1913, pl. 21

Lot 24

Site No.: E-34
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five-story building
Addresses: 153 Ridge Street; 119 Ridge Street (1853, 1859); 117 Ridge Street (1868)
First tax ass.: Joshua Totten, 1833
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot; small building marked hazard behind it, on the south lot line; brick building at the rear of the lot
Perris 1859: Same, smaller back building
Perris 1868: Five story brick building marked hazard on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1877: Same, not marked hazard
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling "Bakery", three small one story sheds on the south lot line, one on the north lot line and one along the rear lot line
Hyde 1913: Same, no sheds shown
Sanborn 1944: Same, Store and "Apts", small rear wing on the south corner of the building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 25

Site No.: E-35
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five-story building
Addresses: 151 Ridge Street; 17 and part of 115 Ridge Street (1853); 115 Ridge Street (1868)
First tax ass.: Joshua Totten, 1833
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame buildings on the front of the lot, brick building at the rear, vacant in between Perris 1859: Same, no back building

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, one small one story shed near the northwest corner of the lot
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1944: Same, Store and "Apts"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

BLOCK 348 (west), lots 9, 23, 25

Bounded by Rivington Street (N) Clinton Street (E), Delancey Street (S) and Suffolk Street (W)

Perris 1852, pl. 21
Perris 1868, pl. 26
Perris 1877, pl. 26
Sanborn 1905, 1944, pl. 80
Hyde 1913, pl. 21

Lot 9

Site No.: E-38
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 114 Suffolk Street
First tax ass.: between 1826-1827, Keese (1828)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front two-thirds of the lot extending over 116 Suffolk Street with a vacant strip along the south lot line, building along the rear lot line marked hazard, vacant area in between
Perris 1867: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot,
rear yard
Perris 1875: Same
Sanborn 1894: Same
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same, church on the ground floor, residences above, rear of the lot vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 23

Site No.: E-45
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 89 Clinton Street; 87 Clinton Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Richard Sears, 1828, 67 Clinton Street (or earlier)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front quarter of the lot, yard, frame buildings in the rear half of the lot separated by a narrow vacant area, building on the rear lot line marked hazard

Perris 1867: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot,
rear yard
Perris 1875: Same
Sanborn 1894: Same
Hyde 1913: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 25

Site No.: E-46
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 93 Clinton Street; 91 Clinton Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Slater, 1828, 71 Clinton Street (or earlier) Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front quarter of the lot, not quite as wide as the lot, small frame building behind it on the north lot line, brick building marked hazard at the back of the lot
Perris 1867: Map updated, original condition unknown
Perris 1875: Five story brick building on the front three-fifths of the lot, rear vacant
Sanborn 1894: Same
Hyde 1913: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 348 (east), lots 44, 45, 48

Bounded by Rivington Street (N) Attorney Street (E), Delancey Street (S) and Clinton Street (W)

Perris 1852, pl. 21
Perris 1868, pl. 26
Perris 1877, pl. 26
Sanborn 1894, pl. 26B
Sanborn 1903, pl. 80
Hyde 1913, pl. 21

Lot 44

Site No.: E-48
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 86 Clinton Street
First tax ass.: W. Dusenbury, 1831, 72 Clinton Street (or Sterling Co., eight lots & shops including the corner, but no addresses, 1830)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building at the front of the lot with a rear wing not quite as wide as the lot; two back buildings marked hazard; vacant areas along the rear lot line and behind the main building

Perris 1867: Five story brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1875: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1894: Same
Hyde 1913: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 45

Site No.: E-49
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 84 Clinton Street;
First tax ass.: W. Dusenbury, 1831, 70 Clinton Street (or Sterling Co., eight lots & shops including the corner, but no addresses, 1830)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front two-fifths of the lot, frame buildings marked hazard in the rear of the lot, vacant areas along the rear lot line and between the two buildings
Perris 1867: Five story brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1875: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1894: Same, dwelling
Hyde 1913: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 48

Site No.: E-50
Lot Size: 32.83 X 70 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 78 Clinton Street
First tax ass.: Sterling Co., 1830
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: South end of the yards of 165 to 169 Rivington Street, two very small buildings at the front and rear of 78 Clinton Street, rear one marked hazard
Perris 1867: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1875: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1894: Same, but with one story buildings covering the southern half of the yard (south of 169 Rivington Street)
Hyde 1913: Same front building with two small one story extensions on its north and south rear corners
Sanborn 2005: Same with one story rear wing covering the north half of the yard (south of 169 Rivington Street)

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

BLOCK 349, lots 14, 15, 16, 17, 24, 25, 33

Bounded by Stanton Street (N) Clinton Street (E), Rivington Street (S) and Suffolk Street (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 32
Perris 1868, pl. 32
Perris 1877, pl. 32
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2007, pl. 4
Hyde 1913, pl. 21

Lot 14

Site No.: E-56
Lot Size: 25 X 100.17 ft.
Current use: Five story building on the front of the lot
Old lot: 91
Addresses: 153 ½ Stanton Street (1877); 153 and half of 155 Stanton Street (1853)
First tax ass.: William Parshall (?) 1828, unfinished, 1828; James Jarvis, 1829
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame buildings on the front of the lot, small building on the west lot line, rest vacant
Perris 1859: Same, back buildings along the west and east lot lines at the back of the lot
Perris 1868: Same, without the building on the west lot line
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant, modern lot configuration
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2007: Same, store and dwelling, small shed in the southeast corner of the lot; 2007 no label

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 15

Site No.: E-57
Lot Size: 25 X 100.17 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Old lot: 89
Addresses: 157 ½ Stanton Street (1877); 157 and half of 155 Stanton Street (1853)
First tax ass.: William Parshall (?) 1828, unfinished, 1828; James Jarvis, 1829
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame buildings on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1859: Same, narrow back building running north south at the rear of the lot, approximately in the center of the lot
Perris 1868: Same, no back buildings
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2007: Same, one story shed in the southeast corner of the lot, along the south and east lot lines

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 16

Site No.: E-58
Lot Size: 25 X 100.17 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Old lot: 88
Addresses: 159 Stanton Street; 159 and half of 161 Stanton Street (1853)
First tax ass.: William Parshall (?) 1828, unfinished, 1828; James Jarvis, 1829
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame buildings on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1859: Same, narrow back building running north south at the rear of the lot, approximately in the center of the lot
Perris 1868: Same, no back buildings
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2007: Same, store and dwelling, "Bakery", one story sheds along the south and east lot lines

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 17

Site No.: E-59
Lot Size: 25 X 100.17 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 161 Stanton Street; 163 and half of 161 Stanton Street (1853)
First tax ass.: William Parshall (?) 1828, unfinished, 1828; James Jarvis, 1829
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame buildings on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1859: Same, back buildings in the rear corners of the lot
Perris 1868: Same
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, one story shed on the south lot line at the east corner
Sanborn 1920: Same, with a one story rear extension on the east lot line, half the lot width
Sanborn 1951: Same but rear yard blacked out
Sanborn 2005: Same, but one story rear extension covers the former yard area

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 24

Site No.: E-60
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Old lot: 394
Addresses: 55 Clinton Street (1877-); 55 and part of 57 Clinton Street (1853)
First tax ass.: William Parshall (?), 1828, Sterling Works, 1827, no houses; Abraham Mitchell, 1829
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot, small building on the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, two stories, back building marked hazard

Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Sanborn 1903: Same, "Bakery", one story sheds on the north, south and east lot lines at the rear of the lot Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2007: Same with two rear wings, one story shed along the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 25

Site No.: E-61
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 57 Clinton Street; 57 and part of 59 Clinton Street
First tax ass.: William Parshall (?), 1828, Sterling Works, 1827, no houses; Abraham
Mitchell, 1829
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot, small building on the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, two stories, back building marked hazard
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, small one story shed in the northwest corner of the lot
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2007: Same, two one story sheds on the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 33

Site No.: E-62
Lot Size: 23 X 100 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 156 Rivington Street
First tax ass.: William Holly, 1825
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on front half of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, two stories, five story brick building on the rear third of the lot, rest vacant
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, four story front building, small one story shed on the east lot line
Hyde 1913, Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2007: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

BLOCK 350, lots 2, 33, 35

Bounded by Houston Street (N) Clinton Street (E), Stanton Street (S) and Suffolk Street (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 32
Perris 1868, pl. 32
Perris 1877, pl. 32
Robinson 1884, pl. 13
Bromley 1891, pl. 7
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 4

Lot 2

Site No.: E-63
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 168 Suffolk Street; 170 Suffolk Street (1853)
First tax ass.: John Ludlow, 1833
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building with rear brick wing on the front of the lot, alleyway north of it and a yard behind it; frame buildings behind the yard and the back of a brick building at the rear of the lot
Perris 1868: Same
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot covers the former yard, rear of the lot is vacant
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
1903, 1920, 1951, Sanborn 2005: Same, 1903-“Bakery”, later maps, no labels

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 33

Site No.: E-66
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 162 Stanton Street (1877); 160 Stanton Street (1853-1868)
First tax ass.: Daniel Lyons, 1824
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot, narrow alley on the east lot line and deep rear yard, shallow building at the rear of the lot marked hazard
Perris 1859: Same, with an additional, narrow rear building along the west lot line
Perris 1868: Same, all two stories, without the building along the west lot line but with another smaller on the west lot line in the rear marked hazard
Perris 1877: Six story brick building on the front three-fifths of the lot, rear vacant
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2007: Same, five stories, store and dwelling;

1920-“Carpetnter”

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 35

Site No.: E-68

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 158 Stanton Street; 156 Stanton Street

First tax ass.: Henry Faber, 1824

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot leaving a narrow vacant strip on the east lot line; deep and with small building marked hazard toward the rear, and a frame building at the rear of the lot

Perris 1868: Same, three stories, on the front of the lot, rear brick wing added; three story brick building at the rear of the lot with a frame wing added to the front of it, yard in between

Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front three-fifths of the lot covers virtually all of former vacant areas on the lot; rear yard

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, store and dwelling, four story dwelling at the rear, small one story shed on the east lot line

Sanborn 1951, 2007: Slightly longer, five story building on the front of the lot small shed on the north lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

.....

BLOCK 354, lot 25

Bounded by Stanton Street (N) Norfolk Street (E), Rivington Street (S) and Essex Street (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 32

Perris 1868, pl. 32

Perris 1877, pl. 32

Robinson 1884, pl. 13

Bromley 1891, pl. 7

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 4

Lot 25

Site No.: 82

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Six story building on this and adjacent lot 141

Addresses: 143 Norfolk Street; 125 Norfolk Street (1868), 123 Norfolk Street (1877)

First tax ass.: Willard Ida, 1837; lot vacant to 1834.

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1859: Brick “Livery Stable” covers most of the block, small frame section in the southwest corner of the lot

Perris 1868: Same, expanded, two stories, marked hazard, with an additional frame section covering the part still vacant in 1859; the lot is completely covered

Perris 1877, 1884 Robinson: Vacant

Bromley 1891: large brick building on the front of the lot, shallow rear yard

1903, 1920, 1951, Sanborn 2005: Same, five stories

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

.....

BLOCK 355, 39, 45, 51, 52, 59, 61, 73, 74

Bounded by E. Houston Street (N) Suffolk Street (E), Stanton Street (S) and Norfolk Street (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 32

Perris 1868, pl. 32

Perris 1877, pl. 32

Robinson 1884, pl. 13

Bromley 1891, pl. 7

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 4

Lot 39

Site No.: E-80

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 168 Norfolk Street; 142 Norfolk Street (1877), 150 Norfolk Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Isaac Rhodes, 1844 (Jews Synagogue, 1854)

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building set back from the front of the lot, shed marked hazard in the southeast corner of the lot

Perris 1859: Same

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front three-fifths of the lot, rear vacant

Perris 1877: Same

1884 Robinson, 1891 Bromley: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, small shed on the south lot line

Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2007: Same, no shed

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 45

Site No.: 218

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Three story building, garage on 1st

Addresses: 182 Norfolk Street; 150 Norfolk Street (1853); 180 Norfolk Street (1903)

First tax ass.: Isaac Rhodes, 1828

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building with narrow rear extension on the northern half of the lot leaving most of the southern vacant except in the rear; second building on the rear lot line, marked hazard

Perris 1859: Two narrow, semi-detached brick buildings on the front two-thirds of the lot, northern one is "Hook & Ladder Co. No. 5", southern one is "Hose Co. No. 16"
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, two buildings are now one
Perris 1877: Same, but now five stories
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Larger brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear vacant
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, five stories, store and dwelling
Sanborn 2005: Three story building covers the lot

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 51

Site No.: 291
Lot Size: 18.75 X 75 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 249 East Houston Street (1868); 280 East Houston Street (1859-1868)
First tax ass.: Sheppard, 1828
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories, shallow rear wing
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Longer brick building on the front of the lot, vacant rear yard
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, three stories, "Brush Maker Bst."
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2007: Same, small one story shed in the southeast corner of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 52

Site No.: 292
Lot Size: 18.75 X 75 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 251 East Houston (1868); 280 East Houston (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: Sheppard, 1828
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories with shallow wing added at the rear
Perris 1877: Same, but with a shallower, frame addition at the rear instead of the brick
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Longer brick building on the front of the lot, vacant rear yard
Sanborn 1903: Same but with two story rear wing not quite as wide as the lot and a shallow one story building along the south lot line
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2007: Same but one story shed at the rear of the lot in the southwest corner only, 1951- "Mach Shop" "Club"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 59

Site No.: 83
Lot Size: 46 X 100 ft.
Current use: Vacant
Addresses: 171 Suffolk Street and 173 Suffolk Street
First tax ass.: Reynolds, 1828 (both)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: "Iron Foundry" almost completely covering 173 Suffolk Street and rear of 171 Suffolk Street; frame building on the front half of 171 Suffolk Street, small vacant area in about a quarter of the lot, rear half.
Perris 1859: Same, "Manhattan Iron Works"
Perris 1868: "Saw Mill & c"; four story brick building on the front of 173 Suffolk Street and three story brick building at the rear completely cover this half of lot 59; four story brick building on the front of 171 Suffolk Street and three story brick building on the rear with a vacant area in between.
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same, 1884-"Factory"
Sanborn 1903: Same, "Woodworking Establishments"; 171 Suffolk Street: "Wheat Mill Bst."
Hyde 1913: 173 Norfolk Street – vacant; 171 Norfolk Street – one story "Vaudeville" covers the lot
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2007: "Monument works" building with one story rear wings completely covers both 171 and 173 Norfolk Street; 2007-no label

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 61

Site No.: 219
Lot Size: 24 X 100 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 169 Suffolk Street
First tax ass.: Barnes, 1828
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame buildings on the front and two frame buildings at the rear of the lot, yard in between Perris 1859: Same, but only one brick building at the back of the lot
Perris 1868: Three story brick building on the front of the lot, five story brick building on the rear of the lot (same as in 1859)
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, "Hat Linings Bsm" Store and Dwelling, small one story building on the south lot line
Hyde 1913: Same, front building-"Club"
Sanborn 1920: Same, front building-store and dwelling; small one story shed on the south lot line in the yard
Sanborn 1951, 2007: Same but no back building; front building 1951-"Synagogue"; 2007-no label

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or a Jewish ritual bath

Lot 73

Site No.: E-84

Lot Size: 22 X 73.5

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 146 Stanton Street

First tax ass.: Untraceable

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Building on the front of this and adjoining lot 74 (below) marked hazard, part of the frame building at the rear of lot 74 overlaps the west lot line; the rest of the lot is vacant

Perris 1868: New one-story building marked hazard on the front of the lot leaving a narrow portion on the west side of the lot (covered in 1853), and the rear, vacant

Perris 1877: Same, the front half of the building is brick-clad frame

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: New brick building, front half of the lot

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2007: Same, four stories, rear vacant, dwelling; Sanborn 1951-“Synagogue 1st”

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or a Jewish ritual bath

Lot 74

Site No.: E-85

Lot Size: 22 X 73.5

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 144 Stanton Street

First tax ass.: Untraceable

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1859: Frame building marked hazard covers three-quarters of the lot

Perris 1868: Vacant

Perris 1877: Four story brick building on the front of the lot, same size as the building shown on the Perris 1859

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: New brick building on the front half of the lot

Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, four stories, dwelling

Sanborn 1951, 2007: Same, with narrow four story wing added on the west rear corner

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

.....

BLOCK 372, lots 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10, 30, 31, 34, 52

Bounded by East 3rd Street (N) Avenue D (E), East 2nd Street (S) and Avenue C (W)

Perris 1853, pl. 43
Perris 1859 pl. 35
Perris 1868, pl. 35
Perris 1877, pl. 35
Robinson 1884, pl. 20
Hyde 1913, pl. 23
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 14a

Lot 3

Site No.: 294
Lot Size: 20 X 54 ft.
Current use: Four and a half story building, built 1997/98, small rear yard
Addresses: 18 Avenue C (1877); 14 Avenue C (1853-1868)
First tax ass.: Johnson, 1827
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1859: Same, plus a building at the back of the lot
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, with shallow rear addition; part of the rear brick extension of the building at 262 2nd Street covers the remainder of the area formerly part of the rear of this lot and the only portion still vacant today, narrow yard behind the front building
Perris 1877: Same, three stories, with two story rear wing
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, Store and Dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 4

Site No.: 294
Lot Size: 40 X 80 ft.
Current use: Four and a half story building, built 1997/98, rear yard
Addresses: 20 Avenue C; 16 Avenue C (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: Cochran White, 1827
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot, small building on the rear lot line, yard in between
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, without the rear building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, Store and Dwelling, "Photographer" with a one story rear wing extending to the rear lot line
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same, connected with 22 Avenue C
Sanborn 1951: Vacant
Sanborn 2005: Five story building on the front of the lot erected 1998

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 5

Site No.: 294
Lot Size: 40 X 80 ft
Current use: Four and a half story building, built 1997/98, rear yard
Addresses: 22 Avenue C; 18 Avenue C (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: Tappen & Ferris, 1827
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot, small building on the rear lot line, yard in between
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, without the rear building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same with a one-story rear wing that extends to the east (rear) lot line
Hyde 1913: Same with a two story rear wing extending to the east lot line
Sanborn 1920: Same, connected with 20 Avenue C
Sanborn 1951: Vacant
Sanborn 2005: Five story building on the front of the lot, erected 1998

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 6

Site No.: E-86
Lot Size: 25 X 93 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 24 Avenue C; 20 Avenue C (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: Richard Totten, 1832
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1859: Same, with a back building at the rear of the lot, yard in between Perris 1868: Same, four stories, marked hazard, no back building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, with a shallow one story building along the rear lot line
Hyde 1913: Same, with a one story frame building in the yard on the south lot line
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, "Confectionery", one story shed on the east lot line
Sanborn 2005: Same, "Apts", no shed

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 9

Site No.: E-87
Lot Size: 23.25 X 86.92 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 272 East 3rd Street (1868); 258 East 3rd Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: George Morgan, 1847
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Lot is completely covered by an "Iron Foundry" building marked hazard

Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2007: Same with a one story rear wing that extends to the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 10

Site No.: E-88
Lot Size: 23.25 X 86.92 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 274 East 3rd Street (1868); 260 East 3rd Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: George Morgan, shop not finished, 1844
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Lot is completely covered by an “Iron Foundry” building marked hazard
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same, small one story shed in southeast corner of lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 30

Site No.: 234
Lot Size: 22.67 X 105.92 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 314 East 3rd Street (1868); 300 East 3rd Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: Simeon Price, 1831
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, small building on the rear lot line
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no rear building
Perris 1877: Same
1884 Robinson: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, Dwelling
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2007: Same with long three and one story extensions on the west lot line, rest vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 31

Site No.: 110
Lot Size: 22.5 X 75 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 316 East 3rd Street (1868); 302 East 3rd Street
First tax ass.: Horton & Clarkson, Shop, 1831 / 1834

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, small building on the rear lot line, yard in between
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, without the rear building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, with the shallow one story building at the rear
Hyde 1913: Same with an extension at the rear, half the lot width, on the east lot line, L-shaped vacant area at the rear
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2007: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 34

Site No.: 165
Lot Size: 40 X 75.25 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 322 and 324 East 3rd Street (1868); 308 and 310 East 3rd Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: Horton & Clarkson, Lot and Store, 1834
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick buildings on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1868: Same
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, 322 East 3rd Street is a Dwelling with a with rear wing half the lot width along the east lot line; 324 East 3rd Street is a “Dispensary”, but the wall between the two has an opening in it, i.e. they are now connected
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same, shallow, one story buildings along the rear lot line of both dwellings
Sanborn 1951, 2007: Same with one story rear wings that completely cover the former yard

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of privies and cisterns.

Lot 52

Site No.: 168
Lot Size: 25 X 105.92 ft.
Current use: One story building on the front of the lot, built 1964
Addresses: 298 East 2nd Street
First tax ass.: Abraham Hatfield, 1837
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear wing leaves narrow space on the west lot line; rear yard, shallow building on the rear lot line
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, without the rear building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, “Monument Works”, with rear building
Hyde 1913: Same, without the rear building (building covers about three-quarters of the lot); front section three stories, rear one story

Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 373, lots 13, 15, 16, 17, 61, 62, 63

Bounded by East 4th Street (N) Avenue D (E), East 3rd Street (S) and Avenue C (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 35
Perris 1868, pl. 35
Perris 1877, pl. 35
Robinson 1884, pl. 20
Hyde 1913, pl. 23
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 14a

Lot 13

Site No.: 236
Lot Size: 18.75 X 96.17 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 320 East 4th Street (1868); 638 East 4th Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: James Freeland, 1838
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow building on the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no back building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, with back building
Hyde 1913: Same, without back building
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 15

Site No.: E-92
Lot Size: 22.92 X 96.17 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 324 East 4th Street (1868); 642 East 4th Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: Fickett & Holmes, 1839
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow building on the rear lot line
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no back building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, with back building
Hyde 1913: Same, without back building
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same with a one story shed along the south lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 16

Site No.: 111
Lot Size: 22.92 X 96.17 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 326 East 4th Street (1868); 644 East 4th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Fickett & Holmes, 1839
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow one story Building/shed on the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, small rear addition, no shed
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, with shed
Hyde 1913: Same, without shed
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2007: Same, with shed

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 17

Site No.: 111
Lot Size: 22.92 X 96.17 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 328 East 4th Street (1868); 646 East 4th Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: Cornelius Reed, 1839
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, small building/shed on the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, small rear addition, no shed
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, with shed
Hyde 1913: Same, without shed
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, with shed
Sanborn 2005: "Synagogue" noted on main building, three stories with basement; one story shed at the rear of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern, or a Jewish ritual bath

Lot 61

Site No.: 237
Lot Size: 20.67 X 96.17 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Old lot: Robert Malcolm Lot & Building, 1838
Addresses: 289 East 3rd Street (1868); 169 East 3rd Street (1853); 275 East 3rd Street
(1859)
First tax ass.: Francis Fickett, 1834
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street, rear vacant
Perris 1868: Same
Perris 1877: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, shallow one story building/shed on the rear lot line

Hyde 1913: Same, without shed

Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, "Synagogue"

Sanborn 2005: "Church", with back building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern or a Jewish ritual bath

Lot 62

Site No.: 238

Lot Size: 21.33 X 96.17 ft.

Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 287 East 3rd Street (1868); 271 East 3rd Street (1853); 277 East 3rd Street (1859)

First tax ass.: Robert Malcolm, 1837

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street, rear vacant

Perris 1868: Same

Perris 1877: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, shallow one story building/shed on the rear lot line

Hyde 1913: Same, without shed

Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, with shed

Sanborn 2005: Same, with back building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 63

Site No.: 239

Lot Size: 21.67 X 96.17 ft.

Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 285 East 3rd Street (1868); 273 East 3rd Street (1853); 279 East 3rd Street (1859)

First tax ass.: Robert Malcolm, 1837

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street, rear vacant

Perris 1868: Same

Perris 1877: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, shallow one story building/shed on the rear lot line

Hyde 1913: Same, without shed

Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, with shed

Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 374, lots 20, 31, 32, 7501

Bounded by East 5th Street (N) Avenue D (E), East 4th Street (S) and Avenue C (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 35

Perris 1868, pl. 35

Perris 1877, pl. 35

Robinson 1884, pl. 20

Hyde 1913, pl. 23

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 14a

Lot 20

Site No.:

Current use: Public School no. 15 buildings and playground

Addresses: 720-732 East 5th Street (1877-), 524 to 538 East 5th Street (1868), 281 to 293 5th Street (1853)

323 to 343 East 4th Street (1868-), 643 to 665 East 4th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: East 4th Street

323 East 4th Street – William Stebbins, 1839

325 East 4th Street – Alfred Cropson, 1839

327 East 4th Street – Nicholas Schurman, 1839

329 East 4th Street – John Rushure (?), 1839

331 East 4th Street – W. Fanning, 1839

333 East 4th Street – John Wood, 1839

335 East 4th Street – John Peterkin, 1838-1839

337 East 4th Street – John Aushn (?), 1838

339 East 4th Street – William Wallace, 1826 (or earlier)

341-343 East 4th Street – Mr. Dick's Church, 1826 (or earlier)

East 5th Street

720-732 East 4th Street – Public School #16, 1838

Historic Maps: East 5th Street

Perris 1853:

281 East 5th Street: Brick building set back from the front of the lot covers about three-fifths of the lot, rear yard, shallow building along the rear lot line

283 East 5th Street: Vacant (no address)

285 to 289 East 5th Street: "Public School No 16", brick, shallow rear yard

291 East 5th Street: Vacant (no address)

293 East 5th Street: Brick building on the front two-fifths of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1859: Same as Perris 1868

Perris 1868:

524 East 5th Street: Same as in 1853, three stories, frame rear addition, no back building

526 East 5th Street: Ditto

528 to 536 East 5th Street: “Grammar School No 15”, brick, expanded from 1853 to I-shape – wings on the corners running along the lot lines, between the arms of the “I” vacant areas

538 East 5th Street: Same as in 1853, old 293 East 5th Street
Perris 1877:

Same as on the Perris 1868

East 4th Street

Perris 1853:

645 to 661 East 4th Street: Row of brick houses covering about two-fifths of the front of the lots, rear yards, shallow buildings along the rear lot lines; nos. 655 and 657 East 6th Street have a shallow rear wing

663 to 665 East 4th Street: “Presbyterian Church”, frame building on the front three-fifths of the lot, yard, shallow building along the rear lot line

Perris 1859:

Same as 1853; large brick building at 339-343 4th Street (no address noted on this map) is labeled “Dry Dock Savings Bank”

Perris 1868:

323 to 337 East 4th Street: as 645 to 659 East 6th Street on the 1853 Perris, all three stories, no back buildings

339 to 343 East 4th Street – three story brick building with U-shaped vacant area around it, replaces the old frame Presbyterian Church and the lot immediately west of it formerly the site of a brick residence

Perris 1877:

Same as on the Perris 1868

Conclusion: The center of 730 East 5th Street and the former rear yards of 323 to 337 East 4th Street are archaeologically sensitive for remains of privies; 341 East 4th Street is not archaeologically sensitive.

Lot 31

Site No.: 112

Lot Size: 22 X 96.17 ft.

Current use: Vacant

Addresses: 746 East 5th Street (1877), 552 East 5th Street (1868), 307 East 5th Street (1853 -1859)

First tax ass.: C.M. Laight, Lot & Shop, 1846

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot with frame rear addition covers approximately the front three-fifths of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, three stories

Perris 1877: Same, four stories

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 32

Site No.: 170
Lot Size: 22 X 96.17 ft.
Current use: Vacant
Addresses: 748 East 5th Street(1877), 554 East 5th Street (1868), 309 East 5th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: C.M. Laight, Lot & Shop, 1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot with frame rear addition covers approximately the front three-fifths of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same, four stories

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 7501

Site No.: E-94
Lot Size: 18 x 72.13 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 305 East 4th Street (1877, no address earlier)
First tax ass.: Untraceable
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Part of the east side of the brick “Presbyterian Church” and vacant area
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Narrow area east of the church, now a “Synagogue”, front of the lot is vacant, brick and frame wings connected to the synagogue cover about three quarters of the back of the lot
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or a Jewish ritual bath

.....

BLOCK 375, lots 29, 32

Bounded by East 6th Street (N) Avenue D (E), East 5th Street (S) and Avenue C (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 35
Perris 1868, pl. 35
Perris 1877, pl. 35
Robinson 1884, pl. 20
Hyde 1913, pl. 23
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 14a

Lot 29

Site No.: 240
Lot Size: 22 X 97 ft.
Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 740 East 6th Street (1877), 257 East 6th Street (1859-1868), 365 East 6th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Francis Fickett, 1838

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, brick rear wing half the lot width, yard, shallow building along the rear lot line

Perris 1859: Same, with back building along the rear lot line

Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no back building

Perris 1877: Same, rear wing is two stories

Sanborn 1903: three story brick dwelling on the front of the lot, shallow one story building along the rear lot line

Hyde 1913: Same, frame back building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 32

Site No.: 241

Lot Size: 22 X 97 ft.

Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 746 East 6th Street (1877), 263 East 6th Street (1859-1868), 371 East 6th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Samuel Hunt, 1937 (John Ball, Lot and Stable 1836)

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, yard, building along the rear lot line

Perris 1859: Same, with back building along the rear lot line

Perris 1868: Same, three stories, narrow frame addition at the rear, no back building

Perris 1877: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same

Hyde 1913: Same, frame back building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

BLOCK 376, lots 9, 10, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 27, 43

Bounded by East 7th Street (N) Avenue D (E), East 6th Street (S) and Avenue C (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 34

Perris 1868, pl. 34

Perris 1877, pl. 34

Hyde 1913, pl. 23

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 23

Lot 9

Site No.: E-96

Lot Size: 22.67 X 90.82 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 234 East 7th Street

First tax ass.: D. Codivise, Lot & Stable, 1851

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant, "Coal Yard", (no address)
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot,
rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same, store and dwelling
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 10

Site No.: E-97
Lot Size: 22.67 X 90.83
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 236 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: D. Codivise, Lot & Stable, 1851
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Small brick building at the front of the lot in the northwest corner, part of the "Coal Yard"
Perris 1859: Same, building marked "Office"
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot,
rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same, store and dwelling
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 21

Site No.: 242
Lot Size: 22.67 X 90.83
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 258 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: John Turner, 1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, with small brick and frame additions at the rear
Perris 1877: Same, rear addition is two stories
Sanborn 1903: Same
Hyde 1913: Same, with a frame building on the rear lot line, dwelling
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 22

Site No.: 247
Lot Size: 22.67 X 90.83
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 260 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: James Sparrow, 1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot with small rear addition, rear yard, shallow building along the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no back building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling
Hyde 1913: Same, with a frame building on the rear lot line, dwelling
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 23

Site No.: 248
Lot Size: 22.67 X 90.83
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 262 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: James Sparrow, 1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard, shallow building along the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow frame addition at the rear, no back building
Perris 1877: Same, with a further small frame addition at the rear
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, with shallow one story building along the rear lot line
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same, with a longer rear wing on the east lot line, dwelling
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 24

Site No.: 243
Lot Size: 22.67 X 90.83
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 264 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: John Sutlow, 1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard, shallow building along the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow frame addition at the rear, no back building

Perris 1877: Same, rear addition is one story
Sanborn 1903: Same, Dwelling
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 25

Site No.: 244
Lot Size: 22.67 X 90.83
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 266 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: John Sutlow, 1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard, shallow building along the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow frame addition at the rear, no back building
Perris 1877: Same, but with shallow, three story brick rear addition
Sanborn 1903: Same, with shallow one story back building along the rear lot line
Hyde 1913: Same, back building is frame
Sanborn 1951: Same, dwelling
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 27

Site No.: E-4
Lot Size: 22.67 X 90.83
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 270 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: William Frazee, 1848
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard, shallow building along the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, part of a one story building extending over the southeast corner of the lot
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same, store and dwelling
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 43

Site No.: 246
Lot Size: 23 X 90.83
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 743 East 6th Street, 312 East 6th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Felix Quinn, 1837
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard, shallow building along the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no back building
Perris 1877: Same, small rear addition is one story
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, a second small one story addition at the rear, shallow one story building along the rear lot line
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: map unclear, seems to be a larger building covering four-fifths of the lot
Sanborn 2005: Three story building in the front, one story rear wing extending to the lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for a cistern or privy

.....

BLOCK 377, lots 10, 49, 50, 52, 53, 54, 55, 61

Bounded by East 8th Street (N) Avenue D (E), East 7th Street (S) and Avenue C (W)

Perris 1853, pl. 42
Perris 1859 pl. 34
Perris 1868, pl. 34
Perris 1877, pl. 34
Hyde 1913, pl. 23
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 23

Lot 10

Site No.: 249
Lot Size: 18.5 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 356 East 8th Street; 358 East 8th Street (1853-1877)
First tax ass.: Mr. Adams, 1848
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 49

Site No.: 115
Lot Size: 22.25 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Vacant
Addresses: 277 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: Robert Simpson, 1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow building on the rear and east lot lines, L-shaped, rear yard
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, without the back building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, with the back building, extension of rear wing, three stories with basement
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 50

Site No.: E-102
Lot Size: 22.25 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 275 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: Isaac Brant, 1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow building on the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: four story brick building in the front with a three story wing at the rear, no back building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, with back building, extensions of rear wing, three stories with basement
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 52

Site No.: 250
Lot Size: 22.25 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 271 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: William Wells, 1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow building on the rear lot line

Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no back building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, two story rear wing, with back building
Hyde 1913: Same, frame back building
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 53

Site No.: 251
Lot Size: 22.25 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Three and a half story building
Addresses: 269 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: William Boardman, 1844
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow building on the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no back building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, two story rear wing, with back building
Hyde 1913: Same, frame back building
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same, but front building is five stories; rear wing half the lot width on the east lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 54

Site No.: E-104
Lot Size: 22.25 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 267 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: D.D. Wright, 1844
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow building on the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no back building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, with back building
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same, but front building is five stories, plus rear wing half the lot width on the east lot line, no back building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 55

Site No.: E-105
Lot Size: 24.75 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 265 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: Jasey (?) Williams, 1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow building on the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no back building
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, with back building
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same, but front building is five stories, plus rear wing half the lot width on the east lot line, no back building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 61

Site No.: 252
Lot Size: 24.75 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 253 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: James Spencer, 1842
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow building on the rear lot line
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, no back building
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, with back building
Hyde 1913: Same, without back building,
Sanborn 1920: Same, with back building
Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 387, lot 133

Bounded by East 6th Street (N) Avenue C (E), East 5th Street (S) and Avenue B (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 35
Perris 1868, pl. 35
Perris 1877, pl. 35
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 13

Lot 133

Site No.: E-113
Lot Size: 20 X 97 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 650 East 6th Street (1877); 327 East 6th Street (1853); 213 East 6th Street (1859-1868)
First tax ass.: John Fowler, 1848
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Four story brick store and dwelling on the front half of the lot, shallow one story building along the rear lot line
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

BLOCK 390, lots 34, 39, 52

Bounded by East 8th Street (N) Avenue C (E), East 7th Street (S) and Avenue B (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 39
Perris 1868, pl. 39
Perris 1877, pl. 39
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 22

Lot 34

Site No.: E-117
Lot Size: 19.33 X 63 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 115 Avenue C (1877); 111 Avenue C (1853-1868)
First tax ass.: Maguire & Brady, 1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same

Sanborn 2005: Same, "C&R& Dry Clean'g"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 39

Site No.: 91

Lot Size: 20 x 97.5 ft.

Current use: One story building on the front of the lot, built 1980, rear yard

Addresses: 227 East 7th Street

First tax ass.: James McGuire, 1847

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories

Perris 1877: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, "Bakery"

Sanborn 1920: Same

Sanborn 1951: Same

Sanborn 2005: One story building on the front half of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 52

Site No.: 257

Lot Size: 20 X 97.5 ft.

Current use: Church, four story buildings on the front of the lot, built 2001, rear yard

Addresses: 207 East 7th Street; 205 and 207 East 7th Street;

First tax ass.: Edward Kimball, 1847 (both lots, house on each)

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick buildings on the front of the lots, rear yards

Perris 1868: Same, four stories

Perris 1877: Five story building at 205 East 7th Street covers about three-quarters of the lot

Sanborn 1903: 205 East 7th Street – five story brick store and dwelling covers two-thirds of the lot; 207 East 7th Street – four story store and dwelling on the front half of the lot, one story building on the rear lot line

Sanborn 1920: 205 East 7th Street – Same; 207 East 7th Street –

"Synagogue" building covers all but about five feet at the rear of the lot

Sanborn 1951: Same

2005 – current use, approximately eight feet vacant at the rear of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive

.....

BLOCK 391, lots 19, 52

Bounded by East 9th Street (N) Avenue C (E), East 8th Street (S) and Avenue B (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 39
Perris 1868, pl. 39
Perris 1877, pl. 39
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 22

Lot 19

Site No.: E-127
Lot Size: 20 X 76 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 624 East 9th Street (1868); 325 East 9th Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: J.W.V.P. Mersereau, 1848
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same, "Metal Works"
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same, "Metal Work &C&R"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 52

Site No.: E-129
Lot Size: 20.58 X 69.83 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 315 East 8th Street
First tax ass.: J. Roberts, unfinished, 1847
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same, dwelling, narrow one story building along the rear lot line
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 392, lots 4, 16, 34

Bounded by East 10th Street (N) Avenue C (E), East 9th Street (S) and Avenue B (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 39
Perris 1868, pl. 39
Perris 1877, pl. 39
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 22

Lot 4

Site No.: E-130
Lot Size: 23 X 93
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 149 Avenue B
First tax ass.: James J. Bertine, 1849
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow rear yard;
modern lot includes the former yard of 603 East 9th Street
Perris 1859: Same, modern lot configuration
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same size / footprint but four stories "Day Nursery"
Sanborn 1920:
Sanborn 1951: Same size / footprint but five stories "Club"
Sanborn 2005: "Mission", five stories with basement, rear yard
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 16

Site No.: E-131
Lot Size: 25 X 92.25 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 362 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: William Fanning, 1851
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same, "Apt's"
Sanborn 2005: Same
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 34

Site No.: E-132
Lot Size: 23 X 83 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 153 Avenue C (1877); 149 Avenue C (1853-1868)
First tax ass.: Robert L. Read, Lot & Sheds, 1848

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Two small buildings on the south lot line and one across the rear of the lot, all marked hazard
Perris 1859: Same, with additional small building on the north lot line near the back of the lot
Perris 1868: Same, all one story, leaving two small vacant areas between the older buildings
Perris 1877: Front building on the north lot line is slightly smaller, otherwise the same
1884 Robinson: Brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard
Sanborn 1903: Same, five story brick store and dwelling on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 393, lots 10, 59, 61

Bounded by East 11th Street (N) Avenue C (E), East 10th Street (S) and Avenue B (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 39
Perris 1868, pl. 39
Perris 1877, pl. 39
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 22

Lot 10

Site No.: E-136
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 606 East 11th Street (1868); 213 East 11th Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: Peter Coyle to Owen Coyle, 1845/1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Front of the lot vacant, brick building on the rear third
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: One story brick building marked hazard on the front of the lot leaving a narrow vacant strip along the west lot line, building at rear is three stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on about three-quarters of the lot covers the former yard; rear building has been removed

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 59

Site No.: 126
Lot Size: 50 X 94.75
Current use: Vacant
Addresses: 351 East 10th Street; 351 and 353 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: 351 East 10th Street - Thomas. M. Beare, 1837; 353 East 10th Street – D. J

Jones, 1848

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick buildings set back from the front of the lot, rear yards
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: 351 East 10th Street - Five story brick building, about 55 ft.
on the front of the lot, rear yard; 353 East 10th Street – no change
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 61

Site No.: 258
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 349 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: J.B. Beck, 1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same “Methodist Church 1st” and dwelling
Sanborn 1920: Same, with “Coal Yard” in rear
Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....
BLOCK 397, lots 11, 27

Bounded by East 2nd Street (N) Avenue B (E), East 1st Street (S) and Avenue A (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 36
Perris 1868, pl. 36
Perris 1877, pl. 36
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 12

Lot 11

Site No.: E-141
Lot Size: 33.83 X 105.92 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 155 East 2nd Street; 153 and 155 East 2nd Street
First tax ass.: F. Mahaney, 1833
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick buildings on the front half of the lots, rear yards
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Five story building covers a little under three-quarters of the
lot
Sanborn 1903: Same, “Carpenter”, Store and Dwelling.
1920 and Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 27

Site No.: 284
Lot Size: 19.33 X 105.42 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 191 East 2nd Street;
First tax ass.: J.B. Taylor, 1835
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, Store and Dwelling, "Job Printer", small one story building on the east lot line
1920 and Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

BLOCK 398, lot 24

Bounded by East 3rd Street (N) Avenue B (E), East 2nd Street (S) and Avenue A (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 36
Perris 1868, pl. 36
Perris 1877, pl. 36
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 12

Lot 24

Site No.: E-147
Lot Size: 24 X 105.92 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 188 East 3rd Street (1868); 168 3rd Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: M.A. Nelson, 1842
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front quarter of the lot, yard, large L-shaped building on the west and south lot lines
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same
Perris 1877: Five story brick building covers the front seven-tenths of the lot; part of the original yard area directly behind this building has not been impacted
1903: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

BLOCK 399, lot 58

Bounded by East 4th Street (N) Avenue B (E), East 3rd Street (S) and Avenue A (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 36
Perris 1868, pl. 36
Perris 1877, pl. 36
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 12

Lot 58

Site No.: E-149
Lot Size: 45 X 96.17
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 157 East 3rd Street (1868); 139 and 141 East 3rd Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Peter Palm, 1854
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, small building in the northwest corner against the west lot line, rear yard, both house lots
Perris 1859: Same
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, without the back building
Perris 1877: Same
1884 Robinson: Same, no back buildings
Sanborn 1903: Same, narrow one story buildings along the west and east lot lines and in the center rear of the lot, an addition to the west half of the rear of 159 East 3rd Street
1920 and Sanborn 1951 – Same
Sanborn 2005 – Same, no back buildings

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

BLOCK 404, lots 5, 9, 11, 30, 31, 37, 38, 41, 42, 46, 47, 48, 52, 53, 56, 58

Bounded by East 11th Street (N) Avenue B (E), East 10th Street (S) and Avenue A (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 39
Perris 1868, pl. 39
Perris 1877, pl. 39
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 29

Lot 5

Site No.: E-153
Lot Size: 19 X 80 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 502 East 11th Street (1868); 159 East 11th Street (1853-1859)
First tax ass.: Joseph Hewlett, 1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same

1884 Robinson: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, narrow one story building on rear lot line, Store and Dwelling
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same, "Convent"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 9

Site No.: E-154
Lot Size: 21 X 75 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 510 East 11th Street (1868); 165 East 11th Street (1853 -1859)
First tax ass.: William Pinchbeck, 1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
1884 Robinson: Same
1903 and Sanborn 1920: Same, with a narrow building along the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 11

Site No.: E-155
Lot Size: 25 X 77.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building on the front of the lot, built 1929, rear yard
Addresses: 514 East 11th Street; 169 East 11th Street (1853 -1859)
First tax ass.: A. McDonald, 1847-1848
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
1903 and Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: one-story rear wing covers almost the entire yard area

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 30

Site No.: E-160
Lot Size: 25 X 70 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 170 Avenue B
First tax ass.: Untraceable
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: No street number, lot not defined, mostly vacant, small part of building marked hazard overlaps the lot area towards the rear
Perris 1859: Frame building marked hazard on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1877: Same, with a small building in the southwest corner of the lot, marked hazard

1903, 1920 and Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 31

Site No.: E-161

Lot Size: 25 X 70 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 168 Avenue B

First tax ass.: Untraceable

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: No street number, lot not defined, small building marked hazard in the southeast corner of the lot, on Avenue B
Perris 1859: Three frame buildings, two marked hazard, cover almost the entire lot area
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot covers the small vacant strip that existed in 1859
Perris 1877: Same
1903, 1920 and Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 37

Site No.: E-162

Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 337 East 10th Street

First tax ass.: Blatchford, 1853

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Cluster of buildings marked hazard overlap the lot, which is not yet defined
Perris 1859: Two frame buildings marked hazard overlap the front quarter of the lot, the rear is vacant, part of a very large “Coal Yard”
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front half of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, small one story buildings along the west and east lot lines in the rear
Sanborn 1920:

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 38

Site No.: E-163

Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 335 East 10th Street

First tax ass.: Blatchford, 1853

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Three small buildings marked hazard on the front and center of the lot
Perris 1859: Only the front buildings remain, the rest is vacant, part of the “Coal Yard”

Perris 1868: Five story brick building set back from the front of the lot,
rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, Store and Dwelling, small shed (?) in the northeast corner of the lot
1920: Same as Sanborn 2005 – extension at the rear of the main building, yard

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 41

Site No.: E-164
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 329 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: Ferdinand, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, five stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling
Sanborn 1920: Same, with rear wing
Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 42

Site No.: E-11
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 327 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: John M. Ferdinand, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, five stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling
Sanborn 1920: Same, with rear wing
Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 46

Site No.: 260
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 319 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: J.N. Perkins, 1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot with shallow frame rear wing, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same

1930, 1920 and Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 47

Site No.: 261

Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 317 East 10th Street

First tax ass.: J.N. Perkins, 1846

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot with shallow frame rear wing, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories

Perris 1877: Same

1930, 1920 and Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 48

Site No.: E-165

Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 315 East 10th Street

First tax ass.: Robert Morgan, 1846

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot with shallow frame rear wing, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories, new three story brick wing added at rear

Perris 1877: Same

1903 and Sanborn 1920: Same with four story rear wing and one story wing behind it on the east lot line

Sanborn 1951: Same, but one story wing behind the four story wing now covers the entire lot width and extends nearly to the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 52

Site No.: 262

Lot Size: 25 X 114.5 ft.

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 307 East 10th Street

First tax ass.: Joseph French, 1845

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, three stories

Perris 1877: Same, but four stories

1903, 1920 and Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 53

Site No.: 263
Lot Size: 25 X 114.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 305 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: William Pinchbeck, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot, brick building at the rear, yard in between Perris 1868: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, three stories, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same with small one story rear wing about one-third of the lot width on the west lot line
1920 and Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 56

Site No.: 227
Lot Size: 25 X 114.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 299 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: James French, 1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, with shallow frame addition at the rear
Perris 1877: Same
1903, 1920 and Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 58

Site No.: E-169
Lot Size: 23.83 X 109.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 295 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: James French, 1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, with shallow frame addition at the rear
Perris 1877: Same
1903 and Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same with one story rear wing that completely covers the back of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 405, lots 33, 34, 35

Bounded by East 12th Street (N) Avenue B (E), East 11th Street (S) and Avenue A (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 36
Perris 1868, pl. 36
Perris 1877, pl. 36
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 29

Lot 33

Site No.: E-173
Lot Size: 20 X 90.5 ft.
Current use: Five story building on the front of the lot, built 1930, rear yard
Old lot: 2804
Addresses: 188 Avenue B; 186 Avenue B (1868, 1877)
First tax ass.: Masterton & Smith, 1848
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant "Stonecutter's Yard"
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920 and 1951: Same, small one story building on the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 34

Site No.: E-174
Lot Size: 30 X 90.5 ft.
Current use: Five story building on the front of the lot, built 1930, rear yard
Old lot: 2805
Addresses: 186 Avenue B, 186 Avenue B (1868, 1877)
First tax ass.: Masterton & Smith, 1848
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant "Stonecutter's Yard"
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903 and 1920: Same, small one story shed (?) on the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 35

Site No.: E-175
Lot Size: 30 X 90.5 ft.
Current use: Five story building on the front of the lot, built 1930, rear yard, back building
Addresses: 182 Avenue B
Old lot: 2806
First tax ass.: Masterton & Smith, 1858
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building of "Stonecutter's Yard" overlaps this lot

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903 and 1920: Same “Provisions”, several one-story buildings on the rear and south lot lines
Sanborn 1951: Same front building, one story building at the rear of the lot covers about half the yard, narrow one story building on the south
lot line in the yard

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 406, lots 14, 15, 34, 42, 45, 48, 55

Bounded by East 13th Street (N) Avenue B (E), East 12th Street (S) and Avenue A (W)

Perris 1859, pl. 36
Perris 1868, pl. 36
Perris 1877, pl. 36
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 29

Lot 14

Site No.: E-12
Lot Size: 25 X 103.25 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 516 East 13th Street (1868); 272 East 13th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: William L. Morris, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick faced frame building on the front of the lot, rear vacant “Coal Yard”
Perris 1868: Same, two stories, with new two-story rear wing marked hazard; yard, frame building in the rear of the lot, “Coal Yard”
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot,
rear yard
Sanborn 1903: Same, Store and Dwelling, two one story sheds in the southwest and southeast corners of the lot
Sanborn 1920, 1951: building extended at the rear, yard vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 15

Site No.: E-180
Lot Size: 25 X 103.25 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 518 East 13th Street (1868); 274 East 13th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Thomas Duffy, 1849-1850
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot marked hazard, rear vacant “Coal Yard”
Perris 1868: Same, two stories, with enlarged two-story rear wing marked hazard; yard, frame building in the rear of the lot, “Coal Yard”

Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Sanborn 1903: Same, Store and Dwelling, one story shed in the southwest corner of the lot

Sanborn 1920, 1951: building extended at the rear, yard vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 34

Site No.: E-13

Lot Size: 39.17 X 130.25

Current use: Five story building, rear yard behind 206 Avenue B only – the rest of the lot is covered

Addresses: 206 Avenue B (1877); 212 Avenue B (1853, 1868)

Old Lot: 2796½ and 2796

First tax ass.: 1852, name illegible

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot marked hazard, rear yard

Perris 1868: New five story brick building covers the front half of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same (modern lot configuration)

Robinson 1884: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, one story rear wing on the back of 208 Avenue B and a two story dwelling at the rear of the lot behind it; one story buildings at the rear of the lot behind 206 Avenue B; small, one story buildings in the middle of the yard.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 42

Site No.: E-182

Lot Size: 35.08 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 543 East 12th Street (1877); 443 and 441 East 12th Street

First tax ass.: John E. Foley, 1845

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick buildings on the front of the lots, part of a building marked hazard crossing behind the rear of the buildings and their yards, within the area of the longer, modern lot

Perris 1868: Same, three stories

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884: Same, without the rear building

Sanborn 1903: Larger, five story dwelling on the front two-thirds of the lot

Sanborn , 1920, 1951: Same, with two narrow one story buildings along the north lot line.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of privies

Lot 45

Site No.: 135

Lot Size: 22 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 539 East 12th Street (1868); 437 East 12th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: William L. Morris, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front third of the lot, rear yard, small building in the northwest corner of the lot marked hazard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, small L-shaped building at the back of the lot
Perris 1877: Same, marked hazard, new one story shed at the rear of the lot
Robinson 1884: Brick building on the front half of the lot, vacant yard
Sanborn 1903: Three story Store and Dwelling on the front of the lot, one story wings at the rear completely cover the lot
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Front building only, rear vacant
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 48

Site No.: E-18
Lot Size: 50 X 103.25 ft.
Current use: Vacant
Addresses: 531 East 12th Street; 531 and 533 East 12th Street (1868); 429 and 431 East 12th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: 531 East 12th Street – Murtaka (?) 1845; 533 East 12th Street – G. Stuyvesant, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: 429 East 12th Street: Brick building on the front of the lot, small structure on the rear lot line marked hazard 431 East 12th Street: Frame buildings on the front, middle and rear of the lot with yards in between, buildings at the rear of the lot marked hazard;
Perris 1868: 531 East 12th Street: two story brick building marked hazard completely covers the lot; 533 East 12th Street: same two story frame buildings on the front and middle of the lot, new four story brick building at the rear of the lot;
Perris 1877: 531 East 12th Street: New five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear vacant; 533 East 12th Street: Same
Robinson 1884: Same (both)
Sanborn 1903, 1920: 531 East 12th Street: Same, store and dwelling; 533 \ East 12th Street: five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot, same building at the rear, yard in between Sanborn 1951: 531 East 12th Street: vacant; 533 East 12th Street: Same
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of cisterns or privies

Lot 55

Site No.: E-183
Lot Size: 25 X 103.25 ft.
Current use: Two four story buildings on the front and rear of the lot
Addresses: 519 East 12th Street (1868); 417 East 12th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Hunt, 1852

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick buildings on the front and rear of the lot, yard in between Perris 1868: Same, both four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same, without the back building
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, with the back building, small addition on half the rear wall of the main building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 410, lot 16

Bounded by Rivington Street (N) Ludlow Street (E), Delancey Street (S) and Orchard Street (W)

Perris 1852, pl. 21
Sanborn 1894, pl. 25
Hyde 1913, pl. 21
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 79

Lot 16

Site No.: 4
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 95 Rivington Street
First tax ass.: Enoch Hoyt, 1833
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1867: Same, three stories, shallow frame addition at the rear
Perris 1875: Same, five stories
Sanborn 1894: Same, three stories
Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920: Same "Hebrew School"
Sanborn 1951: Same, "Hebrew School"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 415, lots 23, 36

Bounded by Rivington Street (N) Allen Street (E), Delancey Street (S) and Eldridge Street (W)

Perris 1852, pl. 24
Sanborn 1905, 1922, 1951, pl. 78

Lot 23

Site No.: 15
Lot Size: 20 X 70 ft.

Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 143 Allen Street
First tax ass.: George Sutton, 1831, Mary Ingersoll 1831, same address, two listings
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, shallow building along the rear lot line
Perris 1867: Same, two stories, no back building
Perris 1875: Same
Sanborn 1894: Same
Hyde 1913: Same, two and a half stories
1920, 1951, Sanborn 2005: Same, narrow one story back building running down the middle of the lot to the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 36

Site No.: 17
Lot Size: 25 X 88.17 ft.
Current use: Vacant
Addresses: 121 Allen Street
First tax ass.: Rachel Higgins, 1824
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front half of the lot, narrow brick building at the front of the lot next to it, on the north lot line
Perris 1867: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1875: Same, six stories
Sanborn 1894: Same (?) five stories
1920, Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 418, lot 43

Bounded by Broome Street (N) Eldridge Street (E), Grand Street (S) and Forsyth Street (W)

Perris 1853, pl. 24
Perris 1867
Perris 1875
Bromley 1891, pl. 5
Sanborn 1905, 1922, 1951, 2005, pl. 78

Lot 43

Site No.: 189
Lot Size: 21.92 X 87.5 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 293 Broome Street
First tax ass.: McNey (?) 1825; possibly also a house in 1824, name illegible.
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1867: Same, three stories, with shallow frame addition at the rear
Perris 1875: Same
Bromley 1891: Brick building on the front of the lot, no back buildings
Sanborn 1905: Same as Perris 1875, frame addition at the rear is two stories; additional, narrow, one story buildings along the west, south and east lot lines
Sanborn 1922, 1951, 2005: Same, without the one-story building along the south lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern
.....

BLOCK 422, lots 42, 43, 49, 53

Bounded by East Houston Street (N) Eldridge Street (E), Stanton Street (S) and Forsyth Street (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 33
Perris 1868, pl. 33
Perris 1877, pl. 33
Sanborn 1905, 1922, 1951, 2005, pl. 2

Lot 42

Site No.: 28
Lot Size: 24.67 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building on the front of the lot, built 1927, rear yard
Addresses: 204 Forsyth Street (1877)
First tax ass.: William S. Wright, 1870
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Mission Church cemetery
Perris 1868: Same
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot marked hazard, rear yard
1891 Bromley: Same
1920, 1950 Sanborn: Same
Sanborn 2005: "Nativity Mission Center"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 43

Site No.: 28
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Vacant, parking
Addresses: 206 Forsyth Street (1877)
First tax ass.: William S. Wright, 1870
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Mission Church cemetery
Perris 1868: Same
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Bromley 1891: Same plus brick rear building or wing taking up most of the rear half of the lot

Sanborn 1903, Hyde 1913, Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 49

Site No.: 199
Lot Size: 78.25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Sunshine Movie Theatre, built 2000, covers the lot
Addresses: 139 East Houston Street
First tax ass.: Reformed Dutch Church property, 1871, 5 stories
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: "Mission Church", brick building set back from the street with a "Cemetery" around it
Perris 1868: "German Evangelical Church" and "Cemetery"
Perris 1877: Same, with a two-story brick building along the rear wall of the church and a three story brick building next to church at 139 East Houston Street with a back yard
Bromley 1891: Same building at 139 East Houston Street, "Dutch Evangelical Church" extended to the south lot line; building on the front half of the lot at 145 East Houston Street
Sanborn 1903: "German Evangelical Mission Church" extended to the south lot line; Building at 139 East Houston Street extended to cover three-quarters of the lot; same building at 145 East Houston Street
Hyde 1913: Same, : "Vaudeville"
Sanborn 1920: "Moving Picture Theatre" covers the middle of the lot; one story extensions at the rear of 139 and 145 East Houston Street cover almost the entire areas of those house lots

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains

Lot 53

Site No.: 200
Lot Size: 21.75 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 145 East Houston Street
First tax ass.: Reformed Dutch Church property, 1871, 5 stories
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Mission Church cemetery
Perris 1868: German Evangelical Church cemetery
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: One story addition covers almost the entire lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains

.....

BLOCK 426, lots 27, 28, 33, 35, 38

Bounded by Stanton Street (N) Chrystie Street (E), Rivington Street (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1853, pl. 41

Perris 1868

Perris 1877

Bromley 1891, pl.

Sanborn 1905, 1922, 1951, 2005, pl. 1

Lot 27

Site No.: 50

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Two story building

Addresses: 201 Chrystie Street

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same, marked hazard

Sanborn 1920: Same

Sanborn 1951: Two story building completely covers the lot

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 28

Site No.: 51

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 199 Chrystie Street

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: "Fire Dep't Infirmary" three story brick building with one story brick rear wing completely covers the lot

Perris 1877: Same

Sanborn 1903: "N.Y. Fire Depmt Fire Depot 3rd Battalion"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains

Lot 33

Site No.: 52

Lot Size: 25 X 103 ft.

Current use: Two story building

Addresses: 189 Chrystie Street

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot, frame building along the north lot line, small buildings at the rear of the lot marked hazard, yard

Perris 1868: Same, "Slaughter House"

Perris 1877: Five story building on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard

Hyde 1913, Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same

Sanborn 2005: Two story building on the front of the lot, one story extension at the rear, completely cover the lot

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 35

Site No.: 53
Lot Size: 50 X 99.33 ft.
Current use: Two story building
Addresses: 183 Chrystie Street
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot, building at the rear of the lot marked hazard, yard in between
Perris 1868: Same front building, two stories, narrow alley behind and south of it, large three story building in the rear half of the lot "Provisions"
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front half of the lot, four story building at the rear of the lot, both new
Sanborn 1920: two buildings, a six story structure at 185 Chrystie Street, and a five story one at 183 Chrystie Street, both stores and dwellings, cover the entire lot area
Sanborn 1951, 2005: Two story building covers the lot

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 38

Site No.: 54
Lot Size: 92 X 75 ft.
Current use: One story building, built 1994, completely covers the lot
Addresses: 16 Rivington Street (179 Chrystie Street)
Historic Maps: Sanborn 1903: Mill Hotel No. 2 completely covers the lot

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

.....

BLOCK 429, lots 18, 20, 38, 39, 43, 49

Bounded by Second Street (N) Avenue A (E), First Street (S) and First Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 36
Perris 1868, pl. 36
Perris 1877, pl. 36
Robinson 1884, pl. 19
Hyde 1913, pl. 24
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 11

Lot 18

Site No.: E-190
Lot Size: 25 X 105.92
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 111 East 2nd Street
First tax ass.: 1852-1853, John H. Ransom
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, Dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 20

Site No.: E-191
Lot Size: 20 X 105.92 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 115 East 2nd Street
First tax ass.: Possibly before 1839
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Four story brick building with four story rear wing, rear yard
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, Dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 38

Site No.: E-195
Lot Size: 18.5 X 80 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 13 Avenue A
First tax ass.: [Bery?] Winthrop, 1838-1839
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: New building or much enlarged, three stories, covers about two thirds of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same with brick and frame extensions that almost completely cover the lot
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Four story building on the front of the lot, one story wing at the rear completely covers the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 39

Site No.: 296
Lot Size: 18.75 X 80 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 11 Avenue A
First tax ass.: [Bery?] Winthrop, 1838-1839
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, with three story rear wing and one story building at the rear of the lot that together cover almost the entire lot area

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 43

Site No.: 298

Lot Size: 20 X 105 ft.

Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 118 East 1st Street

First tax ass.: Knapp & (illegible name), 1845

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, three stories, rear wing is two stories

Perris 1877: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 49

Site No.: 299

Lot Size: 20 X 105.92 ft.

Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 108 East 1st Street

First tax ass.: George Hamilton, 1846

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, three stories, two story brick building on the rear of the lot not quite to the north lot line, yard between the two buildings

Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, front building is a dwelling and a "Jewish Church", small one story addition on the west side of the rear of the synagogue

Sanborn 1920: Same, "Synagogue"

Sanborn 1951, 2005: Same, no rear building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or Jewish ritual bath

.....

BLOCK 432, lot 35

Bounded by East 6th Street (N) Avenue A (E), East 4th Street (S) and 1st Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Robinson 1884, pl. 19
Hyde 1913, pl. 24
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 20

Lot 35

Site No.: E-197
Lot Size: 27.33 X 74.25 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 79 Avenue A; 77 Avenue A (1853, 1868); 81 Avenue A (1877)
First tax ass.: Mrs. Schloper, 1851
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same, marked hazard
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, store
Sanborn 2005: one story brick addition at the rear more than half the lot width, leaving L-shaped vacant yard around it

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

BLOCK 434, lots 12, 13, 15, 37, 54

Bounded by East 7th Street (N) Avenue A (E), East 6th Street (S) and 1st Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Robinson 1884, pl. 19
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 20a

Lot 12

Site No.: E-14
Lot Size: 25 X 90.83 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 96 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: Samuel Baldwin, 1839
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear vacant
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1950: Same, five stories, dwelling, rear vacant.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 13

Site No.: E-198
Lot Size: 25 X 90.83 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 98 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: John McCahill, 1854
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
(same length as earlier building)
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1950: Same, five stories, dwelling, rear vacant.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 15

Site No.: E-199
Lot Size: 25 X 90.83 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 102 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: Levi Duryea, 1854
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, longer than earlier building, rear yard
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1950: Same, five stories, dwelling, rear vacant.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 37

Site No.: E-205
Lot Size: 25 X 90.83 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 441 East 6th Street; 437 East 6th Street (1868)
First tax ass.: Beaty & Moore, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building marked hazard on the front of the lot along the east lot line, half the width of the lot, rest vacant
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884, Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling "Bicycle Repairs"
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, business not labeled

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 54

Site No.: E-209
Lot Size: 21.42 X 90.83 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 407 East 6th Street (1868); 66 East 6th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Beaty & Moore, 1845

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same, four stories
Sanborn 1903: Same, with a one-story addition with basement at the rear
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

.....

BLOCK 435, lots 4, 5, 10, 11, 22, 35, 36, 52

Bounded by East 8th Street (N) Avenue A (E), East 7th Street (S) and 1st Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Robinson 1884, pl. 22
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 20a

Lot 4

Site No.: E-210
Lot Size: 24.33 X 94 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 122 1st Avenue
First tax ass.: Stuyvesant, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, five stories
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, "Chinese laundry", store and dwelling
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 5

Site No.: E-211
Lot Size: 24.33 X 94 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 124 1st Avenue
First tax ass.: John Wood, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot marked hazard, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, five stories
Perris 1877: Same, not marked hazard
Robinson 1884, Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: One and two-story extensions at the rear cover almost the entire yard area
Sanborn 2005: one story wing at the rear covers the entire yard

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 10

Site No.: E-212
Lot Size: 25 X 73 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 92 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: John Wood, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, five stories
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884, Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 11

Site No.: E-15
Lot Size: 25 X 73 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 94 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: John Wood, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, five stories
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884, Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 22

Site No.: E-214
Lot Size: 19.4 X 97.6 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 116 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: John Wood 1851-1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884, Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920 1951: Same, store and dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 35

Site No.: E-16
Lot Size: 24.42 X 100 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 115 Avenue A (1877); 107 Avenue A (1868)
First tax ass.: Bepry & Tripler (?), 1859
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant
Perris 1868: Four story brick building marked hazard on the front of the lot
Perris 1877: Same, not marked hazard

Perris 1877, Robinson 1884, Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, with narrow one story sheds along the north and south lot lines.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 36

Site No.: E-220
Lot Size: 24.33 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 113 Avenue A (1877); 105 Avenue A (1868)
First tax ass.: Bepry & Tripler (?), 1859
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884, Hyde 1913: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, with narrow one story sheds along the north and south lot lines.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 52

Site No.: 269
Lot Size: 20/17 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 101 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: William Ogilvie, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling
Sanborn 1951: Four story "Rectory" on the front two-thirds of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

BLOCK 436, lots 8, 11, 16, 20, 25, 52

Bounded by East 9th Street (N) Avenue A (E), St. Mark's Place (S) and 1st Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 20a

Lot 8

Site No.: 232
Lot Size: 20 X 27 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 404 East 9th Street (1868); 257 East 9th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Address not listed in the early-mid 1850s
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, with a small one story addition at the rear on the west lot line; narrow one story building along the rear lot line
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 11

Site No.: E-229
Lot Size: 20.75 X 75 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 410 East 9th Street (1868); 263 East 9th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Charles Coudert (spelling?), 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 16

Site No.: E-230
Lot Size: 24 X 93.92 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 418 East 9th Street
First tax ass.: James B. Murray, store, 1847
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building marked hazard set back from the street, deep yard, no house number
Perris 1868: Two five story brick buildings on the front of the lot, rear yards
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, store and dwelling
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 20

Site No.: E-231
Lot Size: 37.5 X 90.25 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 424 East 9th Street
First tax ass.: William Chauncey, 1847
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building marked hazard set back from the street, deep yard, no house number
Perris 1868: Five story brick buildings on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, “Bakery”
Sanborn 1920: Same, “Polish Daily Newspaper”
Sanborn 1951: Same. “Tin shop”

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 25

Site No.: E-232
Lot Size: 25 X 93.92 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 432 East 9th Street (1868); 281 East 9th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Sigler (?), 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard, frame building on the rear of the lot.
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same, no back building
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, store and dwelling, narrow one story shed in the southeast corner of the lot along the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 52

Site No.: E-234
Lot Size: 130.4 X 110-112.8 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 95, 97, 99 and 99 ½ St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: 95 St. Mark's Place - Murray & Davis, 1840
97 St. Mark's Place – Murray & Davis, 1840
99 St. Mark's Place – Thomas E. Davis 1½ Lot and House, 1840
99 ½ St. Mark's Place – Beverly Robinson, no house number, 1840
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Map is damaged, rear wings of buildings not completely Preserved; no number 99 ½, part of 99 St. Mark's Place
95 St. Mark's Place - Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard, with frame rear wing
97 St. Mark's Place – Same
99 St. Mark's Place – Same, no rear wing
Perris 1868: Same, all three stories, 95 and 97 St. Mark's Place have two story brick rear wings, half the lot width
Perris 1877:
95 St. Mark's Place – Same, four stories, vacant yard
97 St. Mark's Place – Same, five stories, vacant yard
99 St. Mark's Place – Five story brick building on the front three-fifths of the lot, rear yard
Robinson 1884: Same (stories not recorded)
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005:
95 St. Mark's Place – Same, five stories, store and dwelling,

97 St. Mark's Place – Same, five stories, store and dwelling
99 St. Mark's Place – Same, store and dwelling "Bakery"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of privies or cisterns

.....

BLOCK 437, lots 27, 28, 29, 30, 33, 38, 43

Bounded by East 10th Street (N) Avenue A (E), East 9th Street (S) and 1st Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 20a

Lot 27

Site No.: E-241
Lot Size: 26.33 X 113 ft.
Current use: Two four story buildings
Addresses: 153 Avenue A (1877); 139 Avenue A (1853)
First tax ass.: N. Kessel, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, four story brick building on the rear of the lot, yard in between
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same, no stories noted
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, store and dwelling, four stories, both buildings

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 28

Site No.: E-242
Lot Size: 26.33 X 113 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 151 Avenue A (1877); 137 Avenue A (1853)
First tax ass.: William English, 1850-1851
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same, no stories noted
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, "Paints", narrow one story sheds on the north and south lot lines in the yard
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, no sheds, no notation on building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 29

Site No.: E-243
Lot Size: 26.33 X 113 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 149 Avenue A (1877); 135 Avenue A (1853)
First tax ass.: Jonathan Hunt, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot marked hazard, five story brick building on the rear of the lot, yard in between
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same, no stories noted
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, five stories, both buildings, back building dwelling, front building store and dwelling
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 30

Site No.: E-244
Lot Size: 26.33 X 113 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 147 Avenue A (1877); 133 Avenue A (1853)
First tax ass.: John Hauch, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, five stories, five story brick building on the rear of the lot, yard in between
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same, no stories noted
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, back building dwelling, front is store and dwelling, both five stories
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 33

Site No.: E-245
Lot Size: 25 X 92.25 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 439 East 9th Street (1868); 290 East 9th Street
First tax ass.: Untraceable
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard, part of the rear building on the opposite lot overlaps the rear lot line
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, no rear building
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, store and dwelling, narrow sheds along the east and west lot lines and on the rear lot line
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 38

Site No.: E-247
Lot Size: 25 X 92.25 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 429 East 9th Street (1868); 280 East 9th Street
First tax ass.: Jonathan Miller, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 43

Site No.: E-248
Lot Size: 25 X 92.25 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 419 East 9th Street (1868); 270 East 9th Street
First tax ass.: Robert Chesebrough, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling, one story, narrow U-shaped shed around the rear of the lot on the west, north and east lot lines

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

BLOCK 438, lots 10, 39, 40, 43, 44

Bounded by East 11th Street (N) Avenue A (E), East 10th Street (S) and 1st Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 28a

Lot 10

Site No.: 102
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 404 East 11th Street (1868); 119 East 11th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Hall, 1851 (name crossed out, was owner in 1850)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same, five stories
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, small one story shed on the rear lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 39

Site No.: E-255
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 277 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: H. McFarlins (?), 1844 (unfinished)-1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front three quarters of the lot, rear yard
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, small one story shed on the east lot line
Sanborn 2005: Same, yard vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 40

Site No.: E-256
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 275 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: R.S. Patterson, 1844 (unfinished)-1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front three quarters of the lot, rear yard
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, small one story shed on the east lot line
Sanborn 2005: Same, yard vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 43

Site No.: E-257
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 269 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: Williams & Co., sold to J. Miller, 1844 (unfinished)-1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front three quarters of the lot, rear yard
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, small one story sheds on the rear and west lot lines
Sanborn 2005: Same, shed on rear lot line only

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 44

Site No.: E-258
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 267 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: L & Griffin & Others Trustees, 1845 (unfinished)-1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building front 3/4s of the lot, rear yard
Sanborn 1903: Same, small one story shed on the east lot line
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, yard vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

BLOCK 439, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 26, 27, 28, 30, 31, 33, 34

Bounded by East 12th Street (N) Avenue A (E), East 11th Street (S) and 1st Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Robinson 1884, pl. 22
Bromley 1891, pl. 7
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 28a

Lot 1

Site No.: E-17
Lot Size: 28.25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Six story building
Addresses: 182 1st Avenue
First tax ass.: 1867, 25 X 54 ft., 5 stories, name illegible
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Cemetery
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, one and five story wings behind it completely cover the lot
Sanborn 2005: "1st Media Mascit (sic) Mosque"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 2

Site No.: E-260
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 184 1st Avenue
First tax ass.: 1867, 23 X 54 ft., 5 stories, name illegible
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Cemetery
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 3

Site No.: E-261

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 186 1st Avenue

First tax ass.: 1867, 25 X 54 ft., 5 stories, name illegible

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Cemetery

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same, marked hazard

Robinson 1884: Same, with a small rear wing half the lot width on the south lot line

Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, store and dwelling, U-shaped, narrow one story shed along the north east and south lot lines at the rear of the yard

Sanborn 1951: Same, back yard vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 4

Site No.: E-262

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 188 1st Avenue

First tax ass.: 1867, 25 X 54 ft., 5 stories, name illegible

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Cemetery

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot with one and two story rear wings, marked hazard, completely covers the lot

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Brick building completely covers the lot

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, rear wings are one and two stories

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 5

Site No.: E-263

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 190 1st Avenue

First tax ass.: 1867, 25 X 54 ft., 5 stories, name illegible

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Cemetery

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot marked hazard, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same, not marked hazard
Sanborn 1903: Same, "Bakery" narrow one story buildings along the south and east lot lines
Sanborn 1920: Same, "Bakery", with two additions at the rear of the main building that extend along most of the rear wall, same sheds in the yard
Sanborn 1951: Same, front building not labeled, no sheds.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 6

Site No.: E-264
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 192 1st Avenue
First tax ass.: 1867, 25 X 54 ft., 5 stories, name illegible
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Cemetery
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same, with a narrow, two story rear wing and a two-story building at rear of the lot, T-shaped vacant area in between
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903:
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, with small one story shed in the southeast corner of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 26

Site No.: 140
Lot Size: 63 X 206.5 ft.
Current use: Mary Help of Christians Church, built 1900, covers the lot
Addresses: 436 East 12th Street
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Cemetery
Perris 1868: Same, narrow one story brick building at 437 East 11th Street, along the east lot line
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884, Sanborn 1903: Same, one story dwelling
Sanborn 1920: Mary Help of Christians church on 12th Street, 11th Street side of the block is vacant
Sanborn 1951: Same, but vacant 11th Street side of the lot now covered by buildings

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 27

Site No.: 103
Lot Size: 30 X 56.5 ft.

Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 440 East 12th Street
First tax ass.: Untraceable
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, store and dwelling, one story addition at the rear covers most of the narrow rear yard
Sanborn 1951: Same, yard vacant
Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 28

Site No.: E-265
Lot Size: 38.5 X 70 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 191 and 193 Avenue A (1877); 173, 171 Avenue A (1853, 1868)
First tax ass.: David Keyse, 1851
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick buildings completely cover 173 Avenue A; Brick building on the front of 171 Avenue A, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Brick building covers all of 193 Avenue A, brick building at 191 Avenue A covers three-quarters of the lot
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Two four story buildings on the front of the lot, stores and dwellings, one story wings at the rear of both completely cover the lots
Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 30

Site No.: E-266
Lot Size: 18 X 70 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 189 Avenue A (1877); 173, 169 ½ Avenue A (1853, 1868)
First tax ass.: Peter Burns, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same, with one story rear wing added that completely covers the lot
Robinson 1884: Brick building completely covers the lot
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, store and dwelling, four stories in front, one story at the rear
Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 31

Site No.: 103
Lot Size: 50 X 100 ft.
Current use: One story building on the rear of the lot, front used for parking
Addresses: 187 and 185 Avenue A (1877); 167 and 169 Avenue A (1853, 1868)
First tax ass.: Peter Burns, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick buildings on the front of the lots, rear yards
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, 169 Avenue A marked hazard
Perris 1877: Same, 1853 Avenue A marked hazard
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same (no hazard indicated)
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, store and dwelling (both), "Wire Worker" at 187 Avenue A; "Confectioner" at 185 Avenue A; narrow one story sheds down the center of the lot, on the northwest and south lot lines.
Sanborn 1951: Same; no "Confectioner"; one story wing erected at the rear of 185 Avenue A covers most of the area of the former area except for a section; most of the yard of 187 Avenue A still vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of cisterns or privies

Lot 33

Site No.: 103
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Vacant
Addresses: 183 Avenue A (1877); 165 Avenue A (1853, 1868)
First tax ass.: Peter Burns, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same, five stories
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, store and dwelling, two narrow one story

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 34

Site No.: 103
Lot Size: 75 X 100 ft.
Current use: Vacant
Addresses: 175 Avenue A (433-439 East 11th Street) (1877); 173 and 171 Avenue A (1853, 1868); 157, 159, 161 and 163 Avenue A
First tax ass.: O'Connor, 1855, is listed as the owner of two houses, at 154 and 154 ½ East 11th, corresponding to 439 and, presumably, the house next to it on the Perris 1853 map; the rest of the block is recorded as "Catholic Cemetery" as late as 1861.
Historic Maps: (north to south)
Perris 1853:
163 Avenue A: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

161 Avenue A: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
159 Avenue A: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
157 Avenue A: Brick building on the front of the lot, yard occupied by buildings on East 11th Street
(no address) 11th Street: brick building between 136 and 134 East
11th Street, rear yard
134 East 11th Street: brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868:

163 Avenue A: Same, four stories
161 Avenue A: Same, four stories
159 Avenue A: Same, four stories, marked hazard
157 Avenue A: Same, five stories
441 East 11th Street: Same, four stories
439 East 11th Street: Same, five stories

Perris 1877:

181 Avenue A: Same, five stories
179 Avenue A: Same, five stories
177 Avenue A: Same, five stories
Remaining old lots: Same

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same, all old lots

Sanborn 1903: Same, all stores and dwellings except 441 East 11th, which is just a dwelling; small, one story sheds at the rear of 177 to 181
Avenue A; small shed on the north line behind 439 East 11th; 181
Avenue A "Paints"

Sanborn 1920: Same, without "Paints" and without the small sheds behind 181 and 179 Avenue A

Sanborn 1951: Same, except no sheds; 441 East 11th Street marked "Off."
(office); new, longer one story building at 439 East 11th Street

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of cisterns or privies

.....
BLOCK 440, lots 6. 35. 36

Bounded by East 13th Street (N) Avenue A (E), East 12th Street (S) and 1st Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 43
Perris 1868, pl. 43
Perris 1877, pl. 43
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 28A

Lot 6

Site No.: E-267
Lot Size: 21 X 89 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 208 1st Avenue (1877), 106 1st Avenue (1868)
First tax ass.: Untraceable

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Two narrow frame buildings along the south lot line, the front one marked green for hazard; part of a frame building overlapping the rear of the lot
Perris 1868: Four story brick building on the front of the lot, rear vacant
Perris 1877: Same, modern lot configuration
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, two one story sheds at the rear of the lot on the north and south lot lines
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same with a one-story rear addition, yard vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 35

Site No.: E-276
Lot Size: 22.75 X 100 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 201 Avenue A (1877), 181 Avenue A (1868)
First tax ass.: Peterkin, 1850 (or 1849, missing)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, rear vacant
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, one story sheds on the north, west and south lot lines
Sanborn 1920: Same, with a small addition at the rear of the main building
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 36

Site No.: E-277
Lot Size: 22.75 X 100 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 199 Avenue A (1877), 179 Avenue A (1868)
First tax ass.: Peterkin, 1850 (or 1849, missing)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, rear vacant
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, one story sheds on the north, west and south lot lines
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 443, lots 47, 49, 51, 52, 54

Bounded by East 2nd Street (N) First Avenue (E), East 1st Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 37
Perris 1868, pl. 37
Perris 1877, pl. 37
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951,

Lot 47

Site No.: E-282
Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building on the front of the lot, built 1997, rear yard
Addresses: 60 East 1st Street
First tax ass.: Cornelius Dubois, 1829
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front of the lot, shed on the east lot line in the yard, building at the rear of the lot marked hazard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front three-fifths of the lot, rear yard
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, small one story shed on the west lot line, near the rear of the lot
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same (?) but four stories

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy

Lot 49

Site No.: E-283
Lot Size: 20.67 X 100.08 ft.
Current use: Four story building, built 2002, on the front of the lot
Addresses: 56 East 1st Street
First tax ass.: B. Wendall, between 1834 and 1836
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same, small addition at the rear
Sanborn 1903: Same
Sanborn 1920: Six story building with a rear extension covering most of the lot
Sanborn 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: six story building covers the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains

Lot 51

Site No.: E-284
Lot Size: 23.75 X 100.5 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 52 East 1st Street
First tax ass.: Wendell, Lot & Shop, (three houses on lot?), 1834
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot,
rear yard
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903:
Sanborn 1920:
Sanborn 1951:

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 52

Site No.: E-285
Lot Size: 23.92 X 100.08 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 50 East 1st Street
First tax ass.: Charles Griffin, 1833
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front three-fifths of the lot,
rear yard
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, small one story shed in the northeast corner of the
lot
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 54

Site No.: E-286
Lot Size: 24.17 X 100.17 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 46 East 1st Street
First tax ass.: Charly Griffin, 1834
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Frame building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories, three story brick building overlaps the rear of the lot
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front three-fifths of the lot,
rear yard

Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, small one story shed in the northeast corner of the lot
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy or cistern

.....

BLOCK 444, lots 3, 20, 21, 33, 34, 38, 39, 42

Bounded by East 3rd Street (N) First Avenue (E), East 4th Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 37
Perris 1868, pl. 37
Perris 1877, pl. 37

Lot 3

Site No.: E-292
Lot Size: 43.92 X 75 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 42 2nd Avenue; 42 and 44 2nd Avenue
First tax ass.: J. McMenemy, 1846 (both)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: "Tammany Club" at 42 2nd Avenue; "Rectory" at 44 2nd Avenue
Sanborn 1920: Same, connection between the two buildings, both "Rectory"
Sanborn 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 20

Site No.: 271
Lot Size: 18.75 X 101.33 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 62 East 3rd Street
First tax ass.: Mott, 1839
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow frame rear wing, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow two story frame addition at the rear
Perris 1877: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same front building but with large three story rear addition, rear yard

Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 21

Site No.: 271

Lot Size: 18.75 X 101.25 ft.

Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 64 East 3rd Street

First tax ass.: John Hanrahan, 1839

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow one story frame addition at the rear

Perris 1877: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 33

Site No.: E-292

Lot Size: 25 X 100.25 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 88 East 3rd Street

First tax ass.: Matthew Chase 1842/1843

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Narrow brick building on the front of the lot, frame rear wing extends to the rear of the lot, vacant strip along the east lot line

Perris 1868: Same configuration, all brick, two stories "Slaughter house"

Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy or cistern

Lot 34

Site No.: E-293

Lot Size: 102 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 43 1st Avenue; 43, 46, 47 and 49 1st Avenue

First tax ass.: E.D. Suttin, Lot & Factory and Engine, on the first two lots (49 and 47 1st Avenue), 1837

Sheds on the third and fourth lots (45 and 43 1st Avenue), Thomas Harrison, 1838

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: "Paris dyeing & Printing Works", marked hazard, and "Soap Manufactory" cover the lot

Perris 1868: Only a five story brick building at 49 1st Avenue remains; rest is vacant

Perris 1877: Row of five story brick buildings on the front of the lots, rear yards

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of privies.

Lot 38

Site No.: E-294

Lot Size: 24.92 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 41 1st Avenue

First tax ass.: Robert Elden, Lot & Store, 1829-1832

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: "Soap Manufactory" covers all but a small courtyard area

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same

Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, one story sheds at the rear of the main building, along the north, west and south lot lines in the rear half of the yard and a small one story building in the middle of the yard.

Sanborn 1951: Front building only, yard vacant

Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive remains of a privy

Lot 39

Site No.: E-295

Lot Size: 25 X 100 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 39 1st Avenue

First tax ass.: Robert Elden, Lot & Store, 1833

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: "Soap Manufactory" covers all but part of a small courtyard

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same

Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, one story sheds at the rear of the main building, along the north, west and south lot lines in the rear half of the yard and a small one story building in the middle of the yard.

Sanborn 1951: Front building with a shallow rear addition, yard vacant

Sanborn 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 42

Site No.: 104

Lot Size: 40 X 72.5 ft.

Current use: Two story building

Addresses: 33 1st Avenue; 33 and 35 1st Avenue

First tax ass.: Rebecca Burton, 1829-1832

Peter Marks, 1833

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, "Provisions"

Perris 1877: Lot divided into 33 1st Avenue, completely covered by a five story building with rear wing; 35 1st Avenue with a five story building on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard

 Bromley 1891: Brick buildings completely cover 33 1st Avenue; rear of 35 1st Avenue is vacant
 Sanborn 1903: Same, stores and dwellings, "Picture frame maker" at 35 1st Avenue, one story shed along the rear lot line, yard in between; "Drugs" at 33 1st Avenue
 Sanborn 1920: Same, only "Drugs" labeled.
 Sanborn 1951: One story buildings on the lot.
 Sanborn 2005: one story building at 35 1st Avenue; 2 story at 33 1st Avenue

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

.....

BLOCK 445, lots 3, 16, 17, 33

Bounded by East 4th Street (N) First Avenue (E), East 3rd Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 37
 Perris 1868, pl. 37
 Perris 1877, pl. 37
 Robinson 1884, pl. 19
 Bromley 1891, pl. 11
 Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 10A

Lot 3

Site No.: E-297
 Lot Size: 21 X 100 ft.
 Current use: Five story building
 Addresses: 58 2nd Avenue
 First tax ass.: Charles B. White, 1845
 Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
 Perris 1868: Same, four stories
 Perris 1877: Same
 Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same
 Sanborn 1951: Five story store and dwelling on the front of the lot
 "upholst'g", one story rear wing half the lot width, extending to the rear lot line along the south lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 16

Site No.: 272
 Lot Size: 18.75 X 96.17 ft.
 Current use: Three story building
 Addresses: 100 East 4th Street (1868); 450 East 4th Street (1853)
 First tax ass.: Fisher & Bird, 1848

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same with a one store rear wing with basement
Sanborn 1920: Same, "Club"
Sanborn 1951: Same, "Synagogue"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy and a Jewish ritual bath

Lot 17

Site No.: E-299
Lot Size: 18.75 X 96.17 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 102 East 4th Street; (1868); 452 East 4th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Fisher & Bird, 1848
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same with a one store rear wing with basement
Sanborn 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same, but four stories and a large two story rear addition

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 33

Site No.: E-301
Lot Size: 24 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 57 1st Avenue
First tax ass.: George Campbell, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Narrow brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Two story brick building on the north half of the lot, frame building at the rear of the lot, vacant area along most of the south lot line
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy and cistern

.....

BLOCK 446, lot 6

Bounded by East 5th Street (N) First Avenue (E), East 4th Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 37
Perris 1868, pl. 37
Perris 1877, pl. 37
Robinson 1884, pl. 19
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 10A

Lot 6

Site No.: E-312
Lot Size: 24 X 100 ft.
Current use: Four and a half story
Addresses: 82 2nd Avenue; 80 2nd Avenue (1868 only)
First tax ass.: Eliza Peck, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, "club"
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, no label

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

BLOCK 447, lot 19

Bounded by East 6th Street (N) First Avenue (E), East 5th Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl.

Lot 19

Site No.: E-317
Lot Size: 25 X 97 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 326 East 6th Street; 53 East 6th Street
First tax ass.: Stephen Whitney, five stories, 25 X 54 ft., 1862
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot marked for hazard, rear yard
Perris 1877, Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, with one story rear addition on the east side of the rear of the building, one story sheds along the south and west lot lines

Sanborn 1951, 2005: Same, shed along the south lot line only

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

.....

BLOCK 448, lots 16, 18, 31, 40, 47, 49

Bounded by East 7th Street (N) First Avenue (E), East 6th Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40

Perris 1868, pl. 40

Perris 1877, pl. 40

Bromley 1891, pl. 11

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 19

Lot 16

Site No.: E-323

Lot Size: 25 X 90.83 ft.

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 64 East 7th Street

First tax ass.: W.W. Johnson 1836-1837

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, three stories

Perris 1877: Same

Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same with frame rear addition, stories not indicated; dwelling and "Rectory"

Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, store and dwelling, no other label

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 18

Site No.: 273

Lot Size: 25 X 90.83 ft.

Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 68 East 7th Street

First tax ass.: Henry P. Robertson, 1836

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, three stories

Perris 1877: Same

Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same with one story rear addition, "Mission"

Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, "Hebrew School"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 31

Site No.: E-325
Lot Size: 22.08 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 105 1st Avenue (1868); 99 1st Avenue
First tax ass.: Jacob Ramsay, 1851
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot,
rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, with a two story addition at the rear, yard Sanborn 1951, 2005: Same, with a second two story addition covering the yard

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 40

Site No.: E-328
Lot Size: 25 X 90.83 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 331 East 6th Street (1868); 40 East 6th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: John Hoch, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard, no house no.
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Small brick wing added to the east half of the rear of the building
Bromley 1891: Second small wing, frame added the west half of the rear of the building
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 47

Site No.: E-331
Lot Size: 20 X 81.75 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 317 East 6th Street
First tax ass.: Thomas Sperlings, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard, no house no.
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 49

Site No.: E-333
 Lot Size: 20.5 X 81.75 ft.
 Current use: Three story building
 Addresses: 313 East 6th Street
 First tax ass.: Samuel Clark, 1853
 Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard, no house no.
 Perris 1868: Same, three stories
 Perris 1877: Same
 Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
 Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

BLOCK 449, 12, 13, 14, 23, 24, 28, 40, 41, 42, 46, 53

Bounded by St. Mark's Place (N) 1st Avenue (E), East 7th Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
 Perris 1868, pl. 40
 Perris 1877, pl. 40
 Robinson 1884, pl. 22
 Bromley 1891, pl. 11
 Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 19

Lot 12

Site No.: E-339
 Lot Size: 25 X 97.6 ft.
 Current use: Five story building
 Addresses: 46 St. Mark's Place
 First tax ass.: Charles Easton, unfinished 1850
 Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
 Perris 1868: Same, four stories
 Perris 1877: Same with shallow three story wing added at the rear on the east half of the building, shallow yard remaining
 Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
 Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling
 Sanborn 1951: Same "Apt's"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 13

Site No.: E-340
 Lot Size: 25 X 97.6 ft.
 Current use: Four story building
 Addresses: 48 St. Mark's Place
 First tax ass.: Charles Easton, 1841

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, three story rear wing
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, "German M.E. Church" 1st floor, dwellings 2nd to 4th floors

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 14

Site No.: E-341
Lot Size: 25 X 97.6 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 50 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: T.F. Secor, 1850
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, shallow two story rear wing
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: no rear wing shown
Sanborn 1903: Same, very small one story addition at the rear on the west half of the building, dwelling
Sanborn 1920: Same, store and dwelling
Sanborn 1951: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 23

Site No.: E-342
Lot Size: 25 X 97.6 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 68 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: Howes (sp?), 1850
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, shallow two story rear wing
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same? Rear wing not indicated
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Four story dwelling, no rear wing shown Sanborn 1951: Same with a rear addition, one story with basement, half the lot width on the east side of the back of the building,

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 24

Site No.: E-343
Lot Size: 25 X 97.6 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 70 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: Joseph R. Stuyvesant, unfinished, 1847
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories, shallow two story rear wing
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same? No rear wing shown
1891 Bromley: Small rear wing, extends most of the lot width
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling (1920 – store and dwelling)

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 28

Site No.: E-344
Lot Size: 25 X 97.6 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 78 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: William Bollman, 1845 (formerly John R. Stuyvesant)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, shallow two story rear wing
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same with one story rear addition that completely covers the former yard
Sanborn 2005: Same, "Theatre"

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 40

Site No.: E-347
Lot Size: 25 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 83 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: Robert Bent 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Four story brick building set back from the lot line, longer than the earlier building, rear yard
Robinson 1884: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling
Sanborn 1951: Same, "Apt's"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 41

Site No.: E-348
Lot Size: 25 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 81 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: J.S. Steward, 1842-1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, narrow rear wing, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories

Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, four stories, dwelling
Sanborn 1951: Same, store and dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 42

Site No.: E-349
Lot Size: 25 X 97.6 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 79 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: Sparrow, 1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, shallow two story rear wing
Perris 1877: Same, larger three story rear wing
Bromley 1891: Same but with rear wing slightly narrower than the lot width
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling
Sanborn 1951: Same, store and dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 46

Site No.: E-350
Lot Size: 25 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 71 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: Andrew Brady, 1842-1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, extends almost to the rear lot line on the east half of the lot, shallow frame building along the rear lot line, vacant L-shaped area
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the lot line covers about two-thirds of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 53

Site No.: E-353
Lot Size: 25 X 97.5 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 57 East 7th Street
First tax ass.: Mary E. Rever, 4 story, 25 X 56 ft., 1861
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same

Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, with very small one story chamber against the west corner of the rear of the building

Sanborn 1920: Same, "Orphan Asylum"

Sanborn 1951: Same, "Apt's"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

BLOCK 450, lots 10, 23, 24, 30, 31, 36, 37, 38, 39, 43, 45, 48, 50

Bounded by East 9th Street (N) 1st Avenue (E), St. Mark's Place (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1853 pl. 40

Perris 1868, pl. 40

Perris 1877, pl. 40

Robinson 1884, pl. 22

Bromley 1891, pl. 11

Hyde 1913, pl. 25

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 19

Lot 10

Site No.: E-359

Lot Size: 25 X 80.5 ft.

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 310 East 9th Street

First tax ass.: William Sackett, 1845

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: Vacant

Perris 1877: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 23

Site No.: 147

Lot Size: 25 X 85 ft.

Current use: One story building

Addresses: 338 East 9th Street (1868); 237 East 9th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Davis, 1849/1850

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: Two story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Five story brick building front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, small one story shed in the southeast corner of the yard

Sanborn 1920: Same, "Metal Worker" basement

Sanborn 1951: Vacant except for the small shed in the southeast corner of the yard

Sanborn 2005: one story building covers the lot

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 24

Site No.: E-360
Lot Size: 25 X 93.92 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 340 East 9th Street (1868); 239 East 9th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Jonathan Hunt, 1849/1850
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard, frame building along the rear lot line
Perris 1868: Same, five stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, narrow one story sheds along parts of the east and south lot lines
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling, but with a five story rear addition in the center of the building; no shed at the south end of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 30

Site No.: E-361
Lot Size: 23.42 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 143 1st Avenue (1877); 133 1st Avenue (1853)
First tax ass.: Untraceable
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, five stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, one story shed on the south lot line, "Tin Roofer bst, Chinese Laundry 1st"
Sanborn 1920: Same, "B. Tin Roofer"
Sanborn 1951: Same, one shed in the southwest corner of the lot, no labels
Sanborn 2005: Same, no sheds

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 31

Site No.: E-362
Lot Size: 23.42 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 141 1st Avenue (1877)
First tax ass.: Untraceable
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant, "Coal Yard"

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, store and dwelling, long one story shed along the south lot line in the yard
Sanborn 1951: Same, with a shorter shed on the south lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 36

Site No.: E-364
Lot Size: 25 X 93.11 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 77 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: William W. Campbell, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building with shallow frame rear wing set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling, rear wing two stories with basement
Sanborn 1951: Same, store and dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 37

Site No.: E-365
Lot Size: 25 X 93.11 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 75 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: J.V. Snediker, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building with shallow frame rear wing set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling, rear wing is two stories with basement
Sanborn 1951: Same "club"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 38

Site No.: 275
Lot Size: 25 X 93.11 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 73 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: Peter Pinckney, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Bromley 1891: Same with a shallow frame addition at the rear
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling, rear wing is one story with Basement
Sanborn 1951: Same, store and dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 39

Site No.: E-366
Lot Size: 25 X 93.11 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 71 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: John Mortimer, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same "Office" in 1920 only

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 43

Site No.: E-367
Lot Size: 25 X 93.11 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 63 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: E. Lee, unfinished, 1846
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, shallow frame two story rear wing
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same
Sanborn 2005: Same footprint, five and six stories, shallow rear wing is five stories,

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 45

Site No.: E-369
Lot Size: 25 X 93.11 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 59 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: Joseph R. Stuyvesant, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot with a shallow rear wing a little narrower than the lot width, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, one story rear wing

Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same, but the rear wing is not shown
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, (no rear wing), small shed in 1920 and 2005 in the northwest corner of the lot; "Club Bst" in 1951.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 48

Site No.: E-371
Lot Size: 25 X 93.11 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 53 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: Daring Davidson, unfinished, 1850; J.H.D. David, 1851
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, shallow three story rear wing
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same, but no rear wing indicated
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, four story dwelling
Sanborn 1951, 2005: Same footprint, five stories

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 50

Site No.: E-372
Lot Size: 25 X 93.11 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 49 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: Andrew M. [?] 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, shallow two story rear wing
Perris 1877: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot covers about three quarters of the lot, rear yard
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same
Sanborn 1951: Same footprint in the front, raised to five stories, two-story wing added at the rear leaving only a very shallow yard.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

.....

BLOCK 451, lots 15, 22, 24, 46, 47, 48

Bounded by East 10th Street (N) 1st Avenue (E), East 9th Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Robinson 1884, pl. 22
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 19

Lot 15

Site No.: E-376
Lot Size: 25 X 92.25 ft.
Current use: Four floor building
Addresses: 208 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: Samuel Sherwood, 1842/1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same, four stories
Robinson 1884: Same
Bromley 1891: Same with shallow frame wing at the rear
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 22

Site No.: E-378
Lot Size: 25 X 92.25 ft.
Current use: Five floor building
Addresses: 222 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: Bogart & Kneeland Trustee, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, shallow two story rear wing
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, "Club 1st"
Sanborn 1951, 2005: Five story building, "Apt's"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 24

Site No.: E-379
Lot Size: 25 X 92.25 ft.
Current use: Four floor building
Addresses: 226 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: (S & C?) Chamberlain, 1842/1843
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow two story rear wing
Perris 1877: Four story brick building, slightly longer than earlier

building, no rear wing
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 46

Site No.: E-383
Lot Size: 25 X 92.25 ft.
Current use: Five floor building
Addresses: 331 East 9th Street; 236 East 9th Street
First tax ass.: John Hodgkin, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Bromley 1891: Five story building on two-thirds of the lot
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling, plus a one story shed on the north lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lots 47 and 48

Site No.: 148
Lot Size: 16 X 92.25 ft. (47), 20 X 92.25 ft. (48)
Current use: Four floor building on the front of 329 East 9th Street; vacant at 327 East 9th Street
Addresses: 329 East 9th Street; 329 and 327 East 9th Street
First tax ass.: Rachel Leavenworth – sold to William Knight, 1855
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant
Perris 1868: Two story brick building on the front of the lot marked hazard, frame building on the rear of the lot, narrow vacant area in between
Perris 1877: Four story brick buildings on the front of the lot, rear yard
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling
Sanborn 1951: Same at 329 East 9th St.; vacant at 327 East 9th St.

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of privies

.....

BLOCK 452, lots 20, 44

Bounded by East 11th Street (N) 1st Avenue (E), East 10th Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Robinson 1884, pl. 22
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, pl. 27

Lot 20

Site No.: 149
Lot Size: 25 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Vacant
Addresses: 324 East 11th Street (1868); 93 East 11th Street
First tax ass.: John Peterskin, 1849-1850
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, "Summer Garden" in the yard, enclosed within a frame structure, one story shed along most of the south lot line
Sanborn 1920: Same, but the garden extends to the rear lot line; old shed on the south lot line removed; new shed on the east lot line
Sanborn 1951: Vacant

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern

Lot 44

Site No.: E-389
Lot Size: 50 X 94.75 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 225 East 10th Street; 225 and 227 East 10th Street
First tax ass.: 225 East 10th Street - Robert L. Reade, 1846; 227 East 10th Street - Clotilda Smith sold to Robert Lane, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick buildings set back from the front of the lots, rear yards
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, shallow rear wings
Perris 1877: Same, deeper three story rear wing on 225 East 10th Street; two story rear wing on 227 East 10th Street
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, 227 East 10th Street is a dwelling; 225 East 10th Street, a store and dwelling; 1920, 1951: both labeled store & dwelling
Sanborn 2005: New five story building, rear yard

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

.....

BLOCK 453, lots 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 10, 11, 61

Bounded by East 12th Street (N) 1st Avenue (E), East 11th Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Dripps 1852
Perris 1859 pl. 40
Perris 1868, pl. 40
Perris 1877, pl. 40
Robinson 1884, pl. 22
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 27

Lot 2

Site No.: E-390
Lot Size: 25.83 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five floor building
Addresses: 176 2nd Avenue
First tax ass.: Edmund Gale, 1849-1850
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot, shallow two story rear wing, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same but with a narrow rear wing on the south side of the back of the building
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, rear wing is three stories, dwelling; store and dwelling in 1920, 1951
Sanborn 2005: Same, with a two-story addition at the front of the building
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy

Lot 3

Site No.: E-391
Lot Size: 25.83 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five floor building
Addresses: 178 2nd Avenue
First tax ass.: Samuel Salmond, 1849-1850
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot, shallow two story rear wing, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same with one story addition at the rear that completely covers the former yard
Sanborn 2005: Same, with a two-story addition at the front of the building
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains

Lot 4

Site No.: E-392
Lot Size: 25.83 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five floor building
Addresses: 180 2nd Avenue
First tax ass.: Samuel Salmond, 1849-1850
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot, shallow two story rear wing, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Building is blacked in
Sanborn 2005: Same footprint, five stories, no rear wing, vacant yard
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 5

Site No.: E-22
Lot Size: 20.83 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five floor building
Addresses: 182 2nd Avenue
First tax ass.: Stephen Hyatt 1849-1850
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot, shallow two story rear wing, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Four story dwelling without the two story rear wing but same size, extended by addition of new one story, shallow rear wing
Sanborn 1951: Same without the one story rear wing
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy

Lot 6

Site No.: E-393
Lot Size: 20.67 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five floor building
Addresses: 184 2nd Avenue
First tax ass.: Abram Vorhees, 1849-1850
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot, shallow two story rear wing, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 7

Site No.: E-394

Lot Size: 20.67 X 100 ft.

Current use: Four floor building

Addresses: 186 2nd Avenue

First tax ass.: Richard Stillwell, 1849-1850

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot, shallow two story rear wing, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same with long four story rear wing replacing the two story one, extends to about 11 ft. from the east (rear) lot line

Sanborn 2005: Same, plus the side of the building at 302 East 12th Street overlaps the rear of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains

Lot 10

Site No.: E-395

Lot Size: 21.92 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Five floor building

Addresses: 302 East 12th Street

First tax ass.: James Mulry, 1866, house length 60 ft.

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on the front four-fifths of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same with a frame building at the rear of the lot, behind (east) of 182 2nd Avenue

Sanborn 1903: Same front building, dwelling, no buildings in the rear

Sanborn 1920: Same, with a rear extension along the east lot line

Sanborn 1951: Same, store and dwelling, extension is one story

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy

Lot 11 This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains; for cisterns and privies see following:

Site No.: E-396

Lot Size: 171.5 X 206.5 ft.

Current use: Two five story buildings on the lot, East 12th Street building built 1940, East 11th Street building built 1940, yard in the center of the block

Old Address: 304 East 12th Street

Old lot size: 25 X 193 ft.

First tax ass.: James Mulry, 1866, house length 60 ft.

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same, lot slightly lengthened, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west along the lot line

Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Old Address: 306 East 12th Street

Old lot size: 25 X 193 ft.

First tax ass.: James Mulry, 1866, house length 60 ft.

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same, lot slightly lengthened, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west along the lot line

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Old Address: 308 East 12th Street

Old lot size: 25 X 193 ft.

First tax ass.: James Mulry, 1866, house length 60 ft.

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same, lot slightly lengthened, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west along the lot line

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for

remains of a privy

Old Address: 310 East 12th Street

Old lot size: 25 X 193 ft.

First tax ass.: James Mulry, 1867, house length 60 ft.

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot,
rear yard

Perris 1877: Same, lot slightly lengthened, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west
along the lot line

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, area formerly occupied by the frame building
extending behind 310 to 314 East 12th Street occupied by the two-story "Dry Room" of the "Segar Box Factory" on
lot 61

Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling; Dry room is now "Stge Push Carts"

Sanborn 2005: Part of an apartment complex; rear yard; same
"Stge Push Carts" building

Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Old Address: 312 East 12th Street

Old lot size: 32 X 103 ft.

First tax ass.: James Mulry, 1867, house length 60 ft.

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot,
rear yard

Perris 1877: Same, lot slightly lengthened, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west
along the lot line

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, area formerly occupied by the frame building
extending behind 310 to 314 East 12th Street occupied by the two-story "Dry Room" of the "Segar Box Factory" on
lot 61

Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling; Dry room is now "Stge Push Carts"

Sanborn 2005: Part of an apartment complex; rear yard; same
"Stge Push Carts" building

Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Old Address: 314 East 12th Street

Old lot size: 32 X 103 ft.

First tax ass.: James Mulry, 1867, house length 60 ft.
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant
Perris 1868: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same, lot slightly lengthened, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west along the lot line
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, area formerly occupied by the frame building extending behind 310 to 314 East 12th Street occupied by the two-story "Dry Room" of the "Segar Box Factory" on lot 61
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling; Dry room is now "Stge Push Carts"
Sanborn 2005: Part of an apartment complex, rear yard; same "Stge Push Carts" building
Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Old Address: 316 East 12th Street

Old lot size: 17 X 103 ft.

First tax ass.: James Mulry, 1867, house length 60 ft.

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same, lot slightly lengthened, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west along the lot line

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling with rear yard; corner of the lot occupied by one and two story buildings connected with the Segar Box Factory on 11th Street

Sanborn 1920: Same, but factory buildings in the triangular corner have been removed

Sanborn 2005: Part of an apartment complex, rear yard

Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Old Address: 301 East 11th Street

First tax ass.: James Mulry, five stories, 1869

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant

Perris 1868: "Lumber Yard" – small one story frame buildings on the front of the lot and west and north lot lines, rest vacant

Perris 1877: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear yard, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west along the lot line

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, small one story building in the northeast corner of the lot, "Wagon Yard" in the center of the block
Sanborn 1920: Same, no back building, "Scrap Iron Yard" in the center of the block
Sanborn 1951, 2005: Part of an apartment complex, rear yard
Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Old Address: 303 East 11th Street
First tax ass.: James Mulry, five stories, 1869
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant
Perris 1868: "Lumber Yard", small one story building on the front of the lot, frame building along the north lot line, rest vacant
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear yard, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west along the lot line
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, small one story building in the northwest corner of the lot, "Wagon Yard" in the center of the block
Sanborn 1920: Same, no back building, "Scrap Iron Yard" in the center of the block
Sanborn 1951, 2005: Part of an apartment complex, rear yard
Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Old Address: 305 East 11th Street
First tax ass.: James Mulry, five stories, 1869
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant
Perris 1868: Two small two story frame buildings on the front of the lot, frame building on the north lot line
Perris 1877: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear yard, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west along the lot line
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, small one story building in the northeast corner of the lot, "Wagon Yard" in the center of the block
Sanborn 1920: Same, no back building, "Scrap Iron Yard" in the center of the block
Sanborn 1951, 2005: Part of an apartment complex, rear yard
Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Old Address: 307 East 11th Street

First tax ass.: James Mulry, five stories, 1869

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Tip of a triangular frame building marked hazard extends over the front of the lot, part of the “Mineral Water Factory on the eastern part of the block

Perris 1868: Small two story frame building on the front of the lot, rest vacant

Perris 1877: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear yard, one story frame building marked hazard south of the yard running east-west along the lot line

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, store and dwelling, “Chinese Laundry”, small one story building in the northwest corner of the lot, “Wagon Yard” in the center of the block

Sanborn 1920: Same, store and dwelling, no back building, “Scrap Iron Yard” in the center of the block

Sanborn 1951, 2005: Part of an apartment complex, rear yard

Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Old Address: 309 East 11th Street

First tax ass.: James Mulry, five stories, 1869

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Part of a triangular frame building marked hazard extends over the front of the lot, part of the “Mineral Water Factory on the eastern part of the block

Perris 1868: Two and one story frame building marked hazard extending to the middle of the block, narrow strip along the west lot line vacant

Perris 1877: Five story brick building on three-quarters of the lot, rear yard

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, small one story building in the northwest corner of the lot, one story “Wagon Repair” in the center of the block (formerly the rear of this lot)

Sanborn 1920: Same, store and dwelling, no back building, “Scrap Iron Yard” in the center of the block

Sanborn 1951, 2005: Part of an apartment complex, rear yard

Conclusion: This part of lot 11 is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as remains of a privy

Lot 61

Site No.: E-397
Lot Size: 81.33 X 103.25 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 311 East 11th Street
Perris 1853: Mostly vacant, part of “Mineral Water Factory” building
Robinson 1884: Brick building completely covers the lot
Sanborn 1903: “Segar Box Factory and Segar Box Lumber” building completely covers the lot, three stories
Sanborn 1920, 1951: Three story garage covers the lot
Sanborn 2005: Same, “A & Furne st’ge”

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains, as well as historic remains

.....

BLOCK 454, lot 39

Bounded by East 13th Street (N) 1st Avenue (E), East 12th Street (S) and 2nd Avenue (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 43
Perris 1868, pl. 43
Perris 1877, pl. 43
Robinson 1884, pl. 22
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 27

Lot 39

Site No.: E-399
Lot Size: 19.92 X 86 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 209 1st Avenue (1877); 199 1st Avenue (1853)
First tax ass.: C. Dubois, 1851/1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories
Perris 1877: Same, marked hazard
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1902: Same, store and dwelling, “Confectioner”
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, one story shed along the west lot line

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

.....

BLOCK 457, lots 29, 32, 33

Bounded by East 2nd Street (N) 2nd Avenue (E), East 1st Street (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 37
Perris 1868, pl. 37
Perris 1877, pl. 37
Robinson 1884, pl. 19
Bromley 1891, pl. 8
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 9

Lot 29

Site No.: 207
Lot Size: 59.5 X 89 ft.
Current use: Three story building, completely covers the lot (Sanborn 2005)
Addresses: 31 2nd Avenue
Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 32

Site No.: 208
Lot Size: 16.5 X 70 ft.
Current use: Four floor building with basement on the front of the lot with a two story extension at the rear (Sanborn 2005)
Addresses: 29 2nd Avenue
Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains

Lot 33

Site No.: 58
Lot Size: 50.08 X 70 ft.
Current use: Two story building with basement, built 1920, completely covers the lot
Addresses: 23 2nd Avenue
Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for human remains

BLOCK 458, lots 22, 23, 24, 25, 35, 42, 43, 44, 45, 47

Bounded by East 3rd Street (N) 2nd Avenue (E), East 2nd Street (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 37
Perris 1868, pl. 37
Perris 1877, pl. 37
Robinson 1884, pl. 19
Bromley 1891, pl. 8
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 9

Lot 22

Site No.: E-405
Lot Size: 23 X 59.25 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 30 East 3rd Street
First tax ass.: Hubbard & Casey, 1836
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling, one story addition at the rear on the west lot line extends to the rear of the lot, frame addition across the rest of the rear of the building
Sanborn 1951: Same with a three story addition at the rear on the east lot line extending to the rear of the lot, "Mach Shop B."

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 23

Site No.: 209
Lot Size: 23 X 57.33 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 32 East 3rd Street
First tax ass.: Hubbard & Casey, 1836
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 24

Site No.: 210
Lot Size: 23 X 57.33 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 34 East 3rd Street
First tax ass.: Hubbard & Casey, 1836

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling, frame addition across the rear of the building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 25

Site No.: 211
Lot Size: 23 X 57.33 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 36 East 3rd Street
First tax ass.: Hubbard & Casey, 1836
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling, one story addition at the rear on the west lot line extends to the rear of the lot, frame addition across the rest of the rear of the building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 35

Site No.: 212
Lot Size: 20.08 X 78
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 28 East 2nd Street
First tax ass.: E.H. Wentworth, 26 East 2nd Street, 1836
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Bromley 1891: Same with a brick addition on the east half and a frame addition on the west half
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, but three stories

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 42

Site No.: E-406
Lot Size: 25 X 66.5 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 14 East 2nd Street; 12 East 2nd Street (1868, 1877 – misnumbered)
First tax ass.: H.M. Griffin or H & H Griffin (?) 1837
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, brick wing at the rear on the west half of the building

Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Bromley 1891: Same but with a brick addition on the east half of the rear of the building only
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, but three stories; one story addition with basement on the west, three story addition with basement on the east at the rear of the building

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 43

Site No.: 150
Lot Size: 24.92 X 65.67 ft.
Current use: Two story building
Addresses: 12 East 2nd Street, 10 East 2nd Street (1868, 1877 – misnumbered)
First tax ass.: H.M. Griffin or H & H Griffin (?) 1836
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot brick and frame rear wings, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same
Bromley 1891: Same but with a brick addition on the east half of the rear of the building only
Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, three stories, one story addition with basement on the west, three story addition with basement on the east at the rear of the building
Sanborn 1920: Same front building, rear wings replaced by a deep two story extension that completely covers the lot
Sanborn 1951, 2005: Two story store and dwelling with a shallow one story rear wing covers the entire lot area

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 44

Site No.: 277
Lot Size: 25 X 64.83 ft.
Current use: Two and a half story building
Addresses: 10 East 2nd Street
First tax ass.: Thomas Wagon, 1836
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building marked hazard on the rear two-thirds of the lot, front vacant
Perris 1868: Same, two stories, with a narrow frame building on the west lot line at the front of the lot
Perris 1877: Same with one story frame wings completely covering the front of the lot
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Brick building completely covers the lot
Sanborn 1903: Same, two stories “Boarding”

Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, 1951: "W. Ho."

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 45

Site No.: E-407

Lot Size: 25 X 63.75 ft.

Current use: Four story building on the front of the lot, one story wing at the rear, completely cover the lot (Sanborn 2005)

Addresses: 8 East 2nd Street

First tax ass.: Samuel Nealy (?) 1836

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building marked hazard on the front three-quarters of the lot, rear yard.

Perris 1868: Same

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884: Same

Bromley 1891: Same with rear frame addition, lot completely covered

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951. 2005: Same, four stories with shallow one story addition at the rear, lot completely covered, "Ironworker B.q Bar Fixtures 2.3. Picture Frames 4"

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for a cistern or privy

Lot 47

Site No.: E-408

Lot Size: 20.33 X 66.33 ft.

Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 4 East 2nd Street

First tax ass.: Samuel Ward, 1835

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, three stories

Perris 1877: Same, shallow frame addition at the rear

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same, but no rear wing shown

Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling, with rear frame wing

Sanborn 1920: Same, store and dwelling

Sanborn 1951, 2005: Same with long one story rear wing with basement covering all but about 5 feet at the rear of the lot

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

BLOCK 460, lots 23, 26, 27, 28, 32, 33

Bounded by East 5th Street (N) 2nd Avenue (E), East 4th Street (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 37
Perris 1868, pl. 37
Perris 1877, pl. 37
Robinson 1884, pl. 19
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 9

Lot 23

Site No.: 278
Lot Size: 20 X 80.67 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 224 and 226 East 5th Street, 25 and 27 East 5th Street (1853);
First tax ass.: 224 East 5th Street – Anson G. Phelps, 1845
224 East 5th Street - Anson G. Phelps, 1845
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick buildings set back from the street on the front half of the lot, rear yards
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow frame additions at the rear
Perris 1877: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwellings, one story wing at the rear with basement; 1951- 224 East 5th St.: “Meeting Place”, 2005: “Meeting Room”
Sanborn 2005: Same, but no back wing on 226 East 5th Street

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 26

Site No.: 280
Lot Size: 21 X 92.33 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 230 East 5th Street, 31 East 5th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: A.G. Phelps, 1833
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow frame addition at the rear
Perris 1877: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling, one story wing at the rear with basement

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 27

Site No.: E-414
Lot Size: 21 X 96.17 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 232 East 5th Street, 33 East 5th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Anson G. Phelps, 1831
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow frame addition at the rear
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same but without the frame rear wing
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: New, longer building, four stories, dwelling “Gold Beater”; 1920-no label; 1951-“Off B.”

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 28

Site No.: E-415
Lot Size: 21 X 96.17 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 234 East 5th Street, 33 East 5th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Anson G. Phelps, 1831
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow frame addition at the rear
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same but without the frame rear wing
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: New, longer building, four stories, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 32

Site No.: E-416
Lot Size: 20 X 80.83 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 242 East 5th Street, 43 East 5th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: A.G. Phelps, 1831
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow frame addition at the rear
Perris 1877: Same
Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same footprint but four stories, dwelling, new rear wing half the lot width on the east lot line, one story with basement

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 33

Site No.: E-417
Lot Size: 20 X 80.67 ft.
Current use: Three story building
Addresses: 244 East 5th Street, 43 East 5th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Joseph McKeen, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow brick addition at the rear
Perris 1877: Same
Sanborn 1903: Same footprint but four stories, dwelling, new rear wing half the lot width on the west lot line, one story with basement
Sanborn 1920, 2005: Same but rear wing extends entire lot width, one story with basement (Sanborn 1951 blacked out)

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

BLOCK 461, lot 33

Bounded by East 6th Street (N) 2nd Avenue (E), East 5th Street (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 41
Perris 1868, pl. 41
Perris 1877, pl. 41
Robinson 1884, pl. 19
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 18

Lot 33

Site No.: E-427
Lot Size: 24.25 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 91 2nd Avenue
First tax ass.: Frederick Creighton, 91 2nd Avenue, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot, shallow frame wing at the rear, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Larger brick building on the front of the Lot
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Four story dwelling with four story rear wing on two-thirds of the lot; 1920-store and dwelling
Sanborn 1951: Same, with new four story and one story rear wings covering most of the rear of the lot
Sanborn 2005: Five story main building, one story rear wings completely cover the yard

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for a cistern or privy

BLOCK 463, lots 18, 23

Bounded by St. Mark's Place (N) 2nd Avenue (E), East 7th Street (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 41
Perris 1868, pl. 41
Perris 1877, pl. 41
Robinson 1884, pl. 22
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 18

Lot 18

Site No.: E-432
Lot Size: 26 X 120 ft.
Current use: Four story building on the front of the lot, three story wing behind it, rear yard (Sanborn 2005)
Addresses: 18 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: Hugh Maxwell, 1832
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow frame and brick additions at the rear
Perris 1877: Same, with frame and brick wings that completely cover the lot, part of the "Tivoli Varieties Theatre & c."
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Brick building on approximately 70% of the lot, rear yard
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, four stories, store and dwelling, three story rear wing

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 23

Site No.: E-433
Lot Size: 26 X 120 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 28 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: M. Henniquer (?), 1832
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories, shallow frame and brick additions at the rear
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same, shallow brick addition on the west side of the rear of the building
Bromley 1891: Same, with additional frame wing on the east side of the rear of the building
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, four story store and dwelling, rear wings two stories, west, one story, east

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

BLOCK 464, lots 31, 43, 44

Bounded by East 9th Street (N) 2nd Avenue (E), St. Mark's Place (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 41
Perris 1868, pl. 41
Perris 1877, pl. 41
Robinson 1884, pl. 22
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 18

Lot 31

Site No.: 279
Lot Size: 10 X 56 ft,
Current use: Vacant
Addresses: 236 East 9th Street (1877); yard of 205-207 East 9th Street (1853, 1868),
First tax ass.: Probably one of the stables listed at this end of the block in 1833, Luis Morris (?)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant courtyard surrounded by a U-shaped building marked hazard at 205-207 East 9th Street (modern 234-238 East 9th Street)
Perris 1868: Same
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884: Same, small brick building in the northeast corner of the lot; surrounding brick buildings are stables
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same; 1920-surrounded by "Auto Repair" shops; brick building in the northeast corner is one story

Conclusion: This lot is not archaeologically sensitive for historic remains

Lot 43

Site No.: E-444
Lot Size: 26 X 112.83 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 33 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: J.E. Davis, 1833 (or 1832)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street, deep rear wing, covers about three-quarters of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, two stories
Perris 1877: Five story brick building set back from the front of the lot covers slightly more than half the lot
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, store and dwelling, but with narrow two rear extensions on the east and west lot lines, a one story brick building on the back of the lot, and one story shed on the east lot line in between

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 44

Site No.: E-445
Lot Size: 26 X 112.83 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 31 St. Mark's Place
First tax ass.: J.E. Davis, 1833 (or 1832)
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the street on the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, three stories main wing, two stories narrower rear wing
Perris 1877: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot covers about seven-tenths of the lot
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

.....

BLOCK 465, lot 48

Bounded by East 10th Street (N) 2nd Avenue (E), East 9th Street (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 41
Perris 1868, pl. 41
Perris 1877, pl. 41
Robinson 1884, pl. 22
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 18

Lot 48 – Site E-488

Site No.: E-448
Lot Size: 22.5 X 100 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 157 2nd Avenue, 153 2nd Avenue (1868), 155 2nd Avenue (1877, 1884)
First tax ass.: C.O. Halsted, 22.5 X 54 ft., four stories, 1858
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant (no address)
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the street on the front three-fifths of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling
Sanborn 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, store and dwelling, two story wing added at the front

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

.....

BLOCK 466, lots 12, 14, 15, 20

Bounded by East 11th Street (N) 2nd Avenue (E), East 10th Street (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 41
Perris 1868, pl. 41
Perris 1877, pl. 41
Robinson 1884, pl. 22
Bromley 1891, pl. 11
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 26

Lot 12

Site No.: 153
Lot Size: 36 X 95 ft.
Current use: One story Ukrainian Orthodox Church on the front of the lot, built 1949, one story extension at the rear, completely covers the lot
Addresses: 206 East 11th Street
First tax ass.: Welch (sic, later “Welsh”), Presbyterian church, 36 ft. deep, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: “Congregational Church”, brick building set back from the Street

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for human remains

Lot 14

Site No.: E-449
Lot Size: 18 X 95 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 210 East 11th Street (1877), 35 East 11th Street (1868)
First tax ass.: Augustus Ward, 1855, sold to B. Blanco
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant (no address)
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the street on the front three-fifths of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 15

Site No.: E-450
Lot Size: 18 X 95 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 212 East 11th Street
First tax ass.: Augustus Ward, 1855, sold to B. Blanco
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the street on the front three-fifths of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 20

Site No.: E-451

Lot Size: 21.5 X 95 ft.

Current use: Four story building
the rear, rear yard (Sanborn 2005)

Addresses: 222 East 11th Street (1877); 47 East 12th Street (1853, 1868)

First tax ass.: Washington King, 1845 (formerly Stuyvesant)

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, shallow frame rear wing, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories, with large brick rear wing

Perris 1877: Same, rear wing two stories

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

.....

BLOCK 467, lots 16, 17, 18, 20, 21, 49, 50

Bounded by East 12th Street (N) 2nd Avenue (E), East 11th Street (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 44

Perris 1868, pl. 44

Perris 1877, pl. 44

Robinson 1884, pl. 22

Bromley 1891, pl. 11

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 26

Lot 16

Site No.: E-452

Lot Size: 20 X 106.5 ft.

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 214 East 12th Street

First tax ass.: John Coil, 1855

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant (no address)

Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot, covers approximately the front half of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 17

Site No.: E-453
Lot Size: 21.33 X 106.5 ft.
Current use: Five story building
Addresses: 216 East 12th Street
First tax ass.: Bogart, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant (no address)
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot covers approximately the front half of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920: Same, dwelling, 1920-“Nurses home Peoples Hospital
Sanborn 1951, 2005: Five story “Apts” on the front of the lot, same footprint

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 18

Site No.: E-454
Lot Size: 21.67 X 106.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 218 East 12th Street (1868), 282 East 12th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Polk & Chrystie, 1852
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building with rear wing set back from the front of the lot covers approximately the front three-fifths of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot covers a little more than half the lot
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling, shallow frame rear wing

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 20

Site No.: E-455
Lot Size: 22.6 X 106.5 ft.
Current use: Four story building
Addresses: 222 East 12th Street (1868), 286 East 12th Street (1853)
First tax ass.: Polk and Crystie, 1853
Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building with rear wing set back from the front of the lot covers approximately the front three-fifths of the lot, rear yard
Perris 1868: Same, four stories, two story rear wing
Perris 1877: Same
Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling, two story rear wing with basement

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 21

Site No.: E-24

Lot Size: 23.33 X 106.5 ft.

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 224 East 12th Street (1868), 288 East 12th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Jackson, 1852

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building with rear wing set back from the front of the lot covers approximately the front three-fifths of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot with two story rear wing covers about three-fifths of the lot

Perris 1877: Same

1884 Robinson, 1891 Bromley: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling, two story rear wing with basement

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 49

Site No.: E-458

Lot Size: 25 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Four story building on the front of the lot, built 1925, two story wing at the rear, narrow rear yard

Addresses: 225 East 11th Street (1868), 48 East 11th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Peter Beaden, 1853

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on a little more than the front half of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories, with small rear wing on the east lot line

Perris 1877: Same, two story rear wing, partly frame

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwelling, "Mission Home for Children"

Sanborn 2005: Same with new rear wings opposite the existing ones plus a third two story rear wing, approximately 15 foot yard

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 50

Site No.: E-459

Lot Size: 25 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 221 and 223 East 11th Street (1868), 46 East 11th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Gerard Stuyvesant, 1853

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front half of the lot, approximately, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951: Same, dwellings

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of cisterns or privies

.....

BLOCK 468, lots 26, 36, 43, 44, 48, 49, 50, 51, 54

Bounded by East 13th Street (N) 2nd Avenue (E), East 12th Street (S) and Bowery (W)

Perris 1859 pl. 44

Perris 1868, pl. 44

Perris 1877, pl. 44

Robinson 1884, pl. 22

Bromley 1891, pl. 11

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005, pl. 26

Lot 26

Site No.: 282

Lot Size: 21.42 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Three story building

Addresses: 234 East 13th Street (1868), 140 East 13th Street

First tax ass.: Charles B. White, 1848

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building with rear wing set back from the front of the lot covers approximately the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, three stories

Perris 1877: Same, rear wing one story

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling, rear wing is one story with basement, 1920-store and dwelling

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 36

Site No.: E-461

Lot Size: 26.17 X 110 ft.

Current use: Five story building on the front of the lot one story wing at the rear, narrow rear yard (Sanborn 2005)

Addresses: 203 2nd Avenue (1877), 197 2nd Avenue (1868)

First tax ass.: Hamilton Fish, 25.9 X 25.9 ft., four stories, 197 2nd Avenue, 1863

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant (no address)

Perris 1868: Four story brick building set back from the front of the lot with a shallow frame addition at the rear covers about three-fifths of the lot

Perris 1877: Same, rear addition one story

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903: Same, dwelling

Sanborn 1920: Same, with a small one story building in the middle of the yard, "Peoples Hospital"

Sanborn 1951: Same, with large one story addition at the rear covering

most of the lot, yard about 15 ft. deep

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 43

Site No.: E-25

Lot Size: 20.5 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 237 East 12th Street

First tax ass.: Gerard Stuyvesant, 1855

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building on the front of the lot marked hazard, rest vacant, no address

Perris 1868: Same, frame shed in the rear, rest vacant lot,

Perris 1877: Three and two story brick building marked hazard with one story rear wings cover most of the lot, rear yard, narrow vacant strip along the west lot line

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Brick building on the front of the lot, vacant yard

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 44

Site No.: E-463

Lot Size: 24.5 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 235 East 12th Street

First tax ass.: John Cochran 1855

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Front of the lot vacant, frame building on the west half of the lot running to the rear lot line, no address

Perris 1868: Two story brick building marked hazard in the middle of the lot, rest vacant

Perris 1877: Two story brick building marked hazard on the front three-fifths of the lot

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same footprint, brick

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, five story dwelling, vacant yard

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a privy

Lot 48

Site No.: E-464

Lot Size: 25 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Four story building

Addresses: 227 East 12th Street (1868), 291 East 12th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Isaac Coles, 1852

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot covers the front two-thirds of the lot approximately, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same
Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 49

Site No.: E-465

Lot Size: 25 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 225 East 12th Street (1868), 289 East 12th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Isaac Coles, 1852

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot covers about the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 50

Site No.: E-466

Lot Size: 25 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 223 East 12th Street (1868), 287 East 12th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Isaac Coles 1852

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot covers about the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 51

Site No.: E-467

Lot Size: 25 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Five story building

Addresses: 221 East 12th Street (1868), 285 East 12th Street (1853)

First tax ass.: Isaac Coles 1852

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Brick building set back from the front of the lot covers about the front two-thirds of the lot, rear yard

Perris 1868: Same, four stories, one story brick building on the rear lot line

Perris 1877: Same

Robinson 1884, Bromley 1891: Same

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

Lot 54

Site No.: 283

Lot Size: 25 X 103.25 ft.

Current use: Four story building

Old lot: Isaac Coles 1852

Addresses: 215 East 12th Street

First tax ass.: Untraceable

Historic Maps: Perris 1853: Vacant (no address)

Perris 1868: Brick building set back from the front of the lot covers about half the lot

Perris 1877: Same

Bromley 1891: Same, with a brick rear addition on the west lot line

Sanborn 1903, 1920, 1951, 2005: Same, dwelling, rear wing three stories

Conclusion: This lot is archaeologically sensitive for remains of a cistern or privy

.....